The Soldiers' Last Appeal.

(Correspondence of the Star & Chronicle.)
HEAD QUARTERS, 1434 P. V.,
Oct. 4, 1863.

The last lingering hope of getting to vote for him we want for Governor, has gone out. We are camped in front of the enemy near the Rapidan, and must now look to our friends at home to accomplish, alone, the desired object. I am not one given to shoving, unasked, my opinions upon others, but, being denied the privilege of voting, as we had hoped for, until lately, you must excuse us for expressing our judgment.

While reflecting upon things in general, your paper most opportunely arrived, giving cheering and unmistakable evidence of an awakening up of the people to a proper realization of the coming contest. My mind fastened itself upon the present connection between those in the army, and those at home. We both have the same great interests to protect, but we in arms have much more anxiety to see the Rebellion speedily put down, than you can possibly have. We are the living wall that stands between you and the enemy--but, owing to circumstances over which we have no control, we are denied the privilege of casting our votes for the man of our choice, one who has stood nobly by the army, strengthening us by his untiring efforts in assisting the Administration. Now, if we remain to fight out the battles of our country--to defend your property and your homes from the enemy in front--you must exert yourselves in the rear from rebel sympathizers and copperhead treason.

Already, we have had to endure untold hardships, long marches, and fought one three days' battle. You have little idea of the terrible results and effects of war, and it is my earnest hope that you may never experience that curse in the beautiful valleys of Pennsylvania. But fail to elect A. G. CURTIN, and I firmly believe you will feel it in reality.

Whole regiments that were one year ago Democrats, and voted against Curtin, would now, to a man, go for him. We believe him to be our friend. We know he has stood by us, and will stand by us and support the Administration, to the utmost capacity, (if need be) of our noble Old State, to put down the Rebellion. For a short time, work, day and night, and you will have the good wishes and heartfelt thanks of the Pennsylvania soldiers in the army.

JOHN D. MUSSER, Lt. Col.

The CHICAGO Platform.

By request, we republish this document, which the Copperheads are misrepresenting. On reading it, you will be forcibly struck with the truly conservative temper exhibited, and with the wisdom forecasting it so admirably for the evils which we have to grapple in our day. Legally and peaceably chosen, this Administration, in being faithful to the Constitution and the country, have had no occasion to be false to their principles or to their friends.

Resolved: That we, the delegated representatives of the Republican Electors of the United States, in Convention assembled, in the discharge of the duty which it is our constitutional duty to perform, in the following declarations:

1. That the history of the nation, during the past four years, has fully established the propriety and necessity of the organization and perpetuation of the Republican party, and that the causes which led to its existence are permanent in their nature, and now more than ever before demand peaceful and constitutional triumph.
2. That the maintenance of the principles promulgated in the Declaration of Independence, and embodied in the Federal Constitution, is essential to the preservation of our republican institutions, and that the Federal Constitution, the Rights of the States, and the Union of the States, must and shall be preserved.
3. That to the Union of the States this nation owes its unprecedented increase in population; its surprising development of material resources; its rapid augmentation of wealth; its happiness at home, and its honor abroad; that we hold in abhorrence all schemes for Disunion, come from whatever source they may; we congratulate the country that no Republican member of Congress has uttered or countenanced a threat of Disunion, which is essential to the maintenance of our Congress without rebuke and with applause from their political associates; and we denounce those threats of Disunion, in case of a popular overthrow of their ascendancy, as denying the vital principles of a free government, and as an avowal of contempt for the power invested in it by a contracting people.
4. That the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially the right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions, according to its own judgment, is essential to the maintenance of our political faith depends, and we denounce the lawless invasion, by armed force, of any State or Territory, no matter under what pretext, as among the gravest of crimes.
5. That the present Democratic Administration has far exceeded our worst apprehensions in its attempt to subvert the Federal Government, and in its attempt to force the infamous Lecompton Constitution upon the protesting people of Kansas--in constraining the personal relation between master and servant to involve an unequal balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political faith depends, and we denounce the lawless invasion, by armed force, of any State or Territory, no matter under what pretext, as among the gravest of crimes.
6. That the normal condition of all the Territories of the United States, is that of free and equal citizenship, and that as our republican fathers, when they had abolished Slavery in all our national territory, ordained that no person should be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, it becomes our duty, by legislation, whenever such legislation is necessary, to maintain the provision of the Constitution against all attempts to violate it; and we deny the authority of Congress, of a Territorial Legislature, or of any individual, to give legal existence to Slavery in any Territory of the United States.
7. That we brand the recent re-opening of the African slave-trade, under the cover of our national flag, and the perversion of judicial power as a crime against humanity, a burning shame to our country and age, and we call upon Congress to take prompt and efficient measures for the total and final suppression of that execrable traffic.
8. That in the recent votes, by their Federal Electors, and by the Legislatures of Kansas and Nebraska prohibiting Slavery in those Territories, we find a practical illustration of the boasted Democratic principle of non-intervention and Popular Sovereignty embodied in the Kansas and Nebraska acts, and that the perversion of the deceptions and fraud involved therein.
9. That Kansas should of right be immediately admitted, as a State, under the Constitution recently formed and adopted by her people and accepted by the House of Representatives.
10. That while providing revenue for the support of the Federal Government, by duties upon imports, sound policy requires such an adjustment of these imports as to encourage the development of the industrial interests of the whole country, and we commend that policy of national exchanges which secures to the workmen liberal wages, to agriculture remunerative prices, to mechanics and manufacturers an adequate reward for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the nation commercial prosperity and independence.
11. That we protest against any sale or alienation to others of the public lands held by actual settlers, and against any view of the free Homestead policy which regards the settlers as paupers or applicants for public bounty, and we demand the passage by Congress of the complete and satisfactory Homestead measure which has already passed the House.
12. That the National Republican party is opposed to any change in our nationalization laws, or any State legislation, by which the rights of citizenship hitherto accorded to immigrants from foreign lands shall be abridged or impaired; and is in favor of giving a full and efficient protection to the rights of all classes, whether native or naturalized, both at home and abroad.
13. That appropriations by Congress for River and Harbor Improvements of a national character, required for the accommodations and security of an existing commerce, are authorized by the Constitution, and justified by an obligation of the Government to protect the lives and property of its citizens.

To the Polls!

TUESDAY NEXT

Is a day looked for with interest by every friend and every foe of the American Republic. The election of the Governor and Legislatures of two States like Ohio and Pennsylvania, may do much towards closing or for protracting the War which is waged for the destruction of our Government and of Free Institutions.

OF OHIO, there is no fear that Vallandigham will be successful.

PENNSYLVANIA is contested with the energy of despair by the friends of the Judge who said, "let South Carolina go peacefully if she go at all," and who pettifogged her case. Lies most diabolical--systematic operations most formidable--and appeals to all the baser passions and the ignorance of the masses--mark the course of the opponents of the Administration. But we earnestly hope they are all futile, and that the intelligence, the patriotism, and the virtue of our honest masses are too much for all our wily and most unscrupulous foes.

But Election Day itself must see the work done. Let good men and true stand at every poll to see that every voter has the right story told him, and is supplied with the true Union Tickets. And let there be plenty of men, outside, to see that the aged, infirm, and lukewarm are all persuaded to attend, and in good time.

With such efforts, we shall think there can hardly be a failure. The People seem aroused--some thousands of soldiers have come to rest, and vote--and our friends are sanguine. Last fall, we had no organization, and labored under the reverses to our arms of Generals who had no heart in the War: now we are pretty well organized, and our live, hearty Generals, have given us six months of glorious victories. Every State Election has been in our favor. With such encouragements, LET EVERY MAN DO HIS DUTY, and success seems assuredly ours.

Beware!

of "Last Cards," lying handbills, false War news, and spurious tickets, from now until Election closes.

Beware of reports that this man, or that man of influence, in Lewisburg or elsewhere, has "turned for Woodward." We have heard of fifty reports of this kind, against our best, firmest men, all of which are wilful falsehoods, fabricated for effect.

