BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

at $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

PERLINHED NEMI-WEEKLY ... Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

pra Msj. Thomas Chamberlin reached home, Monday; his wound is from a ball which passed through under a shoulder blade ... Auron Ammon arrived Tuesday; had a ball through his right forearm. The body of Lt. A. G. Tucker was buried in the Cemetery, Tuesday morning, with appropriate services... John Hauck came home last week; Fillman, Malehorn, and others, this week.

and treason reserved for the Copperheads firemen from playing on burning build-and in Lancaster, there was no trouble. ordered to assemble already.

reckiess editors, there is no trouble in car- and Postmaster, with other houses of been passed authorizing the formation of a rying out this law of Congress.

gressive and dangerous form.

no The last game of the Rebels appears to be one of "brag," and they are playing it in the most reckless manner. Their papers assert that Lee defeated the Army of the Potomac at Gettysburg, and is pursuing it toward Baltimore, and that be has taken forty thousand prisoners. They also say that Grant has been driven from Vicksburg, and Banks from Port Hudson, and that their armice have been destroyed. Other successes of less consequence are reported, and the people are "Southern Confederacy" will soon be acknowledged by the National authorities at the 26th of June, while in their company,

" Mr. Rickards haned that Lee would come into Philadelphia, and destroy it. Dr. O'Neil said he had expected the raid for some time. Mr. Fisher said that he had sent a considerable quantity of goods; that he was ashamed to go into his native State of Virginia, but that he believed he teas doing more service this way than by going into the army."

These men, of course, are Copperheadsbristle up indignantly if called opposed to the Union-and yell themselves hourse for the Constitution and M'Clelian, and damn the Abolitionists and Old Abe hundreds of lesser or greater outrages Lincoln!

Rev. H. C. Pardoe writes us from Hereford, Md., 9th inst., that he had visited Gettysburg, and bears testimony that that noble institution, the Christian Commission, bad reached the battle ground, and supplied necessaries to the suffering, before the Government had their stores there. Messrs. Robert Musser, B. F. Hursh, E. Chappell, H. Green, and Har- &c. Thus designedly exciting the ignoris, arrived with a provision train on the rant and the vicious-of whom New York

Late Rebel Losses. Within three weeks, the Union forces

| have taken or disabled Rel | els as follows |
|----------------------------|----------------|
| Meade's Army, say          | 80,000         |
| Grant's                    | 31,000         |
| Banks'                     | 10,000         |
| Roseperans'                | 4.000          |
| Sterman's                  | 2,000          |
| Total                      | 77-000         |

This will more than make up for the temporary Copperhead triumphs in New York city.

last wick, some detectors worked out, in New York city, several plans to aid the Rebels. One was by a privateer, just as they used to fit out Slavers. The detection and revelation of these plots probable ripened the plans for a mob to take the city, as Baltimore was taken in the garrison. Let us not forget the brav-April, 1861.

We are requested to say, that in consequence of the state of affairs, the Union Seminary at New Berlin is suspended until after the next anual sessions of the East and Penu's Central Conferences.

Yesterday, two wagon teams, left untied on the street, ran away up town. that we can bear of.

Gold premium, 25 ets in New York.

Copperhead Riots!!

THE COUNTER REVOLUTION AT THE NORTH.

The Rebels, and their allies, have long predicted that there would be Rebellion and Port Hudson-the danger to Charlesbe resorted to. Accordingly, last Monday morning, a concerted, pre-arranged mob Dar grand fathers in 1776, and our broke out in New York city, which was fathers in 1812, were selected to defend raging up to Wednesday evening. They the country by lot-the manner often in- first attacked the Drafting Offices and dicated in the Bible for particular occa- Headquarters, trying to kill the officers, eions. The Tories of '76, and the Feder- and gutting and burning down several than in defence of the State, and nothing alists of '12, did not seck, by ites and superior buildings, in different parts of was done. The border counties of Fulton, inuendoes, to make that service, bateful, the city. They cut telegraph wires, stopped Franklin, Adams, York and Cumberland, and odious: that was a depth of depravity railway and horse cars, and prevented sent Democratic politicians, of the sympaof our day, who have tried every means to ings. They beat all the police, killing that Pres. Lincoln was violating the Conprejudice the ignorant, the stupid, the some, and thwarting all the military at stitution in arresting suspected traitors or fearful, and the disloyal, against the law. first brought again them; but on Tuesday niders and abettors of treason; that the There is nothing unfair or dishonorable there came several forces able to stand their conscription law was unconstitutional and in being thus drawn, and there never was ground, and a dozen or twenty riptore an outrage-and various other charges, a milder or more reasonable law than were shot dead. Government officers and toryism, but are now falsely converted inur own.

