BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., TUESDAY, JULY 21, 1863.

"THE UNION," established in 1814--- Whole No. 3.627.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843--- Whole No., 1,006.

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY---Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon. IF see New Advertisements.

nor-We regret to see professed Demotheir last, only hope. The Draft takes in der. equal proportions from EACH PARTY—it is The buildings destroyed, are worth perheads, and by the Rebels, all of whom as the rioters hid some of their victims. want to PROLONG THE WAR until next in military than in civil life.

be "as it was." Beware!

and are to this day honored therefor.

Be Before the Draft Law was passed, Bishop Hughes advised it. All the leading Democrats urged it. But, as soon as it passed, a simultaneous attack was made sedition !

Constitution again Violated. Roumfort, the Democratic Mayor of Harrisburg, recently, in an extraordinary and "arbitrary" way enjoined

" tavern keepers, retail liquor dealers, and keepers of lager beer shops, to discontinue the sale of any intericating liquor not on the east side of the River. He and humanity of the Union people. To Old Gent. (looking at the paper again and stopped the grog of the Copperheads! our generosity, and our ample means, they which they had paid the money! Was on the Constitutional Democracy?

law order, for which the Moyor has no others, brutal, stubborn and thankless. authority whatever in any law of the nation, State, or city, the Democracy make no outery-he belongs to their party-all right! But they roar like Beelzebub field."-Harrisburg Telegroph, 18th inst. and Nisgara when the President, under authority of the Constitution and of Acts Companies home within a week. of Congress, suspends habous corpus against known or suspected traitors, to save the nation's life! He don't belong to their party-all wrong !

Very "small."-Last year it was loudly proclaimed that York borough had been "redeemed." inasmuch as it had elected a Dimmeerat! for Burgess !! and the name be rejoiced in was David Small. Time rolled on as usual, notwithstanding the enormous littleness of Small's glorious triumph until our "Southern brothren" thought proper to pay him and his a visit, in great pomp and martial array. Overwhelmed at this additional honor, Small the modest, while the Secesh were yet a great way off-even six miles-hastened to meet, and greet them, and to surrender the freedom of the Democratic borough of York, only stipulating for knightly treatment. Amazed at his servility, the Rebel General "graciously" demanded from the "redcemed" borough of 10,000 souls, old and young, black and white, a triffing gift day she was advertised-quite probably veterans were turned out to die. Houses of $15 per head, or $150,000, in cashand about as much more in stores, arms, and "sundries" to make his little party of 8,000 or 10,000 ragamuffius more comfortable. Mr. Burgess, feeling smaller than ever, paddled about to raise the ransom for his "redeemed" Democratic domain ... started the Rebels back after a few hours' 6th of August next. sojourn, their leader saying they might be thankful be hadn't burnt their roofs over their heads! They got about a quarter of the plunder they expected from smalley Small-"the first (pray heaven the last !) Democratic Burgess of York !"

Scott Clingan reached home Sunday morning ..... Wm Stitzer and Wils Lasbels are also home ..... The funeral of Joseph, son of Jacob Ruhl, took place on Tuesday last in Lewis Tp ..... The body of Joseph found wrapped in the Flog by which he Basiy Tp. were wounded.

2d Rebellion.

Copperheads "scotched."

The attempt to aid the sinking fortunes cratic presses in the Free States, excusing of the Rebels, by a seditions uprising in gross violation of the most precious and sucred and pettifogging the bloody riots in New New York city, is, for a time, frustrated will volunteer. That has been found too organized mob, on Friday, was cut down slow and unfair. Four out of five volus- without ceremony, twenty or thirty of the teers are friends of the Government, who outlaws, and a few of the soldiers, being are needed at the ballot-box as well as in killed or badly wounded. The mobocrats the field. The Rebel leaders, hopeless of are now garroting men on the by streets, success by fighting, now urge their friends breaking into houses, robbing unprotecin the North to get control of the States, as ted women, and trying to hide their pluntherefore just and fair-but therefore also nearly a million of dollars, and scores of it is hated by the speculators, by the Cop- lives were lost-how many is not known.

