UNION COUNTY STAR & LEWISBURG CHRONICLE---NOV. 27, 1863.

ron Ail The Year Round. Things that Never Die. The pure, the bright, the beautiful, That stirred our hearts in youth, The impulse to a worldless prayer, The dreams of love and truth ; The longings after something lost, The spirit's yearning ery The strivings after better hopes-These things can never die.

The timid hand stretched forth to aid A brother in his need. The kindly word in Grief's dark hour, That proves a friend indeed : The plea for mercy, softly breathed, When justice threatens high, The sorrow of a contrite heart-These things shall never die.

The memory of a clasping hand, The pressure of a kiss, And all the triffes, sweet and frail. That makes up love's first bliss; It with a firm, unchanging faith, And hely trust and high, [met, Those hands have clasped, those lips have These things shall never die

The cruel and the bitter word, That wounded as it fell; The chilling want of sympathy, We feel, but never tell ; The hard repulse, that chills the heart Whose hopes are bounding high, In an unfading record kept-. These things shall never die.

Let nothing pass, for every hand Must find some work to do; Lose not a chance to waken love-Be firm, and just, and true. So shall a light that can not fade Beam on thee from on high. And angel voices say to thee-These things shall never die.

The amount of the new fractional currency already issued amounts to more is $10 000. There is no confirmation of the report that this currency, so sharply eriticised in numerous quarters, will b withdrawn and a better article substituted.

Under the new arrangements for recruiting for the armies in the field with increased bounties and assurance of prompt payment, volunteers are offering in increased numbers. The Twelfth Illinois cavalry has re enlisted as a veteran regimeet, and the advanced pay and bounties have been paid. The Nineteenth Pennsylvania cavalry bave also received their

The authorization obtained from the French Government by a French shipbuilder to build ships of war at Nantes. and which ships were supposed to have been intended for the Robels, was obtained by the false pretence that the ships were building for the Chinese Government. As soon as the frand was discovered, the huilder was forbidden to proceed with the work. It is announced from Washington that in the whole matter the French Gov ernment has acted in a frank and cordial manner.

The different counties of Indiana are outvying each other in endeavoring to soldiers' families comfortable, and mike help the Santary Commission. A soldiers' supper, at Lafayette, the other night, notted three hundred and thirty dollars. Carroll county has given two hundred and thirty five dollars in cash, and four hundred wagon loads of provisions ; one gentleman in Richmond has given one thousand dollars, and these are only examples

From the 49th Pa. Vols. [A Lewisburger in the 49th P. V. gives the following account of the battle of Rappahanuock Station, in a lotter to his brother :]

CAMP NEAR RIXESVILLE, VA., Nov. 6, 1863.

I suppose you have heard of the fight at Rappahannock Station. Our brigade was the storming party. We were led by our Brig. Gen., Russel. I tell you it was hot and heavy for about two hours. It commensed about half an hour before dark. The 6th Maine deployed as skirmishers, in front of the remainder of the brigade, which consided of the 5th Wisconsin, 119th and 49th Pa. We had to charge half a mile-a good distance to ch rge, with knapsacks on, and eight days' rations in them. When we reached the top of the hill we were to charge from, the Robels began to pour grape, caunister and shell into us. Then we got orders to fix tayonets, and forward at a double quick I did not know it was a charge until we got within a quarter of a mile of the hill where the forts and rifle pits were. When we got orders to commence cheering, then I knew what was up, for the minies began to fly as thick as bail. Ou we went, up to the works, where we had it hand to hand for two hours-shooting, and punching across the rifle pits with the bayonet. Our regiment did "bully"- men never fought better. I saw the report in the papers about the fight, and it don't mention the 49th Pa. The 6th Maine said if it had not been for the 49th Pa, the tifle pits would not have been taken. They ought to know, for they did the skirmisbing. After we capthan $100,000. The largest daily issue tured the place, the 121st N. Y. and 5th

SECRETARY CHASE --- When we lock back to our Revolutionary history, we see the names of Hamilton and Morris stand ing out boldly as the great financiers of the times. And we can now understand that the ability of the financier is almost, if not quite, as important in carrying on a succesful war as that of the General. In after years, the name of Salmon P. Chase HAY, STRAW & FODDER CUTTER will hold the same relation to the history of the existing war as do the names we have referred to hold to the revolution. Mr. Chase has shown a figuneial ability in providing the means for carrying on this ed to the future historian.

Hooker's lines, broke loose and charged furiously across the field can be made to cut rapidly. The length of toward where a Georgia regiment was stationed. Thinking it was eavairy, or something else, the regiment broke in confusion and ran, leaving one thousand Enfield riffes of the best description beshow in proof of the incident."

The vote of the Ohio soldiers is coming in heavier than was anticipated. It is thought it will reach forty or forty-two thousand. This will run Brough's majority pretty close up to 160,000. The soldiers' vote is wiping out the Copperhead majority in most of the few counties that were catried by the home vote. One of the gratifying features of our late election is the one-sided character of the soldiers' vote. Out of eighteen thousand returned. Vallandigham received less than one thousand. This is a record of the patriotism of the soldier that will fill the brightest page of our history.