"Abolitionists" were everywhere assaulted democracy. One would suppose that Rev. C. Howard Malcom is among those tod, and had to flee for their lives. Every men thus interested would exert their endrafted in Rhode Island, where over 4,000 ery colored man that could be found, and ergies to place the homes of their constitwere drawn without complaint or distur- even boys, were beaten; some were killed wouts in comparative security. But, no ance. In Pittsburg, and adjoining counties, was broken into, plundered and burned, the midst of a promising barvest, the citbarely giving the belpless children time to izons of all that region fled, their fields In Massachusetts, the drafted men are escape with what they had on. An us- were made desolate, their horses and catsault upon the "Tribuno" office was re- tie taken, and the desolation of war visited Wherever the people are loyal, and are pulsed, but the house of a cousin of Mr. upon their homes. wherever the people are loyal, and are pulsed, but the bound of the Mayor lines of the Governor, a bill would have friends of the Administration, were as- State Guard, 25,000 strong, who ought to repaid with their score and contempt. And from present appearances, these saulted, and some of them plundered. bave been drilled for at least three months, ishing up the Rebellion in its really agdressed men on the streets had money, and then furloughed home, to be ready at darkness seemed past, and we see the dressed men on the streets had money, a moment's notice; liberal pay ought to promise of the dawn of peace—not such a watches, &c., taken from their persons. The mob took one small armory, gaining portation to and from their homes paid. themselves weapons. One leader was a Such a force would have saved us from an Virginian named Andrews. The men invasion, or at least checked the Rebels in were chiefly ignorant persons, (mostly their career of plunder until an adequate the Potomac had gained at Gettysburg. Irish) who, with boys and women, yelled and made everything hideous with their insane fears and threats, saying they accomplished, had to be reserted to .- Lewould rather die at home than in the ar- wistoma timette. my. The brave Capt. O'Brien, a loyal Countrymen.

To oppose these desperadoes-a fair led to believe that the independence of the dreadful in the French Revolution—the police, the Mayor, and Generals Wool and Sanford did what they could. Five Regiments were ordered from the South. On Monday, three men were exam- The Copperhead city councils proposed to ing on a contraband trade in goods and a substitute for a draft from the city! mails with the Rebels. Mr. Shearman, a Gov. Seymour addressed his " fellow citi"Resolved, that, UNTII, the Administration said not a word against it, but discouraged ality of the Draft should be tested by State authorities. Bishop Hughes and the Catholic priests were more decided in their course. Nine out of ten of the rioters are devotees of Seymour and Hughes, but they had become so inflamed that little could be done with them-and ball and grape shot and the cold steel were finishing the work and mereifully suppressing > this miniature rebellion. WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

The bloody assault of deserter Hummel upon a U. S. Officer at New Berlin-the against enrolling officers in several of the States-and this week's wholesale destruction in New York-are all natural, legitimate fruits of Copperhead teachings. Their speakers and editors have for months denounced the Draft Act as arbitrary, unconstitutional and oppressive, and the defense of our Government as a wicked and unnecessary war for the Negro, &c. has so many-they have led to this brutal outbreak against the Union, when its arms were crowned with victory. It is designed to aid the Rebellion, of course. But we hope it will fail, and the Rebels in the South and the Rioters in the North both be brought into subjection to a just and only too-mild Government.

Port Hudson is Ours! BEFORE PORT HUDSON, )

July 8, 1863. To Gen. U. S. GRANT :

The Mississippi is now opened. I have the honor to inform you that the garrison of Port Hudson surrendered unconditionally this afternoon.

