

UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., TUESDAY, OCT. 20, 1863.

"THE UNION," established in 1814—Whole No. 2,639.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843—Whole No. 1,018.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

The Mechanics and working men of Lewisburg are entitled to most of the credit for the splendid vote for Curtin in this vicinity. They have started the celebration noticed in another column, and invite the cordial co-operation of all so disposed. They desire to have it a free and hearty jubilee—unmarred by riot or dissipation—without any needless offense to their defeated neighbors—to be participated in by everybody who feels like it—and to close early and in an orderly manner.

Should the day prove unfavorable, the best means possible will be provided. Before Election, many of our country friends desired a chance to "beat" the Woodward demonstration. They now have the chance.

The Williamsport and Milton Bands are engaged. As the speakers invited have not had time to reply, we shall not name them.

Remember, the minority have rights and feelings. If they do not choose to illuminate, they should be mollified. "Do as you would be done by."

Paste this up for reference. What Work does—our Union County majorities.

In 1860, and in 1863, Union county was pretty well canvassed by both parties, and the result was large Republican Union majorities. In 1862, our party allowed the Democrats to have their own way—all the speeches, all the hurrahs, all the excitement—and they cut our majorities down nearly one half. See the following figures:

| WORK. | NO WORK. | WORK. | NO WORK. |
|------------|-----------|-----------|-----------|
| Rep. Dem. | Rep. Dem. | Rep. Dem. | Rep. Dem. |
| Lewisburg | 241 | 177 | 256 |
| Bradley | 83 | 51 | 87 |
| Boffalo | 87 | 65 | 78 |
| East Buff. | 27 | 28 | 5 |
| West Buff. | 75 | 24 | 27 |
| Hartley | 12 | 14 | 11 |
| Kelly | 115 | 88 | 128 |
| Lewis | 24 | 22 | 38 |
| Limestone | 22 | 1 | 1 |
| Millburg | 14 | 8 | 10 |
| New Berlin | 27 | 17 | 8 |
| Union | 43 | 38 | 110 |
| White Deer | 85 | 38 | 8 |
| | 27 | 73 | 8 |
| | 828 | 498 | 782 |
| | 27 | 73 | 8 |
| Majorities | 801 | 425 | 774 |

This shows what WORK will do. As a general rule, people receive as truth what they READ and HEAR. If they hear and read truth, they vote accordingly: if they receive error, they vote wrong. The lesson is—Diffuse correct information, and the Election Returns will be right. And the coming Winter will be the best time to occupy the public mind with political intelligence by means of discussion, newspapers, and pamphlets. Let the Union Leagues continue their organizations—sowing good seed, in quiet times, to bear fruit in the next political harvest.

State Election as far as heard from.

Curtin 18,184 majority. Lowrie runs better than Woodward, but is also defeated. The counties yet to hear from officially can hardly change it more than a thousand either way.

We did not publish the vote for various minor offices in detail, in Union county, because we had not time, and they vary but very little. The candidates generally had a few extra votes at home, or picked up a few among their "friends," but there was very little cutting or trading of votes.

To-day, we will print Curtin badge-gratulations, for little folks—and big ones, for big folks, for pay.

The October Victories!

PENNSYLVANIA was lost to the Administration last year, by our own carelessness, failing on State Ticket by 3,500, and the Legislature by 1 vote. This year, on a fuller vote, we carry by 18,000 to 20,000 of popular vote, and gain the Legislature and a State Treasurer. It was a fierce and momentous contest, as

In the line of October, The masses went forth to the polls thick and more so. And thousands were roused—Woodward the vain, And Lowrie the Judge, by the Soldier boys state. And Abraham, chief ruler, and Andrew the true, Sustained by the votes, were ordered as true-blue, And Opponents and Rebel-skins around the day When they challenged the people in voting array!

OHIO was also lost last fall by our own supineness, and his friends had the honest impudence to take up the traitor Vallandigham for Governor. He is defeated, by the Home vote and by the Soldiers, to the tune of 75,000 or 100,000. Avant, traitor!

INDIANA elected County Officers mostly of the Union stripe—gains. In IOWA the Democrats, hopeless of success with a Peace man, took up a good Soldier for Governor. But the people didn't like his company, so they elected Col. Stone, Rep., by a trilling maj. of 20,000 or 25,000.

NEBRASKA Territory elects a Republican Legislature.

BALTIMORE elects Administration City Councils with hardly the show of opposition.

—Such is the popular verdict for sustaining the Government in crushing an infamous, causeless Rebellion. May November echo October!

