LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, NOV. 6, 1863.

"THE UNION," established in 1814---Whole No. 2,641.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843---Whole No., 1,020.

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY---
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

☞We believe the STAR & CHRONICLE was the first paper to formally propose President LINCOLN for re-election. We have heard numerous responses to the proposal, and no objection. Gen. Cameron and Gov. Curtin have been named as Vice President—very strong names. But our opinion has been that John M. Botts, Andrew Johnson, or some other Southern Union man, who has personally suffered by the Rebellion, should be the associate of Lincoln, not only from policy, but for justice. In 1860, a Republican running for Vice President, in a Slave State, would have been murdered by those now in Rebellion; we trust it will be far different in 1864. Leave that station for after consideration, is our advice, but let it be understood that he, who has done so well, shall have the chance to conclude the contest as President.

☞Such is the confidence of the world in the suppression of the Slaveholders' Rebellion, that the U. S. 5.20s are now sold at the rate of over Two Millions per day! Those who desire a good investment and to aid the Government, should buy quickly if they desire it, for the amount is limited. The Lewisburg Bank will assist those desiring to purchase.

☞The Evangelical Association, at its recent General Conference in Buffalo City, passed very radical resolutions in favor of the policy of the Administration in suppressing the most unholy of Rebellions. Four members, only, dissented, but they voted for another set of resolutions which would have been styled "ultra Abolition" two years ago. The membership of the whole body is now estimated at 60,000, and a Conference was established in Canada. In selecting Bishops, one was elected from the growing West, in lieu of the Rev. W. W. Orwig from the Eastern part of the field. All the Delegates from Ohio, went home to vote against Vallandigham, and returned for business.

MIFFLINBURG ITEMS.—Surgeon J. H. Hassenplug, 106th P. V., has been honorably discharged for physical disability .....Rev. Franklin B. Wolfe, a graduate at Gettysburg, has left to labor in New Orleans for the U. S. Christian Commission.....Mr. Cook's Concert, at the Lutheran house, Tuesday evening, Nov. 10 .....The Telegraph criticises some bad manners in church goers, such as ordering or "looking" out of a seat, strangers who may get in one's pew; walking to a seat before taking off one's hat; and spitting tobacco juice on the floor of God's holy temples.

Judge Woods last week left at our office a beet, which, with the top on, weighed nine pounds, and measured 23 inches in girth. He informs us that he has a considerable lot nearly all as large—the whole grown among cabbages.—Lewistown Gazette.

A good-sized beet—but the best "beat" in Mifflin county this year was that "raised" against the Copperheads: the Unionists had a majority for every one of their candidates.

SHAMOKIN TOWN.

☞The "Herald" laments the early death of Dr. J. Farley Reed.....The Presbyterian house of worship took fire from a defective stove pipe, but the danger was discovered in time to be remedied with little damage.....Owen M. Fowler, the present Editor, prints the finest and most business-like paper yet issued from Shamokin.

☞The Union county drafted men report at Lewisburg as follows:

Friday, 13th Nov.—Brady, Buffaloe.
Saturday, 14th—East Buffaloe, West Buffaloe, Hartley.
Monday, 16th—Kelly, Lewis, Hartleton.
Tuesday, 17th—Lewisburg.
Wednesday, 18th—Limestone, Millmsburg, New Berlin.
Thursday, 19th—Gaine, White Deer.

Every man to bring along his two notices.

☞Rev. Wm. C. Cattell, of the O. S. Presbyterian Church in Harrisburg, has been Chosen President of Lafayette College, (Easton) in which he was formerly a Professor.

☞Rev. A. F. Shanafelt, in the Muncy Luminary, thanks those friends (who do not allow him to publish their names) who forwarded him $330 to pay commutation and expenses to "Cæsar," that he may continue in the ministry.

☞Assessors are now taking the number of Taxables in each District, as a foundation for the apportionment of Senators and Assemblymen by the next Legislature of Penn'a.

☞We regret to learn of the death, by fever, at Selinsgrove, of J. P. Gutelius, one of the editors of the Post, and a son of the late Judge Gutelius.

☞A good tract of Timber Land, on Shamokin Ridge, will be offered for sale at Biehl's Hotel, Friday, 20th Nov., at 2, P. M.

