Gen. Sherman's boldness is creating consternation in Rebeldom. The Richmond Examiner says that on the 10th inst., Sherman, with 25,000 or 30,000 men, provided with 20 days' cooked rations, left Vicksburg, and took up the line of march eastward, tearing up the railroads and bridges in his rear, clearly meditating no step backward. This advance, continwes the Examiner, is beyond comparison, the boldest movement of the war.

Forty-eight of the escaped Union pristhers are expected.

GRICULTURAL Implements, since the commencement of this War, have been in great demand, and good machines are valnable as to their merits and worth only In the year 1862, Messrs. J. S. MARSH & CO sold one of their Improved Reapers to Henry Stuck for $130. On the 18th of Febtuary, the same Reaper was sold at a Public Sale, on the farm of Henry Stuck, near Carlisle, for $139, after being used two seasons.

Messrs, J. S. Marsh & Co. are manufacturing a large number of their machines, with Improvements, this season, for the coming Having and Harvest; and as to the merits of Combined their
