FOR PRESIDENT,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

☞Ice formed on the West Branch, Friday, and there was an inch of snow; but the rains of Saturday, Sunday, and Monday set all afloat again. Some thunder also on Monday.

The sooner Ice is secured for the summer, the better; look out for next chance.

How Times Change!

A few years ago, leading Democrats all over the Free States mobbed Anti-Slavery speakers, destroyed their presses: in South, rifled mails to burn their papers. Now, "free speech and free press" is the first chapter of their creed.

Thirty years ago, for his anti-slavery views, Wm. Lloyd Garrison's life was in danger in any of our cities. The splendid "Pennsylvania Hall" was burned in Phil'a'd's, amid general applause, because it was dedicated to "Liberty." This month, Garrison lectured in peace to a brilliant audience, in one of the largest halls in Philad., against Slavery.

H. Ward Beecher, twenty years ago, would have been mobbed where he is now most applauded. The then Governor of Penn. (42) denounced Anti-Slavery men, publicly. Now, the Governor of Penn'a presides at a most brilliant ovation, in Philad., to Beecher—and no man is heard with greater delight than that speaker.

Five months ago, men of the ruling party in New York city were hunting, maiming, and burning inoffensive negroes. This month, the regular candidate of that party (Mr. Boole) for Mayor, attended a meeting of colored voters, and pledged himself to advocate every measure they asked.

One year ago, Gov. Seymour of New York refused to let black men enlist in the Army, and did what he could to stop the draft. Now he accepts colored recruits, and urges volunteering to fill the National Army.

Work on—"the world moves!"

Remarkable Articles.

The Border States have now a hostility against the Cotton States, very fierce and easily accounted for. Because—

1. The Cotton States began the War, crowded their friends of the Border States into it, and have endeavored to keep all the fighting within the Border States. Accordingly, the latter have suffered, personally and pecuniarily, more than all the rest of the Union together: while the Cotton States—that should have borne it all—have kept comparatively harmless.

2. The Cotton States have taken advantage of the War to gather into their borders most of the best and most active slaves, leaving the sick, the worn out, and the worthless for the Border States and the Free States to maintain. The Cotton States now hope, with this addition of working force, to contrive some way to turn the losses of the Border States into gain for them.

Viewing matters in this light, the Baltimore American and other papers are strenuous for the complete overthrow of Slavery, so that the perfidy and heartlessness of the Cotton States shall not enure to their advantage at last.

"A few days ago, a man died near Fredericksburg, Lebanon county, who had been born in Lancaster county, resided a number of years in Dauphin county, died in Lebanon county, and has always lived in the same house. The house is still standing, and is covered with one of the old fashioned tile roofs. The explanation of this is, that when he was born, Lebanon was a part of Lancaster county; Dauphin, including Lebanon, was subsequently cut off of Lancaster; and, subsequent to that, Lebanon was made a separate county."

No doubt there are many citizens of Snyder county who were born in Northumberland county, lived for a while in Union, and now are in Snyder, without changing their residences. Many in Montour county have lived in Northumberland county, and also in Columbia county, and never removed. And some perhaps in Brady township, have lived under Northumberland, under Lycoming twice, and twice in Union—but all in the same house.

☞We see little articles circulating in the papers, that Messrs. So and so had made Half a million, a Million, or two Millions, by War Contracts, &c. These are mostly wilful, stupid lies. Very few of the largest contracts amount to millions per year, and when the close competition is taken to view, the profits of the most fortunate count by thousands only, while some make nothing, and others are ruined.

☞Mifflin county returns 4,104 taxables, as follows: Lewistown 779, Armagh 483, Derry 418, Wayne 327, Granville 323, Union 315, Oliver 275, Decatur 268, Menno 264, Brown 220, Bratton 183, M'Veytown 151, Newton Hamilton 99.

Union county has about 4,197 taxables.

☞The Ladies of Milton will have entertainments, during the Holidays, for the benefit of the Soldiers.

☞An Indiana county paper says that the Rebels in Richmond will not permit Maj HARRY WHITE to resign his post as State Senator of Penn'a so that a man might be elected in his place. The Senate now standing 16 to 16, they seem to think that one of the parties numbering 16 will help them by hindering the Penn'a Legislature from doing anything to help the General Government put down the Rebellion. We doubt that. The 16 know that the State has just spoken, trumpet-tongued, for sustaining the National Administration. They don't want to go on the record as obstructing the War. There are Senators DONOVAN, KINSEY, REILLEY, SMITH and others, who, though strong partizans, are too sagacious and patriotic men to endanger both their country and their party by a factious, unmanly, unfriendly course to their country in its time of need.

