

UNION COUNTY STAR AND CHRONICLE

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS. LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1864. "THE UNION," established in 1814--Whole No. 2,658. "CHRONICLE," established in 1843--Whole No. 1,037.

Be not Cheated!
The State Convention of Connecticut unanimously endorsed President Lincoln, and advocated his re-nomination and re-election in fair and argumentative resolutions. Not a word was said about Mr. Chase "or any other man." Yet the Union-faces but copper-hearted Ligueur of Philadelphia asserted that half the Delegates appointed to the National Convention by that same Convention, are friends of Chase for President!
Lincoln men! here is ground for exultation, if not for alarm. Never were the honest masses of a party so united as are the Unionists for Abraham Lincoln. They in primary meetings and Conventions loudly express that preference, and appoint men to carry out their views. Lincoln men! here is ground for exultation, if not for alarm. The Rebel Congress has issued an Address to their people, recounting their terrible sufferings past and present, and urging them to stagger up to the outside again.
One of Gen. Lee's orderlies, named Taylor, recently deserted and reached our lines. He reports Lee's army in Virginia is only 25,000 strong, and very much dissatisfied.
Isaac Fisher, the Copperhead who plotted a Fitz Hugh Lee in his late raid in Cumberland valley, was shot at Calais Barracks on the 18th inst., as a spy and deserter.
Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati, says, in an address (just published) to the clergy and laity of his diocese: "We go, with our whole heart and soul, for the maintenance of the Union and the abolition of slavery."

Mutual Life Insurance Company of NEW YORK.
THE Statement of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York for the fiscal year ending 31st ult., has been published. The cash receipts of this mammoth institution for the year exceeded two millions of dollars, over and above the thousands of which were for interest alone.
It is the opinion of some that an insurance on their lives would be an unprofitable expenditure, should they live to pay many premiums. Such is not the case in this Company, as all the profits are equitably divided among the assured, and are so large, that many are taking out policies as an investment.
A prominent citizen of Philadelphia insured his life in this Company in 1843, for $50,000. There was added to his policy, by dividends to Feb. 1st, 1863, $308,655. This amount may be increased by future dividends $808,655.
The Twenty Annual Premiums of $125.00 each (or $1,250.00) paid on this policy, do not much exceed the dividends already paid.
