Carrier's Address for 1864. Another year's most checkered mass Last night did to oblivion pass, Leaving to Thought's embalming powers Records of well or ill-spent hours-Deeds that our future may rejoice, Or shame with their upbraiding voice-Words that truth or falschood spoke, And good or evil did evoke-Influences to better man, Or darken more life's little span-All these the passing hour revealed: Till Judgment Day they all are sealed. Now, Contemplation views the past, Sees years coming better than the last-Mourns o'er its wasted, misspent days, Its sadly-wandering, devious ways-Drops the soft tear for all its wrongs. And thanks that l'atience time prolongs-Great God! (we ask,) thy pardon give, Help us, henceforth, in Thee to live; Guide every step, control each thought, Bring every vain desire to nought-And may the next find us more free From every wrong-and nearer Thee. Sixty-three our granaries crowned-In health and peace our homes abound. Happy our lot, compared with those Where War is waged with all its woes-For still the Rebels, stiff-necked, wrong, A hopeless contest do prolong. Morgan and Lee did both invade The loyal States in threat'ning raid. Morgan was caught with all his crew, And mourned in Jail the justice due, Till treachery or carelessness Procured his exit from duress: Again the horse-thief forth may roam I atil the gallows gains its own. Proud Lee, in Penn's fair borders found At Gettysburg, MEADE stood his ground For three hot days the battle raged : Meade's sixty thousand men engaged The ninety thousand strong of Lee, Who, routed, punished, sadly flee; Reynolds, Zook, and Weed there fell-Generals they, beloved so well; And our own Tucker, Weidensaul, Gutelius, Henning-brave boys all-With others I've not time to name, There earned a sad but lasting fame.

Cherished may every dear one be Who spilled his blood our land to free-Thrice honored, wounded who survive, And all who for the Right did strive-They who drove back the haughty foe, And brought their boasted warriors low. And blessed they no whit the less, Who came the wounded braves to dress, The sick to nourish, and to heal, And for their every pang to feel. For not alone on bloody fields Where man the deadly weapon wields, is truest courage oftenest shown, Nor patriotism there alone. The sister, daughter, mother, wife, Oft gives one dearer far than life-Gives him to country and to God; And when there falls His chast ning rod, She bears, as woman only can, The loss of every cherished plan. In their heart's core, enshrined they be, On land who fall, or sink hencath the sea And by the sufferers' couch they patient Wait Till wounds' or fevers' anguish may abate. Divinest love! by God's own Love inspired, By purest potriotism doubly fired, And angels they, in hospitals or camp, Who watch thro days, and trim the midnight lamp. Southward our armies hewed their way, New conquests gaining day by day. Great GRANT, at Vicksburg, deals a blow Fort Hudson echoes from below; In Texas, BANKS the Old Flag rears, And Chattanooga, new thunder hears; The Mississippi's free again; East Tennessee's harsh, Rebel reign, I o'er-for gallant BURNSIDE there, And HOOKER'S Lookout in the rear, Have met and shattered Bragg's attack, and Longstreet takes the Lee-ward track. Nor arms alone—but Freemen's votes, And CHASE's "greenback" treasury notes, Have helped maintain the Nation's strife In her momentons stand for life. While Buckeye Brough and Keystone CURTIN

Have scotched the Copperheads for certain Thus, far and near, by sea and strand, At home, and in each distant land, The Union's cause is growing fast, While Rebeldom's best hopes are dashed May every tyrant, every yoke, The one be conquered, other broke, Ere Sixty-Four shall finished be, and you and I both live to see. Two things are needed-Men to fill Our armies, everywhere, until, Rebellion dead, the Jubilee Of Peace and Freedom soon may be. Next re-elect, to Chair of State, Firmly to guide our onward fate, Honest Lincoln. Heaven give him grace To well and firmly fill his place, And from each bold, designing knave, ttur land beloved ever save, That children's children here may see Most perfect Law and Liberty.