The end is not yet. Gov. Saymour and Presidential election, hoping they can then the Copperheads tried to conciliate the get terms by which the Slave Power shall Rebels by telling them the Draft Law was suspended if not repealed-a deed which Of the many hundreds of young would place every law of the land at the men who have left Union county to fight, foot of a mob! But the Law is NOT perhaps no more have died of wounds or pullified-it is to be enforced, not only disease than of the same number, at home, upon the honest and loyal but also upon who have died in their beds. The ordi- the rebellious in New York city. To mary mortality in our country is no greater yield, now, would be to commit the fatal mistake of Jackson and Clay, who altered Of those drafted in Union county in the Tariff Law to suit the Nulliflers in the War of 1812, many yet remain 1831, and thus laid the foundation of the among us-such as MIDDLESWARTH, present outbreak. To violate the law-at doubtless supposing that his readers are CAMERON, Runt, Wilson, M'Curley, this turning point of the struggle-for a SPIGLEMEYER, LYON, STITZER, FOSTER, mob, is to add another year at least to our MAUS, &c. &c. Perhaps some of them civil war. If the Rebels can contrive a were volunteers-but, whether one or the fresh outbreak at the final execution of other, they went cheerfully to their duty, the Law, they will. Let the authorities be firm-be faithful to their duty and their oaths-sud all will be well. We must not only have "peace" but a lasting peace on the right platform.

REBEL BARBARITY .- The heartlessness upon it, resulting in angry feeling, the of the insurgents to their own sick and shooting and waylaying of officers and wounded, has been often shown during ing his bones, and their murder, and now in the awful mob the needless war they commenced. Ou in New York city, where the Councils and many fields they have abandoned them the Governor of the State tacitly join in entirely-some times they would beg the plan to nullify it by force of terror and men and means from our forces-and taking away his slightly wounded, and leaving on the field eight or ten thousand of his worst wounded with only six of his Surgeons. Inhuman and barbarous as is this treatment of their poor dupes and sigh a sad requium o'er his early, honored conscripts, it illustrates the desperateness grave. of their condition, and is also the highest This, too, was when the Rebels were (though silent) testimony to the kindness All this was in spite of the Constitution, commit those with whom, in honor, and paper don't say." All this was in spite of the Coupro- by all personal and professional and polithe State Laws, all manner of Compro- by all personal and professional and poli"gross violation of the most precious anxious to get the Union editor of the a torch-light procession. there ever such an insult, such an outrage, they can for these sad, maimed victims of the Slave Oligareby, many of whom are Against this "fanatical" Maine exceedingly grateful, and Union loving-to muster out of the service all the three alone. months' and emergency troops now in the

We may then expect the Lewisburg ser-The Drafted Men at Plattsburg, N. Y., numbering three hundred, celebrated their relection" by music, a procession, repeated cheers for the President, Provest Marshal, Gen. Meade, and others.

ser'A young son of P. K. Reitmyer, at the west end of our borough, being left near a tubfull of water, on Monday of last week, fell into the water, and was drowned before being discovered.

The President recommends Thursday, 6th Aug., as a day of National wings. On the right, holes were dug religious observances, thanking God for which contain the bodies of scores of the his guidance and mercy in the future.

The Forest Hill Sabbath School passed resolutions in honor of their friend and late Superintendent, WM. K. MILLER, who fell at Gettysburg.

The missing mare of Walls & Co.

Rev. P. S. Henson, J. H. Eldrige.

Ben. The Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association held no session last year, but when the thunders of MEADE from below are called to meet at Reading, 4th 5th and > Ber Thomas G. Grier from Newbern, N. the Potomac, came home last week.

Beg. The attempts of the Copperheads to get up a riot (New York fashion) failed in Danville and elsewhere generally.

" If anybody is dissatisfied with Feder-Gatelius, color-bearer of 150th Reg., was dy is dissatisfied with the United States vigor. The morning of this terrible night, stood to the last. His age was 20 years, the benefits of the S outhern conscription. Charles Allen and Henry Hall of So says a Kentucky Union paper. We ed, and the States will be as in former Spreeher of Ohio, is paster of the Luther-

What is a Sin?

The larger Presbyterian churches of America have always agreed in declaring, with the selemnity of notherity, that

"We consider the voluntary enslaving of In the face of all this, Br. †, of the Argus, tries to produce the impression that the General Assembly does not brand Slavery as sinful! He would require the words, "This is a horse," to be written under the most perfect daguerreotype of twistifying character is better fitted for a Jesuit than a Protestant-a quibbling lawyer rather than a preacher of the Gospel. A man who would argue that a system, they have deserted bim. characterized as above quoted, is not to be considered sinful, is trifling with his own conscience. And when the Presbyterian Assembly say they earnestly and sincerely desire "the complete Abolition of Slavery throughout the werld," they may safely pass for Abolitionists.

