"Let Well Enough Alone." "Praise the Bridge that carries you over safely." In the defence of our Government against the traitors seeking to destroy it, all parties concede that Gov. Curtin's Administration has been active and energetic. As he had been tried and not found wanting, the People demanded his re-nomination, though he had declined, and did not want it. In such a time as this, the public safety requires the best services of every man. When officers do well, no exchange is desirable or safe. We know Curtin to be loyal and earnest; we do not know Woodward to be either, and the evidence is against him.

Daniel Agnew.

The Union candidate for the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, was born in Trenton, N. J., in 1809, and is now 51 years of age, in good health and the fullest exercise of a well-trained, powerful mind. His mother (who resides with him) is a daughter of Richard Howell, who was elected Governor of New Jersey nine times in succession. His father was a celebrated physician, who settled in Western Pennsylvania at an early day. Daniel has long stood foremost at the bar, and on the bench, and so men have a more fair character for purity and judgment, while his popularity and loyalty are undoubted. His address in Harrisburg, last winter, showing the adaptation of the U. S. Constitution to deal with the present Rebellion, gave him an enlarged reputation, and should be widely read among lawyers and the people in general. Two years ago, he was re-elected district judge without opposition, and will call out a large vote.

NOT ONE!—We exchange with 25 or 30 "Democratic" papers. Of all these which support Woodward and Lowe, not one argues for the right of the soldiers to vote; not one says a hearty word against the Rebellion which is the War; not one fails to vilify and misrepresent the Administration; not one urges the people to volunteer, or to respond to the draft, to stop the war. On the contrary, these papers all seek (by means most foul and unfair) to elude all efforts to defeat the Rebels, and to excuse their insurrection.

But all these Democratic papers which sustain CURTIN AND AGNEW, approve of the soldiers voting; all condemn the Rebels, unequivocally; all uphold the Government which is struggling against the foe of God and man; and all aid and encourage, both the volunteers and the drafted men, without whom the lava-tide of war would desolate fair Pennsylvania and the North as it has Virginia and the South.

Which are the true Democrats?

The messengers and robbing (at midnight) of the people of Lawrence and the burning of the town, is an act of barbarity hardly paralleled by the savages of North America. Gen. Lane and others who are chasing up the murderers, give them no quarter, and 80 are known to be killed. Horrible as is the punishment, no other seems to be adequate, and they can plead no law who outrage even military law. Yet there are papers exulting Quirell's gang! The "Selingsrove Times" (a Woodward paper) says, "Lawrence was settled by the meanness of Abolitionists, who deserved almost any fate." So the Border Ruffians and the Copperheads appear one in feeling, and the present is only the continuation of the War to force Slavery upon Kansas against the will of the people.

To show what loyal Marylanders think of Gov. Curtin, we take the following from the Hagerstown Herald: "Few men could or would have done for Pennsylvania what Gov. Curtin has done in these trying times; and feeling as Marylanders, and citizens of the old county in Maryland which has materially suffered from the Rebel invasion, that our perils were identified with those of our neighbors across the line, and our relief from those perils the same, we should be wanting in gratitude were we to withhold this poor mite of praise from one who so richly deserves it."

PICKPOCKETS ABOUT.—Last week, in our Post Office, two women (neither of them able to bear the loss) had their pockets picked of all their money. We have heard of other similar reports, until it is no longer doubtful that there are pickpockets in our midst, or passing from Lewisburg to adjacent towns. Suspicion is on the alert, and every honest citizen should avoid carrying money into crowds or among strangers, and be ready to aid the authorities when they make a stroke.

PLANE.—The Rebels, it is supposed, now contemplate two campaigns. One is from East Tennessee to Louisville, and the other from Virginia to Baltimore. They hope to gain those two cities, when added by the Democratic party in the North overthrowing the Administration—they think they can have their own terms of Division, or entire despotic control of the continent. They claim to have 130,000 to 150,000 men under Lee.

See Auditor's notice in case of Sam'l Haupt, of Harrison, also card of a new Tin Shop, in Millburg.

A Word about Lewisburg.

