"THE UNION," established in 1814---Whole No. 2,652.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843---Whole No. 1,031.

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY---
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

☞ Men who do not desire to be drafted may find something to their advantage by turning to the advt of Capt. Maus.

☞ The Harrisburg Telegraph notices with especial commendation Senator Johnson's legal argument on the question of the Speakership, called out by a letter from Ex-Gov. Packer on the subject.

☞ Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock is now in Harrisburg, asking for volunteers to fill up his depleted ranks. The 53d P. V. is one of his regiments—and in two of its Companies (late Church's and Tate's) those from Union county may find others from our county.

☞ The recent Court of Lycoming county imposed fines of $10 to $15 each upon all absent Jurymen—inattention of Jurors to Court summons having become an evil requiring correction.

☞ George Bowman, late of the University at Lewisburg, is ordained pastor of the Milesburg Baptist church..... Rev. A. F. Shanafelt has accepted a call from the Logans Valley church, near Altoona.

AN ESTIMATE.—For want of an official statement of the proportion of men required from Union county for the next draft, we submit the following approximation, formed upon a division of 250 among 4128 Taxables:

Brady	13	Limestone	15
Buffaloe	28	Kelly	14
East Buff.	16	Lewisburg	42
West Buff.	19	Mifflinburg	14
Hartley	18	New Berlin	10
Hartleton	5	Union	16
Lewis	11	White Deer	29

☞ A change has been made in the running of the mail trains on the P. & E. R. R. The morning train, bound south, leaves Lewisburg depot about one hour earlier, and the evening train, moving north, about one hour later than formerly. Mail matter for the morning train should be placed in the Post Office the previous evening. As is customary with this Railroad Company, the change was made without giving a word of notice, but permitting the community to find out the fact as best they can. As regards the evening train north, it makes no material difference, people having ceased expecting it on time.

☞ A few gentlemen, representing one of the Democratic parties of 1860, have called a Presidential Convention to meet in the "niggerhead" city of Chicago, on the next anniversary of the day when our fathers declared that "all men are born equal, and endowed with the unalienable right of liberty." (They seem, by those selections of place and time, to be coming over to us!)

The same party, in Pennsylvania, are called to meet in Philadelphia, on Thursday, the 24th of March, in State Convention.

How Many Men are Wanted?

We are informed, at the Provost Marshal's office in Harrisburg, that the next draft will be a little over half as large as that of last year. Every district, therefore, desiring to escape a draft by offering men, can take half of the last draft, and add say 20 per cent. to it, and they will probably know very near the exact number required of volunteers or of conscripts.

POOR EXCUSE.—The Tory organ at Harrisburg seeks to excuse the course of the Cops in hindering business, by saying that Harry White, being in the U. S. service can not hold a State office at the same time. But White resigns his military post whenever he enters upon a duty in civil life, so that he does not hold both at once—so that this fling at a patriot is infirm and untrue.

The resignation of Harry White is in the custody of his friends, and will be put in the hands of Speaker Penney as soon as the last hope of his release is gone, when a new election will be held if Harry can not be had.

TERRIBLE DEATH.—Robert Quick, an aged citizen of Rush township, Northumberland county, met his death in a dreadful manner, last week. He had gone into his stable to bridle a vicious horse, when the animal attacked him, seized him by the arm and broke it in three places, and finally trampled him to the floor, where he was discovered by a little girl, who immediately gave the alarm to some boys in the neighborhood. The boys, not daring to enter the stable where the ferocious beast and his victim were, formed a loop on a rope and by the aid of a pitch fork, managed to fasten it to the leg of Mr. Quick, and by this means dragged the body to the door, the horse frantically following to the length of his tether. When rescued, Mr. Q was found to be entirely lifeless. It is but a year or two since we chronicled the death of Mr. John Blue in a similar manner.—Danville Intelligencer.

A gentleman writing from Prairie-du-Chien to the New York Post, states when Jefferson Davis was young, and in the army of the United States, he was stationed at that post, and had the reputation of having negro blood in his veins.