The "perverse blindness" that won't see "sin," in the foregoing picture of Slavery, can not be excused in the case of honest people against seeing the truth, mostly of that singular family whose perusal of a village newspaper is thus described. The old gentleman puts on his spees, and begins :

"FATAL ACCIDENT - Demise of S. Jones, Esq." Old Lady (interrupting)-'Squire Jones! 1 wonder if he was much hurt! Old Gent-Ill read on and see. About noon, yesterday, a terrible affair occurred at coming over to cod fish ! Factorytown, by which that place has lost one of its most valuable citizens. It seems that the deceased was engaged about the engine, when his clothing caught in a strap, which drew him in through a narrow space, smash-Oldest Girl .- Poor man ! how it must have hurt -I wonder it he'll die.

Old Gent. (reads on) - "-life was at once extract in the shapelees mass."

Oldest Boy. Do tell if the old fellow is dead.
Old Gent. (takes off his specs)—Now you would rob our hospitals to aid their own. all just wait until I have done, and then we At Gettysburg, the "victorious" Lee fled, will know. (Resumes.) "Man that is born of woman is few days and full of trouble, ents of Buttermitk Coffroth ! He has left for that bourne from whence no traveler ever returns. The sods of the valley are above him, and the summer winds

Old Lady—There—have you got through?
Old Coat—Yes, that is all.
Old Lady—Well, now I want to know

And so Br. † can't find Sin in the The Copperheads of Sunbury were so which was illuminated and adorned with spirit and principles of the Gospel of Christ!" What a religion he must have! Poor mortal! "None are so blind as "Preparations are being actively made those who do not wish to see." Let him

HEREFORD, Md., July 9.

On visiting Gettysburg, I found the Catholic, Presbyterian and two Lutheran churches, the Court House, the College, the Seminary, and the Old Fellows' Hall, used as hospitals, and filled to overflowing: In the halls and rooms, vestibules and basements, on the steps and in the altars, were stalwart men in the bloom of health rendered helpless by the weapons and sought to direct them to the true to use them as spice and informers. fountain of bappiness.

You have heard of the furious assaults made upon our right and extreme left portion of ground at the base of a hill, we found 40 unburied Robels, their faces black as night, eyes open, millions of verwithin fifty yards. The ground was everywhere strewn with muskets, bayonets, balls, grapeshot, canteens, shoes, bats, &c. was brought in from Kelly X Roads, the Dead horses were unburied, and wounded are riddled, fences gone, and wheat and Among those drafted in Philad , we corn destroyed. The flight of the enemy recognize the names of Melville Malcom, was most precipitate, leaving their dead, wounded, and some sleeping in the town

The people of Gettysburg have been robbed of silver ware, silk dresses, stockings, gloves, and shoes, as well as horses, cattle, and provisions. To aid these loyal people, would be a work of humanity. Private dwellings contain many wounded , and Lieut. Gutelius from Hospital of officers. The care are daily laden with the slightly wounded, who are being removed to Philadelphia, Baltimore &c.

We found 40 South Carolinians buried in one row, with headboards and names Ac. but many brave men on both sides have but a few inches of dirt thrown on al money, let him go South and get Con. them, with no mark to perpetuate their federate money. If anybody is dissatisfi- names, or give satisfaction to searching ed with United States Taxes, let him go friends who come hither by thousands. South and pay Southern taxes. If anybo. And still the war is waged with fearful curvilment, let him go South and enjoy however, is beginning to dawn, thank God! and the toesin of war will be bushyears -one and indivisible. H.C.P.

some of our farmers say they don't care some of our farmers say they don't care action near withom-borr, Va., ith Feb. fast. With who was President, only let them alone. Sight variation, they are appropriate in They were also greatly amused, when helping themselves to horses and other trifles they needed, to see "the Democracy" hurrights of human nature; as utterly inemaist-ent with the law of God, which requires us to their hands to give them "grips." When in denouncing and demanding the abrogation of the Draft. They say the people in that modern Rabelan. They have a constant the formula of the Grant of Charles and principal of the Charl looks of wonder were somewhat brightened by an indignant suspicion that they had been fooled by their leaders!