Just go ahead and vote the undoubted Union Ticket, as the Union soldiers in the field, and the Union men in the South, want you to do, and you and your children will be proud of your votes for A. G. CURTIN and his comrades on the ticket.

County Ticket.

The masses of our party have selected for themselves a local ticket, composed of competent, honest, unexceptionable men, worthy of every vote of every lover of the Union. The Opposition afterwards, by Delegates representing only themselves in some cases, got up a ticket of respectable men, whom they called "Constitutional Unionists," instead of the usual humbug "Democrats." They do not expect to elect one of these men, but they put them up to trade off votes for Woodward. If they can get any silly or thoughtless Unionist to "trade," they will agree to vote for some of our men--who they know will be elected--if they can get a vote for Woodward, who they give some hopes for. That is, they will give us nothing if we will give them something! Away with all such trifling folly--don't be cheated--vote the clean thing, as follows:

Judge of the Supreme Court
Daniel Agnew.
Governor,
Andrew G. Curtin.
Assembly,
Samuel H. Orwig.
John Balsbach.
Register & Recorder,
Elisha H. Weikel.
Commissioner,
Samuel Marshall.
Treasurer,
William Jones.
Auditor,
William F. Seebold.

Vote for Agnew!

No time for change of officers in the midst of a battle, for the new officer has not the knowledge of the old. In ordinary times, civil changes are well enough, but neither Lincoln nor Curtin could transfer to other and perhaps hostile men the fruits of their knowledge, their experience, their ripe judgment in the management of affairs. Considering the circumstances, they have done most remarkably well, and when we see how the country was betrayed by others it would be folly to wrest power from their hands and give it to novices. Let well enough alone.

Vote for Curtin!

There are still living a few old persons who believe that the Revolution of 1776 was wrong, and that we will "have to come back to King George yet." So there are those who think it all wrong to thwart the Rebellion, and that Slavery and Democracy must again be called on to establish good government and prosperity! Old fogeyism goes good only in the past, none in the present. A present evil counter-balance all future good. They would not endure the trouble of clearing the soil to realize the best farm ever seen. "They would eat of the almond but they hate the trouble of breaking its shell." Endurable Slavery is better to them than the Liberty that costs one effort.

Vote for Orwig!

OMINOUS--The platform upon which stood Lowrie, Woodward, Dean, Purdy & Co. at the State Mass Caucus at Sunbury last Tuesday, broke down to the ground--happily, "nobody hurt." Purdy said it was because they had an "abolition" plank in their platform. This confession that the Floyd party are stealing even the Abolition supports, may be true--at any rate, the whole grand load of sin came down! Pride often gets a fall!

Vote for Balsbach!

"Reverend" H. C. Dean--a Methodist preacher who has fallen most sadly--is the leading Copperhead orator in this region. His appearance and speech indicate that he has abjured temperance, truth, and other virtues in descending to advocate the cause he does. But the Selingrove Times and other papers that abuse any minister who denounces the twin-sisters Slavery and Rebellion, not only fail to assail this H. C. Dean, but even dub him "Hon."

Vote for Weikel!

Let the Cops lie about Taxes if they choose--pile it up high as they may--every vote cast for Woodward only tends to increase that debt by prolonging the War. Or if the Rebels conquer by diplomacy or arms, they will add their debt to ours, and thus DOUBLE it.

Vote for Marshall!

"Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." Orators and Editors who exhaust their powers of condemnation against President Lincoln, and have none left for the Rebel Davis, plainly show they are for the Rebellion at heart if they dare not say it.

Vote for Jones!

The Fall Elections in Connecticut show a Union gain from last Spring's victory, tho' the Soldiers not there to help us. The tide is with us.

Vote for Seebold!

James M. Hopkins, who ran against Thad. Stevens for Congress, presided at the late Monster Mass Meeting for Curtin, this week, in Lancaster. Forney names a dozen leading Democrats who support Curtin, while Woodward's chief friend seems to be "Aunt Sally Buchanan." Put up another thousand for Old Lancaster.

After all the efforts, the Cop. raid on Mifflinburg left Lewisburg two thirds less in numbers than the impromptu rally of Unionists for the same place weeks ago.