Demise of an Old Time Lady.

Died, on the 4th inst., near White Deer Mills, Union Co., Pa., Mrs. MARY PIATT, (widow of Wm. Piatt,) aged almost 78 years. Her grandfather, Maj. John Brady, was killed by the Indians near Muncy, and was buried by a tree, near there, marked by the after burial by his side of one of his soldiers, named Lebo; and her father, John Brady, was wounded in the battle of Brandywine. The grandmother's remains were buried under the fence and pavement fronting the lower end of the Presbyterian church yard, Lewisburg, and were afterwards, together with the remains of her father and mother, which were interred near by, removed to our Cemetery. Sam. Brady, the celebrated Indian fighter, was her grand-uncle, and Gen. Hugh Brady, her uncle, while another uncle, (James) was shot by the Indians, scalped, and died the fifth day thereafter. She leaves two brothers—Hon. Jasper E Brady, now in Washington city; and Capt. Wm. Perry Brady, an officer in the Pa. Senate—also one sister—Mrs. Nancy Eckert, of Lewisburg. She leaves two sons—Wm. W. Piatt, late Speaker of the Senate, and Samuel T. Piatt, an officer of the 53d P. V., also two daughters—widow Fanny Hammond, of North Bend, Ind., and Mrs. Nancy M'Cormick, of White Deer Mills.

"Aunt Polly" inherited all the spirit and patriotism of the Brady family. One of the best treats we ever enjoyed, was a few hours' conversation with this aged lady, as she narrated events of the Revolutionary era—traditions of which she retained in great number and apparently with surprising accuracy.

Voice of the Ger. Ref. Church.

The following resolution we find among the proceedings of the General Synod of the German Reformed Church, which was held at Pittsburg, Pa., some four weeks ago. The resolution was unanimously adopted, as follows:

"Resolved, That, in conformity with the admonition of the Holy Scriptures, and in imitation of the example of our ecclesiastical fathers during the period of the Revolution, this Synod admonish the pastors and members of the churches under its care, to remember the powers that be are ordained of God, and that it is the solemn duty of all Christians, enjoying the protection of such civil rulers, to pray for them, and that we should feel especially obligated to do so during a time of peril like that through which our beloved country is now passing."

Here is the highest human authority, as well as Divine command, for pastors and members of the German Ref. church to remember those properly in authority in public as well as in private.

GOING—GOING—Sleighing, skating, sliding down hill, and all other kinds of frigid fun.

Harrisburg Correspondence.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 14, 1864.

In Senate, Mr. Kinsey moved that Hon. James L. Graham be chosen Speaker pro tem, for the purpose only of complying with the laws regulating the election of State Treasurer, and in relation to Governor.

The Senate have the right to oust a Speaker whenever they choose, but they chose not to do so in this case. Mr. Lowry then offered the following:

"Resolved, That the Speaker and Members of the Senate will this day at twelve o'clock proceed to the Hall of the House of Representatives, when the Speaker of the Senate shall open and publish the votes for Governor in presence of the members of both houses, in pursuance of the Constitution and Laws of this Commonwealth."

Passed—one or two Cops voting No, but none of them asking to be put on record, by calling the Yeas and Nays. Mr. Johnson was appointed Teller on the part of the Senate, and Mr. on the part of the House. The two Houses met in the Hall of the House, Speaker Penney presiding, and the returns were read, footing up as follows:

Andrew G. Curtin	269,506
Thomas M. Howe	1
John Hickman	1
Geo. W. Woodward	254,171
Curtin's majority	15,335

Whereupon, due record and notice were made of Gov. Curtin's re-election for three years from Tuesday next, when he will be re-inaugurated.

Jan. 15.

Mr. Beck has again introduced into the House the bill, defeated at last session, repealing the State road law for Brady township so far as regards that part to be built in Lycoming county.

Last evening, the Hall of the House was crowded to suffocation, to hear speeches—one from Gen. E. W. GANTT, of Arkansas, who is one of a delegation from that State on a mission to Washington, to bring Arkansas into the Union—and one from Col. F. MONTGOMERY, late editor of the Vicksburg Whig, who was in that city during its bombardment. Both these gentlemen endorse the Administration in all its prominent measures—Emancipation, Confiscation, and armed pulverizing of the Rebel leaders—as necessary to the true and lasting peace of the country and the advantage of black and white, North and South. Gen. Gantt once passed through Harrisburg, a Rebel prisoner; his manly confession of former errors, and strong arguments for Freedom as the true National policy, produced a profound impression. Montgomery is a droll sort of a chap, who kept the audience convulsed with laughter, but who had also solid, cogent facts for illustrating his position. That evening's intellectual repast will be remembered with relish, by the hundreds who heard it, to their last day.

A soldier from Philadelphia, was killed, yesterday, in a drunken spree.

For State Treasurer, Hon. Henry D. Moore received the almost unanimous nomination (for a third term) of the Union members.

Debates upon "the situation," consumed the time of the Senate.

CORRECTIONS.—Mr. Alleman, instead of Mr. Hassinger, of Snyder county, has a position in the House.

Mr. Purdy is also on Committee of New Counties and County Seats.

The Soldier stabbed in the neck in a drunken spree, did not bleed to death.

Voice of Pennsylvania!

PRES. LINCOLN RE NOMINATED.

In 1831, when the Nullification treason of John C. Calhoun was ripening for execution, the Republican (or Democratic) members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania formally expressed their confidence in ANDREW JACKSON, and invited him to become a candidate for re-election. In this, they only reflected the wishes of their constituents: they did not seek to lead them, or to dictate to them. He was triumphantly re elected.....One generation has passed away, and Treason is again at open war with the Government. The President, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, has sought to do his duty, and to suppress insurrection, as did his predecessor, Jackson. Again the majority of each branch of the Legislature of THE KEYSTONE STATE comes forward to give voice to the popular will. They do thereby express their confidence in the President, and ask him to be re-elected to his high station, as an earnest to Rebels and Rebel sympathizers everywhere, that the Free States are inexorably determined to restore the Union on the basis of Freedom, punishing the guilty and pardoning the innocent. Read the address.

To his Excellency, ABRAHAM LINCOLN,

President of the United States:

DEAR SIR: The undersigned, Members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, thus early in the session of that body, hasten to congratulate you on the success of the policy of the National Administration, and the auspicious circumstances under which the second Congress of your term has been organized. When it is fairly considered that the policy of your administration was made the issue in the late elections—when it is known that in the contest for the most important State as well as the most insignificant municipal office, the issue involved all the essential principles of the policy of your Administration—the result must be more highly appreciated by the friends of freedom abroad, and cheering to the defenders of Freedom, the Union, and the Constitution, at home. We would be unmindful of the duty we owe our country, if we hesitated to acknowledge the force of that policy in the elections which placed us in our present legislative position. When fearlessly advocated and set before the people, it won us victory in the face of the most persistent and bitter opposition from the foes of free Government. You need not be reminded of the effect which the late election in Pennsylvania had on the destiny of the nation. The triumph at the ballot-box aroused the ardor, and seemed to breathe fresh valor into the hearts of our soldiers, for the achievement of victory on the battle field. And if the voice of Pennsylvania became thus potential in endorsing the policy of your Administration, we consider that, as the representatives of those who have so completely endorsed your official course, we are only responding to their demands when we thus publicly announce our unshaken preference for your re-election to the Presidency in 1864.