Rev. Dr. H. Harbaugh, of Lebanon, is elected Professor of Theology by the German Reformed Synod, for Mercersburg.

Illegal Voting.

The largely increased vote of Pennsylvania this year, has raised (on both sides) general but not very specific charges of "false" or "fraudulent" voting. It is not alleged that there was stuffing of ballot-boxes with enormous votes, as on the Canal lines in 1838, or in the Kansas border towns. But it is said there is too large an increase of votes, swelling up the majority, in a particular county, like Berks or Allegheny, to unexpected proportions. And individual instances of wrong are mentioned. But this is no way to substantiate the serious, sweeping allegations of gigantic impositions. If the names of any illegal or fictitious persons are found as having voted, the charge is so far sustained, and no farther.

In White Deer, Kelly, Lewisburg, &c., in our county, there was a large increase of votes over any prior election, yet we presume no one will say there were more erroneous votes than may happen any year—perhaps less, for both sides were more than commonly watchful. Over in Chillisquaque and other Opposition districts, that party made gains, by getting out (as we did elsewhere) the last man that had a vote. And so, we think, it was generally—as fair a contest as usual—one with which both sides should be satisfied, until they show real cause for complaint.

It is true, there are questions always arising as to the right to receive a ballot from paupers, prison convicts, transient persons, those of unsound mind, &c. But some times one party has the advantage of these questionable voters, and some times the other. It might be well, by cases stated, to test their legality before the Courts, or to procure Legislative action clearly defining these points as far as may be.

Those general, wholesale accusations, however, are evil and unjust, for they charge crime indiscriminately, tend to destroy confidence in the purity of the ballot-box, and thus to undermine free government. Doubtless, if there be any wilfully illegal or corrupt voting practised, it is the duty and right of any and every officer and good citizen to see it punished and prevented in the future. That would be useful and praiseworthy in all respects, while general complaining about trifling or imaginary wrongs, and no corrective of real wrongs, does more harm than good. Seek to try and convict, under the laws, both illegal voters, and election officers, who knowingly or carelessly violate the rules of the ballot-box; but cease from wholesale slanders of large classes of men not proven culpable.

Woodward's Tactics.

Most readers remember the sentiments of Judge Woodward in Dec. 1860, and some of them heard his non-committal remarks at Lewisburg. At Bellefonte, he said, according to the Press:

"The only question before the people for discussion this fall, is whether the executive officials now in power shall be continued, or whether the people desire a change. So far as my observation among the people has been, I am of the opinion that the people of the whole country are in favor of the Union, and only differ in the means for perpetuating it; and therefore I again say that it is not my intention to discuss the issues, as there are gentlemen here, to do this, much more able to do so than myself."

At Look Haven, the Democrat reports him to have said:

"All the people of Pennsylvania were unanimous in the opinion that the rebellion should be suppressed, but as to the mode of accomplishing it there was a diversity of sentiment between Democrats and Republicans."

At Sunbury, a hearer reports he said:

"1st. The Rebellion must be subdued. 2d. The Constitution must be sustained. 3d. The Union must be restored."

—We put this on record to show how much, as he moved among the people, he found it necessary to raise his patriotism above his original position, which was, "Let South Carolina go in peace, if she go at all." Great as were his advances towards the true position, he yet fell short of it.

Commutation Money.

A "War Gazette, Official," dated Washington, Nov. 1st, announces that persons who paid the commutation money in the late draft, are not counted in any deficiency of any State, but they are counted the same as so many persons going into the army in person. Towns, also, which have raised the money to pay their quotas, receive credit for as many men as if substitutes had been furnished. The President has also ordered that every citizen who has paid the $300 commutation money shall receive the same credit therefore as if he had furnished a substitute, and is exonerated from military service for the term for which he was drafted, to wit, for three years. From this, it will be observed that all persons who paid the $300 commutation money, are clear of any further draft for the term of three years from the time of the last draft.

M. Kieffer & Co., of Chambersburg, have issued a German Reformed Almanac, which they send post paid at 8 cents each, 75 cts per doz., or $7 per gross at the expense of the receiver.

November Elections.