Boston, Jan. 12.-The Traveler states that letters have been received in this city from a Northern clergyman, who establish el bimself in Charleston, with his family, but a short time before the rebellion. He gives touching details of the anguish and suffering of the inhabitants, many of whom hope and pray for redemption even at the hands of the Yankees. In his opinion, the time is rapidly approaching when it will be nesessary to give up the city to save the people from absolute starvation. Of course, all that can will leave the place, but many have not the meane, and neither have they any place of refuge.

The Southern Confederacy is not satisfied with the Bible "as it is" a commission with Bishop, Gen. Polk at the head, has been appointed by the Episcopal council, to revise and get up a version to suit rebcidom and slavery.

Nonsense! They would be saved from that trouble and expense by sending North for wise divines we wot of, who can find as much negro slavery in the Bible as WOOD & PEROT, 1136, Ridge Avenue they want, and a good deal more.

DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL

Is the vital principle of the Pine Treeobtained by a peculiar process in the medicinal properties are retained. It is the medicine that cures when all others fail.

Here you a Cough! Have you Sore Throat! Have you any of the premonitory symptoms of that most faits disease—tomosoption!

Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sad prevalence and fatality of disease which sweeps to the grave at least one sief of death's victims.

prevalence and stating of sheake which assess the six of seather of seath's victima.

What are its appropriat?

It meantly begins with ashort, dry cough, which soon becomes habitual, but for some time nothing is raised except a frieldy seems. The breathing is some hab different and upon which exercise much sorried. A same of optimizes and opportuning at the check is often feit. As the divence advances, the patient becomes thin in flesh, is afficted with loss of appetite, great langer, indolence, and diplection of spirite, may continue in this state for a considerable length of time; and is very resulty affected by slight exposure or inlique. If these securit, the cough becomes more transluceme, and is attended with experimental, when his most capolius and free early in the morning. It is sometimes streaked with blood At this stage, night weaks mealth paid in a first part of the cough may also court. Pain it some part of the chest is felt, and often a difficulty of joing upon one or the other side without severe fits of coughing or a sente of fallness or sufficient. The pulse becomes fall, bard, and frequent, the heeting flush tinges the cheeks, and the dire mailedy is fast has been as a proper or in the coughing of a sente of sulmoss or sufficient.

You now sea, Is there a care?
Commention has been and can be cured by the use of my TAR CORDIAL, even in apparently hopeless care.
This assertion I make with the ability to present the most complete exhlence of the truth. Space will not admit of my giving the contents of the many thousands of testimomials to its value, which I have been and an exercise, from mean and women of means of maked worth. of testimonials to its value, which I have been and an receiving from men and emmen of unquestionable worth and repotation. I have had a number of these certificates printed in circular from which I will send you fee on application. Whether you now determine to try the medicine or not, send for the circular. After years of study and experiment, I offer this medicine, believing. It to be the best remedy for all polaroury and broadcast discusses. If you can not be benefited by the use of the TAR CORDIAL, I believe you are beyond all earthly sid. Yet if there are better curate agents, I expectly advise their use. The best or medicate best cars are needed by those afflicted with this disease. Because I believe this to be the best, I sek you to try it.

this to be the best, I sek you to try it.

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, What is the Principle or cause of your success in the treatment of Palemany Committee of My answer is this:

The inequalities of the digestive organs—the strengthening of the debilitated system—the providention and envishment of the blood, must expel from the system the corruption which errofuls breeds. While this reflected by the powerful alterative changing from disease to health; properties of the Tar Corolla, its besting and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and threat, practicaling rach diseased part, relieving pain, sublaining inflantation, and restoring a health of tendency. Let this two-field power, time health must be strengthening, continue to act in conjunction with Nature's constant recuperative tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a resear to the means of cure.

The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL will cure Coughs, Seer Threat and Breast, from hills, Asthma, Croup, Hooping Cough, Piptheria, and is also an excellent remody for disease of the kidneys and femile complaints.