The hope and life of the American people are now centered in the purpose and the effort of the Government to crush Rebellion. In more than two years of struggle, we have discovered that the rebellion is continued for an object more important than that of redressing a real wrong. It is waged for the establishment of a dogma, and the recognition of a barbarism. It is carried on against the Government for its absolute destruction. In such a struggle, there can be no compromise devised to offer or considered for acceptance. One or the other of the contending parties must triumph. Justice must be vindicated by the full recognition and operation of the Government in all the States, or the claims of the traitors will be maintained, this magnificent structure of our Government destroyed, and the rights of men for ever ignored. To make a change in the Administration, until its authority has been fully re-established in the revolted States, would be to give the enemies of the Government abroad the pretext for asserting that the Government had failed at home. To change the policy now in operation to crush rebellion and restore the land to peace, would be to afford the traitors in arms time to gather new strength, if not for immediate victory, at least for ultimate success in their efforts permanently to dissolve the Union.

Having a firm faith in the logic and the reason of these positions, we are frank in our endeavors thus to urge on you the acceptance of a re-election to the Presidency. We believe that the policy of your Administration rendered us victorious at the last election, and we now insist that that policy, if represented by yourself in all the States, would give the victory to the Government in November, and thus for ever put an end to all hope of the success of treason. We do not make this communication at this time to elicit from you any expression of opinion on this subject. Having confidence in your patriotism, we believe that you will abide the decision of the friends of the Union, and yield a consent to any honorable use which they may deem proper to make of your name, in order to secure the greatest good to the country, and the speediest success to our arms.

Pennsylvania has always wielded a potent influence in the politics of the country. Her preferences have always been tantamount to the success of the statesman to whom she attaches herself, and her voice has never failed to give the victory to the right. And while we, the representatives of the majority of the masses of the Commonwealth, thus avow our confidence and reliance in your official action and capacity, we feel that we are responding to the clearly expressed preferences of the masses, and that Pennsylvania would hail your re-election as the omen of complete victory to the Government. Expressing what we feel to be the language not only of our own constituents, but also of the people of all the loyal States, we claim to indulge the expectation that you will yield to the preference which has already made you the people's candidate for President in 1864.

Hoping, sir, that you may live to see the full triumph of your efforts to rescue your country from Rebellion, and enjoy many years thereafter of its tranquil peace and prosperity, we remain your friends and fellow-citizens.

Respectfully,

(MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE.)

NEWBERN, N. C., Dec. 27.—The North Carolina Times heartily endorses President Lincoln's recent proclamation, and advises the people of the State to accept it. It also copies and endorses a remarkable article from the Richmond Whig, which contains the following significant paragraph:

"Slavery has stabbed itself to death. It has sinned against light—committed the unpardonable sin, and must die."

The Raleigh Standard and Raleigh Progress are very severe in their criticisms on Jeff. Davis' message. They publish Pres. Lincoln's message and proclamation with favorable comments.

Three million pairs of Metal tips are annually applied to the toes of children's shoes. It is claimed that one pair will outwear three without tips; this would make an annual saving of nearly six million dollars to those that use them, an important item at the present time. An acquaintance who has three children, informs us that since he commenced buying Metal-tipped shoes (one year ago) he has saved the price of new boots for himself.—Commercial Bulletin.

The quota for Union Township, Union Co., for the next draft is full, and six volunteers over! Lieut. B. C. Ammon and H. Mengas, of Co. E, old 53d Pa. Reg't, (formerly Capt. Church's Co.) have had great success recruiting. They will, in a short time, be able to fill the company to its maximum number.

One hundred dollars given volunteers takes less money from a township than is generally paid in commutation; and it sends more and better men.

RECRUITS WANTED!

For the Veteran Volunteer Corps.

THE undersigned having been detailed for the purpose of Recruiting for the Veteran Volunteer Corps. Those who have served for nine or more consecutive months, will obtain a Bounty of 402 Dollars! Soldiers who have been honorably discharged on account of physical disability, but are not unfitted for field service, will be accepted and receive the same Bounty. Those who have not been in service will receive a Bounty of 302 Dollars, and all will be paid 75 Dollars as soon as sworn in.

As the draft will certainly take place if the quota of each district is not filled in proper time, and as the $300 commutation clause of the enrollment act will probably be repealed by Congress, persons liable to be drafted should enlist and obtain the bounty, and not wait to be drafted without it.

