FOR PRESIDENT.
ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Clubs for our paper for Feb. Court close to-morrow, (Saturday)

No particular news from Washington, Harrisburg, or our Armies.

Another very cold spell this week, closing the river in a single night. At St. Paul, Minnesota, thermometer was 25 deg. below zero.

Election for State Senator in Indiana district, to-day. In a week, we hope, the Senate will be doing its business, but the session will probably be protracted by the contumacy of the 16 minority Senators, who, like the dog in the manger, would do nothing, nor permit others to proceed with their sworn duties.

Chronicle the Facts.

In A. D. 1864, the Grand Jury of Union county, Pennsylvania, at Feb. T, had only one bill (which they pronounced "true") before it, and was discharged the first day. Pat that down.

The Sheriff of said county, same Term, had but one Land Sale, and had none at all at Dec. T. preceding. Pat that down, too.

The Com. case is postponed to May and the Civil List is in progress.

Writers in the Army say that the men are getting badly cheated by sending to the Cities for Watches and other Jewelry, for which (when "flash" with money) they pay large prices for poor articles. We have advertised Books, but the Jewelry swindlers are not helped by the columns of the "Star & Chronicle." Our advice to our Army readers is to send their money home, in bank, or to the care of some friend. Make a "nest-egg" of it, and it may prove your starting-point for a long and happy life.

Every Democrat in the Connecticut Legislature voted against allowing Soldiers to vote. In New York State, however, the Cops were a little more absurd; they yielded to the plans which they last year had power to defeat, and a Special Election in March will ensure the right.

One of the first acts of the Penn'a Legislature should be to order a Special Election for our Constitutional Amendments, so that men desiring to enlist may know they will not again be robbed of the freeman's franchise as they were by Woodward & Co. Many more would volunteer if they were not fearful of leaving the State in the power of the Copperheads at the polls.

MORE RECRUITS—Wednesday morning last, Lieut. J. F. Heale accompanied to Harrisburg 31 new Volunteers, claimed as follows:

Serg. Albert E. Barnes, David Hanelman, Melancthon Zschman, George P. Smith, John T. Cox, Henry Heitzman, Jacob Heitzman, George Parsel, Daniel B. Myers, Wm. S. Myler, and Washington Coraicus (11)—credited to Lewisburg.

David H. Getz, Henry Derham, Jacob Long, Peter G. Paul, Charles Loyd, Serg. Isaac Treat, David Lenhart, Daniel Slutzman, Alfred Decker, Elias Heinsbach, Alexander Dewire, Charles G. Zschman, John Hommel, William Schroder, John Klingler, (14 in all) who, we consolidated, clear East Buffalo from the consolidated draft.

Lemuel Mood, John Ruck, Samuel Rasek, George Wertz, Joseph A. Logan, and one in the East Buffalo list (6 in all) credited to Kelly.

Of those taken to Harrisburg last week, Lewisburg was credited with 18, and Kelly 1.

Lewisburg has now (exclusive of those to be reported of Veterans in service) 31 recruits, and others in readiness.

PAY—PAY!—In the general abundance of money in the loyal States, many people know not what to do with it. There is no longer a chance for 5-20's except at a premium. National Banks are already plentiful. Speculations are hazardous, as the close of the War may tumble down many fabrics and articles—and the scene of land and business operations may turn South instead of West.

But one thing, every person can do—pay up all debts, taxes, and subscriptions and obligations whatever, due; payments not due, may be anticipated; needful purchases may be made; and donations and gifts contemplated, may be carried into effect. Every dollar in circulation may pay a dozen or a score of debts before it comes to a stop. And the less a person owes, the better is he or she prepared for any change, and the enjoyment is greater. Absolute surpluses should be invested wisely and safely as possible, not so much with a view to large returns as to sureness and wholesomeness.

"STATE JOURNAL" is the name of a weekly Administration journal just started at Harrisburg, by Dr. Brower & Son, late of Danville. It is large size, well printed, ably edited, and offered at $2 in advance for a single copy, or 10 copies for $15.

Rhode Island has her quota full.

From Wisconsin Soldiers.
CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 23.

