Republicans! Democrats! everybody! Turn out and hear them!

Don't be Cheated!

False Tickets.

Almost every year, honest men--who do no wrong themselves, and do not expect it from others--are deceived into voting for Democrats, by false, cheating tickets, containing one or more of the names of their candidates, or ours left out.

Too many of our men vote without reading their tickets. We have men in our party, who, out of some personal or other unworthy motive, sometimes undertake to injure one of our candidates, or to help one of his opponents, by handing out false tickets of that sort. Therefore, read your tickets so as not to be made the cats paw of others.

There are but EIGHT candidates to be voted for--the Judge (Agnew) on one slip, and seven (Curtin, Orwig, Balsbach, Marshall, Weikel, Jones, and Seibold,) on another slip. Remember--eight names--one name on one slip, and seven names on the other.

The following is the Ticket--compare every name on it with the tickets you put in:

Judge of the Supreme Court, Daniel Agnew.

Governor, Andrew G. Curtin.

Assembly, Samuel H. Orwig, John Balsbach.

Register & Recorder, Elisha H. Weikel.

Commissioner, Samuel Marshall.

Treasurer, William Jones.

Auditor, William F. Seibold.

THE GOOD CAUSE PROGRESSING.--In every part of Pennsylvania the people are thoroughly aroused and working for the cause of the Union with great spirit and energy. Curtin will go out of Philadelphia with from 8,000 to 10,000 majority, while his gain in other places will be proportionally as heavy. The acts perpetrated by the Copperheads in the New York riots, in connection with the fact, as expressed by the Rebel papers, that the Rebels look to the Copperheads to save their sinking cause, has opened the eyes of the people to the danger of giving them countenance. Everywhere the changes are numerous, and thousands, who a month since were Woodward men, will vote for Andrew G. Curtin, the Soldier's Friend. The prospect of a glorious Union victory is very bright, but no effort should be spared to make Curtin's majority overwhelming. The effect upon the Rebel cause will then be more disastrous to it, and peace be hastened.

There is once in a while a soldier, so hide-bound by party, as to argue for Woodward, but the proportion is daily growing less. All will get home to vote, that can come without endangering the Army, and for those that can not come we must make up by extra exertions and votes by proxy. Nothing could cheer our men on the Rapidan, at Chattanooga, and Charleston, so much as the defeat of Woodward and Vallandigham.

Don't Trade off your Votes.--If the Cops everywhere work for the same man, by concert, they may elect him, as they sometimes have done, in Union county. But do not trade one of them. Let them have for each of their candidates, just Woodward's vote--not one more. Give Curtin's men just Curtin's vote--not one less. Stand or fall together like patriotic, honorable men, in the best of causes.

We have good reports from the recent Union meetings in our county. The Cops, we understand, only allow as 500 maj. Boys! can't we give twice that for Curtin and the Whole Ticket? We think it can be done if we only TRY.

Make your arrangements to be AT HOME to vote, next Tuesday, Oct. 13th, early.

State Elections of 1863.

Table with 3 columns: State, Population, Adm. maj. Rows include Maine, Rhode Island, Vermont, Connecticut, California, Nevada Ter., Kentucky.

The Democrats have not carried one State or Territory this year, and we do not think they will.

Our armies successful at the South--backed up by ballots at the North--and the Democracy and the Rebels will fail in their base design of continuing the War until the Presidential Election.

REPORTED ACCESSIONS.--Among other prominent Democrats alleged to be quietly working for sustaining the Government by the support of its able friend A. G. Curtin, are said to be

Geo. M. Dallas, late Vice President.

Wm. M. Heister, Sec. Com. under Paeker.

Fr. Lauer and G. M. Lammun, of Reading.

Muhlenburg of the old family.

John Cassin, late Speaker of H. R.

These may not all be correctly reported--but, considering the number who are openly sustaining the Governor outside of his party, it would be nothing strange to add these influential names.

Never has there been known such a sinking of Party in the cause of Country, as in this time of need.