SOME person, whose interest it would probably be if I were to leave Lewisburg, has circulated the report that I had sold out my Gallery, and left town. So far from this being the case, I have just made a very important improvement in my Skylight, and am now taking better Pictures than ever, at my usual place, over Squires' Shoe Store, a few doors west of Hetzel's Reviere House, where I am at all times prepared to wait on all my old friends and any number of new ones. In CARD PHOTOGRAPHS I challenge the country to produce, not better, but as good, as I can furnish my customers.

N. B. When I do sell out and leave, I will let my friends know. E. L. MOWRY.

Buckeye Mower & Reaper,

For the Harvest of 1864!

SECURED BY

Thirty-Four distinct Patents!

THE unparalled success of the Buckeye is the strongest proof its superior merits. And its reputation is so well established that since its introduction the manufacturers have been entirely unable to supply the demand.

We will call attention to a few of its points of excellence and the farmer to give it a personal examination.

The Two Driving-Wheels, &c.

The TWO DRIVING WHEELS—the Pawls and Springs, by which the machine may be thrown out of gear, or be backed without vibrating the knives—the Steel Cutter Bar—the Wrought Iron Guard, with Hardened Steel Face or Cutting Edge—the Double-Hinged Joint, by which the Cutter Bar may be Folded—the long Crank Shaft—the Steel Spring and Wheel, by which the Cutter Bar may be raised and lowered so as to cut as low to the ground as may be desired—the Steel Pitman and Brass Box—its Light Draft—(no Side Draft)—no weight on the horses' necks—backs as easily as a cart—all of which form a combination of advantages which no other machine possesses.

No Gearing on the Driving Wheels.

A team of horses weighing 900 lbs. each, will cut an acre of grass an hour with ease.

The machine is furnished with two Cutter Bars—one for cutting grass, and the other for cutting grain (each expressly adapted to the use intended).

No effort will be wanting to maintain the Buckeye in the enviable position it now occupies, that of being the Best Machine in the World!

During last harvest hundreds of Farmers, in consequence of our inability to supply the demand were unable to obtain the Buckeye, and were forced to purchase an inferior machine. The continued scarcity of laborers and the new calls from the government for troops, will take many more laborers from the country, and the farmer will have to rely entirely upon machinery in gathering his hay and grain crops.

Farmers who would avoid disappointment in procuring a Buckeye can send in their orders now.

We are now prepared to fill orders for the coming Harvest. Address,

TESTIMONIALS.

HARTLETON, Union Co., Nov. 24, 1863.

Dear Sir: My liver and stomach was so badly diseased that all who seen me gave me up, Doctors and all; but I continued to take your medicine and it cured me, and I now am well. I know a number in my neighborhood that had lung and liver complaints, that were cured by your medicine. As life is sweet, I would advise all who are afflicted with disease to give you a call, and save life and money. Yours truly, JOHN GOODLANDER.

HARTLETON, Union Co., Nov. 20, 1863.

Dear Sir: I was afflicted with Rheumatism for a number of years, and was cured by your medicine. I was not able to leave my bed when I commenced taking your valuable medicine, and I had been attended by two other physicians. Yours truly, JOSEPH MILLER.

LAURELTON, Union Co., Nov. 17, 1863.

Dr. S. H. Knight: Dear Sir—I was afflicted with Rheumatism; I could not walk one step, and two bottles of your valuable medicine cured me in a short time. I advise all who are afflicted with this disease to apply to you and get cured. Yours truly, J. BROUER.

HARTLEY, Union Co., Nov. 16, 1863.

Dr. S. H. Knight: Dear Sir—I send you this statement in order to benefit suffering humanity. My wife has a long time with consumption, and her life or recovery was given up by all. I was advised to try other medicine, or doctors. I continue with your treatment; your medicine cured her; she is now well. I would advise all who are afflicted with lung and liver disease to go to you, or send for you, get your medicine, and save life and money. [1024] Yours truly, JOHN GALER.