"Beneath thy skies, November!
Thy skies of wind and rain.
Around their blazing camp fires
The People speak again!"

THE EMPIRE STATE.—Last fall, by promise of sustaining the Government against the Rebels, H. Seymour was elected Governor of New York by 10,000 maj. His course before and during the Copperhead riot, proved him a hypocrite. This fall, there were three sorts of Democrats united on one ticket. 1st. Those who claimed it as a War Ticket. 2d. Those who claimed it as a Peace ticket. 3d. Those who claimed it as a "Democratic Ticket." The Unionists had a State ticket pledged to Pres. Lincoln and his measures, which is elected by 40,000 maj, and the Legislature is 2 to 1 Union. All hail New York—a gain of 50,000 on the right side!

MASSACHUSETTS re-elects Gov. Andrew (Rep.) by a 2 to 1 vote, and State Senate unanimously of his views, while there are but 15 or 20 Assemblymen opposed to the "despot Lincoln." God bless the "Cradle of Liberty!"

WISCONSIN gave us but a handful of a maj. last Fall, but now elects a Rep. State Ticket by 12,000 to 15,000 maj.

MINNESOTA is Republican far as heard from. The new Governor, Col. Stephen Miller, was a Methodist local preacher in Perry Co., Pa., afterwards a temperance lecturer and editor of the Telegraph at Harrisburg.

ILLINOIS.—Returns on county Tickets show very large Union gains, indicating a Union maj. in the State.

KANSAS.—Republican as far as known.

MISSOURI do do

MARYLAND.—No opposition to the Unconditional Union and Emancipation Ticket, in Baltimore. The State Ticket and three Adm. Congressmen certainly elected—the two other Congressmen uncertain.

And "the Jerseys." No State Ticket. The Unionists have made handsome gains, but not sufficient to secure a maj. in the Legislature. No fair effort was made on our side, and it is possible the Cops. have a maj. of the popular vote in one Free State.

DELAWARE has a member of Congress to elect, and that closes the Elections of 1863.

Union Meeting in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 28.

There is a mass meeting here. It is the most immense affair that has been witnessed. Monument Square is packed with the mass, stretching from side to side. Processions from all the wards, with transparencies, etc. The enthusiasm is beyond all bounds. The platforms are covered with some of the most prominent men of Maryland, draped in flags and crowned with mottoes: "The Union," "Emancipation," "Goldsborough," "Freedom Dawns on Maryland," "Slavery is Dead—its Treason Killed it," "We go for the Government at any cost," "Here are the East Baltimore Emancipationists," "Slavery the Shame Spot of the 19th Century," "How are you now, Vallandigham?" "Free Labor and Free Speech," "Away with Slavery," "Down with Slavery, and up with Human Rights," and several with figures of negro soldiers, and such phrases as "I gibs it to de Copperheads," "I fights for de Union," etc., etc.

H. Winter Davis, the first speaker, said he had just returned from carrying the war into Africa, in the lower counties of Maryland; that the struggle was over, the victory already won, and nothing remained but the formal proclamation of the verdict the people had already decreed. Sec. Chase was received with immense cheering, and made a speech exciting the utmost enthusiasm. Gen. Garfield of New Orleans, Judge Kelley of Philadelphia, Samuel Galloway of Columbus, and John Covode of Pennsylvania, made short and stirring speeches, and Marylanders are at this hour (after eleven) continuing the meeting.

Conspiracy Detected.

The U. S. authorities have broken up, in and near Cincinnati, a somewhat dangerous organization of Rebels and Copperheads. Their design was to release and arm the 3,500 Rebel prisoners at Camp Chase, seize the State Government of Ohio, and by the aid of co-workers elsewhere, inaugurate civil war in the North, or deliver it over to the Jeff. Davi's dynasty. The Government has happily nipped this bold, bad game in the bud, and should punish to the last extent any and all proved to have been engaged in it.

This, and the recent attempt to burn Western Steamboats in Government use, reveal a desperate and most atrocious spirit among the Rebels. On their last legs, they will commit any crime to give the proud, villainous leaders a chance to prolong the war.

Richmond papers intimate too plainly that the women and children of that region are sorely suffering for bread. The loyal people have to pay higher prices, but the awful sorrows of the poor among the Rebels we have no conception of.