We shall take formal possession at seven o'clock in the morning. N. P. BANKS, Maj. Gen. There were said to be 8,000 Rebels in ery and long, patient endurance of the soldiers, black and white, who wrought out the reduction of this last known Rebel ny organized under Col. E. R. Mayor. stronghold in the West.

has been closed. Thanks (under God) to cry, 1 from Montour, and 1 from Union. BANKS and the Yankee boys who fought Capt. Wilson's is Co. G., 41st P. V. M .up stream, and to GRANT and his Western the Luzerne Regiment. men who fought down stream, the river is but were stopped without serious damage again to be free. Guerillas may place under Col. Wm. W. Stott, which has 5 and Baltimore.

The Invasion of Pennsylvania. invasion in the following language :

"The Militia Law of this State is greatly at the North, if necessary, to aid in de- defective, and I earnestly recommend the defeat of Lee—the capture of Vicksburg before the adjournment of the Legislature, so ton and Riebmond, looked as if "their present Sesson. In the hurry of ordinary business, the Legislature mucht not be able time was short," and something new must to give the necessary attention to the prepar-

In the Republican Scuate, a bill was reported and perhaps passed, but the House was far more interested in bounding Cameron, and passing monopoly bills, who profess to believe, and taught others, less than $20 a month-and their transforce could have been raised to drive them from the State. As it is, ordinary measures, effective only after the evil bas been 20 In the face of the above facts, we man, was bung to a lamp post by his own see Copperhead editors already beginning The speech was modest, pertinent, and to abuse Gov. Curtin for not protecting the State. In his Messages and Proclamaspecimen of the men who made Paris so tions, he did clearly foreshadow the danger, and if the Democratio leaders had not opposed, he would have had the State protected. The following is a sample of ined in Philadelphia on a charge of carry. Tax nearly Four Millions of Dullars as head) by way of protecting Pennsylvania was all understood between the Copperheads from Rebel raide :

U. S. Detective, had obtained the confidence of these men, and testifies that on coward-like telling them the constitutiondence of these men, and testifies that on coward-like telling them the constitutionand returns to a policy in the conduct of the

Was taken (in bed with a black womrecedes from its unconditional, inflammatory and despote Proclamation of Jan'y 1st, 1863, and returns to a policy in the conduct of the Monitor ship being built, was saved war, sanctioned by the Constitution, by justice, by patriotism and humanity, IT CAN BAVE NO FURTHER CLAIMS UPON the LOYAL State of Pennsylvania for MEN OR OTHER MEANS OF CARRYING ON THE WAR."

This is a mere specimen of the way the party helped to protect Pennsylvania, and to close the War !!!

10 Thou shalt not bear false witness, is a "constitutional" Commandment never repealed nor nullified except by the Rebels against the higher law for whom there is the hot place. Those professing Christianity, should especially heed it. But some of them don't. They falsely say that our telegraph operator keeps back important cordially awarded." news, when he does not. He is under no obligation whatever to give out a word but what is paid for, yet what he has given gratuitously amounts to months of time. He has the reputation of being the best and most attentive operator on the line. He appounces pews as soon as the next man-suppresses many false rumors-and gives to the public the doubtful ones. "Milton" is generally the alleged origin of bogus news by the falsifiers and faultfinders. But last Monday their spiritual land," where, it was alleged, was news of the bad defeat of our Potomac army; but miles in a few days. "Jack was keeping back the news" in the Lewisburg office. Now, as no such defeat had occurred-and as "Jack" was out of town, sick from too long and close application to the office-that was all a "lie with a circumstance." We ask those who invent or vend these slanderous reports, what object there can be in suppressing news, by those who are neither betters, speculators, nor brokers? Such surmises and evil reports barass a community-do no good-and that man or woman who wilfully or carelessly propagates them, "bears false witness" against a neighbor, and is lacking in the better qualities of head or heart.

At Reading, Capt. Wilson's compa-The Regiment has 4 companes from Lu-About two years past, the Mississippi zerne, 3 from Lebigh, 1 from Montgom-

Capt. Roush's is with the Regiment temporary obstructions, but they can not companies from Chester, 2 from Montgom-Commencement in Lewisburg, week last long. The Confederacy is divided. ery, 1 from Bucks, 1 from Lycoming, and Travel is resumed between Harrisburg 1 from Union. (This is the Chester county Reg.: we know not its number.)

Ben Rev. J. D. Beugless sends us from

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1863.