"Never Despair of the Republic!"

Most of our Democratic friends look to the verdict of the ballot-box with graceful defiance. They beat us, a trifle, last year, on a small vote; They this year lose, by a large majority, on a greater vote. They know they are fairly, honorably defeated. Though against their judgment, they submit, as good citizens ever should—but as slaveholding Rebels did not. Indeed, some of our minority neighbors have a smile in one corner of their mouth, as if they rather liked it. And more than one have said they have voted their last Democratic ticket.

Others, unfortunately, look cross—blue—almost as disconsolate as a "starved mule chewing a thistle!" Especially do those orators and editors who have lied the worst, and tried most to deceive the honest people, take it hardest. They have staked all against the Government—practically working with the Rebels—and lost. They think everything is ruined—simply because a slavery-loving man is not elected Governor of Free Penna! But they should console themselves with the fact that we have a Governor true to the nation and to the loyal people, and that the Union is to stand though any and all present parties fall.

Gen. Cameron's Predictions.

The evening before the recent Election, SIMON CAMERON presided over a Union meeting at Harrisburg. He said he voted not for the man, but for the cause, and predicted the triumph, by re-election, of ANDREW G. CURTIN. In conclusion, the General said:

"Now, gentlemen, let me prophesy a little—for an old man may be permitted to do this. The people of Pennsylvania have re-nominated Mr. Curtin because the war is going on, and because they believe it would not be wise to change the commander. Let me prophesy that in a short time there will be another person re-nominated and re-elected, and that person will be ABRAHAM LINCOLN. [Defeating applause, continuing some moments.] I might say more on this subject, gentlemen, but you have responded so heartily that it is unnecessary. Only remember that I make the prophesy."

Gen. Cameron is a sagacious man, and gives expression to the popular feeling in this matter.

The Millburg Telegraph states that Mr. Sands accepts as Cashier of the new Bank—C. H. Hasenplug to be his Deputy at Lewisburg. Also that Fred. Smith has gone over to the Copperheads, so that he can no longer injure our party by betraying while pretending to belong to it. Mrs. F. Gutelius, and Mrs. Harter of Millheim, were thrown from a wagon, and the latter had an arm broken. A. W. Orwig has opened a Photographic establishment.

"Preserve some of the Tory Papers."

Yes, label and lay them by, for after years to see how men, professing Democracy, struck hands with open Rebels to throttle this heaven-given Government in its hour of trial. Lay them by, that the names of the leaders and abettors in this conspiracy may be embalmed together, and can not be denied.

Certain boasting, grandiloquent editors, full of bombast, oratory, and nigger, before election, are awful tame, since. They are now going off into raptures about October, and the beauty of the falling leaf—they abjure politics, and take to literature! Their brags about 50,000 for Woodward, were only jokes—he! he!

NATIONAL THANKSGIVING.

A Proclamation, by the President of the United States of America.

The year that is drawing towards its close, has been filled with the blessings of fruitful fields and healthful skies. To these bounties which are so constantly enjoyed that we are prone to forget the Source from which they come, others have been added, which are of so extraordinary a nature, that they can not fail to penetrate and soften even the heart which is habitually insensible to the ever watchful Providence of Almighty God. In the midst of a civil war of unequalled magnitude and severity, which has sometimes seemed to invite and provoke the aggressions of foreign States, peace has been preserved with all nations, order has been maintained, the laws have been respected and obeyed, and harmony has prevailed everywhere, except in the theatre of military conflict. While that theatre has been greatly contracted by the advancing armies and navies of the Union, the needful diversions of wealth and strength, from the fields of peaceful industry, to the national defence, have not arrested the plow, the shuttle or the ship. The axe has enlarged the borders of our settlements, and the mines, as well of iron and coal, and the precious metals, have yielded even more abundantly than heretofore. The population has steadily increased, notwithstanding the waste that has been in the camp, the siege and the battle-field, and the country, rejoicing in the consciousness of augmented strength and vigor, is permitted to expect a continuance of years with a large, increase of freedom. No human counsel hath devised, notwithstanding the mortal hand had worked out these great things; they are gracious gifts of the Most High God, who, while dealing with us in anger for our sins, hath nevertheless remembered mercy. It has seemed to me fit and proper that they should be solemnly, reverently and gratefully acknowledged, as with one heart and voice, by the whole American people. I do, therefore, invite my fellow citizens in all parts of the United States, and also those who are at sea, and those who are sojourners in foreign lands, to set apart and observe the last Thursday of November next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to our beneficent Father, who doth reside in the heavens; and I recommend to them that, while offering up the ascriptions justly due to him for such singular deliverances and blessings, they do also, with humble penitence for our national perverseness and disobedience, commend to his tender care all those who have become widows, orphans, or sufferers in the lamentable civil strife in which we are unavoidably engaged, and fervently implore the interposition of the Almighty hand to preserve the health of the nation, and restore it, as soon as may be consistent with the divine purposes, to the full enjoyment of peace, harmony, tranquility and Union.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this third day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-eighth.

