Best Machine in the World! Senatorial Classifications. After three months' daily attendance in the Senatorial jury box, (better known as the Reporters' Gallery) I have brought in the following verdict. I don't know how far the general public will agree with me but those who disagree are privileged to appeal to a higher Court: The best lawyer—Mr. Collamer, of Vermont. The best scholar—Mr. Sumner, of Massachusetts. The best general debator and practical legislator—Mr. Fessenden, of Maine. The keenest debator—Mr. Trumbull, of Illinois.

The most pleasant speaker to listen to—Mr. Doollittle, of Wisconsin. The best financier—Mr. Sherman, of Ohio. The richest man—Mr. Sprague, of Rhode Island. A very sensible old man—Mr. Wade, of Ohio. The greatest bore that ever lived—Mr. Davis, of Kentucky. The knight of the sorrowful Nigger—Mr. Lane, of Kansas. The most violent copperhead—Mr. Powell, of Virginia. The most bibulous man in Congress—Mr. Richardson, of Illinois. The best looking man when sober—Mr. Saulsbury, of Delaware. The man who has least to say—Mr. Hendricks, of Indiana. The man who made a faux pas in issuing a "strictly private" circular, which soon became public property—Mr. Pomerooy, of Kansas. The man who comes nearest to nobody—Mr. Biddle, of Delaware—Cincinnati Commercial.

A LEGAL KNOT—Rather a nice legal question has been raised in the land of the Canucks. The owner of a boat on the Niagara river tied up his vessel along the shore with a hay rope. A ball belonging to his neighbor jumped aboard the boat and proceeded to satisfy his appetite from the hay; eating off the rope, ball and boat went adrift. Being captain and all hands, and a poor sailor at that, he was unable to manage the lubberly craft, and away they went pell mell down the rapids and over the falls. The owner of the ball has brought a suit against the owner of the boat for carrying off his ball; while the owner of the boat has owned by bringing an action against the owner of the lawsuit for removing his craft. A lawsuit being sent to match a china plate returned with one of an entirely different pattern. After scolding for some time, the mistress said "Stupid! do you not see that the two are entirely different?" "No mum," was the reply; "only one of them is different."

TO THE PUBLIC. SOME persons, whose interest it would probably be if I were to leave Lewisburg, has circulated the report that I had sold out my Gallery, and left town. IN CASE OF DEPARTURE I shall be glad to receive any orders, and will be glad to furnish my customers. N. B. When I do sell out and leave, I will let my friends know. E. L. MORRIS.