The Enrolment and the Draft.

James B. Fry, Provost Marshal General, on the 19th Oct., made a report to the Secretary of War, from which we take the following extracts, showing that the draft is comparatively more successful, and at a less expense, than loose general statements in the papers would indicate. Mr. Fry says:

Of those drawn in the present draft, including the 50 per cent. additional, over 80 per cent. have reported. Of the 20 per cent. not reported, many are not deserters, being unavoidably absent at sea and the like. The deserters are being arrested.

Of all examined, about 30 per cent. have been exempted on account of physical disability, about 30 per cent. have been exempted under the provisions of the act, or found not liable to military duty on account of alienage, unsuitableness of age, non-residents, &c.

About 40 per cent. of the men examined have entered the army in person, furnished substitutes, or paid commutation.

The propositions are based upon the reports up to this time from the seventy-three Congressional districts where the draft has been completed, or has most nearly approached completion.

Since the Rebellion began, 200,000 soldiers, after entering service, have been discharged on Surgeon's certificate of disability. It is probable that at least one-half of them were unfit for service when received. Forty millions of money were uselessly expended in bringing them into the field, to say nothing of their subsequent expense to the Government.

In Great Britain, under the system of voluntary enlistment, the rejections average over 26 per cent.

Of the recruits who presented themselves for enlistment in our regular army in 1852, 70 per cent. were rejected for physical infirmities, exclusive of age or stature.

All the expenditures up to this time on account of this bureau, including the enrolment, draft, and pay of officers and persons connected with it, are but little over $1,200,000. These include all made on account of the machinery which has produced the arrest and return of twenty thousand deserters.

The amount of money received from the draft up to this date is about ten times as great as all the expenses incurred on account of the enrolment act.

☞It seems generally conceded that Henry D. Moore, Esq., of Philadelphia, is to be re-elected State Treasurer—an office he has, twice, very satisfactorily filled.

For Attorney General, Hon. Wm. M. Meredith, it is admitted by all, can not be excelled. It adds not to his ease, fame, or pecuniary ability, for that venerable gentleman—the head of the Philadelphia bar, and once a member of the National Cabinet—to be the legal adviser and guardian of our State. But the times demand the best services of our best men, and his continuance in office—a continued proof of earnest, self sacrificing patriotism—will add new lustre to his name, to be noted in the history of these eventful years.

So, also, Col. Eli Slifer, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, has exhibited a practical, business-like sagacity and faithfulness, worthy of his retention.

Three years' experience of the Governor and of his confidential advisers—reaching back beyond the era of the attack upon Fort Sumter—have given them knowledge and adaptation for the duties of their positions, which they could hardly transfer to others. The subordinates could best work, as they have thus far, with the constituted head, who the people have decided to continue in his high office, on the one issue of faithful support of the National Administration and tender care for the sons of the State fighting in her behalf.

☞The gallant Maj. HARRY WHITE, while in service in the U. S. Army, last year, was elected to the Senate of Penn'a by the people of Indiana and Armstrong counties. Resigning his military office, he served honorably and faithfully in the Legislature last Winter. Re-entering the Army in the Spring, he was taken prisoner at Winchester, and is now one of our many suffering brothers in the filthy Libby Prison, at Richmond. He is a Republican, and makes one of the Union maj. in our Senate. Should he not be exchanged, that body will stand 16 to 16. Unless one of the Opposition Senators has the honor to withhold his vote, or vote so as to aid the admitted majority to re-organize the body, there can be no change of officers. Speaker Penney, of Allegheny, is already chosen, and the other Officers will serve until their successors are duly qualified.

GETTYSBURG.—According to the Mobile Register, Lee's losses in that memorable fight reached twenty-five thousand men killed and wounded. Two months from now, Chickamauga will foot up the same number on the Rebel books, and one of these days the Southern people will get their eyes open to the deceptions and falsehoods of the Rebels.

The dupes of the Copperheads feel sore at their late losses in betting. They hold their leaders justly responsible for making them believe that Woodward was elected. Poor devils, their leaders can't tell the truth even to benefit their misguided followers.

Six Generals and two Colonels leave the U. S. Army, this month, to take their seats in Congress.