[A correspondent of the (Bridgeport) West Jersey Pioneer, having described the towns on the North Branch, notices Selingsrove, Samburg, Northumberland, and finally rests in our own town. Respecting us, he makes a few errors of observation, but we shall not controvert any other of his encomiums as contained in the following extract:]

"Passing above Northumberland, you soon come to the shining city, Lewisburg; and if you receive what others report of this, you will understand that it is a very beautiful place, and I am not at all disposed to report it otherwise. It stands on a level ground; is itself of quadrangular shape, intersected by about 12 wide streets, cutting it up into 114 small squares. While it possesses much of cleanliness, dignity, and show, and many good things pleasing to the eye, to the ear, and to the taste, and things that can be numbered, measured, weighed, and rolled, yet the chief merit and beauty of Lewisburg consists in things that tend to adorn, elevate, and dignify the soul. Its literary institutions, its educational and religious privileges—its University, its Lyceum, its Academy, its Seminary, and its many fine public edifices, and public halls, the culture, the taste, and the public spirit of its citizens—make this the Athens of Central Pennsylvania. The grand College building stands on a hill, a little distance from the town, where its crest is seen to peer out above the oak forest that embowers it. Few are aware of the magnitude of its edifice. The Academy, and the Ladies' Seminary, connected with the University, are situated on the same plot of ground. The Theological Department of this Institution is of the Baptist school. A most majestic and beautiful Court House, and Presbyterian Church, have been recently erected in the centre of the town. Here for the first time since I came from the State of New York, I find a daily newspaper."

A True "Nigger" Candidate.

Among the papers found on the premises of J. F. Davis, taken in Mississippi by the Union soldiers, was the following:

Philadelphia, March 7, 1860.
Mr. Jefferson Davis—My Dear Sir: Can you tell me if Gen. Larman is likely to remain much longer in Nicaragua? I should like to go to that country, and help open it to civilization and to niggers. I could get strong recommendations from the President's present friends in Pennsylvania for the place, were the mission vacant, and I think I would prove a live Minister.

I am tired of being a white slave at the North, and long for a home in the sunny South. Please let me hear from you when you have leisure. Mrs. Brodhead unites with me in sending kind remembrances to Mrs. Davis and yourself.

Sincerely and gratefully your friend,
JOHN BRODHEAD.

The above cringing letter was published, broad cast, weeks ago, and it was well known the writer was a prominent "Democrat" of Philadelphia. But after this knowledge was communicated to the world, the Democrats of Philadelphia (last week) nominated that JOHN BRODHEAD for City Treasurer!

Here is a confessed "Nigger lover" and traitor—begging office of the arch Rebel Jeff. Davis—the candidate for a high office of the so-called Democracy of Philadelphia! and yet, we suppose, some of them would feel offended if they were called Copperheads or Tories! But read the letter, and see his reward for writing it.

Mr. Walker's address, Friday evening, was before a crowded audience, who paid the best possible attention for one hour and a half. The argument for the Union, and for every sacrifice necessary to sustain it, was strong and irresistible, and heightened by sallies of humor and earnest appeals to the holiest and best principles.

The meeting at New Berlin was well attended, and was addressed by Samuel H. Orwig and John H. Lee, in pertinent, practical remarks. Some who had never heard Mr. Orwig before, were pleased with his plain, unpretending style—so much like that of their former fellow citizen, Samuel Weirick, Esq.—speaking to the reason and the better feelings, and avoiding rant and forensic display.

The following "pufl" from the Juniata Sentinel, indicates that the Opposition are putting forth every exertion possible to carry the District, and they must be counteracted by hard work on our side:

"Copperheads in Richfield.—Saturday last, the friends of Jeff Davis held a meeting in Richfield. Robert Swineford, of New Berlin, made the ditch speech. Joseph Bucher of Lewisburg, and Jack Cummings, of Selingsrove, 'saved the Union' in English. All their speakers are worn out, broken down, political hacks at home—hence they are sent to Richfield. They emptied themselves of the usual Copperhead slang."

The Selingsrove Post says of the new principal of the Lewisburg Female Institute, "Miss Randall is an excellent lady, an accomplished teacher, and we are confident that the Seminary will be ably and successfully conducted whilst under her supervision."

