To fix the wedding day-"Why in such haste, dear Giles, to wed? I shall not change my mind," she said; "But thee," says he, "I MAY."

Now is the time" say the Cops, in view of Union victories, "to compromise, and give the Rebels" all they want. Yes, when the scoundrels are nearly punished, we should get on our knees, beg their pardon, and yield up to them! When Orleans he should have thrown down his arms, and let the British have their own way! When a man commences an unjust lawsuit against you, and it is decided in your favor, you should be "mognanimous," pay the costs, and let him have the very point in dispute! When Cornwallis was have "exhibited a brotherly spirit," and gone to mother Britain and "restored the Union as it was." O yes ! if these Copperhead traitors can't triumph by force, they would wheedle us into giving up all we have gained in this tetrible struggle, to the very enemy that would destroy all liberty if they could again get their iron HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS gripe upon us by the silly simplicity of waged cruel, wicked, barbarous war; and Slavery must die therefor : it must not be allowed to live and gather strength for another onslaught upon everything precious and dear to mankind.

Observe the following Symptoms resulting from disorders of the Digestive organs:

Among the resolutions adopted at the great Union meeting in Little Rock, Arkansas, on the Slat, was the following :

Resolved, That, as Arkansas citizens. who have friends, brothers and sons in the Southern army, we implore them to cease from a struggle so fruitless, so wicked, and so ruinous, and return to their alle giance to the Government. And while we do so, we respectfully and earnestly call upon the Government to add to the forces of the Union, such overwhelming numbers, that the Rebellion may soon be crushed, and the terrible tragedy ended at once. And we promise and pledge our support to the Administration, in all its efforte to effect this end."

A colored firm in Newark, N. J., having suffered pecuniary embarrassments, recently closed business, and the senior member gave the following "notis" to the public :

"De disholution of co parsuips heretofo resisting twixt me and Moses Jones, in de barber perfession, am heretofo resolved. Pussons who ose must pay the insciber. Dem what the furm ose must call on Jones, as de furm is insolved. "LIGET JOHNSON."

Barrin' the spelling, we don't see but Ligou is quite as sharp a financier (and more bonest) than some white folks in similar emergencies.

The Contraband's Prophecy.

A correspondent informs us that there is an old female contraband following the nemy of the Potomuc, who has the reputation of being half erazed. She repeats the following doggerel verse: "In sixty-one, the war begon;

In sixty-two, it was half through; In sixty-three, the niggers were free; in sixty-lour, the war will be o'er.

darkey's prediction will prove correct.

Good for Butter -It is reported that Gen. Butler, in taking his first morning walk at Fortress Monroe, was astonished at seeing a Rebel officer leisurely looking out at a parade of our troops. On asking who be was, and being told it was Gen. Fitzbugh Lee, he immediately or dered him to be taken into custody, and conveyed to the fastnesses of Fort Lafayette. The General very properly considered that the enjayment of such privileges by a Rebel, while our poor fainting offi cers and soldiers in Confederate hands are being starved to death, was a scandal to our country and its cause.

Several old women in breeches, calling themselves the "National . Conservative Constitutional Executive Committee," recently "convened" in Cincinnati, and after talking about the weather, and praising each other as the only salvation of the country, nominated Geo. B. M'Clellan for President-and then adjourned-to nominate his Vice some future day. M'Clellan was once a citizen of the United States, but now resides in the "Jurseys," where he "writ" an electioneering letter for the late Judge Woodward.

COLD COMFORT. - A Copperhead paper tries to draw consolation from the fact that "Lazarus survived after the dogs had want to "go up" rather than be "licked" by the soldiers every year.

AN UNFORTUNATE MAN .-- An Obio paper publishes the following item : "A deaf man, named Taff, was run down by a passenger train and killed, on Wednesday morning. He was injured in a similar scoy about a year ago."

A colored man called "Nick Biddle," attached to the Washington Artillerists, of Pottsville, Pa., was the first man wounded in passing through Baltimore, 19th April, 1861. He is now picking up a living by selling his own photographs.

I have known Hooland's German litters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus pushed; provisiming this fact, and calling the alteration of those, afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these litters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I as this more cheerfully as Hoofand's litters is intended to benefit the afflicted and is not a rum drick.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through districts of their ingrelicuits and elects, I yet knew of me sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have recoved from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the neare residily in regard to "Bloodiands German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am mid-chied to my friend kibbert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper testa, instance. I am mached complete of the refreshments, feq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. MESSRS, CARKHUFF & PAINE, OF Lewisburg, Union Co., Penn'a-would respectfully solicit the attention of all who have stock to feed, and Manufacturers and Salesmen of Agricultural Implements, to their Improvement in Straw Cutters.

Its price brings it within the reach of all who may have use for a Fodder Cutter. It euts Hay, Straw, Cornstalks, Paper or Cloth, as smoothly as a razor can be made to cut a beard, and that too without regard to the length of time the machine may have been in use. The machine is worked by a lever, and can be made to cut rapidly. The length of the cut can be regulated by use of a thumb screw. The position of the knife to the cutting bar can at any moment be changed to bring and keep their edges together as per-fectly when old as when first manufactured. The annexed Certificates, and the names attached, will show the estimation in which this Cutter is held at home:
