

UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., TUESDAY, FEB. 2, 1864.

"THE UNION," established in 1814--Whole No. 2,654.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843--Whole No. 1,033.

$500,000 Lost!

Yesterday, the State Treasurer was to pay the semi-annual interest on the State Debt in specie or its equivalent. Gold quoting at 157, there is added 67 cents to every dollar thus paid.

Who is responsible for this loss? The Governor, the Republican majority of the House, and the 16 Republicans in the Senate, all endeavored to pay the debt in lawful legal tender money, and thus save 67 cents on the dollar. But the Democratic State Treasurer, every Dem. in the House voting, and the 16 Dem. Senators, all said No--pay them in specie or its equivalent. And so the people must meet that extra 67 cents on the dollar, many of whom are English Secessionists, and other Rebel sympathizers at home.

As soon as the Senate vacancy is filled, we hope a law will be passed suspending that specie clause until the Rebellion is crushed, such a law would have great influence in aiding that result.

Against Secret Societies.

The Roman Catholic Bishop of Philadelphia has issued a circular against all manner of secret associations, whether benevolent, political, or revolutionary. The "Mystic" in the mining regions of Pennsylvania, have for a year past ruled certain mines, extorting wages, preventing men from working on their own terms, and naming and killing men who opposed their schemes. These, the Bishop puts in the same catalogue with Free Masons and Sons of Temperance, which are mainly if not wholly moral benevolent societies. But it is gratifying to see him strike against that which is wholly and undeniably wrong, even if he did not see that the meritorious or comparatively harmless. The "Fenian Brotherhood," an Irish combination to aid Ireland in becoming independent of England, is in the same category, and an infernal organization of that sort is hardly compatible with good faith to England, certainly.

When you hear Copperheads charging the Rebellion upon the Republicans, confront them with these "truths of history."

1. The Rebellion was inaugurated under a Democratic National Administration.

2. It was conceived and matured under Democratic auspices.

3. It had its nucleus and headquarters in the Democratic Cabinet of Buchanan.

4. Its chief instigators and engineers were leaders of the Democratic party in Congress and Government Departments.

5. Its principal agents abroad were Democratic Ambassadors and Consuls serving the cause of Treason under pay.

6. It had been in progress for months before Mr. Lincoln was inaugurated.

7. Seven States had gone out of the Union before the Democratic Buchanan left the Executive Chair.

8. War had been declared by the insurgents, in firing upon the Star of the West, long before the present Administration came into power.

Volunteering is going on very briskly all over the North--almost as much so as at the outbreak of the Rebellion. These cities, boroughs, and townships, that moved first, are clearing themselves. Those doing nothing, lose the men who leave them to enlist elsewhere, and will have to furnish their full quota besides. Let each district take pride in filling up its own ranks with its own men, and not be drained to help others. We have now a full month to clear Union county: there are men enough: there is money enough--put that and that together, and the thing is done.

Meetings to encourage the raising of Bounties for Volunteers, were held in Lewisburg Town Hall, during several evenings, and about $3,400 were reported as subscribed. Adjourned to Tuesday evening. Quite a number of those liable to draft, it seems, "don't care whether school keeps or not"--won't aid the fund--let the draft come!

On the second Monday in March, an election is to be held in ARKANSAS, to bring that State again into the Union, with "a Republican form of Government." A large State Convention of Delegates recommends the abolition of Slavery as "indemnity for the past and security for the future."

The single case of small-pox brought from Milton to Lewisburg, has terminated favorably, and we hear of no other cases here. But it is all over the land, and wherever Soldiers pass there is danger--therefore, vaccinate--vaccinate! in town and country.

Last Saturday afternoon, a slide from the first mountain below Sunbury, delayed the up-train on the Railway about half an hour. We saw no evidence of want of care on the part of the agents and servants of the Company.

The last hope of exchange having gone, a new election is ordered for Senate in place of Harry White.

Lieut. J. F. Beale has opened a recruiting office in East Merz's office for the 9th Army Corps. Bounties--veterans $400, and new recruits $300 from the general Government, and a local Bounty of $200 for all recruits, making $500 for veterans, and $300 for new recruits.

The Lewisburg Baptist Sabbath School has a Lamentation this (Tuesday) evening--10 and 20 cents admission.

Pennsylvania Common Schools.