In his message to the Legislature, in Gettysburg, a half sheet of the Sentinel, January last, Gov. CURTIN called the at- the old Union paper of that now famous teution of that body to the danger of an town. The Penn. College and the Theol. Seminary of Gettysburg, both sent out their men to fight for the good cause, and stroying the U. S. Government. The submit an efficient SYSTEM, to be reported were killed, and two wounded, in the town. We copy three extracts from this ordinary first No. of the Sentinel issued since the > Great Battle ! " As the invaders approached, many of of effectual legislation on the subject, so that and other counties for safety; there they our people may be adequately protected." received the most bearty welcome, and hospitable treatment from all, with a few coppery exceptions. For this kindness, those hospitable friends have the warmest thanks of our people."

"We have talked with multitudes of the Rebel soldiers, and find very many heartily sick of the war. They acknowledge themselves badly whipped, and seem desirous of finding a quiet home beneath the protection of the stars and stripes. They declare that Gen. Lee deceived them, representing that they had nothing before them but raw militia."

"One feature of this invasion, has been peculiarly gratifying to every lover of the Union. Those who have been notorious sympathizers with the enemy, have been required to give tangible and practical evidence of their sympathy. They have been, by great odds, the heaviest sufferers. Truly there is a God in heaven."

DEFGEN. COUCH was serenaded, in Chambersburg, and made a short address.

"The humiliation of the invasion was bitter, but it might have been only a fitting punishment for the existence among us of the domestic traitors who piloted the armed Rebels to their plunder, and were "He congratulated the people. The beg, on beaded knees, from Jeff Davisbut such a peace on Rosecraus was making with Bragg, as Grant had won at Vicks-burg, and as the grand historic Army of "The Republic, thus growned with vietory, under the auspices of Liberty, might, if her sons were worthy, lead the nation to the beights of a better civilization, and call down upon her the very benediction of Heaven.

received with tremendous applause. In March and April last, Knights of the Golden Circle in Berks county told their dupes that the Rebels would invade Pennsylvania about Harvest time, and by paying a dollar and joining the Circle they what was offered, in the House (by Dr. would not be barmed. The fact that they Morris, of Greene Co., a leading Copper- did come as predicted, goes to show that it the Rebels. No thanks to that Convention-Columbia Bridge was burned; the Army of the Potomae burried on the flank of the Rebels ... all of which saved Lancaster, Berke, Schuylkill and perhaps Philadelphia > 168-The Wilkes-Barre Record says Maj. John D. Musser led the 143d P.V. at the battle of Gettysburg, and received a slight wound. " The bravery of Maj. Musser, commanding, and his good management in the battle, are highly commended by all his men-an bonor deserved, no doubt, and from ravage by the bungry Secesh erew.

Wednesday night last, a valuable dark brown Canadian mare, fresh shod, with a little white on one hind foot, was stolen from John Walls & Co., Lewisburg: $25 is offered for the mare, and $75 for mare and thief ... Paul Guddes, near town, had some fly nets stolen recently. Thieves it is hoped to reduce the city. about! (The mare is since recovered.)

Geo. W. School writes, 11th inst., that none were killed, and but 4 wounded, in the 5th Pa. R. C., at Gettysburg. telegraph was located at "Northumber- Union county boys all well, and in good spirits, after hard, weary marches-190

> Capt. Robert M. Forster, formerly of Hartley, in 148th Pa. Reg., fell at Gettysburg; his body was taken to his home, in Center county, this week.

THE DUNKERS AND THE DRAFT.-The "Dunkers" of Pennsylvania at their recent annual assembly at Morrison's Grove, referred the subject of conscription to a committee which reported in favor of sustaining the government and obeying the laws, notwithstanding the non-resistant principles of the denomination. A resolution was made, recommended and adopted, that every member drafted shall pay his commutation, and if he is not able the expenses shall be assessed on the members of the congregation.

Nine months ago, in his speech to the Mississippi Legislature, Jeff. Davis declared that " the Confederacy must stand or fall by the defence of the river." It has not been able to defend the river-therefore, it falls.

Some women in Northumberland borough were engaged in an angry talk. when one of them, Mrs. Hauselman, was attacked with a sudden illness, and died in a few moments.

An attempt was made to kill Gov. Yates, of Ill., by firing at him through a window. But it failed.

