

UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.
At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, DEC. 11, 1863.

"THE UNION," established in 1841—Whole No. 2,646.
"CHRONICLE," established in 1843—Whole No. 1,025.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

With today's paper, we send to mail subscribers an EXTRA STAR and CHRONICLE containing the President's Message and other matter. It is a document characteristic of the honest, straight forward LINCOLN, and will be read by more than one other State paper ever issued. It commands the respect of all candid men. Reader! show it to such of your neighbors as you may think do not have it.

"Westward the star of empire takes its way," leading naturally to the Town Lots in Chamberlin's Addition to Lewisburg. See Advt's among other new Real Estate for Sale or Rent in today's paper.

The vote for Mr. Colfax, Speaker of the National House, is somewhat larger than we anticipated. The Pro-Slavery Union Clerk (Eberidge) had dropped enough real Members, and put on enough bogus names, it was hoped, to make confusion; but the majority required him to call the names of those elected, and thus blew to the winds the hope of the conspirators. Hale and Tracy of Pa. voted with the Adams, as we supposed they would. Bailey, Miller, and the other Opp. members from Pa., refused to vote for Cox (Vallandigham's right hand man) but voted for Dawson of Pa. A majority of the Border State men voted with the Administration Members. The Opposition failed to agree on any man, except for traitor Eberidge for Clerk, who was defeated. Hon. E. M. Pherson, of Gettysburg, having 32 3/4. Ordway of N. H. was re-elected Sergeant at Arms; Goodnow of N. Y. Postmaster; King of Minnesota, Post Master. All the officers are Republicans or Union Democrats.

TO TEACHERS—Arrangements have been made to board all the female teachers who may attend the County Institute which will meet in Mifflinburg on Monday, the 28th instant, in private families, free of charge. The male teachers can obtain board at the hotels at the following prices: Union House, 75 cents per day; Lawrence's Hotel, 60 " " " Mrs. Schuler's Hotel, 60 " " " Columbia House, 50 " " "

For once, let there be a gathering of ALL the Teachers of Union County—a thing never yet accomplished, owing to accidental circumstances. Arrange the matter beforehand—be there the first day—and you will have a Happy Holiday season, we doubt not—the last three days of it still remaining for individual or private recreation.

HAAS & BOWEN, miners, of Mt. Carmel, have lost about $3,000 by the stoppage of their works, caused by laborers who banded together not only to work any more at former rates but also to prevent any other persons from working in their places. Military force was found necessary, when the conspirators were ejected, their places filled by men willing to work and to let others work, and eight of the ringleaders sent to the Subury Jail. These ignorant men have been led to take such a violent course by political scoundrels who escape their punishment. No man should be compelled to perform private labor for any less sum than he may choose to consider fair compensation for such labor; but none can dictate to others that they shall not work for less or more.

In other words, employers and laborers must make their own terms, without interference from outsiders of any kind.

We are informed that on a recent Sabbath evening, at Lincoln Chapel, in Hartley township, a man from Ohio, reputed a Christian, was, as an act of courtesy, invited by the minister to pray for the mourners at the altar. He replied, so as to be heard by the congregation, "I don't pray for abolitionists." This uncalculated for, impudent speech, reveals the genuine Vallandighamite. The Christian is taught to pray even for his enemies—for all men, even for those he may think are wrong. "Remembering those in bonds as bound with them," and praying for magistrates, are clearly taught in the Scriptures; and that old Abolitionist, John Wesley, considered American Slavery "the sum of all villainies." A man who would burst out such a partisan attack on such an occasion, is obnoxious to the denunciation, "Ye generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things?" for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." We presume he would denounce a word in favor of the Union and against the Rebellion as "preaching politics."

We see that Frank S. Steiner, of the Walls Guards, was wounded in one of his legs in the action near Knoxville, but has learned of no other casualties to the Union county soldiers in the recent engagements.

We learn that Lewis Kieffer, White Deer Twp., shot a wild cat near Hightown last week: (perhaps it was a wild cat.)