> The office of the Dayton Journal (Union) was burned down by a "free-press" mob of Vallandigham's "friends of the best, most exquisitely formed horse in the Constitution." We see it alleged that the world, or he would say it was not a the damage is assessed upon the leading horse, and write a column to prove that it Copperheads who instigated and applauded was a jackuss or an elephant. Such a the outrage... The foolish chap who set fire to the building was arrested in Indiananolis, with letters on his person from Vallandigham and friends : he says that leading men promised to stand by him, but

The Democratic State Convention of California express unalterable devotion to the Constitution and Union, and recognize Latest News the right of the Government to use every constitutional means to put down rebelliso and insurrection; they oppose secret societies, and denounce arbitrary arrests; uphold freedom of the speech and of the press : denounce the Emancipation proclamation, and all law to substitute paper currency in California for gold. Quite a himself. He hopes, however, to blind curious platform, "adapted" (as they hopest people against seeing the truth, hope) "to that latitude."

> The chivalry have always affected the greatest aversion to the Yankee dish of baked beans, but in the recent dearth of food they have to bring their unwilling noses to the grind-tone, and we find the Lynchburg Virginian demonstrating elabcrately that pork and beans is the cheapest and most nutritious food to be had. We shall next expect to see the confeds

Coffroth, the Copperhead Congressmanelect from the Adams district, was not heard from until the invaders were beaten, when he rushed to Harrisburg, complaining that some Union soldiers had burned fence rails and drank buttermilk, without paying for them, in the county they had helped save from the foe! At the same time, Thad. Stevens, Jr., with Broomall, (M. C. for Chester district,) were at the head of volunteers defending the constitu-

We see it stated the notorious Dr. Boye of Clearfield county intruded himself upon a debating school, and began to ventilate treasonable slang, when he was treated to some bad eggs by six patriotic girls. He has sued them and four of their beaus for the "rank offence" of trying to make him smell worse than he did before. If he recovers a "copper" a "bead," it will warn ship yard. the young folks not to waste eggs on so odoriferous a character!

which is "totally inconsistent with the to send TWELVE of their men with him law of God," and "irreconcilable with the if he would go to the war. He put down his name, but they all backed out and he remains to take down the squad when it appears !

The Union people generally sought to of the invading Secesh, and thus escaped with least loss. There is published a list of the owners of 153 horses taken out of York-most of them belonging to our much esteemed fellow citizens of the Cop. men are to go together, but it is armounced perhead persussion. (Verdict of the loval American Juries-"Sarved 'em right!")

Some Rebel officers at M'Connelsburg visited the Republican editor and perused his files with much interest-said they respected a man who was true to his own country, or took one side or the otherbut the stupid baseness of the Copperheads of war. I conversed freely with many, they loathed, even the compelled at times

We are glad to announce that Gen. Paul. who was reported killed at the battle of Gettysburg, is alive and doing well. He was wounded by a buckshot in the right side of the head, the shot passing out the Regiment, is a man who understands five recent success to our arms and imploring vanquished foc. On the left, in a rocky right corner of the left eye, the sight of

> Judge Kelley says " the coming Man" to deliver our country is not Butler nor min feeding upon them, and no earth Fremont nor Banks nor Rosecrans nor Grant nor Hooker nor Meade-he is the Colored Man, who is to demonstrate his own manhood and preserve the nation's

The commissioned officers of the last Milton Company are-Captain, Wm. II. Wolfe ; 1st Lieut, John Peterman ; 2d Lieut. Joseph R. Bright. We see R. L. Hatfield and Isaac G. Wolfe in the list.

Samuel H. Orwig Esq., of Lewisburg has been nominated for the Legislature on the Union ticket for Union county. He is a good man, and will be handsomely elected .- Miltonian.

George P. Kane, the Bultimore marshal who was once put in limbo and released, upon which he bawled so vigorously against "arbitray arrests," is gone openly to the Rebels, where he belongs.

The lying Copperhead leaders now tell their more guilible dupes in Cumberland Valley, that it was "Lincoln's minione" who stole their borses and cattle! That story wont go down, we reckon.

Amos B. Rhoads, of Milton, 1st Lieut. in the 7th Pen'a Cavalry, was killed in army and military hospitals.