George Schure--James K. Davis--Joseph Wenrich--these are names, solemnly, synonymous with Democracy in Selinsgrove. They have not changed their fundamental principles, but they have all come out, openly and above-board for Curtin, as a means of sustaining the power to crush the Rebellion.

"Deserting a Sinking Ship."

Since victory has crowned our National arms, the floating votes, last fall against it, now rush to the support of the Government.

The New York Herald, the most mercenary of all sheets, and the betting characters--two classes of political barometers--point the election of Brough in Ohio and Curtin in Penna.

We have given the names of many of the thousands of Democrats, in Pennsylvania, who are supporting Gov. Curtin--strong, able men--Democrats of the olden time, each of them a center of influence, and representing other men of like views.

There is a significant indication in the fact that Gov. Seymour of New York, in his letter to the State Mass Meeting in Lewisburg, does not mention Woodward by name, but only looks for a "good account of the Democracy of Penna. the day after Election"!!

It has been alleged that Gen. McClellan (with Gen. Meade, and four fifths of his Penna. soldiers) desires the re-election of the soldiers' friend and choice--A. G. Curtin. Whether from policy or from principle, it is certain McClellan does not identify himself with Woodward or with his party. The following, in full, is the letter wrong from him for the same meeting:

DEAR SIR:--I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst. and to regret that it will be entirely out of my power to be present at Lewisburg, on the 17th of October. Please convey to the gentlemen to whom I am indebted for the invitation, my sincere thanks for their courtesy, and my heartfelt wishes that the result of their deliberations may do much towards the preservation of our Constitution, the maintenance of the Law, and the restoration of our Union--THE GREAT OBJECTS WHICH SHOULD NOW BE THE AIM OF EVERY TRUE LOVER OF HIS COUNTRY. With many thanks to yourself for the kind manner in which you have conveyed the invitation, I am truly yours, Geo. M. McCLLELLAN.

This, it will be seen, is still more cold and cheerless than Seymour's, and could have been addressed with more appropriateness to a Republican meeting. He does not mention Woodward, or Democracy, or the Election, but emphatically rebukes the "let South Carolina go peaceably" sympathizers, with their chief.

Going Down--Down!

Having carried Penna. last Fall by 3,500 votes, the Copperhead leaders commenced this year's canvass by claiming 50,000 to 70,000 maj. After the nominations, they authorized their friends to bet on 30,000. One man bet all he had--$1100--on the result. Shortly after, he was amazed and indignant to find that the Committee--in whom he had confided everything--had raised their maj. to 11,000. Last week, on a further canvass, they could only make out 6,500 for Woodward. This is tumbling down at a fearful rate. The tide is surely against them.

Col. A. K. McClure, Chairman of the Penna. Rep. State Com. in 1860, says that a complete canvass and full vote of the friends of Curtin will give him 25,000 to 50,000 majority. Every vote added to his majority is another nail in the coffin of Rebellion.

A gain of two votes in every Election District in Penna., would elect Curtin, but the moral influence of his triumph would be increased--at home or abroad--by every additional thousand majority.

A friend in Northampton county says the maj. against Curtin in that county will be decreased from 1860.

The friends of Curtin expect to carry Clinton county.

Good for Lewisburg!

CARRUFF & PAINE'S hand Hay, Straw & Fodder Cutter, (patented last March,) received the first premium in its class at the State Fair in Norristown, last week.

SLIFER, WALLS, SHRINER & Co. took the first premium ($16 or a silver medal) for the Buckeye as a Mower. Also first premium ($15 or silver medal) on same as a Combined Reaper and Mower. This in competition with some twenty other machines.

Slifer, Walls, Shriner & Co. also received first premium on the Keystone Clover Hauler.

FOUR FIRST PREMIUMS, thus far, give Lewisburg a good name in the line of Agricultural Implement Manufacturers.