THE WAY THE SOLDIERS VOTE

There are a few States in the West that allow their soldiers in the field to vote. Returns are nearly complete from the camps, and the results sum up as follows:

STATE	YEAS	NAHS	TOTAL
OHIO	48,000	2,000	50,000
INDIA	20,000	2,000	22,000
MISSOURI	8,000	2,000	10,000
TOTAL	76,000	6,000	82,000

Here is a Union Majority of 66,000 in a vote of 79,114, or more than ninety-two per cent, in favor of the old flag, and the crushing out of the rebellion. Yet "the Democrats do all the fighting"—of course!

Yes, and the Copperheads want "Abolitionists" to volunteer, so as to save them from the draft. "See 'em hanged first!"

It was professed "Democrats" who got up the War. There is not a Republican or an Abolitionist in Rebellion—not one, willingly, in the Rebel ranks. Our party have furnished three-fourths of the soldiers heretofore. Now let the Democrats make up what is wanted, by volunteering, or stand the draft like men.

MR. COLFAX, the new Speaker in Congress, is—like his predecessors, Messrs GROW and BANKS—a self-made man. He is about forty years of age, a native of New York city, where he worked as a printer. In 1836, he settled in Northern Indiana, and has published the South Bend Register from that day to this. Ten years ago he was elected to Congress, and has been re-elected four times. A cool debater, courteous but firm in his intercourse with others, indefatigable as a worker, popular, and fair as a public man, he is likely to prove a capital Speaker.

MR. M'PHERSON, the new Clerk, is an accomplished College graduate, some time a political Editor. His character, industry and ability as a Member of the last Congress commended him for his present post. On his paternal home, near Gettysburg, commenced the three days' battle.

California Hunting.

"The Petaluma Journal" makes the following report of game killed by Julius J. Poisson, a professional hunter in Sonoma and Marin counties: Season of 1861-2 (83 days' hunting): killed 3,646 quails, 18 deer, 58 hares, 5 grey squirrels, 27 wildcats, 9 grey foxes, 31 polecats, 87 hawks of all species, 7 raccoons, 17 rattlesnakes. Season of 1862-3, (914 days' hunting): killed 4,482 quails, 21 deer, 45 hares, 7 wildcats, 8 grey foxes, 14 polecats, 38 hawks of all species, 3 raccoons, 5 rattlesnakes."

That man—if not "shooting with a long bow"—is certainly very handy with guns, snares, and other means of destroying game—an average of 47 per day the first year, and 49 the second year, of animals and birds killed. That is more encouraging than for a fisherman to stand all day for "one glorious nibble!"

The great cry made now about the Union prisoners being starved in the Rebel prisons at Richmond, is all a lie. These prisoners get better food than do the Confederate soldiers in the army.—Seligman Times.

The above is a specimen of the deliberate lying done by the copperheads. Is it not a shame? Our soldiers were starving, while theirs were in fighting order. Recently, the fare of our men has been improved by the charity of our own people.

On the 8th inst. over six hundred boxes, bales, &c., left Fort Mifflin for our suffering prisoners at Richmond. Most disgraceful and inhuman as has been the Rebel abuse of our brethren by their captors, it is gratifying to believe that they will hand over to them these abundant proofs of the affection of the loyal people at home.

WHITE DEERS we suppose to have been somewhat common in this region at one time, from the early application of the rare name to Valley, Mountain, Township, and Creeks in Union county. We read that "A white deer has been discovered near the Rice Lakes in Minnesota. It is an albino among the deer tribe. Nothing like it was ever before seen in that region."

One of Jefferson's original reasons for the Declaration, was that England allowed the Slave Trade to continue, contrary to the wishes and interests of our people. In our day our declaration against the Rebels is that they keep up the Slave Trade, the only way to abolish which is to destroy Slavery.

Judge Agnew took Lowrie's place in the Supreme Court of Penn'a, Monday last. Strong, Read and Agnew will stop any further wandering of that Court in the wake of the Nullifiers of South Carolina, who, by placing State above National authority, began this Rebellion.