The Superintendent, in his annual report to the Legislature, shows that the number of common schools in the State, not including Philadelphia city, is 12,161; an increase on the last year of 171. The whole attendance of pupils is 631,499, an increase of 19,412. Average attendance of pupils 67,922; increase, 9,659. Average length of School term, 5 months, 14 days; increase, 4 days. Average cost of each pupil, per month, 50 cents; an increase of 1 cent. Number of teachers, 11,442; increase, 62. Total cost of tuition, $1,498,040; increase, $139,859. Total cost of the system, including $16,000 appropriation in Philadelphia schools, $2,281,699; increase, $26,981. The total number of pupils, including Philadelphia, is 703,353, and the whole cost of the system, including the amount paid by Philadelphia, is $2,838,190; an increase of $104,904. These facts are encouraging to the friends of a school system. Notwithstanding the war, the average attendance has been larger, the average per cent. upon the whole number in attendance one half per cent. greater than last year. There were 717 less male teachers, and 739 more female teachers in 1863 than the year previous, owing to the war. The per cent. of attendance in the State Schools is only 63.5, while in Philadelphia it is 84.4. Mr. Coburn is in favor of stability in the system, and opposed to frequent changes, and therefore recommends little legislation. The difficulties and uncertainty of defining the "number of pupils attending," has caused the introduction of a bill in the House requiring the distribution of the School fund according to the taxables returned, as it had been until last year.

Centers, Columbia, Erie, Greene, Luzerne, Lycoming, Monroe, Montour, Pike, Potter, Schuylkill, and Venango.

The above counties, we learn, had not sent in their List of Taxables, a day or two since, as required by law, to the Secretary of the Commonwealth. If they are not received, their old number of taxables will have to be taken as the present, in making up Apportionments for Senators and H. of R. of the State of Penna.

The following are returns from ours and four counties below:

County	Vol., 1863	Taxables, 1864
Union	3,274	4,193
Mifflin	3,355	4,111
Snyder	3,089	3,610
Janata	3,193	3,123
Perry	4,424	5,518
	17,515	20,595

Voice of California and Kansas.
The following resolution passed both branches of the CALIFORNIA Legislature, seen only voting against it:

"Resolved, That the people still look to Abraham Lincoln as the instrument selected by Providence to lead their country in safety through all its perils, and restore it again to a peace in which no element of discord shall be found; and that we do most heartily favor his re-election."

In the KANSAS Legislature, a resolution re-nominating Pres. Lincoln passed without an opposing vote. Such is the expression of the popular will in those two new States.

The Catholic Telegraph says "The correspondence between Jefferson Davis and Pope Pius, has been published. The Pope, like every one else, is anxious for peace, but is no advocate for Rebellion, at home or abroad. We know what we state to be true." That is cold comfort to the Secesh and Cops. We wish all Catholics were like Brownson, Roscerans, Meagher, and their other most intelligent men.

Benj. C. Taylor, of Dayton, O., manufactures a cross-cut and drag saw, to which he applies horse or steam power. It is highly recommended for cutting logs, single blocks, stove wood, &c., and is a great labor saving implement.

The Governor has appointed as Notary Public, Jos. R. Orwig, Mifflinburg; Wm. Moyer, Erseburg; and Calvin W. Gutelius, Selinsgrove.

See new Philad. Advertisements in to-day's paper. And "when read, make a note of 'em."

Selinsgrove also is moving for a National Bank.

The Amended Conscription Bill has just passed Congress. Besides providing that an enrolled man may at any time secure complete exemption by furnishing a substitute not liable to draft, it now permits a drafted man to secure exemption from service by procuring a substitute liable to draft; but his name will be again enrolled for the next draft. The cost of commutation is increased to $400, and the name of the exempted man is enrolled, subject to draft under future calls, when the present enrollment is exhausted. Commutation money must be applied to securing substitutes in the Congressional district paying the money. Members of religious denominations, conscientiously opposed to bearing arms, are to be considered, if drafted, as non-combatants, and assigned to duty in hospitals, or be exempted, by paying $100, during the whole term. Every foreigner who has held office in the State or United States is to be enrolled.--Harrisburg Telegraph.

Harrisburg Correspondence.

FRIDAY, JAN. 29.
The House had a session to-day, lasting from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M.--the majority determined to bring to a vote the bill to pay the Feb. interest in legal tender notes. It passed, finally--all the Union members present voting Yes, and the Cops voting No. The same subject was up in Senate, but the Cops refused to read a second time the resolution endorsing the measure. They adjourned, however, until to-morrow, when they may have the last chance to pass the bill itself, and thus save the taxpayers a million of dollars. But they have refused to vote for the measure, and thus are committed against it.

Some soldiers happening home this extraordinarily warm weather, think the country much warmer than in Tennessee, where they have been; but the cold weather, there, at that time, was fully equalled here at the same time.