Friends at home can never know how we are situated here, until the Railroad was repaired. Before the battle of Missionary Ridge, one third of the horses and mules were dead, and those alive were miserably starved, but on them we were dependent for supplies, sixty miles in the rear, over the worst roads ever traveled by man or beast; and could you have seen them trailing over the stones and through the mud of those mountains, you would have realized something of the task to feed men and beasts at this end. There were days of quarter rations, but the men stood bravely up to their duty, though starvation stared them in the face. Without tents, or transportation for anything but rations and ammunition—I do not think we had a dozen knapsacks in our brigade, or that many of the men had a change of clothing for a long time.

The 11th Corps is now here, and they are good fighting men, but they have fared better at the East than they can here. Their nice clothes and paper collars made some sport here, and it was a strange sight to them to see pack trains with panniers, which they called great baskets. Pat was leading a pack train past this camp, when a Lieutenant with a very white collar asked, "What are them big baskets for?" Said Pat, "Them are to carry paper collars for the 11th Army Corps!"

G. N. D.

SALISBURY, Tenn., Jan. 22.

The tallest campaign of the war will open next Spring. The smallest amount of baggage will be taken, and that principally of ammunition, with an entire uniform, shoes and socks, for each soldier. There are several expeditions afoot, so do not be surprised at anything except that we are whipped. Should these all be successful, the rebellion will be confined in very narrow limits by summer, leaving but little for the drafted men to do.

There are, it is said, many people at the North who do not realize that there is war in this once happy land. But, in this region you will see the blackened remains of towns, plantations wasted, stripped of stock and negroes, fences burned, rank weeds where luxuriant cotton grew, women and children homeless or living in rude shanties of their own construction and begging bread from their enemies. West Tennessee is stripped of everything to sustain life for man or beast, and before long other parts will suffer in like manner. Bitterly are the people reaping the fruits of Secession, but the end is not yet.

Well Expressed.

The Saturday Evening Post touches the true point when it says that too many of the Polish "patriots" only want liberty for themselves and particular classes, while other classes they would tread under foot. There is far too much of the same "liberty" sought in Italy, France, Ireland, England, &c.

Nor is America free from the same inconsistency, if not hypocrisy. Generation after generation have the slaveholders been fierce for their own freedom, but put other human beings in the grossest, worst of bondage. And thousands of so called "Democrats" at the North, have either approved, or silently acquiesced in, wholesale oppression of one race or caste by another race or caste.

Poland, Italy, and Ireland, can never be truly free until they render freedom to all. And the bloody baptism of this Union is to end in establishing the principles of Equality of Rights for all Men. Aristocracy may hate it, but to that it must and will come at last.

Just so.—In one of the detected letters of Mr. Lamar, a Rebel emissary, occurs the following precious revelation: "Drive gold coin out of the country, and induce undue imitations of foreign products, so as to strike down the financial system. You can have no further hope for foreign recognition. It is evident the weight of arms is against us; and it is clear that we can only succeed by striking down the financial system of the country."

Such is the foreign Rebel's advice to his brethren at home—and the Copperhead leaders are carrying out the same policy. They have done all they could to make "greenbacks" odious—to drive out gold—to increase consumption of foreign goods—and to produce extravagance in the army. After all this, they try to shake the people's confidence in the government, and to discourage them about the War, so that the Rebels can dictate terms, and rule again.

Returning Reason of the Rebels.

The Nashville Union, Feb. 4, announces the return to loyalty of three Rebels. They are D. C. Humphreys of Alabama, Maj. T. H. Williams of Tennessee, and Capt. J. M. Streetman of the 55th Georgia regiment. Humphreys was a candidate on the Douglas ticket in 1850, has been violent, and now urges the people of Alabama to return to the Union, giving up slavery. Williams said, at a meeting in Nashville, that 200 of his regiment were already in the United States service, and more coming. He declared his readiness to lose his slaves. Some, he added, called the Proclamation of Emancipation unconstitutional. He asked those "if they wanted the Constitution administered. If they did they were fools, for it would hang them and all their friends now in the rebel ranks, if caught, for the penalty of treason is death." Capt. Streetman calls on his comrades to renounce the rebel service.

E. F. Loveridge—who, when the rebellion broke out, was publishing a Secession paper at Troy, N. Y., which was broken up by the citizens, and he compelled to fly to Canada—writes a communication to the Rochester Express, in which he concludes that the Democratic party are in fact responsible for the rebellion, and that they are a treacherous, unpatriotic, cold-hearted class, upon whom no reliance can be placed either by friends or opponents. He denounces that party as the worst for the South has, for having led the way into this infernal rebellion.

