The Soldiers' Opinions.

The Voice of the Soldiers. CAMP NEAR CULPEPPER, VA., )

Sept. 22, 1863. I am a Democrat and have always been one, but in the present case, if I had the right of suffrage, I should cast my vote for Curtin, for he is emphatically the soldier's friend and benefactor. He is the choice of the 'fighting sons of Pennsylvania," and to prove my assertion I will give you below the vote of the 10th Regt., P. R. C., taken at "retreat roll call," Sept. 14, and also of the 5th Regt., P. R. C., taken Sept. 20th. There has been no interest brought to bear on Respectfully call the attention of Business the men, but they all know who has been the friend of the Reserves. It is also for the good of other soldiers who may be in the field during the next term of Governorship, that we would cast our votes for Curtin. If Woodward should be elected, we would not have a very long season for him to do us good or evil, as our time expires in the spring; but we know what Curtin is, and wish those who may yet become soldiers to have a man who will see that their rights are respected, and their desires fulfilled. Such a man we have in Gov. Curtin.

And now, Pennsylvanians! if you wish your brothers and sons well treated, the war ended, and the Administration supported, cast an honest vote for the Soldiers candidate. But if you wish the war prolonged, the Administration embarrassed, and the soldiers discouraged, vote the Copperhead ticket.

The vote of the 10th Reserves is as follows : Curtin 383, Woodward 9. Here is the vote of the 5th Reserves, by Companies :

Curtin in two regiments.

Hoping that Cartin will be elected by an overwhelming majority, I subscribe myself, W. HAYES GRIER, myself,

First Sergeant Co. A, Fifth Reserves.

[Co D is the one led from Lewisburg by Thomas Chamberlin. Of that, and the one led by H. W. Crotzer, all still facing the foe seem to be unanimous for Curtin. WHO CAN DENY THE APPEALS OF MEN WHO CAN NOT VOTE FOR THEMSELVES? There are a few Penn'a soldiers-at home and in the field-whose Party bigotry makes them adhere to Woodward ; but where he has ONE soldier, Curtin has THIRTY.]
