Published Semi-Weekly, Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Another of our hands having left us to enlist, we are again in need of help...

Gen. Grant's visit to Washington seems to have ceased the last call for 200,000 men...

During the high wind of Friday last, a log dwelling on the farm of the late James Dale, Esq., in Buffalo township, was burned down.

Lieut. W. R. Foster and Serg. John L. Reese have succeeded Lieut. Beale in the recruiting service...

Mrs. A. M. Holstein who has been connected for some years with the hospitals in our army...

Last Saturday evening, a lady created quite a sensation in the Lewisburg Post Office...

HORRIBLE CATASTROPHE—Towards the close of last week a raft was discovered on fire while passing down the river...

As a reason for the last call of 200,000 men, it is suggested that the Rebels will form an alliance with the Emperor of the French...

On Friday week, at Reelsville, near Lewistown, while assisting at the preliminary services for communion in the Presbyterian church...

This week, Thursday, the Copperheads of Pennsylvania, under the guise of "Democracy," are to meet in State Convention in Philadelphia...

LOOK OUT FOR PICKPOCKETS.—Coming up from Harrisburg, Friday morning, there was a rush to get into a car, and three men "took the chance" who they probably manufactured to pick two pockets...

After looking on and condoling with the unfortunate a few hours, Sam'l H. Orwig, Esq., put his hand in his pocket and found his pass book and diary gone with the money of the other man!

BOROUGH ELECTION.—A very tight vote was polled last Friday, and the straight Administration elected.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—We regard the result of the election in New Hampshire as a most important harbinger of the future.

The large lumber mill of Buckley, Saylor & Co., at Beech Creek, was destroyed by fire last week.

The military situation at Jacksonville, Fla., remained unchanged. Our troops still hold the place, but are subject to occasional annoyances from the Rebel cavalry.

Harrisburg Correspondence.

Wednesday, March 16. To-day, Messrs. Council, Johnson Glax, St. Clair, and Worthington, were appointed the Appurtenance Committee on the part of the Senate.

Recently, Mr. Mayer, H. R. of Lancaster, narrowly escaped death at Herr's Hotel.

It has been cold again—quite; coal is in demand; and the market hours have been changed back from 8 to 5 in the morning.

Nothing has been discovered of the murderers of the gray-haired old man found dead on the street one morning last week.

Both Houses hold their third sessions to-day, as I drop this line—intending to complete the election of State Treasurer, which has been variously hindered thus far.

Which is the Bank party?—In Senate, on the question of extending the charter of the Bank of Germantown for five years, 12 Dems. and 6 Reps. voted Yes, and 10 Reps. and 1 Dem. voted No.

State Treasurer.—HENRY D. MOORE was duly re-elected to this office, by a vote of 65 to 56. Wm. V. McGrath received his party vote for re-election.

The bill to pay our State Debts in national money, was discussed—the Democrats finding fault with it, of course.

The Constitutional Amendments have passed the House and Senate precisely as they stood last year—and will promptly be signed by the Governor.

Aug. S. Samsam, Esq., late of New Berlin, we see is promoted to be a Cop. Inspector of Elections in one of the Wards of Reading City.

Signs of the Times.—The Legislature of Maryland, 9th inst., passed an act to repeal the law preventing negroes from navigating vessels in that State; also, an act repealing the law compelling the State to pay for all slaves killed in attempting to escape from their masters.

The last Selingsgrove Times has the following three brief editorials: "A War Democrat is one that acts as a guerrilla for the Abolitionists."

The best Butler has ordered that a minister at Norfolk, Rev. S. H. Sawtelle, is to work for three months at cleaning the streets."

Gen. Lee has no floor in his tent, never drinks, never swears, and is reported to be a very much beloved old Rebel indeed."

On Picket Duty, by Miss Aleott, No. 1 of this series, has gone to its second edition. 7000 were sold in three days.

A GOOD JOKE.—The Miners' Journal tells a good joke on Strouse, member of Congress (rep) from that district.

Court Convened at Sunbury Monday, but on account of the prevalence of the small pox in the mining districts of the county, it was deemed prudent not to continue the session.

List of Vendues in March, 1864. Advertisements by bills at this office in the "Chronicle."

Married. In Northumberland, 9th inst., by Daniel M'Gregor, Esq. EBERT SPOLDS, of Columbia Co, Ohio, and Miss ELIZABETH FORTH, of North Co.

Things that Make a Patriot Mad.

To hear men that have never read the Constitution, and never heard it read, ranting about its violation.

To hear men who never did a day's labor in their lives howling about the curfew of negroes, and its injustice to the white laborers.

To hear men rave about the President's violation of the Constitution, who are so utterly stupid or knavish that they have never ascertained that the rebellion is in violation of the Constitution.

To hear men who care not for law—for God or man—who live in daily violation of law, prating about law.

To hear men who, were they South, would be treated as the poorest and meanest 'white trash' tainted as 'mudstills,' 'greasy mechanics,' &c., upholding the very men who so degrade labor and despise those who do not own negroes.

To hear them justifying Jeff Davis and the South, who have not the manhood and decency to go South and seek a home which they like so well.

To hear a man who loves slavery more than his country or freedom.

To hear a drunken, leprous, thick-headed, ignorant-looking lily on manhood, belching out "Constitution."

To hear a man talking about peace and compromise after he has been kicked and spit upon by the South.—Oneeey Times!

WORDS THAT BREATHE.—Governor Morton, of Indiana, at the Union State Convention, held on the 23d of February, at Indianapolis, closed a speech of great power with these living words:

"They who take the sword shall perish by the sword; and the rebellion having wickedly and madly appealed to arms in the beginning, by arms must it be utterly crushed and blotted from the nation.

Illustrating the idea that one should adapt his language to his hearers, a story is told of a woman who was handling a pair of artificial plates in a dental office, and admired the fluency with which the dentist described them, asked him: "Can a body eat with these things?"

Lieut. Gen. Grant.—A protracted interview between Lieut. Gen. Grant, the Secretary of War, and Gen. Halleck, took place on Wednesday. The military condition of the country was discussed, and the general plan of a harmonious and decisive campaign devised.

The Charleston Mercury says that Secretary Chase is making every exertion to flood the South with greenbacks, which, unless immediately checked, will subvert our (the rebel) currency and thus inflict a mortal blow on the success of the cause.

The disastrous march, resulting in the defeat of the Union troops at Olustee in Florida, was the work of Gen. Seymour alone. Neither Gen. Gilmore, Sec. Stanton, or Pres. Lincoln ever ordered it—yet the Copperheads charge it upon each of the three latter, when neither was in any way responsible.

General Wild, commanding at Norfolk, Va., has directed the churches of that city to be opened and the pulpits filled by loyal preachers. Colored soldiers must be admitted to the churches the same as others, and any insult or indignity will be punished.

Major Gillmore's rebel banditti waylaid a wedding party on the way from Winchester to Martinsburg a few weeks ago, and robbed the bridegroom of $200, his watch, a pocket pistol and a shirt. What chivalrous warriors these rebel cavaliers are!

Court Convened at Sunbury Monday, but on account of the prevalence of the small pox in the mining districts of the county, it was deemed prudent not to continue the session.

NEWBERN, N.C., March 13.—There has been a slight skirmish between the enemy and the 3rd New York Cavalry, but no serious collision had occurred.

ELMHURST, March 18.—The new Presbyterian church, in which the Sanitary Commission were holding their fair, caught fire this evening at half past six o'clock, and in a short time was consumed, together with the contents.

The Grand Jury has again recommended the building of a new Court House at Sunbury. The business of the county is becoming so extensive, and the old building so inadequate to its accommodation, besides unsafe as deposits for the valuable public records...

The head runner on the pirate Alabama is one of the most accomplished artificers that was ever in the British navy.

The Charleston papers of the 27th inst. speak of having ascertained the cause of the sinking of the Housatonic from captured Yankee. They had previously supposed that the vessel was sunk in a storm, and only ascertained that the torpedo boat had been successful ten days after the occurrence...

Illustrating the idea that one should adapt his language to his hearers, a story is told of a woman who was handling a pair of artificial plates in a dental office, and admired the fluency with which the dentist described them...
