There's a little mischief maker That is stealing half our bliss, Sketching pictures, in a dream-land, Which are never seen in this; Dashing from our lips the pleasure Of the present while we sigh-You may know this mischief maker, For his name is "By-and-by."

He is sitting by our hearth-stones, With his sly, bewitching glance, Whispering of the coming morrow, As the social hours advance. Loitering 'mid our calm reflections, Hiding forms of beauty nigh, He's a smooth, deceitful fellow, This enchanter, "By-and-by.

You may know him by his mineing, By his careless, sportive air, By his sly, obtrasive presence, That is straying everywhere; By the trophies which he gathers, Where his cheated victims lie, For a bold, determined fellow, Is the conquerer, "By-and-by."

When the calls of duty haunt us, And the present seems to be All the time that ever mortals Snatch from long eternity. Then a fairy hand seems painting Pictures on a distant sky, For a cunning little artist Is the fairy "By-and-by."

"By-and-by" the wind is singing, "By and by" the heart replies, But the phantom just before us, E'er we grasp it, ever flies. List not to the idle charmer, Scorn the very specious lie, Only in the fancy liveth This deceiver, "By-and-by."

Three Wise Paragraphs.

BOYS, TAKE HEED !- In a short time past, a number of young men in various parts of the country, have been arrested for high crimes. It has turned out, in every instance, lessons of ruffianism were taken when they were permitted to be on the streets, in the evenings, among bad associates. The rum shops, the hotels and the gambof hell. It is the frequenting of such places and indulging in idleness without any honest object in pursuit to absorb one's time and mind, that make murderers, swindlers, or highwaymen of thousands, who, if properly trained, would be good and useful members of society. How is it in our community? Parents! can you tell how and where your boys spend their ving their minds, and conducting themselves in such a more conducting themselves in such a manner that you feel assured will never dishonor their families, injure society, and ruin themselves by indulgence in crimes? or are they roaming the streets, lounging in stores, shops, taverns, or worse places, and fitting themselves for the poorhouse, penitentiary and the gal-lows? These are solemn questions, that should startle every parent. Ponder them, carefully and prayerfully. Think of the duty you owe your children, to God who gave them, and to society which is to suffer by your negligence or be blessed by your watchful care and thoughtful training. A fearful responsibility rests upon you, and you should be able to discharge your duty to those under your care, so that they may not become obicets of dread and loathing in com- OFFICE (on Market St.) formerly occupied J.S. Marsh. E.Shorkley. C.C.Shorkley. P. Scaver munities when you are no more.

Collections and other professional business promptly attended to. Claims for Pensions, IDLE GIRLS .- The number of idle, useless girls, in all our large cities, seems to be increasing. They lounge or sleep through the mornings, parade the streets during the afternoons, and assemble in frivolous companies of their own and the other sex to pass away their evenings. What a store of unhappiness for themselves and others, are they laying up for the coming time, when real duties and high responsibilities shall be thoroughly assumed! They are skilled in no domestic duty-nay, they despise them; have no habits of industry, nor taste for the useful. What will they be as wives and mothers? Alas for the husbands and children, and alas for themselves! Who can wonder, if origin, development, and progress of the docvarious phases which they assumed, until the final culmination in the Great Rebellion. in follow? It is one of the world's oldest maxims, that idleness is the nursing mother of all evil and wretchedness. How sadly strange is it that so many parents-mothers, especially -forget this, and bring up their daughters in dainty idleness! They are but sowing the wind to reap the

GIVE HIM A TRADE.—If education is the great buckler and shield of liberty, well developed industry is equally the buckler and shield of individual independence. As an unfailing resource through life, give your son, equally with an education, a good, lishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this work; and they confi-dently believe that it will form the most trust-worthy and valuable history which can be honest trade. Better any trade than none, though there is ample room for the adaptation of every inclination in this respect. Learned professions and speculative employments may fail a man; but an honest handicraft trade, seldom or never-if its possessor chooses to exercise it. Let him feel, too, that productive handicrafts are honorable and noble. The men of trades-the real creators of whatever is most essential to the necessities and welfare of mankind-above all others, in whatever repute they have been held by their most fastidious fellows, must work at the ore of human progress, or all is lost. But few brown handed trade workers think of this, or appreciate the real power and position they compass. Give your son a trade, no matter what fortune he may have or seem likely to inherit. Give him a trade: he can always battle with temporal want with this, and can always be independent disease.

THE Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapted to the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life-giving properties.

For ages has the treatment of pulmonary diseases of empled the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquired more eminence in his treatment of three diseases, than the established Pressian IV. Hoofhard, the originator of the fisismic Cordial. His lifewas devoted to the production of remedies that would stand nurivaled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge: and we positively assert, that no preparations that have ever been pinced before them, have conferred the same amount of benefits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so many commendations from all classes of society, as the remedies of Hoofhand, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philiadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of diseases more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subject—those springing from a "slight coil." That eminent autherity, Dr. Bell, says: "I will not say that Colds are to our inhabitants what the Plaque and Yellow Fever are to those of other countries; but I can aver confidently that they usher in disease of greater complicity and mortality than these latter. Bead what the eminent authality has these latter.

DR. C. M. Jackson-Respected Friend: Having for a long time been acquainted with the virtues of the RAL-SAMIC CORDIAL.

SAMIC CORDIAL in Coughs, Colds. Inflammation of the Lungs, &c., I thus freely bear testimony to its efficacy. For several years I have never been without it in my family. It is also gives me pleasure to state that I have used it with entire success in the treatment of Bowel Complaints. Thy friend truly, JUHN M. WHITALL.

LINDSEY'S Improved TO BLOOD SEARCHER, - A STANDARD MEDICINE For the speedy, radical and effectual cure of Al.Ldsea grising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD;

THIS medicine has wrought the most miraculouseures in desperate cases of Rerofula Cancerous formations, Cataneous diseases, Kryslpelas, Boals, Pimples on the face, Sore Eyes, Scald Head, Old, stubbern Uleers, Tetter affections, Continuous, Continuous, Continuous, Continuous, Continuous, Continuous, Cata Rheum, Mercurial diseases, General debility, Liver Compilaint, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, Foul Stomarh, Female Compilaints—and all diseases having their origin in an impure clafe of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of Bavid M Crear of Napi. Twp, who, on the list day of August 1858, mad-enfiday is before Justice Goriey that he was treated for the current Canons by three physicians of Bedfurd county, and by the before Justice Gertley that he was treated for the current Cancas by three physicians of Hedinal county, and by Dr. Newton of the Rejectic Carlege, Unclineat, for a period of nearly eight months, new inhamining which his cip, more, and a parties of his helf check were extirely enter owar! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and (although saily disfigured) there is no question but this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to a case of Nancy Bleakney, of Edierton, Armstrong Ca. Pa. curved of Scovetta after being unable to get out of bod for three years.

To the case of deady in Ansonville, Clearfield Co., who was also afflicted with Scrotula in its worst form.

To the case of sentre being the solution in Carrolltown. Cambria Co., Pa., who was a badily in Carrolltown. Cambria Co., Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it can his entire nose of, and his case was worse, if possible, than MCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the "Blood Searcher"—may also be found in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.