S. P. Sprecher, son of Rev. Dr. las church, Milton.

Intelligent Rebels, since leaving Penn- en-Edger M. Chipman, a brother midder, pays (in the sylvania, say they were amaged to hear Christian Chronicis; the annexed tribute to the of Lieut Samuel Williamson, 7th Pa Car, who lelt in > Memory of Licut. Andrew 6, Tucker, Ob, fare they well! then noble send, and bravel Then gentle, generous, gallant, cheerful boy! Oh, what a mod of fundest hope and joy Lies created and barred in thy early grave! In years not yet to manhood grown, thene eye,

Who looked upon thy open, manly brow,

But the curser, though brief, was spent a right, And while no fate could anteinte the discor. Yet thou wert summoned solden to the tomb, In the first transports of the conscious might. Why dwell on praises that thou might'st have wen, Young Christian here! homesed patriot dead! Recent though thy life, thy death was most sublime. Thy fame, transmitted through the coming time, Another givey 'round our Flag witt shed.

Thy country asked thy aid: 'twas quickly given! youthful blood flowed freely at her call? r be thy memory green, for with the fall arth fort a nero, crowned a saint in heaven. Let us not mourn the sad, afflicting blow, LOUISVILLE, July 17 .- The guerrilla, Morgan, is reported bemmed in west of Gallipolis, and it is thought may be captured.

As soon as Port Hudson surrendered to Banks, the prisoners begged for 6,000 rations, as they had not a bite to cat. None of Grant's force had reached there. Gen. Neal Dow (Maine Law reformer) was taken prisoner while sick in a hospi-

Gen. Sherman captured about 6,000 of the tail end of that awful army of Johnson, who was retreating to Pearl river.

Gen. Gregg, occupied Shepherdstown, for a few hours, on Thursday, and escaped with some trophies of the prowess of his men. Lee is believed to be about Winchester. The movements of both armies are kept quiet as possible.

On the 11th, two New England regiments took Cummings Point battery, when Fort Sumpter drove them off. On the 12th, we held Morris Island. Charleston and the forts are beseiged by 11 irou-clads, And until further notice, I shall continue 26 gun and other boats, 600 fresh men, 200 pounder rifled guns-all to make a grand final attack on the 14th. The Rebels at Chattanooga said Charleston was taken, but they may have heard only of their loss of Morris Island, and anticipated the doom which seems certain.

WHEELING, July 19 .- From Parkers- At my Office, and at the different Sub-Agen burg-300 of Morgan's men were captured to day by Buffington. Among them was a Colonel.

Gen. Lee is in the Shenandoah Valley. The Rebels say a new iron-elad ram has been launched for them from an English great Union meeting in New Orleans, Commander Reed mortally wounded.

The people of North Carolina are still made out and collected discussing terms of "reconstructing the Union. So anxious are the Copperheads to get BLDTILS even blacks to take their place in the get "contraband" things out of the reach ranks, that their organ at Harrisburg advertises for substitutes, "without regard to color," at the leading Democratic hotel. The design is to prejudice the people by the supposition that white and colored that colored men are in colored regiments

Thus far, twenty four banks have been organized under the National Banking 5 Law, and only await the furnishing of notes by the Treasury Department to go into complete operation. These will be supplied, it is thought, within the next two months.

Copperhead editors are trying to make out that Meade gained no victory at Gettysburg. They devote more whole columns to traiter Vallandigham than they do of lines to the downfall of Vicksburg.

In the 55th (colored) Massachusetts different languages, and a pretty 'cute chap to boot. He is a pative of Africa.

Stable, the Copperhead editor at Gettysburg, has been arrested for informing the Rebels where some wounded Union soldiers had been hidden by the Postmaster.

The Union League of Philad, have organized three Regiments under the late call. The "Democratic" Regiment we believe is not yet full.

Lieut. Col. George F. M'Farland, for merly of Freeburg Academy, was wounded and taken prisoner at Gettysburg, one leg being amputated below the knee. The Union League of Philadelphia has appointed a committee to seek out honorably discharged soldiers and procure them The Columbia Bridge, was the longest in the State, and was built by James Meore, Sen. formerly residing near this borough. A spirit-rapping paper says, Stonewall Jackson and John Brown are in harmony, and both are "marching on" to Old John's Francis Patrick Kenrick, R. C. Archbishop of Baltimore, died on the 8th inst., in bis 66th year.