Miss Colinda F. Hilker, the recently chosen Assistant, is well spoken of as a teacher in the Milton public schools.

The finest display of plants we have seen, is from the garden of A. M. Lawhe, Lewisburg. They are of the Magoun Bonum variety—very large, luscious, and thrifty.

The Soldiers' Opinions.

[In our paper of the 18th ult., we asked our readers among the Union armies to give their views on the coming political contest in Pennsylvania and Ohio. The following is the first response we have received. It is from one who, with all his large and influential family) was in early life an ultra Anti-Abolitionist, but who has been in service two years against the Slaveholders' Rebellion.]

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 24, '63.
DEAR CHRONICLE:—In the paper of the 15th inst., you ask a response, from the men in the Union service, with regard to the opinions of themselves, and their comrades. In reply, I will take a Yankee's privilege, and also ask a few questions.

Where do such papers as the New York World, Chicago Times, and Cincinnati Enquirer—which support the very peaceful candidates mentioned—where do they circulate, most freely? Is it in the army? I never saw a copy of either of them, in the possession of a soldier, nor in camp, or garrison. I do not believe copies enough are taken, in the army of all together in a year, to pay for the paper, upon which the issue of any of them is made upon a single day.

Where do you hear the "Constitutional rights of our Southern brethren" most frequently advocated? Is it in the army? Soldiers have a very decided opinion, that traitors in arms have forfeited their rights, and they know that the South has always had all more than all, that she could ever honestly demand. Such twaddle as this, has long since ceased to influence living men.

Where do you hear that peace can be restored honorably by withholding means from the government to prosecute the war? Is it in the army? The question itself shows its absurdity. Search the army through, and the number of men found, who hold this doctrine, would not change the result of an election in the good old town of Lewisburg.

Where do you see men upholding the cause of Slavery? Is it in the army? Soldiers, who have come South in favor of Slavery, will return Emancipationists, almost to a man. That which, when viewed at a distance, was to them a matter of indifference, has become to them a thing so abhorrent—so vile, so inhuman, that no one, who has seen it, and is a man, can do anything but detest the very name of slavery. I can not speak strongly enough, upon this subject—words utterly fail me. In every aspect it is an evil.

1. It is unnecessary.
2. It is enormously expensive.
3. It cripples the energies of the people.
4. It is a curse to the black man.
5. It is a curse to the white man.
6. It is a moral evil, so stupendous, that I could not pollute my pen, by writing what I do know, and what every person MUST KNOW, who has lived at the South.

Do you think that I am some violent Abolitionist? Well, you may be right. I am sure I do not know exactly where I do stand. Ask Mr. Worden if I ever was so regarded, north. Do not deceive yourselves. The army, which has advanced south, has likewise advanced in knowledge, and you will soon find, that they pretty much all of them, believe just as I do. The sturdy, inflexible men, who compose the army, stand shoulder to shoulder, and their influence will be felt and known. They carry their heads erect, and their brains in them.

I tell you, that many of the people at home, are a long way behind the times. The belief that Slavery will soon cease to exist in the country, is a living thought in the army. It is gaining ground among Union men every where, in the South, and you who do not believe that our "peculiar institutions" can be interfered with, will soon see such an array of Emancipationists, in Kentucky and Tennessee, as will make your head swim.

What is worse than a Secessionist? Worse even than a trader in human flesh and blood? A miserable, vile, stinking Copperhead—a Northern pimp to a Southern Slaveholder, whose children and children's children will execrate his memory. A. P. M.

Centre county coming first on the list in that District, the drafted men and substitutes are examined and passed on from Williamsport—21 on Monday week, 33 on Wednesday, and a car load yesterday morning. Nearly 300 men of that county paid the $300. Several substitutes having deserted, they are now placed in the guard house until they are sent off. Loyal soldiers keep all straight in Williamsport.

It is believed that Lt. Tucker and George Stapleton, of East Buffalo, were the only members of Capt. Evans' Co. E. who were killed at Gettysburg. Mr. Stapleton was wounded, and died in the Hospital. His remains have been interred in the Lewisburg Cemetery.

