The Result in the State.

The Woodward State Committee have made up their estimate of the vote for Governor at the ensuing election, based upon the report of their party friends in the different counties. A War Democrat, supposed by them to be "all right on the goose," called at the Committee rooms in Philadelphia to ascertain how their estimate footed up. He was shown the calculation, which elected Woodward, by a bare majority of 6,600 votes. Looking over the counties to see how this result was obtained, he found Berks reported to give 7,800 for George W. Woodward; Montgomery 1,800; Schuylkill, 5,000; York, 3,000, and so on, while in Philadelphia, Lancaster, Allegheny, &c., the majorities for Curtin were correspondingly reduced. The Woodwardites on the Committee as good as conceded that the game was up, unless Lee could be induced to make another raid into Pennsylvania about election time. This was their only

We may add, in this connection, that the Union State Committee have also made up their table of probable majorities upon data furnished by reliable parties in the different counties. In their calculation Berks is set down at 6,000 majority for Woodward, (more t an she can give,) Schuylkill 3,000; Montgomery 1,200, &c. Philadelphia 6,000 for Curtin ; Lancanter 5,500, Allegheny 6,600, &c. The result foots up about 30,000 majority for Curtin in the State. The tide is setting Received the 1st Premium at Penn. State strongly in the right quarter, and is gaining impetus every day. The election of polled.

An Ominous Incident.

Henry C. Dean, a Southern preacher, Representatives, elected to that position by beard, and that too without regard to the the votes of Southern Congressmen, just previous to the breaking out of the rebellspeakers at the so-called Democratic meet-ing in Sunbury, last Tuesday. When this renegade preacher was denouncing and slandering the Government, in the this Cutter is held at home: midst of his slanderous and treasonable tirade, down went the platform on which he was speaking, and down with it went Heary C. Dean, Geo. W. Woodward, Walter Lowry, and the rest of the magnates sitting upon it. After the crash, woodward was first to stick his head above the ruins, followed by the bald pate machine, we have never seen its equal. Its simplicity above the ruins, followed by the bald pate above the ruins, followed by the bald pate durability, price and the case and accuracy with which of Lowric, while Dean, and the rest of the the knife can be adjusted to the cutting bar and length of cut regulated, are points which recommend it to all speakers, Presidents; Vice Presidents, and Secretaries, crawled out of the ruins like so many copperheads crawling out of a heap of loose rubbish.

Highly excited about the breaking of their platform and the downfall of their "State Ticket," they accused the Union men of tampering with their stand, and, being greatly in the majority on the ground, a number of these so-called Demcerats fell upon a wounded soldier by the name of Townshend, whose arm had been shattered at Gettysburg, and was still in this maimed defender of his country!

The breaking down of the platform, and the tumbling to the ground of the copper- call on us, or on T. G. The Two Faces of the same. In 1863, in order to catch Union votes, the regular Copperhead caucus for Soyder of county passed the following:

"That the democratic party always has been of and ever will be the union party, and that the 97 democracy of Sayder county are in favor of the restoration of the Union as it was and county are inferenced to the Constitution as it is, and for this purpose of we pleder our UNQUALIFIED SUPPORT "In the PEDERAL GOVERNMEN!" In the three places of the Pariotal Support of the Times, (the only democratic outpaper in the county) makes the following me open (and true) confession:

es, "We deny that the concluding portion her of the resolution in any sense whatever expresses the sentiments of the democracy of Snyder county. They are unalterably and contrary to right and justice and subcersive and contrary to right and fundamental principle RF upon which the republic was founded, and that no man can be a good democrat who advocates the presecution of this war. We advocates the presecution of the Snyder county from the sentiments of the Snyder county out of every one bundled are anti-war.

Hang the Slavery Question.

"Hang the slavery question! I'm dismen to your brother, who is even now running through the streets yelling at the People. It surpasses all others in top of his voice, "My house is burning up! Don't notice the fire at all, for I'm disgusted with it. Let us ignore the fire. and put out the conflagration!" We can ignore the fire and extinguish the flames. just as easily as we can ignore slavery and put down the rebellion. Why, the rebellion is to slavery what a cough is to consumption-only its legitimate manifestation. We can not avoid the slavery question; we must either settle it, or it will pettle us most effectually, forever .- Nashville Union, (Tennessee.)