Four thousand seven hundred and sixty copies of the Presbyterian are sent to the

It is stated that "Gen." W. B. Franklin was a leading K G C. in York county. Gen. Sigel has now a command Pennsylvania.

Dico.

On the 5th last, ENNA JANE daughter of Joseph and Kre Sandern, of Lewis Tp., aged 9 yrs, o ms. 24 de. In Hartiston, 5th inst, JACOB YARGER, aged 74 yrs, 3 most, 6 dys. In West Bullabor, lith inst, Miss MARY TAYLOR,

Lewisburg Market.

	ALCED SEVE	Treeary.
Wheat	$1,30	Eggs 8	12
ByC	1968	Inilow	333
Corn, old	89	Lard	10
Dats	55	Clover seed 4,	00
Flaxseed	1,50	Wool	50
Dried Apples. §	$1,00	Potatoes	40
Firkin Butter	12	Sides & Shoulder	5
Fresh Butter	. 12	Ribs & Shoulder	6
Rags 4, 5,	and 6	Ham	10
Country Sonp	1 & 6

$5,000 wanted!

ANY person having from One to Five Thousand Dollars, can have the same safely invested in Judgments upon valuable real estate in this county upon application to J. F. & Jolin B. Linn, Lewisburg, July 18, 1868

Lost, Sunday evening, between the Presby terian and Baptist Churches, a plain Gold Bracelet—to be left at this Office.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

THE Books of KVANS & COOPER are in dated Oct my hands for collection. All persons desiring to settle their accounts, will find the Five-Twenty U. S. Loan !

ited States Six per Cent. Five-Twen! Years' Loan.

Amounts can be had to suit the means of

The Secretary of the Treasury has authorized me

to continue my Agency for a brief period,

5-20

receive Subscriptions to the LOAN AT PAR.

JAY COOKE. Subscription Agent, 114 South Third Street, Philadelphia

cies throughout the Loyal States.

Collections and other professional business compely attended to. Claims for Pensions,

THE UNIVERSAL

O Wringer can be durable without Cog-The Universal Wringer took the first Premium (silver medal and diploma) in the World's Pair at London, 1862, and ha always taken the first Premium in every State with other machines. It is the Original and only Genuine and Reliable Wringer before the People. It surpasses all others in

Capacity of Pressure,

We challenge the World-we dely all Competition It saves Tone, Labor, Clothes and Money No Servant can Break it in Using! No cauting or skill is required in its que It save its cost in clothing every six months I Every Wringer with Cog-Wheels is

men who have had experience as can R. C. BROWNING, General Account

DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.-Whereas, deceased, have been granted to the subscriber

> st, to the subscribers, samuels. JOHN B. LINN, 3 traters

H. GERHART, DENTIST. has removed to South 3d street, four doors from the Town Clock, LEW.

Concentrated Lye, THE FAMILY SOAP MAKER.

THE public are CAUTIONED against the SPURIOUS ARTICKES OF LYE C. making Suap &c. now offered for sale. The only GENUINE and Patented Lyg is that these spurious Lyes, are hereby ponfied that the Company have employed as their Attorpany, will be Presecuted at once.

The SAPONIFIER, or Concentrated Lye is for sale by all Druggists, Grocers, and country Stores.

The United States Circuit Court, Western District of Pennsylvania, No. 1 of May Terns

OFFICES: 127 Walnut St. Philadelphia.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Loan is payable and will be paid in Gold [222]

ON and after JULY 1st, 1863, the privilege Loan is payable and will be paid in Gold [222]

OAL TENDER NOTES INTO THE NA-TIONAL SIX PERCENT, LOAN (commonly called " Pive-Twenties") will ceare.
All who wish to invest in the Five-Twenty Loan must, therefore, apply before the lat of JULY next. JAY COOKE,

SUBSCRIPTION AGEST, No. 114 S. Third St., Philad

NOTICE.

A LL persons are hereby notified that on the first day of April last (1863) I sold to Persa Berven, Ja's S. Masso and Dr. Lave Rooms, all my right, tole and interest in Union

NEW GROCERY AND

Provision Store! THE subscriber has just opened a Family

West end of Market Square, where he has just received a well selected assertment of fresh

Official news confirm the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson. On the 11th a

Attorney at Law,
Lawsman, tries, tries to, Pt.