RELIEF—Emergency.—The Committee calculates that one third, or 33 1/3 per cent. of the sums subscribed for the last militia, should be paid, in full of the account, at Lewisburg Bank.

We see in the Copperhead papers a reported "Trial of Abraham Lincoln" by the Country. Verdict of Kentucky—50,000 majority for Old Abe!

Dr. George Byers, of Selingsrove, has been appointed a Surgeon, and taken charge of one of the Hospitals at Chambersburg.

A little boy, only child of Daniel Fisher, of Milton, was drowned last week by falling into the Canal.

Interesting Labors.

Though disabled from public duties, the mind and pen of Rev. Dr. Howard Malcolm are devoted to the interests of the Am. Baptist Historical Society, an incorporated institution of which he is President. His industry, long-life devotion, and general information, well qualify him for the position, and we learn that the collections are already very valuable. The Society desires all sorts of historical, argumentative, and biographical books, pictures, autographs, manuscripts, and records in general of departed or living ministers or devoted members of that order, particularly, in all ages and countries—also Minutes, periodicals in full or broken files, sermons, &c. &c. No matter how old or incomplete, all may have value. It does not confine its collections to Baptists, or to the United States, but desires the history and testimony of good men and women in every country, and proceedings of all benevolent societies of this or of past days. The Society has no paid officers or agents, but defrays postage or freight on contributions directed to 530, Arch St., Phila. Joseph Meixell, Lewisburg, will receive and forward donations left with him from this vicinity.

Mr. SAMUEL AGNEW, N. W. corner of 11th and Filbert Sts., Philad., is performing a similar labor of love—by collecting all works on both sides of the question of Baptism and Communion—which he presents to the Library of the Presbyterian Seminary at Princeton, N. J.

Thousands of perishing memorials, esteemed of little if any value by individuals and families, and in danger of utter loss, are gathered by these organizations, into libraries, and collections, which can be consulted by all persons under proper regulations. The refuse of garrets and corners thus often aids in rearing noble monuments worth their weight in gold.

*To make out a list of the Northumberland Am'n., a copy is wanted of the Minutes for 1827, for 1830 and '31, from 1832 to 1842 both included, for 1846, and 1847.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE.—The loyal press of the State urge that soldiers belonging to this State, who have been in the service over two years, and who at home are legal voters, send in their names at once and be assessed that they may vote. We trust that the Government will permit them to come home to exercise a right of which none but Copperhead Judges would deprive them. This matter is important, as, contrary to propriety, Woodward, the Democratic candidate for Governor, retains his seat in the Supreme Court, and may construe acts bearing upon this point to be constitutional or unconstitutional to suit his prospects.

Alarmed at the prospects, certain unprincipled Democratic leaders in Ohio are urging Vallandigham to decline, or to come out for the War, as the July victory had killed him beyond hope, and they don't want to die with him. But Vallandigham did not want to die with him. He sticks to his party like wax, and will make them "sink or swim" with him. Woodward is in the same boat. Kentucky strikes the key-note of the Fall Elections, and both men are doomed.

Col. Wm. E. Wageneller, who has just returned from a visit to the Western States, reports that the Vallandigham and Rebel-loving Tory party is much below par. In a Columbus paper which he handed us we observe calls for fifty-eight Union meetings during the month of September. We hope the energy which is displayed by the Union men in the Buckeye State, will be emulated in Pennsylvania—Selingsrove Post.

BRIGHT SKIES.—The Union cause never looked so bright, since the beginning of the war, as it does now. Since the first of July the rebel armies have lost one hundred thousand men, and an immense amount of stores; and more important still, their two strongholds in the centre of the rebellion. Now is the time to take courage, and stand shoulder to shoulder in support of the Government and our gallant armies in the field.

The Franklin Repository says of Gov. Curtin: "In obedience to the call of the loyal men of Pennsylvania, he is again before the people for their suffrages. The responsible trust has been accepted, and unless Pennsylvania shall turn upon themselves with suicidal hands, when the old flag is about to wave again over a united Republic, he will be chosen by the largest popular majority ever cast in the State."

