BY MRS. F. D. GAGE.

I wish I had a dozen pairs Of hands this very minute; I'd soon put all these things to rights; The very dence is in it.

Here's a big washing to be done, One pair of hands to do it, Sheets, shirts and stockings, coats and pants, How will I e'er get through it?

Dinner to get for six or more, No loaf left o'er from Sunday; And baby cross as he can live-He's always so on Monday.

And there's the cream, 'tis getting sour, And forthwith must be churning; And here's Bob wants a button on-Which way must I be turning?

'Tis time the meat was in the pot. The brend was worked for baking, The clothes were taken from the boil-Oh dear! the baby's waking.

Hush, baby, dear, there, hush, sh-sh! I wish he'd sleep a little, Till I could run and get some wood To harry up the kettle.

Oh dear! if P--- comes home, And finds things in this bother, He'll just begin and tell me all About his tidy mother.

How nice her kitchen used to be, Her dinner always ready Exactly when the noon bell rung-Hush, hush, dear little Freddy.

And then will come some hasty word, Right out before I'm thinking-They say that hasty words from wives Set sober men a drinking.

Now isn't that a great idea, That men should take to sinning Because a weary, half sick wife, Can't always smile so winning?

When I was young. I used to earn My living without trouble, Had clothes, and pocket money too, And hours of leisure double.

I never dreamed of such a fix, When I, a lass, was courted-Wife, mother, nurse, seamstress, cook, housekeeper, chambermaid, laundress, diary-woman, and scrub generally-doing the work of six-

The people of this Furniture of my own manufacture, insured county collectionly are opposed to tinkering with the Constitution of the present time, and as for Special Exctions, we don't scant them. Our Representatives should UNDERTAKING BUSINESS-I will keep act accordingly.

The managers of the party in Harrisburg thought it better to "cave iu" on than has ever been done in Lewisburg. Call that proposition, and so only three Demo- and se crats had the courage to vote against it, but the above extract, we doubt not, reveals the bonest feelings of the party generally against allowing the Soldiers to CIOME person, whose interest it would vote.

"The principal speakers declared that they had not been inside of any church (meaning, we suppose, place of christian worship) for ever three years, except on funeral occasions, and gave vent to the most vile and fiendish denunciations of the churches and ministry ever listened to. The meeting began, and ended, without prayer, that being considered a foolish practice, fit only to be indulged in by the fanatical members of Abolition churches." As these men believe in "no higher