The Milwaukee mentions high prices paid for farms sold in that region—as follows:

Jac. Weidener's, 193 acres, $128 pr acre	120
John Leidy's	130
John Shannon's	85
David Eschbach's	101
	125

Persons writing to Members of Congress, must pay their own postage; letters from Members, may come franked. Such is the late law of Congress on the subject. So, don't write unless you have something worth the postage.

Thirty-Eighth Congress.

In the Senate, Mr. Buckalew, of Pa., and four others, voted against the admission of the Senators from West Virginia. Mr. Clark of N. H., moved a pension for John Burns of Gettysburg. Mr. Wilson of Mass., moved a bill to add fifty per cent, to the pay of non-commissioned officers and soldiers.

In the House, Monday, after somewhat correcting the list of Members, a vote for Speaker was taken, as follows:

Schuyler Colfax, Ind. (Adm.)	101
S. S. Cox, O., (Opp)	42
J. L. Dawson, Pa. do	12
R. Mallory, (Border State)	10
All others	17—81

Cox got over all 20 Absent—3 Adm., 4 Opp.

Mr. Colfax, on taking the Chair, spoke as follows:

ADDRESS OF SPEAKER COLFAX.
Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: Today will be marked in American history as the opening of a Congress destined to face and settle the most important questions of the century, and during whose existence the Rebellion which has passed its culmination will, beyond all question—thanks to our Army and Navy and Administration—die a deserved death! Not only will your constituents watch with strict scrutiny your deliberations here, but the friends of liberty in the most distant lands will be interested spectators of your acts in this greater than Roman forum. I invoke you to approach these grave questions with the calm thoughtfulness of statesmen, freeing your discussion from that acerbity which mars instead of advancing legislation, and with unshaken reliance on that Divine Power which gave victory to those who formed this Union, and can give greater victory to those who are seeking to save it from destruction from the hands of the patriots and traitors. I invoke you, also, to remember that sacred truth which all history verifies, that "they who rule not in righteousness shall perish from the earth." Thanking you, with a grateful heart, for this distinguished mark of your confidence and regard, and appealing to all for that support and forbearance, by the aid of which alone I can hope to succeed, I am ready to take the oath of office, and enter upon the duties you have assigned me.

In the House, on motion of Mr. Washburne of Ill., the thanks of the people were awarded to the officers and soldiers under Gen. Grant, for their recent triumphs, and a gold medal was ordered to be struck for that officer. It has also been proposed to renew, in his behalf, the office of Lieutenant General.

Mr. Stevens (Pa.) proposes bills to fix the time for electing Representatives in Congress, and to enable Soldiers to vote—to place colored men on an equality, as to pay, &c. with whites—and to repeal all laws for re-enslaving men.

Mr. Cox (Opp) asked for all the correspondence relative to exchange of prisoners, but in its stead the House adopted the following, by a vote of 106 to 46 (Wm H. Miller not voting on the resolution as passed):

Resolved, That this House approve of the constant, statesmanlike, and humane efforts of the Administration, to secure an exchange of our prisoners, now in the hands of the Rebels, and it is hereby recommended that such efforts be continued to secure an exchange of all our prisoners now in Southern prisons.

A correspondent says that, in conversing recently with Union citizens of Alabama, he learned that Vallandigham, while in that section, repeatedly exhorted the rebels to hold on to Vicksburg, declaring that the success of his party in Ohio depended altogether on the ability of the rebel Government to baffle the Union armies besieging that place.

There can no longer be any doubt of the death of General Houston, of Texas. A letter from Matamoros says: "Gen. Sam Houston is certainly dead. He died at Houston, Texas; I am with a man who was present when he died. J. Terrell Smith and another have administered on his estate."

CONSISTENCY—The Baltimore American says, the latest practical definition of consistency is to hura for Jeff Davis, who enforces a merciless conscription, and raise mobs to oppose the very mild form under our own established Government.

