FOR PRESIDENT,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN

State Election as far as heard from.

Susquehanna	1292	941
Tioga	2887	1087
Union	774	39
Venango	316	2550
Warren	908
Washington	350

The above are all official except five or six, and give Curtin about 16,000 maj. The Adm. have 4 maj. in the House, and 1 in the Senate—5 on joint ballot.

SNYDER COUNTY stands proudly erect, after all the efforts of the K. G. C.'s and others to corrupt and entangle her honest people. Special efforts for "the martyr," Hilbish, give him 24 more votes than Woodward has. The following are the majorities in the districts:

	Curtin	Woodward
Beaver	145	59
West Beaver	89	2
Center	104	33
Franklin	69	87
Jackson	23
Middlebrook	15
Penns	83
Selinsgrove	87
West Perry	2

Aggregate maj. for Curtin, 427.

The following county officers (all Rep.) were elected by a similar vote:

Assoc. Judge—Dan'l Witmer, Chapman. Sheriff—Moses Specht, Beaver. Commissioner—Jos. Wenrich, Selinsgrove. Treasurer—Henry Schoch, Middlebrook. Auditors—John W. Brown, Freeburg. Daniel Dieffenbach, Penns.

With such officers—and men like Gen. Schnure, Wenrich, Davis, and others, of Selinsgrove, openly on our side—"the enemy" might as well let Snyder county alone!

Vandalism is defeated by 60,000 of the Home vote in Ohio, and the votes of the soldiers are to be added! Was ever popular indignation so marked? Turned out of Congress last year—condemned as a traitor by men of his own party—and now rejected by 100,000 of his fellow citizens—verily, that "dog has had his day," and Canada is his fit burial place. Will his eulogizers in Pennsylvania—Buckalew and his like—follow him?

A Democratic Editor says: "We have met the enemy, and—we are on parole."

Very good: but some of them, growling about the "Abolition, Black Republican, Woolly head, Nigger War, Greenback, National Debt, Oppressive Tax, Military Arrest, Suspension Vox Populi" party, sink to their holes, "and draw in the holes after them!"

"Dunore Union" is the title of a lively Republican journal, just started in Sullivan Co., Pa., by S. Frank Lathrop. This effort of 363 voters to sustain an exponent of their principles, shows "spunk," and we hope they have the "rocks" in corresponding ratio.

Little Union "beats" old Mother Northumberland on Governor—thus: Union for Curtin maj. 774 North'd for Woodward do 708

Maj. for Curtin and Union 66

Old Union gave Gov. Wm. F. Johnston 1201 maj. She now gives Gov. Curtin the same: Union 774, Snyder 427—1201.

In our next, we hope to inform the Union county Drafted Men what days they are required to report at Lewisburg for the usual examinations, &c.

Some additional Real Estate in White Deer township and New Columbia is advertised in to-day's paper.

Sale of Property of Mrs. Sarah L. Van Valzah, dec'd., at Buffalo X Roads, to-morrow.

The name of Brough, the successful candidate for Governor of Ohio, is pronounced bluff. The Copperheads will see, therefore, that it rhymes with tough, rough and enough.

Celebration in Lewisburg. PEOPLES' JUBILEE!

Many deemed the time altogether too short for the proposed commemoration of the recent Union victories in arms and at the polls. From Saturday until Wednesday, in these busy times, was not long enough for very many to know and prepare for it. However, such is the feeling of the masses, that the response was quick and spirited. The crowd was probably the largest ever convened in Lewisburg. The procession numbered over 100 vehicles, (including one drawn by 16 black horses, and another by 12 white horses, from Hartley and Lewis,) and there were over 100 already in town, "to see the sight" instead of being seen. Quite a number of horsemen, mostly from Kelly township. A good delegation from Chillisquaque. Individuals from many neighboring boroughs and townships. And happy-looking ladies, young and old, and enough children labeled "Curtin" to ensure a bountiful supply of Republican voters for twenty years to come.

For feeding the multitude, four long tables were spread, by the side of Commissioners Department, and a small army of waiters assisted in providing the food which came in abundance from country and town. By count, 500 persons stood at the first charge upon the tables, which were replenished as the eatables were flanked and captured; and squads and individuals walked up and refreshed themselves for hours. Probably 3,000 persons had a meal at the ground. "An ox and a half" was cooked in "sections"—the Rangers killed a bear and furnished some of his meat—turkeys and chickens in considerable numbers were disposed of—and of bread and pastry, vegetables, sauces, &c., a very handsome assortment, but all disappeared except some bread and apple butter, while the pickled bones "testified for themselves" that the only failure was in the meat department.

The department of the well-dressed, intelligent multitude on the ground, was excellent, as was often remarked—joyful, respectful, no quarreling, and not one drunken man to be seen.

Two stands were erected for speaking, and one for the Bands. In commencing upon the latter, too many persons crowded, and the staging fell, but no one was hurt. The first organization was as follows:

President—Geo. F. MILLER.
Vice Presidents—Jacob Smith, Philip Ruhl, John Wittenmayer, Robert Candor, James Haffpenny, Robert H. Laird, Michael Kleckner, James Marshall, Moses Chamberlin, Hunter Condey, Conrad Sheekler, Wm. Brown Sr., Charles Montelius, James Shields, Fred. Bolender, John Ruhl, Samuel Swengle, Charles Gudykunst, Charles Cawley, Wm. F. Wilson.