We have frequently declared, that, as reason would relinquish the minds of the traitors, and they could be induced to regard their treasonable effort to destroy the Government in its true light, they would expose the duplicity practiced upon them by the Democratic leaders of the North.

Doleful Dilemma.

Two Democrats met, last Monday—Jack of Solingrove, and George of Sunbury—the former a rank Copt, and the latter a War Democrat.

Says Jack, "I do hope this report about the Rebels being willing to come back if the leaders are pardoned is true. Lincoln ought to pardon the leaders, if it will bring them back."

Says George, "It won't do to pardon the Rebel leaders—it will split the Democratic party."

"How can you make that appear?" asks Jack.

"Why," replies George, "you see, if they are pardoned, one half of the Democrats will want to nominate J. F. Davis for President, and the other half will want M'Clellan—and, between the two, we will have a bigger muss than we had at Charleston, in '60. It won't do—it will split the party."

Jack looked serious, while the eyes of George twinkled mischievously.—Saturday American.

DELIVERANCE!—Last week, over one hundred Union Officers, confined in Libby prison, Richmond, after working at it for a month, escaped by running a tunnel under the jail walls and the street, when they entered the city and scattered for freedom. Perhaps a score have been retaken, but Gen. Butler announces that twenty or thirty have reached the Union lines. Among the fortunate ones is the gallant Col. Streight, who is more than a match for the Rebel Morgan.

We regret to hear that Major Harry White is suffering, as a hostage, in a North Carolina dungeon. After the election of his successor, we trust that noble man may have an easier lot.

The Danish Dutch Question.

Bless Ho! the right King, the state's defender! Bless there's no harm in blessing the Pretender!—What the Pretender is, and which the King, "Bless" if I know—thats quite another thing.

The above revision of an old Epigram expresses just our opinion about the "Schleswig" muddle in Europe, of which foreign papers have so much to say. We hope (and believe) there will be no fighting there until they know what it is all "about."

AMOS MYERS, of Pa., said a good thing in Congress the other day. Referring to the course of the more rabid Copperhead leaders, he remarked:

"After this war, some men would give fortunes to have their words blotted out. Two classes will have to leave the North, and go South; one of them, the negro, because it is too cold; and the other, the Copperhead, because it is too hot."

The Folly Island correspondent of the Boston Herald says that a rebel ram, in company with a cigar-shaped torpedo boat, came down the creek in the rear of Sullivan's Island to attempt to destroy the gunboats Housatonic and Nipsic, but the infernal machine sunk, carrying down ten of the crew. Ten Rebel soldiers have arrived within our lines and report Charleston badly damaged by Gilmore's shells.

By the new Draft law, those enrolled before being 45 years of age, but coming to that age before the draft, may have their names struck from the roll by satisfactory proof of the fact to the Board. Those coming to be 20 before the draft, are to be enrolled.

"Beast Butler" is doing something yet more awful than before. He is establishing free schools in Eastern Virginia and North Carolina, after the fashion of those in Massachusetts. Whereupon the Rebels and the Copperheads vie in heaping denunciation upon his wicked head.

Persons enlisting, going out of their districts for the sake of a few more dollars, must remember that in so doing they renounce their own home and all claims upon it for help to themselves or families in case of harm. That is said to be law. Stand by your own neighborhood.

The Town Elections in New York State thus far show large Union gains over those of last year.

Lieut. T. G. Brice, formerly of Northumberland, has been appointed Assistant Superintendent in the House of Refuge at Philadelphia.

The first blue bird of the season made its appearance on Sunday morning, the 24th of January. The little fellow came a few months too soon.

The Christian Commission at Philadelphia, acknowledges the receipt of five hundred and eighty-five dollars, contributed by the young ladies of Milton, who made it at their recent Christmas Festival.

George M. Gearhart has been elected Teller of the Bank of Danville, in the place of W. A. M. Grier, who has resigned to take the Cashiership of the First National Bank of Danville.

We understand that Isaac M. Wilkerson, formerly of Sunbury, a member of the 16th Pa. Cavalry, recently died at Warrenton, Va., from a wound in the head. He leaves a family.

