Charge of the Mule Brigade.

[On the night of October 28th, when Gen. Geary's division of the Twelfth Corps repulsed the attacking forces of Longstreet at Washatchie, Tenn., a number of mules, affrighted by the noise of battle, dashed into the ranks of Hampton's Legion, exasing much dismay among the rebels, and compelling many of them to fall back under a supposed charge of cavalry. Captain Thomas H. Elliott, of Guary's staff, sends us the following rendition of the incident, which he gleaned from an interior contemporary. Its authorship is not known by the Captain.]

Half a mile, half a mile, Half a mile onward, Right toward the Georgia troops Broke the two hundred. "Forward the Mule Brigade," "Charge for the Rebs!" they neighed; Straight for the Georgia troops, Broke the two hundred.

"Forward, the Mule Brigade!" Was there a mule dismayed? Not when the long ears felt

All their ropes sundered; Theirs not to make reply; Theirs not to reason why; Theirs but to make them fly On! to the Georgia troops, Broke the two hundred.

Mules to the right of them, Mules to the left of them, Mules also behind them, Pawed, neighed, and thundered, Breaking their own confines, Breaking through Longstreet's lines. Into the Georgia troops Stormed the two hundred.

Wild all their eyes did glare, Whisked all their tails in air. Scatt'ring all the chivalry there While all the world wondered! Not a mule back-bestraddled.

Yet how they all skedaddled! Fled every Georgian, Unsabred, unsaddled. Scattered and sundered. How they were routed there By the two hundred.

Mules to the right of them, Mules to the left of them, Mules all around them, Pawed, neighed, and thundered; Followed by hoof and head, Full many a hero fled, Fain in the last ditch dead, Back from an "asa's jaw," All that was left of them. Left by the two hundred.

When can their glory fade? O, the wild charge they made! All the world wondered. Honor the charge they made, Honor the Mule Brigade, Long-eared two hundred.

formerly of the North Phurch, Philada.

I have known Houland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proceialming this fact, and calling the attention of those, afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheeffully as Houland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted and is not a rum drink.

Yours truly,

"I have seen your advertisement, giving people desiring exemption from the coming draft an opportunity to lay in their complaints, &c. Now, sir, I have never had the honor of your acquaintance, but I can refer you for the truth of what I am about to say to my worthy friend, James D. Foster, surgeon, and a member of your honorable board. I have no broken limbs. I have no chronic diseases, such as inflammation of the stomach, phthysic,

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of a severe cold and general debility, I have been greatly benefited by the use of the bitters, and doubt not that they will produce similar effects on others.

Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH.

the Paster of Hedding M. E. church, Philada. Dr. Jackson-Bear Sir: Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system, it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowl-edge. Yours respectfully, J. H. TURNER.

the former Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Milestown (Pt.) Bapilet churches. Milestown (Pt.) Bepvist churches.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since, being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to its great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it is a tonic that can not be surpassed. JOHN M. LYONS.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it doe to your excellent preparation, Hoodand's German Bitters, is add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for pears, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nerrous system. I was advised, by a friend, to try a bottle ofyour German Bitters, I did so, and have superienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours,
