NOTICE.

Carpentering business in all their various of cotton, tar, pitch, turpentine, rosin, &c., were consumed, with the greater part of the town. This immense loss some attribute, however, more to hatred of Jeff. TOWEL-RACKS, DOUGH-TRAYS, Davis, than to any real fear of the Union army's being near them. Thus waste away the Rebel resources.

From the New York Evening Post.

And rob him of each sacred right,

No sin to buy, and sell, and hold

No sin to steal an African,

The negro in his gailing gyves, And pocket the blood-crusted gold,

No sin to score his quivering back

Because his Maker made him black,

No sin to tear his frantic wife

No sin to steal the clinging child

God gave the black a living soul,

And leave her broken hearted, wild,

A conscience, and a heart to feel ;

Wrote freedom on his spirit's scroll,

And sealed it with his holy seal.

Woe unto him who breaks the chart

A curse shall smite his cruel heart,

No greater, grosser crime than this

Is thus betrayed and crucified.

Long face and lubricated knees, Bows low before this brazen wrong,

We look to see the earth divide,

The impious babbler in his pride,

And prates like the old Pharisees,

And leave no mourners at his tomb.

Perfectly "Sound."

Gen. Grant, we see it stated, protests to make an ass of him, as they did of M'Clellan, by urging him, while in the service, to run for the Presidency. He adheres to the business motto, "One thing at a time," and probably believes, as do most loyal people, that "the right man is in the right place already," and wee be to the politicians who try to oust him to gain some petty end of theirs !

SAD ACCIDENT .- Wednesday evening last, Mrs. Harriet Swanger, while drawing a bucket of water at her father's house, (J. M. Housel, who lives within a mile east of this borough) fell into the well and was killed. The water is drawn by a windlass, and as the well is therefore an open one it was comparatively easy to have met with the accident .- Miltonian.

Will those who write the editorials for the editor of the Lewisburg Argus, please puncture the fellow-he is so gassy. He pays attention to us in his last issue to the extent of half a column, although he has repeatedly stated we are unworthy of notice !- Miltonian.

GOOD ADVICE.

Est only what is proper food ; Drink only that which does you good ; Spend only what you can afford ; Lend only what will be restored. Then you will have no cause to say, "I was a fool on yesterday."

CHANGE OF VIEWS - A Universalist clergyman of Wisconsin, who has recently returned home from a term of service as Chaplain to a regiment in the Army of the Cumberland, spake at a town meeting the other day, and in the course of his remarks touched on the atrocious barbarities of the Robels. "My friends," he sail, "I have always preached to you against any such institution as hell, or fatare punishment, but my experience within the last few months has modified my opinions, somewhat; I believe there is a