Information from Fayette county shows that three hundred old line Democrats of that county have affiliated themselves with Union Leagues. This makes a hole in the Copperheadism of Fayette, as large as Gen. Gilmore's 200 pound Parrots have knocked in the walls of Fort Sumpter. The consequence is, the Copperhead leaders of that county are extensively embittered against the League.

Fisher (Copperhead) having declined to run as Governor of Iowa, they have taken up Gen. Tuttle, a War Democrat. His letter, accepting the chance, is patriotic, but it is not published by Democratic papers generally, and some openly repudiate him.

The Copperheads having got the control of the Democratic wires in Wisconsin, the War Democrats are to have a Convention of their own, and decide what to do to save the country.

In Bedford county, Virginia, the Rebels are compelling men from sixteen to seventy years of age, to arm, and prepare for the field to save the sinking cause of needless insurrection.

A Good One.—In one of the townships of McKean county, there dwells a father and several sons, who belong to that class of citizens who always vote the ticket labeled Democratic, and who still believe that Gen. Jackson runs every four years for the Presidency. When the enrolment officer came around recently, the sons of this family ridiculed the officer and annoyed him as much as possible in the discharge of his duties. Just as he was leaving, one of the boys spoke up, as follows: "Hold on, there, you haven't enrolled the old dog yet," referring to a dog lying by the side of the house. "Well," says the officer, "I have all his pups down, and they'll answer for the first draft!" The boys collapsed.

Among the peculiarities of the draft in Potterstown, were the following: five pairs of brothers were drafted, out of the forty-six persons drawn. Of the bachelors in town, three, all of them over 35 years of age, were drawn from the box in succession. The only colored man in the place subject to the first draft, was taken. Out of a company of fifteen who had joined together as a kind of fraternal insurance association, each paying in $100, five were drafted, thus exactly "cleaning out" the company's treasury.

The Democrats of Centre county have nominated—for Assembly—C. T. Alexander, Bellefonte. Sheriff—Richard Cunnely, Gregg. Prothonotary—J. H. Lupton, Millburg. Register—Philip Cephart, Penna. Treasurer—John Shannon, Potter. Commissioner—Foreman, Snowshoe.

Assistant Surgeon J. H. Salviron, recently in charge of Camp Curtin hospital, has been dismissed from the service, by Surgeon General Wm. A. Hammond—cause, drunkenness. He is a Southerner, and entered the service from Georgia or Florida.

Dr. G. A. Bowes, of New Lewisville, late Surgeon of the Walnut Street Hospital, Harrisburg, and who was drafted, is one of four brothers, three of whom are drafted, and the fourth one is a prisoner at Richmond.

The Union ticket for Lycoming county is as follows: Assembly—Clinton Lloyd. Treasurer—Thomas Wallill. Reg. & Rec.—Theodore Hill. Commissioner—Peter Betts.

The Erie Dispatch—heretofore neutral—has come out for Curtin and Agnew, as the only sure friends of the Constitution and Union against the Rebel horde which tramples on both.—So has the Huntingdon Globe, a Douglas paper.

Col. Stephen Miller, a native of Perry county, and one of the truest men in all respects above ground, has been nominated by the Union Republicans of the State of Minnesota for Governor.

Miss Frances Parker was enrolled, at Lewistown, in Maine, as "Frank Parker," and Frank Parker is drafted!

Ten colored volunteers enlisted last week in Bellefonte.

Latest News

The draft in New York is finished, and 19,000 names are drawn. Gold, 124.

Official reports from Gen. Gilmore say that Fort Sumter is no longer capable of defending Charleston, the bombardment of which continues, and the triumph hopeful.

It is "reported" that Jeff. Davis calls for half a million colored men to defend Secession, and offers each soldier fifty acres of land. (That is hardly "constitutionally" and we don't think they'll abandon the object of the Rebellion so soon by turning wholesale "Abolitionists," thereby bringing their Northern co-workers to insupportable grief.)

It is believed that the Rebels are evacuating Chattanooga, and our arms are prospering in that quarter.