Secretaries—Karl Volkmar, C.E. Haus, J. R. Cornelius.

Col. Stifer read a despatch from Gov. Curtin, stating that his health was improving, but he did not feel able to leave home. He hoped, ere long, however, to meet and greet his friends in Union county.

The audience were addressed by Rev. T. M. Reese of Lewisburg, Col. S. B. Thomas of Harrisburg, Senator Henry Johnson of Muncy, Maj. C. H. Shriner of Mifflinburg, and Rev. J. Green Miles of White Deer Valley. The speakers had not come prepared, but made short addresses, pertinent to the occasion, which were well received. The general sentiment was that of gratitude to God that our State had not been delivered over to the care of those who had so much sympathy with those waging this cruel war of joyful congratulation with each other, irrespective of old party names, that we had triumphed over the machinations of bad men, and asking all good men to join with us in rejoicing that our lawful rights are preserved, so that we as freemen can elect our own rulers—that the General Government has been vindicated, in the Elections of this year, by 250,000 majority—that our Soldiers are thereby encouraged, and the Rebels are dispirited—and that the good beginning made this year by the people they should and would and must follow up until our President is re-elected, and every foe in arms against our heaven-given Government is put down.

Over $100 were collected in aid of the Soldiers in service.

At the second stand, excellent addresses were made by Robert F. Clark, Esq., of Bloomsburg, Hon. Frank Bound of Milton, and Capt. C. C. Shorkley of Lewisburg.

The big teams and hundreds of visitors left town at an early hour for pleasant rides homeward, but many hundreds remained until evening, when general illumination of the dwellings, stores and shops, of rich and poor, took place—on the whole, very creditable for so novel an undertaking. The torch-light procession numbered about 350 persons, (including some very recent converts from Woodwardism) who traversed the principal streets with music, banners, transparencies, &c. A wagon from Williamsport exhibited on one side the words "Curtin and Woodward"—a good portrait of Curtin quite visible, and a curtain drawn, behind which Woodward was supposed to be, computing how much his "incalculable blessing" has helped him. On the other side was the Judge mounted on a big Snake in the Salt Sea, steering from Penn'a to Dixie, but on the shore of the latter stands Jeff. Davis with a Seesch club saying, "You shan't come here."

We copy as many of the devices and mottoes as we can recall, to show the temper of the times:

The Election is over:
Will Woodward now speak?

The "reign of fanaticism,"
Like that of '76.

Witte and Carrigan:
are their souls marching on and which way?

Ohio beats us—cause why?
Her snake came out of his hole.

Now let us remember
A year from November.

O, don't you pity
Poor Billy Witte?

Woodward is discharged on Habeas Corpus.

The Liberties of the Country are safe.
Civilization,
death on snakes.

Lewisburg, 256 for Curtin:
300 for Lincoln in '64.

Ohio Soldiers,
"All Democrats"

The Last Nail in the Coffin of Copperheadism.

Every religious paper in Ohio, we believe, came out in unequivocal terms against the moral and political traitor Vallandigham's election. The first-born State of the Ordinance of '81 is saved that foul disgrace of having the modern Arnold at her head.

"The British Lion,
With voice angry and rough,
Grows the triumph of Bruce,
While our Copperheads tremble and quail:
And while they are weeping,
He holds his eye looking
VALLANDIGHAM under his tail."

"ONLY ONE"—One hour lost in the morning by lying in bed, will put back, and may frustrate all the business of the day.

One hole in the fence will cost ten times as much as it will to fix it at once.

One unruly animal will teach all others in its company bad tricks.

One bad habit indulged or submitted to, will sink your power of self government as quickly as one leak will sink a ship.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—A correspondent of the New York Evening Post, a Texan, objects to giving the right to vote to free blacks: "Because," says the Texan, "in six months after you give the negroes a right to vote, half the Democratic politicians in the country will go about swearing that they have negro blood in their veins."

DIPHTHERIA.—Here is a remedy said to be excellent for the cure of diphtheria: A small quantity of sheep's suet, say a spoonful, chopped fine, and boiled in a gill of milk, and drank on retiring to bed. Of course, the throat is to be bound with flannel.

Moosey, the guerrilla, is alive, after all, and moving about—some say upon one leg, some upon two.

Bond Beneath the Blast.

When sorrow's tempests round us roar,
And overwhelm the soul—
Oh! trust not thou to worldly pride,
Or quail the tempting bowl;
But, with a firm and trusting heart,
Bond low beneath the blast;
And He above who chasteneth thee,
Will raise thee when 'tis past.

The lofty oak, the mountain pine,
So stately in their pride,
Must bend or break before the storm's
That on the night winds ride;
While the meek willow lowly stoops
Before the raging blast,
And lifts its head, in beauty decked,
When storms and clouds are past.

So thou, O man! must lowly bend,
When sorrows 'round thee press:
They may be angels in disguise,
To lead to happiness.

Oh! trust to Him who reigns above,
And bend beneath the blast,
And He will raise thy drooping soul
When storms of life are past.