DR. BRECKINRIDGE'S POSITION.—This distinguished divine preached a Thanksgiving sermon at Danville, Ky., in the course of which he said:

"From my earliest recollection, I have been unfriendly to slavery, and have sought, at what I have thought proper times and in proper ways, to rid Kentucky and the country from it. In 1830, (when I was a lawyer,) I risked all I had at stake in endeavoring to induce the State to rid herself of it, and sacrificed for this end what political prospects I may have then had in the un-successful attempt. In 1849, I again vainly endeavored to bring the people to measures for removing it. And what I then did, I would do again to-morrow. I have never been in favor of one portion of the human race holding any other in bondage, but have ever been in favor of freedom to all; and hope the day may come when it shall be enjoyed everywhere.

"In regard to the bearing of the war upon slavery, while I have said I did not approve of all the Government has done, I have always held that whatever was necessary for the Government to do in order to crush the Rebellion, should be done, and I would uphold the Government in it. And this is the solemn religious duty of every citizen."

☞The Chattanooga region, now dedicated to History, is famed for its mountains, and has previous records. From Lookout mountain, one can see four States, and there the Indians watched with sad, jealous eye, the advance of the pale face. Near it, in 1816, Gen. Sevier defeated the Indian chief, Iuka. Near Missionary Ridge, the Christian religion was first taught the Indians, and one of the first Missionaries (John Vail) remains to welcome back the Union flag. "Rossville" was once the home of the Indian chief, John Ross. "Chickamauga" is said to mean "dead men's river," and "Chattanooga" is "rising out of the ashes."

☞Wilkes' Spirit of the Times has a long article, arguing that to jealousies among corps commanders all the failures of the Army of the Potomac, since M'Clellan's day, are owing. Pope, Burnside, Hooker, and Meade, have all failed to break up Lee's army, on account of the Fitz John Porters, who boasted that there are "enough conservatives in command to prevent the triumph" of that army.

☞Rev. Dr. Sunderland is re elected Chaplain to the National Senate. In the House, the Cops brought up Mr. Hopkins, the preacher from whom Woodward is supposed to have drawn his strong love of Slavery as a Divine blessing: but Mr. Channing, an ultra Abolitionist, was chosen over Mr. Hopkins by a large majority.

☞Remember that parents who may elect to exempt one of their sons from the next draft, should send in their papers before this week closes, to the Provost Marshal, Gen. John K. Clement, Harrisburg. It is understood that those, heretofore exempted, will have to renew their application.

☞We learn by the Reading Journal that the late Frederick S. Hunter, owner of the White Deer Forest Iron Works, had an insurance on his life of Ten Thousand Dollars, which his family have received.

☞Col. Jacob G. Frick has accused Gen. A. A. Humphreys of various unmilitary and unpatriotic practices and speeches, for which the General may come to trial.

☞Many of the Muney and Milton people are moving for the establishment of a National Bank in each of their Boroughs.

☞The last draft is said to have realized 60,000 men, and $12,000,000.

Capt. Ira Alexander, of Mifflin county, belonging to 16th Pa. Cav., was picked off by a Rebel sharp shooter, who killed while there was no action going on—in short, murdered him. He graduated at Yale College in 1862.

One fellow has deserted from five wives and four regiments. The provost marshals are after him, and if caught he will be allowed to commute by serving his time out with the five wives.

The dead soldier found at Gettysburg clasping the photograph of three children is identified. His name was Hummerton, of Portageville, Cattaraugus Co., New York.

Call for Pennsylvania Volunteers to avoid Drafting.

Headquarters Penn'a Militia,
HARRISBURG, Dec. 10, 1863.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 48.

The President of the United States having, by his communication of the 9th inst. in relation to propositions submitted to him relating to the recruiting service in Pennsylvania, under his call of October 17th ultimo, for 300,000 men, approved of so much thereof as is comprised under the following points:

It is ordered—

That the recruitment of Volunteers for the various regiments now in the field, will be conducted accordingly, viz.

I. Details for recruiting service in the State will be made of officers of Pennsylvania regiments in the field, whose terms of service expire in 1864. To facilitate the recruitment of quotas, such appointments, of officers in the field, will be made by the Governor, where practicable, on the recommendation of duly authorized committees representing cities, boroughs and townships, to recruit for their several localities.

These recommendations should not, however, be made indiscriminately, but with due regard to the character of the person named, and his ability to perform the important duties of the post.

II. When practicable, old regiments will be returned to the State to be recruited.

III. The volunteers who shall be enlisted will remain under the control of the Governor at such camps or rendezvous, and until ready to be sent to their regiments, in accordance with General Orders No. 75, of 1862.

IV. Premiums not exceeding twenty-five dollars for veterans, and fifteen dollars for new recruits, will be paid to officers detailed for recruiting service, from regiments in the field, when the recruits are accepted by the United States. Payment to be made by Lt. Col. Romford, U. S. A., Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General.