Attorney at Law,

Attorney at

and everything else in the Grocery line-all of which he offers at the lowest prices for Borough Ordinance. BE it ordained by the Burgess and Town Council of the berough of Lewisburg. and it is hereby exacted by the authoray the same. That the owners and proprietors of lots fronting on west side of Second street, south of Market, between St. Catharine and St. George street in said borough, are hereb required to make the pavements in front of of September, 1863. And further, if the owners and proprietors of said lots or any of thein

SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS

Strength of Frame,

Power of Action.

arranted in every particular. the sale of this truly valuable invention, liberal given them (they paying nothing for the f sale. Editors desiring a Wringer can pay

Estate of Dennis Phillips, dec'd Letters of Administration on the calate Dennis Phillips, late of Lewisburg boro', by the Register of Union county in due form of law, therefore all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having just claims against the same may present them du'y authenticated

The Ladies' Saldiers' Aid Society SAPONIFIER,

Penn'a Salt Manufacturing Company, their trade-mark for it being

"Saponifier, or Concentrated Lye." The great specess of this arriels has led unprincipled parties to endravor to include it in violation of the Company's Patents.

Geo. Harding, Esq., of Philad., and Wm. Bakewell, Esq., of Pittsburg, and that all Manufacturers, Weets of Sellers of Lye in violation of the rights of the Com-

TAKE NOTICE!

in 1862, in suit of "The Pennsylvania Sals Manufacturing Company, vs. Thu & Passe." decreed to the Company, on Nov. 15, 1862, the EXCLUSIVE right stanted by a patent owned by them for the Sarostrian. Patent dated Oct. 21, 1856. Perpetual injunction

Books at my Office. Lewisburg, July 13. Attorney at Law SALT MANUFACTURING COMPY.

THE LEWISBURG BANK, of Lewisburg, Pitt St. and Duquesne Way, Pittsburg, 3m991mside

Purnace, situated in Union township, Union county, Penn's, and in all real and personal property connected therewith.

THOMAS BEAVER.

Danville, June 2, 1863

Grocery and Provision Store, in Roden-baugh's building (late Kreamer's Tinship)

Cheese, Eggs. Fruit. Fruit Cans, Oranges, Flour and Feed, Corn, Cattle Powder, QUEENSWARE, Window Shades, Matches, Stove Polish, Nuts Sauff, Tobacco, Ligars-

Cash or Country Produce.
CHA'S ROLAND.
Lewisburg, May 7, 1863

their lots, the same to be eleven feet wire from the building line of the lot to the line of shall refuse or neglect to make the said page-ments within the time herein specific, the Street Commissioner of the borough is hereby authorized to proceed forthwith to complete the same at the expense of said owners and proprietors. By order of the Council: M. DREISBACH, Burgess. Attest-Wat. Jones, Town Clerk Lewisburg, May 4, 1863 the carb, properly graded with the atries, that the same be completed by the first

Auditor's Notice. N the Orphaus' Court of Union county, the undersigned, duly appointed Auditor by the Court aforesaid to distribute the balance in the hands of Daniel Noll, Administrator of the estate of Jereminh Stahl, late of the township of East Buffalor, Union country dec'd, with meet the parties interested for that purpose at his office, in the Borough of Lewisburg, on Sanday, the 25th day of July, A. D., 1863, I en o'clock A. M., of said day, when and where, all parties to interest may aftend a I. M. C. RANCE, Auditor

June 9, 1863 Executors' Notice.

OTICE is hereby given that letters testamentary on the last will and testament ANDREW HAGENBUCH, late of East Buffaine Tp. Union Co. deceased, have been granted to the subscribers by the Register of laion cannty in due form of law; therefore persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment, and those having Executor, Andrew C. HAGENEUCH, Frosterettle, SAMER, HAGENBUCH, Followber's, Or to PETER HAGENBUCH, West Milton, Union Co. or ORIVER & HAYES, their Act'ys, Louisburg, June 11, 1875.

Cash paid for Bark. WISH to purchase a large quantity of ROCH OAK BARK, delivered a will pay the highest price in cash.
May 14, 1863. E. J. HULL

Lawrences, May 6, 1883. THE Dimes Saving Institution of Lewisburg has this day deciated a Dividend to the Smekholders of POUR per cent on the capital stock paid in - payable on demand.