U. S. District Court, Philad.—Judge Caldwell.—On Saturday morning, Lawrence J. Steele, convicted of a charge of obtaining money from the Government by means of a forged pay roll, was sentenced to three years and nine months' imprisonment.

"Would you throw Vallandigham, an ex-Congressman, into jail with common vagabonds?" asked a sensitive Copperhead of Judge Holt, when that famous traitor was arrested. "Certainly," responded the Judge, "if the vagabonds don't object."

The estate of the late Senator Douglas, at Cottage Grove, near Chicago, has been sold to satisfy a mortgage. It consisted of sixty acres, and brought $83,150, or $503 less than the amount to satisfy the mortgage.

Quite a number who fled South on the breaking out of the Rebellion, are stealthily returning, and hope to lie low and escape the authorities. Rats are in the habit of deserting the sinking ship.—Lancaster Examiner.

The newspaper publishers of Blair county have raised the price of advertising.

Longstreet's Retreat Officially Confirmed.
TAEZELL, Tenn., Dec 7.
Maj. Gen. H. W. Halleck, Gen-in-Chief: Longstreet is in full retreat up the valley. Your orders about following with cavalry shall be carried out. My division of cavalry attacked the enemy's cavalry in one of the passes of the Clinch Mountains yesterday afternoon, and are pushing them vigorously. Couriers from Knoxville arrived last night. The road is clear. Sherman arrived there yesterday.

Proclamation of the President.
EXECUTIVE MANSION,
Washington, Dec 7, 1863.

Reliable information being received that the insurgent force is retreating from East Tennessee, under circumstances rendering it probable that the Union forces can not hereafter be dislodged from that important position, and estimating this to be of high National consequence, I recommend that all loyal people do, on the receipt of this, informally assemble at their respective places of worship, and render special homage and gratitude to Almighty God for this great advancement of the National cause.

Monday last, a party of about twenty Rebels who are harbored by their sympathizers in New York city, under pretence of being peaceable passengers, went on board the steamer Chesapeake, and when well out to sea arose and surprised the crew—killing and wounding some, and putting others in irons, leaving them ashore on the nearest British coast, and then starting to sea with their steamer. This most audacious act of piracy has aroused a proper feeling, and there is a strong force after the vessel. Every conspirator in the move should meet the felon's end.

Banks continues successful in Texas, where there is an undoubted Union strength to be reached. The Rebels have a report of a victory in Louisiana, not confirmed by our advices.

Foreign advices indicate that the Old World has its own troubles—sufficient to keep it from meddling with the New.

The Rebels confess that their defeats on the two mountains between Chattanooga and Chickamauga, were the most disgraceful things that have yet happened to their arms. And some of them charge that their men would not fight. (No wonder—for so many are forced to engage in what they know to be a bad cause, that they have no heart for it, and when they see that all is lost they will shrink duty as far as they can and be safe from the military hold the slave despots have over their lives.)

New Haven has elected Union Charter Officers by 115 majority. Last Fall the Seymour Democracy carried their ticket by over 600 majority.

Gen. Bragg has been removed from the command of the S. W. Rebel Army, and Gen. Hardee succeeds him.

The Missionary department of the M. E. Church have appropriated $30,000 to follow up our armies with itinerant preachers. The Baptists are endeavoring to do as much for the same object. Much of the society of the South will have to be re-organized in almost every particular.

Capt. Gordon, a Rebel spy, formerly editor of the Clarksburg (Va.) Register, has been tried by court-martial at Fort M'Henry and condemned to be shot.

The press and type of the late Philadelphia Evening (Copperhead) Journal, were sold at Sheriff's sale under a landlord's warrant. The principal articles in the establishment were the press and types. The former brought $75, the latter 102 cts (not quite the price of old metal) per pound. A fitting end to a traitor's sheet.

Maj. Harry White recently came as far as City Point, with the released Union Surgeons, when he was sent back by a telegraph despatch from Richmond. Better luck next time, we hope. Were he a Cop Senator, he probably could be exchanged, but the Cops and the Rebs seem to sympathize in the matter of his detention.