THE DAY WE LIVE IN.

We are living, we are dwelling In a grand and awful time

Will ye play, then? will ye dalty

Thou hast but an hour to hube; Now the binzoned Cross unfolding

On! let all the soul nithin you. Strike! let every nerve and since Tell on ages, tell for God!

Latest News

of the 53d P. V., says they marched THIRTY-FIVE MILES, Wednesday, lost half their regiment on Thursday, and Lee. From an Army thus severely taxed, too much should not be expected. Yet we find Gen. Meade hurried his men on as fast as he safely could, driving the Rebels from town to town and point to point, at last penning them in a short space around Williamsport. A council of war on Saturday and Sunday, decided against immediate assault. All this time, as well as he could, at Falling Waters and at Williamsport, partly by fording or swimming, and by aid of various boats. Our forces moved forward Monday evening, taking 500 prisoners at Williamsport, and killing Gen. Pettigrew and capturing his brigade of 1,500 men at Falling Waters: the remainder of the Rebels (supposed to be 55,000 of the 100,000 they came with) with the guns and plunder they had left, were on the Virginia side. at the same time demonstrates that Lee was very badly whipped, when he dared not risk an attack in any of and weakness. He is hurrying to or such other punishment as by sentence of Richmond. Meade has also crossed court-martial shall be inflicted."

JAMES B. FRY, the Potomac-whether to follow him down the Shenandoah, or to meet him on the flank, is yet to appear. This subjects our brave men to hard marches again, and calls for our prayers and our aid in every possible way.

This morning's Harrisb'g Telegraph indicates that the New York Riots, yesterday, were unsuppressed. Proof thickens that desperadoes from Baltimore were imported, and that it is all a pre-concerted plan of Copperhead leaders to break up the Draft. The mob is led with skill, and even shoot from housetops. But their Andrews was taken (in bed with a black wom- CHEAPEST AND BEST IN TOWN. from the "irregular proceedings" but the Unionists enlisted, repairing to the "friends of the Constitution and forts at Harrisburg, and the fords below; the Laws." The N. Y. 7th, and a Michigan Regiment, have arrived and dozens if not scores of rioters mowed down in the streets. Some soldiers also fall, and some spectators. The military, we hope and believe, soon

-Simultaneous with this outbreak in New York, the same things were attempted in several other placesinoffensive persons were murdered, and Government property stolen or destroyed-by the same class of men as have eternally disgraced N. York. But, elsewhere, the mobs failed, and the Law stands vindicated.

CHARLESTON .- The Rebels knowledge that the Union forces have gained an important footheld on Morris' island, the Rebels losing 16 officers, 300 in all being killed or wounded. This is the point whence

After the fall of Vicksburg, Gen. Sherman marched east with a force which after a short engagement nabbed 2,000 Rebels, part of the and tried to earry off the colored by Ellet's marine brigade.

Bragg was still retreating from Rosenerans at last accounts, leading us to hope that East Tennessee may soon be emancipated by Rosencrans passing in from the

Gen. Foster has been again severing Railroad communication in North Carolina, interrupting one passage between Richmond and Charleston. TP Prof. Curtis will preach at 10, A M,next Trinity P.E. Ch. Sunday next-Services at 101. A M. and at 31. P M. MARRIED.

By Rev. R. A. Fink, 14th inst., STEPHEN WERTZ of White Door and Miss MARTHA POESTIL of Lewisb'g. Lewisburg Market.

In an age on ages telling; To be living is sublime.

With your music and your wine? Ip! it is Jehovnh's rally! God's own arm hath need of thine! Worlds are charging, Beaven beholding,

On, right onward, for the right! For the Truth's sake go abroad;

Escape of Lee.

A private letter from John Marsh, were then again after the retreating Lee was getting across the Potomac

While this escape is mortifying, it will crush out this Rebel conspiracy.

redoubtable Johnson's invincibles.