V. Volunteers furnished by cities or other localities will be duly credited on the draft fixed for January 5, 1864; and also "all such volunteers as may have been mustered into the service of the United States, since the draft, the number so credited to be deducted from the proportion of the quota assigned the State under recent call." Information regarding the quotas of counties, cities, townships and wards, can be procured on application to the respective District Provost Marshals.

VI. Authority will be given to officers detailed for recruiting service from regiments in the fields, to raise complete companies of infantry, to be sent to such regiments in the field as have less than their proper number of company organizations.

VII. Colored volunteers for the colored regiments of Pennsylvania will be accepted as a part of the quota, and also such as have been mustered into the service of the United States since the draft, to be credited to cities or other localities on their proportion of the State's quota under recent call.

VIII. Camps of rendezvous will be established at proper localities, in charge of commandants and skilful surgeons, to be appointed by the Governor.

IX. To every recruit who is a Veteran Volunteer, as defined in General Orders of the War Department of June 25, 1863, No. 191, for recruiting Veteran Volunteers, one month's pay in advance, and a bounty and premium of $402, and to all other recruits, not veterans, accepted and enlisted as required in existing orders, one month's pay in advance, and, in addition, a bounty and premium of $302 will be paid.

The short time now remaining, within which to fill the quota of the State, by enlistments, and thus avoid the impending draft, admonishes the loyal citizens of the importance of providing, by local bounties, the strongest inducements to volunteers. Municipalities of other States, by this means, are seducing from Pennsylvania the able-bodied men who should replenish her own regiments. Pennsylvania, with a deficiency less, proportionately, than her adjacent Commonwealths, should show, by her promptness and alacrity, now, her ability to maintain the high position she has heretofore, and still occupies among her sister States, in contributing to suppress this rebellion.

By order of A. G. CURTIN,
Governor and Commander-in-Chief.
A. L. RUSSEL,
Adjutant-General Pennsylvania.

Copperheads Preaching Abolition.

James P. Barr, editor of the Pittsburg Post, and elected Democratic Surveyor General of Pennsylvania in 1862, is turning Abolitionist. Here is what the Democratic Post says:

"We feel satisfied, that the future peace of this now distracted and bleeding country, requires the total extinction of slavery. One of the results of the present rebellion will be the weakening or perhaps destruction of one of the causes, Slavery in the South. Then, after the terrible experience of the present times, our country will be recreated, and increased civilization on its luminous wings will spread its blessings upon a regenerated Republic, destined to be the greatest nation upon which the sun has yet shone."

And what will become of Woodward copperheads when the "increased civilization" shines in upon their wicked or stupid souls?—Bloomfield Advocate.

The piers, abutments, &c., of the Columbia bridge, have been sold to the Pennsylvania railroad company, for $57,000. A substantial railroad and carriage bridge will soon span the Susquehanna between Columbia and Wrightsville.

Isaac M. Wilkinson, of 16th Pa. Cavalry, was wounded and missing at Mine Run. He was from Sunbury.

"There is but a step from the sublime to the ridiculous." This distance is not greater from the poetical to the prosy. Somebody wrote some rather pretty verses about "Love." Some other body borrowed the metre, and, taking "Soap" for a theme, wrote some wicked verses in parody. Here are the two pieces:

LOVE.	SOAP.
We are young, And both are loving, You love me, And I love you; Each, each other's Faults rejoicing— Some in me, And some in you. What is best For us to do?	We want soap, Both need scrubbing, You soap me, And I soap you; Each, each other's Rough hides rubbing— You scrub me, And I scrub you. What is best For us to do?
Live and love, Continue loving— You loving me, I loving you; Each, each other's Faults rejoicing— You rejoicing me, I you. This is best For us to do.	Live and rub, Continue rubbing— You rubbing me, I rubbing you, Each, each other's Rough hides scrubbing, You scrubbing me, I you. This is best For us to do.

"IMPORTANT IF TRUE."—We find the following receipts "in the papers." They may be worthy of a trial:

The common refined borax, obtained in crystals from druggists, powdered, then dissolved in hot water at the rate of half a pound to ten gallons, will save soap and prove excellent for washing either clothing or the person. The finest fabrics may be washed in a solution of borax.

Take the stalks of cabbage, scrape them, leave them in water all night, and the next day cook them like vegetable marrow, and they will be found delicious.

An application of castor oil to new boots renders them as soft as a buckskin glove. It is also the best application that can be made to render new boots water proof.

So far from this being the case, I have just made a very important improvement in my Skylight, and am now taking better Pictures than ever, at my usual place, over Squires' Shoe Store, a few doors west of Hetrick's Reform House, where I am at all times prepared to wait on all my old friends and any number of new ones.