A Norristown paper says:

"The Buckeye Reaper & Mower, exhibited by Slifer, Walls, Shriner & Co., of Lewisburg, Pa., is the best and most improved machine on the ground. Its work is so well understood that control upon them is unnecessary. The grand Gold Medal was awarded it at the great Fair at Syracuse, and other medals at nearly all the State Fairs in the country. This company has made an arrangement to supply the whole State, having secured the rights for doing so. The same firm exhibits an elegantly finished CLAY'S MOWER, in which the old spike cylinder is dispensed with, and rollers substituted. This is a decided improvement, as it not only cleans the seed more effectively, but more rapidly also."

Young Men!

Make a right start in politics. Choose the side of Humanity, of Right, of Progress, of Liberty. Oppose: Wrong and Oppression in all their various but ever hateful disguises.

Remember the fate of the advocates of tyranny in all history.

Remember the fall of our Tories of the Revolution of '76, and of the Bluebirds of 1812. They were against their country, and shared the fate of political Ishmaelites.

Remember that intelligent officers and soldiers are best calculated to know, practically, what is most needed to finish up the war honorably and permanently. They care little for mere Party, but for Country they are daily risking all they have on earth. Therefore, take their advice, as you would wish to have your advice taken if you were in their shoes. As they are spending their lives to keep the Rebels from desolating our homes, we might at least confide in their views of policy in casting our votes in their absence.

Think, most seriously and often, ere you dare to vote against the earnest and almost unanimous views of our brave Volunteers, who implore us to sustain the Administration!

The Copperheads have clamored against the action of the Federal Administration in the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, the confiscation law, and all the late war measures, and yet from the mouth of Justice Woodward, the following deliberate words were pronounced in the case of Sharpless vs. Wayn, Judge Woodward presiding, as will be found in 9 Harris, p. 178. We print them, and respectfully ask democrats to read them:

"In adequate emergencies, martial law suspends the HABEAS CORPUS, inflicts summary punishment, and appropriates private property, without regard to the guarantees of the Constitution. Inter arma silent leges."

Which being translated for the benefit of the Copperhead Democracy, means, "in a state of war the laws are silent."

Mr. Montgomery, of Vicksburg, at the late meeting in Danville, after speaking of the Southern rebel leaders having planned this wicked rebellion years ago, referred to what Jeff. Davis said, when he passed through Vicksburg to Montgomery, Alabama, in the early stage of the Rebellion. Said Jeff, "There was no danger of the North fighting--no blood would be shed. The Yankees knew too well the difference between ninety-nine cents and a dollar, to enter into such an expensive thing as war." When the speaker, (Mr. Montgomery) came North, he saw some men who on the label of their coats had pinned a head cut out of a cent, and he (Montgomery) concluded that these must be the one cent patriots which Jeff. had talked about.

HELP FOR COPPERHEADS.--The Richmond Inquirer of Sept. 7th urges Lee to invade Pennsylvania, and says:

"The success of the Democratic party would be no longer doubtful should General Lee once more advance on Meade."

"Let him drive Meade into Washington; he will again raise the spirits of the Democrats, confirm their timid and give confidence to their waverers."

"He will embolden the peace party"--How do the honest Democrats like it?

In New England and New York, colored men can vote, and have no legal disabilities. Yet they have decreased in number since 1840. Abolish Slavery in the South, and the colored population will decrease in Penna. also, and nearly all will go to the warmer climate.

Cheap Goods.--Not until the Rebellion is erased, can we expect Cotton Goods to come down to old prices, for the Rebels burn the cotton or keep it back from markets. So with all kinds of goods--the Rebellion aids speculators in keeping up prices.

Wednesday evening, we print Curtin badges again for the little folks.

This Week for Work.

The Mechanic in his shop--the Professional man--the Working man--the Farmer--each has to work and plan, from year to year, the same thing over and over, to gain his ends.

So in Government, or Politics, to secure the blessings of free institutions, yearly care and toil and expenditure are necessary as to secure our daily bread. There is great truth in the maxim, "Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty."

The Aristocracy of America and of Europe are now combined in an effort to abolish Free Government by destroying these United States, and by establishing a Slave Oligarchy. They are now about putting the Emperor Maximilian upon the throne of Mexico, which the French have captured through the dissensions of the Mexicans. The success of the Rebels, through the divisions at the North, will be the signal for some King or Emperor to be put upon the ruins of the American Republic.