The Rebels attacked the Government plantations at Young's Point. La., burned everything they could, laborers, but were beaten off at last

| Carrectes            | i Weekly           |
|----------------------|--------------------|
| Wheat $1,30         | Eggsa $ 12        |
| Rye 90               | Tallow 10          |
| Corn, old 80         | Lard 10            |
| Oats 55              | Clover seed 1,00   |
| Flaxseed 1.50        | Wool 50            |
| Dried Apples. $1,00 | Potatoes 40        |
| FirkinButter 12      | Sider & Shoulder 5 |
| Fresh Butter 12      | Ribs & Shoulder 6  |
| Rags 4, 5, and 6     | Ham10              |
| Country Soap 4 & 6   |                    |

TAKEN UP, about the 15th A Joint Resolution proposing certain TAKEN UP, about the 18th inst., a stray Sow with Pig. white color, about two years old. The owner will prove property pay charges and take her away within ten days or she will be sold. DAVID K. SHAMP.

"THE UNION," established in 1814--- Whole Ne. 2,626.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1943--- Whole No. 1.005."

8. 7th St., Lewisburg, July 16, 1863.

IST of Letters remaining in the Post Office at LEWISBURG, Pa., pp. 194 mly 15, 1863; King John Ports Kemper Berjamin Kemper F P flag Leitach Edwin Loromiller Mary A Lorent Sarah A Lymn Michael

A Office at LE
uiy 15 , 1863;
Robbs Fangy Mrs
Chapter Michael
Chare Obedials
Cook Mr
Corbras Hannels
Robby Abraham
Pykins Jaila il Miss
Franciscus F O
Fry Johanna
Frisher Levi
Cholsings NC
Robbs John H
Housel Joseph
Heckman William
Hane Hanry
Heigh Susan
Jona John
Jonas E M
John Jones E M
John Harry Z
Kreamer Heartelta Z
Kreamer Carrollus
Kanning Jacob
Kunkle Jane Miss
Riber Benjamin
Persons calling fo

Persons calling for the above Letters please say they are "advertised."
uso w sommert, P M

To all who may be Drafted. Wan DEPARTMENT, Provost Marshal General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 10, 1863.

CIRCULAR, No. 43. S FPHE following extracts from laws of the United States, now in force, are puboncerned. Section 12 of the Enrolment Act, after direnting how the draft shall be conducted, rays:

And the person so drawn shall be notified of the same, within ten days thereafter, by a written or printed notice, to be served personally or by leaving a copy at the last place of resi-dence, requiring him to appear at a designated place of rendezvous to report for duty."

Section 13 of the Enrolment Act contains the following: "And any person failing to report, after due service of notice, as herein prescribed, without furnishing a substitute, or paying the required sum therefor, shall be deemed a nankeran, and shall be arrested by the Provost Marshal, and cent to the nearest military post for trial by court martial, notess, upon proper showing that he is not hable to do military duty, the Board of Eurolment shall relieve him from the draft." the naturally strong positions he might have chosen. It shows fear victed of having deserted, shall suffer prays.

N. R. ZIMMERMAN'S?

Provost Marshal's Office, 14th District, ) Harrisburg, Pa., July 13, 1863 Those who may be drafted, and the public generally, are directed to study the above order, and be guided and governed by it, as Sec. 13 of the Enrelment Act will be rigidly enforced in this District.

JOHN KAY CLEMENT,

Captain and Provost Marshal,

14th District, Pennsylvania

COOD NEW GOODS!

At JOHN SOUTRES'.

Fine qualities Ladies Gaiters at $2. Best quality home-made Kid and Morocco Boots at A large assortment of Balmoral Boots and Gaiters at equally low prices.

Opposite the Bank, Lewisburg.

ICE CREAM FYERY Evening during the season. Par-ties supplied on short notice. June f MRS. DENORMANDIE.

Administrator's Notice.

OTICE is hereby given, that Letter of Administration upon the Estate of JOHN M'GALL, late of Hartley township, in Union county, dec'd, have been granted to the undersigned, by the Register of Union county, in due form of taw. Therefore, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment; and those having any just claims are also requested to present them egally authenticated for settlement to JOHN CROSSGROVE, Adm'r Lewisburg, June 1, 1863

New Stand ... New Goods! TOSEPH L. HAWN having taken the offices, refitted them, and filed in an extensive Hats, Cape, Gentlemen's Clothing, &c. Also a large and splendid stock of CLOTHS CASSIMERES, &c., which he will make up to ness. He is prepared to execute all work entrusted to his care, to the satisfaction of the enstomer.

N. B. Cutting and Repairing of done rier. [Lewisburg, April 10, 1861 Estate of William Thomas, dec'd.

TOTICE is bereby given, that Letters of Administration upon the Estate of Union Co., deceased, have been granted to the undersigned, by the Register of Union county, in due form of law; therefore all perknowing themselves indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate pay-ment, and those having just claims against the same are also requested to present them properly authenticated for settlement to LEWIS EVANS, Admin'r, at Mahanoy City, Schuylkill Co., or to his Att'y and Ag'l May 21, 1861. WM. VAN-IEZER, Esg. Lewisburg.

ornawinial from works.

WOOD & PEROT, 1131, Ridge Avenue. PHILADELPHIA, PA.

OFFER for sale upon the Most Pavorable Terms, NEW and BEAUTIFUL Designs in great variety of fron Bailings-for Ceme Iron, and Galvanized Iron and Brass Tubine Iron Verandas, Balconies, Stairs, Counters Fountains, Gates, Columns, Hitching Posts Lamp Stands, Vases, Tables, Flower Stands Sofas, Chairs, Statuary, Animals and all other Iron Work of a Decorative character. Designs forwarded for selection. Persons of work needed

be third article of the Constitution, to be dear Sacrios 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be me any actual military service, under a requiretion from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of sufficient man all electors. rage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are or shall be grescribed by law, as fully and effectually as if they were present at their oscial places of election.

There shall be two additional sections to Amendments to the Constitution.

DE it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth Pennsylvania in General Assembly mot-

the following amendments be proposed Constitution of the Commonwealth, in fance with the provisions of the temb ele thereof. here shall be an additional section to the the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as sections eight and nine, as follows : Secrets 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

Secrees 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers or privileges in any case where the authority to grant such powers or privileges has been or may here. fier be conterred upon the Courts of this Commonwealth. Speaker of the House of Representatives

JOHN P. PSSNEY,

Office of the Secretary of the Common-PENNSYLYANIA, SS;

I do hereby certify that the foregoing copy of the original Joint Resolution of the Ocueral Assembly, emitted "A Joint Res olution proposing certain Amendments to the Constitution," as the same remains on file in this office.

In Testimone Whereof I have beceente set my hand, and caused the seal of the Secretar tary's office to be affixed, the day and year Secretary of the Commonwealth

U COING

THE SPRING ARRIVAL OF

EHDIES BODDS

Estate of Mrs. Sarah E. Davis, dec'd. A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters A of administration on the estate of widow Sarah E. Davis, deceased, late of Lewisburg, having been gratted to the subscriber by the Hegister of binon county in due form of law, all persons indelited to said estate are hereby notified to make immediate payment, and all present them duly authenticated for settlement to JAMES M. BLACKWELL, Admin'r, 2149FB & ED'.2

or to GEO. F. MRLLER, Lewister New York, May 8, 1803

LETTER "A" family Sewing Machine,

With all the new improvements-Her Lat. Braider, Feller, Tucker, Corder Gatherer, &c .- is the cheapest and best, and most beautiful of machines for Family sewing and ght manufacturing purposes. It okes the interlocked stitch (which is allike on both sides,) and has great capacity for sewing ALL KINDS OF CLOTH, and with ALL KINDS OF THREAD. Even Leather, as well as the finest Muslin, may be sewn to perfection on this machine. It will use 200 spool cotton as well as No. 30 linen thread. What it can do can only be known by seeing the machine tested.

THE FOLDING-TOP CASE s among the most valuable of all the new improvements. It may be opened out as a spacious and substantial table to sustain the work, and when the machine is not in use it may be FOLDED into a box, which protects the working parts of the machine.

There is no other machine to equal the Letter A in SIMPLICITY,

DURABILITY. RAPIDITY, and CERTAINTY of correct action at all rates of speed. The Family Sewing Machine is fast becoming as popular for family use as SINGER & Co.'s Manufacturing Machines are for manufacturing purpo-

The Branch Offices are well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, &c. of the very best quality.

Send for a PAMPHLET and a copy of SINGER & Co.'s GAZETTE." I. M. SINGER & CO., 458 Broadway, New York. Philadelphia Office, 810 Chesnut street. Miss M. S. ZUBER,

Agent in Lewisburg.