SATURDAY, JAN. 30.
Died this morning, Ed. Wm. M'Fadden, aged about 50 years. For a quarter of a century, he was an earnest, able, and most laborious preacher of the Gospel, in connection with the Winebretoners, or "Church of God." During Gov. Pollock's administration, he was Messenger in the State department, and a warm personal attachment existed between the men. In his later years, Mr. M'Fadden's health declined, and for many weary months he endured much pain, but--sustained by the faith he had believed and proclaimed in his days of strength--his end was perfect peace. He was a cousin of the late Col. Jackson M'Fadden, of Lewisburg, and, like him, a good citizen and public spirited man.

President Lincoln's Amnesty Proclamation is a source of considerable grief to the Rebels. A few days since, Gen. Longstreet sent a bag of truce to Gov. Foster, with a complaint that if the Proclamation is to be published to the Rebel soldiers, it will be more in accordance with military etiquette to have their commander promulgate it. Gen. Foster acknowledged the correctness of his logic, and in return sent twenty copies of the Proclamation, requesting him to have them carefully distributed throughout his camps, which, of course, he will do--over the left. Deserters are coming into our lines by hundreds, to take the Amnesty offer.

It is gratifying to know that, as far as detected, corrupt and unworthy Government officers and contractors are exposed, dismissed, and punished. They are bad enough--but they are not as many nor as obnoxious, in proportion to numbers, as the same class of contractors were in the War for Independence. Cases of conscience (that is persons restoring to Government funds which they had wrongfully obtained) are also more common.

George Smith, of this Borough, member of company H, 5th Pa. Reserves, and a companion, were taken prisoners at Bull Run, Va., on the 14th inst., while gathering rails to fix up their quarters. They were surrounded and captured by eight rebel cavalrymen, and sent to Richmond.

The Copperheads talk of raising a fund by ten cent subscriptions for Vallandigham's family, who, they say, are in indigent circumstances. Now, why don't they jump the matter, and provide for Jeff Davis' family, who are, or soon will be, in a similar condition? The Cops can certainly support two ten-cent patriots!

The correspondent of Cincinnati Gazette, writing from Knoxville on the 20th ult., says: "On Friday last, our cavalry, under Gen. Sturges, advanced to the direction of Danbridge, 40 miles from Knoxville, and on Sunday morning drove the enemy's vedettes out of that village. A portion of our infantry, under Gen. Parks, also moved up, but learning that the enemy were in full force beyond Danbridge, they fell back to their former position. Sunday morning, the enemy, seeing that we had drawn back our cavalry as far as possible, made a desperate attack on our lines with Hood's and Bushrod Johnson's divisions, led by the Hampton cavalry. Observing the desperate determination of the enemy, Sturges ordered M'Cook, commanding a division of Elliott's cavalry, to charge the enemy. The charge turned the fortunes of the day, which up to this time had been decidedly against us. Our loss is about 150. On Sunday, we fall back to Strawberry Plains, six miles from Knoxville. On the 19th, Gen. Sturges fell back to Knoxville, and the same evening crossed the Holston River with the view of intercepting the enemy at Lewisville. Gen. Granger's troops were moving in the same direction on the 20th ult.

The new postal bill passed by Congress, provides that articles of clothing, manufactured of wool, cotton, or linen, and compressed within limits not exceeding two pounds weight, addressed to any non-commissioned officer or private, may be transmitted at eight cents, and above that weight according to the regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General.

The Rebel Governor of Virginia recommends the calling out at once of all the Militia for not more than 30 days at a time. There is something astir at Mobile, but not enough has transpired to determine the loyalty of the persons interested.

the street I found Capt. Carman, who took me in and fed me. When I went to turn in my horse, riding thro' the town, I saw a most unmitigated crowd plying around, hating boarding and stabling. I trotted along on my steed very complacent. I had only to ride to the Captain A Q M's quarters and give him back his horse with my thanks, and walk down to quarters where hot coffee and chicken awaited me, while these fellows wandered from house to house, from barn to barn, agonized by one belly and anxious for another. My troubles were in retrospect, their had but begun.

The Reg't had left with the Corps in pursuit of Longstreet, before I came. They are some thirty miles from here, both armies fronting and maneuvering, and any moment may bring on a tremendous engagement.

The Washington Star says: "The Rebels have for some time alleged to believe that the shelling of Charleston by their Morris Island batteries would amount to simply a waste of powder on our side and no harm whatever to themselves. Now, however, they have reason to change their tone. The information we have from there is to the effect that block by block that city is retreating to ashes; and by a process as steadily inexorable as that by which Gilmore kumbled Palisade and Sumpter. The Rebels killed in attempting to retain a foothold on the ruins of Sumpter amount in number, we hear, to the destruction of at least as many as the entire rebel garrison once in every ten days, and the position there is looked upon as much of a forlorn hope that it is with difficulty a small garrison can be kept there."