The National Bank of Solingrove is established. The following gentlemen have been elected Directors:

Geo. Schour, Henry C. Eyer, W. F. Wagener, A. C. Simpson, Joseph Eyster, H. N. Beckhus, Moses Seibert, Geo. C. Meyer and M. B. Holman.

Issac Fabel, the man who piloted Fitz Hugh Lee in his late raid in Cumberland Valley, has been convicted as a spy and a deserter, by a Court Martial at Chambersburg, and has been sentenced to be shot at Carlisle Barracks some time this month. He was a member of the 16th regiment of drafted militia, and deserted, rendering active and personal co-operation to Lee's invading army.

LEAP YEAR.—The ladies of the North Baptist Church, Hartford, Conn., recently invited the gentlemen of the choir to a leap year sleigh ride. The latter accepting, the ladies bired a large sleigh, called for their guests handed them in, drove them to Windsor and back, gave them a good dinner and paid the bill, taking tender care of them all the time.

The Copperhead papers still continue to abuse the government currency, Henry Ward Beecher, and Gen. Butler. Yet these fellows have nothing to say against even such rebel guerrillas, as Morgan and Quantrell. They abuse Mr. Beecher's congregation for offering to increase his salary from $7,000 to $12,000, and now they abuse him because he refused to accept the additional $5,000.

We have been informed that the miners recently employed by Major Harper at the Luceaster Colliery near Shamokin, intended going with him to Chattanooga, where he has a contract to take out coal for the Government. The Shamokin region can ill afford to lose so excellent and honorable a man as the Major; but since he is going to leave, we wish him success in his new enterprise.

The express train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad which left Baltimore on Thursday night was captured by a company of disguised Rebels near Kearneysville depot, about eight miles west of Harper's Ferry. No prisoners were taken but the passengers were indiscriminately robbed. About $30,000 in money, and a considerable amount in jewelry, were taken.

Latest News

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—The bark Rogers, from Kanagawa, Japan, January 7, has arrived at this port with important news.

Just before the Rogers left Kanagawa the brig Mary Capen arrived from China, reporting the steamer Wyoming on the 24 of January off Amoy. Her commander reported the Alabama in the port of Amoy, going into dock.

The following letter was received by a mercantile firm of this city extensively engaged in the China trade:

KANAGAWA, Jan. 7.
To Messrs. MACANDRAY & CO., San Francisco: DEAR SIRS—We are enabled by the delay of the Rogers in the harbor, owing to calms, to give you good news—that the privateer Alabama is in dock at Amoy, China, and the Wyoming, Captain M'Dougal, standing ready over her. We may hope her career is ended. The news comes by the brig Mary Capen, five days from Shanghai, and is authentic.

WALSH, HULL & CO.
The Rogers also reports that the Tycoon's palace at Jeddo was burned on Christmas. The next day the Custom House was closed, the officials destroying themselves so grieved at the Tycoon's misfortunes that they were wholly unable to transact business. It is reported that the fire originated in a gunpowder plot to blow up the palace for the purpose of killing the Tycoon.

An escaped refugee reports that the Rebels are preparing to make a raid into Ohio. They have prepared pontoons, and intend attempting to cross the river at two points—Guindotte and Barbourville.

The steamer Orient, containing Government stores, horses, &c., sunk 20 miles above Cairo, on the Mississippi river, on the 17th inst. About 30 lives and nearly eighty horses were lost.

The Rebels have lost, by fire, a thousand bales of cotton at Wilmington, N. C.

The Directing Senate of Russia has put a stop to the long persecution of the Baptists, in Poland and the Baltic provinces, by reversing a late decision of a district court. The imperial ukaz issued upon this occasion contains the remarkable clause, that the use of force is all the "more to be deprecated in a doctrine of religion which may later find acknowledgment." This is a very important step toward religious toleration; and Mr. Oonken, the founder of the Baptist churches in Germany, has gone to St. Petersburg, in order to turn it to the best account.—Methodist.

Tableaux.—An Entertainment, consisting of Tableaux, &c., will be given, under the auspices of the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society of Lewisburg, at Independent Hall, on Tuesday Evening, Feb. 23. There will be Music and a Table of Refreshments. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Admittance, 25 cents.

A Free Lecture will be delivered in the Lutheran Church on Monday evening, Feb. 22, by the Pastor Rev. R. A. Fink. Subject, Louis Napoleon. A collection will be taken for the benefit of the Sabbath School.