A. LINCOLN.

WM. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

Loyal Democrats.

"Here's our heart and hero's our hand" in all sincerity to all those loyal Democrats who preferred their country to party. The country owes them a debt of gratitude. Every Democrat who voted for Curtin is a moral hero. The Douglas Democrats have at last discovered the great mistake they made in permitting the Breckinridgers to gain the control of their party. If Douglas had lived, it would not be so. That patriot would have kept his party steady for the Union. His death threw it into confusion. His friends, however, will now rally and throw overboard the tricksters who crept into the chief places in the party. We would not only thank Douglas men, but many who, believing them to be thoroughly loyal, voted for Bell and Breckinridge. These voters proved their patriotism by voting for Curtin.

The Bell Ringers—Blaisdell Brothers, & Co.—re-appear at Independent Hall, Saturday evening of this week.

They are of established reputation as good singers, and all parties can join in hearing good music.

One of the scores of the Lewistown True Democrat was that Rev. Jeremiah Shindel "fell dead" ten minutes after making a Union speech. He has made a great many Union speeches, but as far as we know he "ain't dead yet!"

The Union Committee for Union county acknowledge the efficient services of those who addressed the several meetings held in various parts of the county during the campaign which has just closed. They also acknowledge with great satisfaction the services of those in their respective districts who spent a portion of their time in various ways aiding to bring about so desirable a result at the election on the 13th inst., proving that Union county is truly loyal to the Government of the United States when engaged in the suppression of an uncalled for and unjust Rebellion.

The result of the elections in California, Maine, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Iowa, &c., may, we think, be a pretty sure index of the campaign to take place for President in 1864.

CHAS. C. SHORLEY, Chairman Union County Committee. Lewisburg, Oct. 17, 1863.

LEAVES.—The falling leaves are a nuisance on streets or walks, but are very good manure on grass, strawberry beds, &c. Sweep or rake them out of the way, and put them where they will be useful.

The extensive sale of stock and Farming Implements of R. P. King, in Chillisquaque, is postponed until Friday the 30th of this month, at 9, A. M.

A small Farm property in White Deer township is advertised for sale in today's paper.

WAR NEWS.

The heavy firing heard at the front of the Potomac Army on Wednesday, was an engagement between a large force of Rebels and a portion of the Army of the Potomac in the vicinity of Brantow's Station. Infantry and cavalry were engaged on both sides, and the result was a decided Union victory, the Rebels being badly beaten, with the loss of an entire battery and 450 prisoners.

Rebel invasions do not appear to succeed well. That just undertaken by Shelby in Missouri terminated most disastrously to his forces. Gen. Brown succeeded in getting at them three times in a running fight, and finally cornered them, when a battle ensued which lasted five hours. The Rebels were completely routed and scattered in all directions, with the loss of all their artillery, baggage, and a large number of small arms, and prisoners. Their loss in killed and wounded is also very large. Our forces were in pursuit of the scattered Rebels at last accounts.

The loss of Rebel railroad stock at Grenada, Miss., was quite as serious as the most extravagant estimate made it appear.

Our latest information from the Army of the Cumberland states that Wheeler, who attempted to destroy Rosecrans' communications, has been chased back again across the Tennessee, glad enough to give up his enterprise and seek safety within the Rebel lines.

It now appears that the Rebels have a perfect blockade in Charleston Harbor against our iron-clads. They have reserved a passage for their own craft, after the manner of a canal with a safety lock against Union vessels. In view of this fact, time will be required for the consummation of plans now being made for overthrowing these obstructions and reaching the other Rebel defenses.

The Navy Department will soon advertise for proposals to raise the sunken vessels in Hampton Roads. There are about twenty of them.

Among the captures by our troops at Cumberland Gap, was a large Rebel mail bag, the contents of which have afforded both amusement and instruction to those who have examined them. Among other things, the letters confirmed beyond all question that the Georgia troops are as dissatisfied as any in the Confederate service. Out of the large number of Georgia letters in the mail, but two placed any confidence whatever in the Rebel cause.
