NEW GROCERY AND Provision Store!

WASHINGTON.

BY PARK BENJAMIN.

Of all the heroes who have shone On history's starry page, The light, the glory, and the pride Of each successive age-- Whose name's the brightest and the best? Whose fame the dearest won? They are thine own, imperial West! For thine is WASHINGTON.

The laurels that adorned his brow, Are fresh as when they grew; For he was first in war and peace, As brave as he was true; And from Oppression's iron grasp, With strong and constant hand, He ransomed all his countrymen, And saved his native land.

In counsel wise, in prudence firm, And spotless in renown, He put away ambition's gauds, And spurned a kingly crown; Wealth had no lure to drag him down From his transcendent place, For dearer than the world to him The freedom of his race.

He was the Joshua of his time, All men obeyed his will, And in the valleys where he fought The sun and moon stood still: The soldier of the Lord, he went, Held by a mighty Hand, Till he had passed the wilderness, And reached the promised land.

No warrior of the classic roll, Called out a juster praise; For Caesar gained no grander spoils, And wore no greener bays. Like Caesar, too, how well he wrote, Though not with blood-stained pen, A record of the noblest deeds Achieved by noble men!

Great while he led our armies on, Great while he ruled the land; And greater still as he resigned His country's high command-- When, great as he had lived, he died, Submissive to depart, "America" was found engraved Upon his inmost heart.

He loved the Union--"Guard it well," The dying hero said; "That hour which sees its broken bond, Will see your freedom dead. Oh, guard it well, and let it stand For its own sake secure; Then Peace, sustained by Liberty, Through ages shall endure."

Alas! I could have seen the hour That we have lived to see, He might have deeply mourned the loss Of Peace and Liberty; And could we listen to his voice As oft he spoke before, Our broken bonds might be rejoined, And Union rise once more.

O, that his spirit might descend, To-day, like heavenly fire, And light upon our country's shrines The old, fraternal fire! That Love and Peace might live again, And Hate and War be done, As with accented lips we hailed The name of Washington!

Pirates Frustrated. The steamer Chesapeake has had a short voyage in her capacity of Confederate pirate. Aftid to put to sea, or unable from lack of men and coal, the murderers who seized her have hung around the small harbors of Nova Scotia until justice has overtaken them. The Ella and Annie (herself but a few weeks since caught in trying to run the blockade) caught the Chesapeake on Thursday morning in Samba Harbor, 30 miles from Halifax. Unfortunately nearly all the crew escaped and took to the woods; only three of the men who assisted in the seizure were skinned--the others of those caught were taken in Nova Scotia. The gunboat Dakota soon after came up and ordered both vessels to Halifax. So much for the Chesapeake--she is not likely to make the figure in history that her namesake did in the war of 1812.

[Being taken in the British waters, these scamps are turned over to them for trial.]

Sorry to Hear it. The Morris Island correspondent of the New Bedford Mercury writes that the steamer Planter, the vessel which was run out of Charleston harbor by Robert Small, and turned over to the blockading fleet, has been captured by the Rebels. It appears that the vessel was bound round to Stono Inlet, through Light House Inlet, and the creek dividing Cole and Folly Islands, but owing to the dense fog prevailing at the time, the pilot ran her past the turn off in the creek, continuing on too far up the inlet toward Seceshville. He did not discover his mistake until he ran in among the Rebel picket boats patrolling in the vicinity, when, as a natural sequence, she was captured. The fate of her crew may be a rather serious matter, for all except the captain and engineers are contrabands, and some of them formed a part of the crew who ran away with her.

[A correspondent of the Tribune writes from Folly Island, 14th inst., that Small was still taking his trips unharmed--and we think his is the later date--hope so, any way.]

The New Free State of West Virginia is nearly free from Rebel troops, and is now proceeding to sub-divide the Counties into Townships, to which Free Schools (unknown where Slavery rules) are to be introduced. Of course, some folks say it is unconstitutional, but true Republicanism (guaranteed by the U. S. Constitution) only exist where the mass of the people are educated.

Gen. Butler has issued a characteristic order for the regulation of the colored people in his department. He is of the opinion that as a negro fills the same space in the ranks as a white man, and if shot falls as large a grave, he should receive the same pay as the white soldier does.

The Ladies' Fair at Indianapolis, Ind., recently held, realized twelve thousand dollars for the benefit of soldiers' families.

