"WEST POINT is full again. It now contains two hundred and sixty cadeta, missioned officers. Ninety seven have been admitted during the past year, forty-six of whom were appointed from the United States volunteers. This time the cadets are not Southern hot-bloods and fire-caters, who, after they have been edueated and fostered by the Government, will turn their hands and raise their swords against it. Additional students in the logal districts are admitted in place of the insurrectionary districts which have not sent as they might." Bo The above item reminds us of recent statement respecting Hon. HENEY KING, a pative of New England, who died one of the wealthiest, most influential citizens of Allentown, Pa. While in Congress, many years ago, he discovered that nearly all obtaining educations at the national expense, in West Point, were either Southerners, or from sristocratic families in a few seaboard cities. He then proposed and carried an order, that a cadet for military education should be appointed from every Congressional District throughout the Union. This has been the law until now. Had it remained as it was, at the breaking out of this Rebellion, nearly all our military men would have

That something more than an oath to the Constitution is necessary to secure the prace of the Union, is clear enough from the fact that Jefferson Davis himself does not allow that he has violated his oath. In his view, secession is consistent with the Constitution. Resistance to coercion is not, according to him and the State Rights school, rebellion. Simple repetition of such an oath, therefore, would be merely the first step to another conspiracy, because it leaves the object of the conspiracy untouched. Now, the parathrown out for the most trifling irregular- mount duty of the Government is not ities.