The Governors of the Free States are very important aids or hindrances to Rebellion. While Gov. Seymour's course has caused the weakening of the Army of the Potomac, by 20,000 men, to keep down a Rebellion in New York city, Gov. Curtin's prompt and earnest support of the Government has been of incalculable benefit. With all the Free States under men like Seymour, we are in danger of being conquered Provinces of a haughty foe: we become like Ireland, or Poland, or Mexico. Were all our Governors like Curtin, the War would soon close gloriously for us and for posterity.

One Week to Work. Scatter political documents among men of all classes and opinions. Do not let them lie idle, but keep them going from neighbor to neighbor.

Exhort every man to attend the polls on Tuesday next, and if any are disinclined to aid the Government, try to remove their objections.

Arrange for teams to take those who have none themselves, or are too busy with them at work, or who for any cause may keep away or be too late.

Let two good thorough men be selected from every school district, or every neighborhood, to see that those in their region get to the polls by the middle of the afternoon, or before. This way it will be but a little trouble, and little expense, to get out a full vote. Don't leave it to guess-work, or uncertainty, but make it SURE.

GREAT FIRE.--During the storm of Friday evening last, the Barn of Elias Frederick, in East Buffalo Twp., near the Driesbach church, was found to be on fire from some cause unknown, and was consumed, with most of his summer crops of wheat and oats, some farming implements, a fine calf, and eight pigs. Insured for about $1000, which probably covers half the loss.

The Billmeyer Sawmill, near Milton, was burned down Sunday morning week.

Rev. C. A. Hewitt, of Ill., formerly of Milton, addressed the meeting at Independent Hall, last Saturday evening, (with Messrs. Slifer and Aiken,) and gave a pleasing account of the glowing patriotism of the West. He said the semi-reasonable sentiments enunciated in this region, would not there be tolerated by the people.

FRANCIS J. GRUND, Esq., who made a strong Union speech in Philadelphia on Monday, died suddenly on Tuesday night, from apoplexy caused by excitement occasioned by the rowdy conduct of a Copperhead mob opposite his residence, who hauled him down.

Rev. Jeremiah Shindel addressed the Union Meeting at Northumberland, with Mr. Ketchum, Saturday last. Maj. Shriner was detained by illness in his family.

Our paper has been delayed by printing Paper Books for the Supreme Court, now in session at Sunbury.

The Fair commences to-morrow.

CINCINNATI, Oct 3

The Commercial has advices from Chattanooga to Saturday last. The estimate at headquarters of our loss at the battle of Chickamauga is as follows: Killed, eighteen hundred; wounded, nine thousand five hundred; taken prisoners, two thousand five hundred; total loss, thirteen thousand five hundred.

It was the opinion that if the right wing of our army had held its own the result would have been a decided Union Victory.

The success of Gen. Thomas on the left was much greater than has been represented in any published account of the great battle. Gen. Thomas routed Gen. Longstreet's rebel corps, and was in condition to pursue the enemy had it not been for the disorganization of our right wing. No surprise was felt by our army officers at the rebels not retreating the attack.

The loss of the enemy is believed to be twenty thousand. Our army is in superb fighting trim, compact in organization, well supplied with provisions, has plenty of ammunition and is full of confidence.

On the 28th ult., the Rebels attacked our right at Chattanooga, but were repulsed after a fight of two hours, with considerable loss. A large number of prisoners were taken, all of whom expressed disappointment at the result of the Chickamauga battles. They say their losses in killed were enormous, far exceeding ours.

Advices from Little Rock to the 30th ult., state that 2,000 Unionists have joined our army at different points.

The siege of Charleston is progressing, and even the London Times acknowledge its fall is only a question of time.

Mason has "withdrawn" from England, where the Rebel cause is hourly losing friends. The friends of Liberty all look with much interest on the result of the Fall Elections in the Union.

WHAT THE PEOPLE OF NEW ORLEANS THINK.--The Era says: "The armies of the Union must march on until every rebel in arms is captured or driven from the land."