The Charleston (S. C.) Courier says that the pay of a rebel soldier for a month will not suffice to purchase a pair of gloves.

GREAT DISCOVERY! Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. For the cure of weak stomachs, general debility, indigestion, diseases of nervous system, constipation, acidity of the stomach, and for all cases requiring a tonic. This Wine includes the most agreeable and efficient salt of iron we possess, combined with the most energetic vegetable tonic, Yellow Peruvian Bark. The effect, in many cases of debility, loss of appetite, and general prostration, of an efficient salt of iron, combined with our valuable tonic, is most happy. It is particularly adapted to the pulmonary and muscular system, removes the pain of debility, and gives a vigor to the countenance.

Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want to look like a man and vigorous feeling? If you do, try KUNKEL'S BITTER WINE OF IRON! This truly valuable tonic has been so thoroughly tested by men of every rank and condition, that it is deemed indispensable as a tonic medicine. It not only purifies the blood, and gives tone to the stomach, but restores the system, and prolongs life. I now only ask a trial of this valuable tonic.

CAUTIONERS!--Beware of counterfeits! As Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron is so valuable and efficient a remedy in the known world for Dyspepsia and Debility, and as there are a number of imitations offered to the public, we would caution the community to purchase none but the genuine article, manufactured by S. A. KUNKEL, and his stamp on the top of the cork of every bottle. Be particularly attentive to the following: The name of the proprietor, S. A. KUNKEL, is blown in the glass of every bottle, and will be found on the wrapper of every bottle bearing the name of the proprietor's signature. General Depot, 118, Market St., Harrisburg, Pa. The Secretary of the Treasury has not yet given notice of any intention to withdraw this popular Loan from sale at par, and until then notice is given, the undersigned, as "General Subscription Agent," will continue to supply the public.

The whole amount authorized is Five Hundred Millions of Dollars. Nearly Four Hundred Millions have already been subscribed for and paid into the Treasury, mostly within the last seven months. The large demand from abroad, and the rapidly increasing home demand, for the basis of circulation by National Banking Associations now organizing in all parts of the country, has been the principal reason, and in the Treasury Notes, it is almost a certainty that he will not find it necessary, for a long time to come, to seek a market for any other long or permanent Loans, the interest--and principal--of which are payable in gold.

Prudence and self-interest must force the issue of the interest-bearing Loan, and in the National Banking Associations, as well as the minds of all who have idle money on their hands, to the prompt conclusion that they should lose no time in subscribing to this most popular Loan. It will soon be beyond their reach, and advance to a handsome premium, as was the case with the "Thirty" Loan, when it was all sold and could no longer be subscribed for at par.

It is a six per cent Loan, the interest and principal payable in coin, (thus yielding over nine per cent per annum at the present rate of premium on coin). The Government requires all these duties on imports to be paid in coin; these duties amount for a long time past amounted to over a quarter of a million of dollars daily, a sum nearly three times greater than that required in the payment of the interest on all the 5-20's and other permanent Loans. Six hundred millions of Dollars are now in circulation, and all at no distant day, will enable the United States to resume specie payments upon all liabilities.

The Loan is called 5-20 from the fact, that the bonds may run for 20 years, yet the Government has a right to pay them off in gold at par, at any time after 5 years. The interest is paid half-yearly, viz: on the first days of November and May. Subscribers can have Coupon Bonds, which are payable to bearer, and are $50, $100, $500, and $1000; or Registered Bonds of same denominations, and in addition, $5,000 and $10,000 for Banking purposes, and for investments of Trust-moneys, the Registered Bonds are preferable.

These 5-20's can not be taxed by States, cities, towns, or counties, and the Government tax on them is only one-and-a-half per cent, on the amount of income, when the income of the holder exceeds six hundred dollars per annum. All other investments such as incomes from mortgages, railroad stock and bonds, etc., must pay from three to five per cent on the income. Bank and Bankers throughout the country will continue to dispose of the Bonds; and all orders by mail, or otherwise, promptly attended to.

The inconvenience of a few days' delay in the delivery of the Bonds, is unavoidable, the demand being so great; but, as interest commences from the day of subscription, no loss is occasioned, and every effort is being made to diminish delay. JAY COOKE, SUBSCRIPTION AGENT, 114 South Third Street, Philadelphia Philadelphia, November 25, 1863.
