Strike the Balance.

Under this head, the Baltimore American thus sums up a few of the terrible results of the great rebellion and its guilty cause—Slavery. It is a sad but truthful picture of the fruits of this gigantic wickedness, which has risen up upon the soil of the American Republic, to blast its peace and destroy the hopes of mankind for ages yet to come:

Because of Slavery everything is taxed. We wise in the morning and enrobe ourselves in taxed cotton and woollen garments at twice their usual prices. We shave with taxed soap and comb our hair with a taxed comb dolefully gazing in a taxed mirror. We put on our taxed boots, of horse hide, for, alas, the glories of patent leather are among the memories of the past, and walk over a taxed stair carpet to the region where, with a due regard for the economy of taxed fuel, our frugal breakfast is spread. We drink our taxed coffee, a decoction of chickory, French, Broadbent and "old rye," in which is mixed our taxed sugar, with a taxed spoon out of a taxed cup; and although inwardly cursing the bitter fate which condemns us to such stuff, are gratified to know that Sir William Hamilton's remark, "that a man's intellect depends on the amount of coffee he drinks," is not altogether true. We sniff the aroma of forty-five cent butter, and, thinking it strong enough to bear the tax, revenge ourselves upon the gravy of taxed sausages, with the fear of a rise in price on the passage of the dog law. We write on taxed paper with taxed ink, and print on the flimsiest of trash which monopoly and exercise will enable us to furnish to the many-headed monster, yclept the public.

We print taxed advertisements and pay for taxed despatches; ride in taxed carriages, behind taxed horses, hitched in with taxed harness. Our incomes are taxed and our outgoes are taxed, and when "life's fi ful fever" is over, by the aid of some kind physician's taxed medicine, we are boxed up in a taxed coffin, and pay our heaviest tax of all to the inevitable exciseman—Death.

This is only a small part of the account debited against the cause of the war—the root of the Rebellion—the corner-stone of the Confederacy—Slavery.

We have to set down to the account millions of blighted hopes, and broken hearts, and desolate homes and happy lives and honorable ambitions thwarted, and noble careers ended, and brilliant intellects clouded, and souls gone astray. There are widows' and orphans' tears enough to weigh down all the gold the accursed institution ever was worth, by the estimate of its own worshippers in the palmiest day of Yancy, Wise and Keitt. Compensation? Slavery ask for compensation? It is we, the suff rers, that have a right to demand compensation of Slavery. We that pay the tax, have a right to ask Slavery to unburthen us of the enormous debts it has saddled upon us. We, whose dead children lie on the fields of Shiloh and Gettysburg, may well say to Slavery—Give us back the lives of our loved ones. Who shall pay the orphan for a father gone? Only the Great God that holds the even scales of justice in his mighty hand can tell how enormous is the debt due to the American people this day by Slavery.

Maryland has a claim of her own by which to offset all demands for compensation, independent of her share in the great general account we have just related. Maryland has double the agricultural area of Massachusetts, more than double the shore line, a finer and healthier climate, more coal, iron and other mineral resources, greater water power and equal commercial facilities. Her early settlement entitled her to a speedy a proportionate development as Massachusetts, with the same advantages; but as Maryland has greater natural advantages, she ought to have developed more rapidly. There is but one reason why she did not, and that reason is Slavery! It acted as an embargo on imigration. It prevented the settlement of people and the investment of capital. As a consequence we find the value of real and personal estate in Massachusetts in 1860 was $815,237,433, and that of Maryland only $376,919,944. Deduct the latter from the former and we have a balance to charge against Slavery of $438,317,489.

A Fu Remarks by Josh Billings.—Moral swashun consists in asking a man to do what he aught to do without asking, and then begging his pardon if he refuses to do it.

Agricultural Implements.

AGRICULTURAL Implements, since the commencement of this War, have been in great demand, and good machines are valuable as to their merits and worth only.

In the year 1862, Messrs. J. S. MARSH & CO. sold one of their Improved Reapers to Henry Stuck for $130. On the 18th of February, the same Reaper was sold at a Public Sale, on the farm of Henry Stuck, near Carlisle for $139, after being used two seasons.

Messrs. J. S. Marsh & Co. are manufacturing a large number of their machines, with improvements, this season, for the coming Haying and Harvest; and as to the merits of their would refer those wishing to purchase the coming season to the following named persons, who purchased of them last season:

Combined

Jos. M. Nesbit, Joseph Candor, Thomas Strawbridge, Frederick Bros., Hiram Dunkle, Charles Hottenstein, John Haag, David Stahlnecker, Jesse Smith, Wm. and Thomas Nesbit, of Northumberland county.

Christian Stauffer, Jacob Stauffer, Robert Barber, Frederick Pentius, Geo. Kleckner, Martin Metzell, John Moser, Samuel Fellman, S. S. Walter, John H. Yarger, of Union county.

Samuel Shaffer, Henry Vahn, John Weeber, Samuel Neil, Eli Shuman, Martin Best, Abraham Ziegler, Abraham Fetter, Amos Miller, James Bell, D. T. Stambaugh, Alfred Moore, Jesse Rahl, George Kutz, Philip Faber, Peter Albright, Henry Shaffer, Howard Rupert, Philip Bentz, Samuel Goodyear, Joseph J. Brahm, of Cumberland county.

John Haldeman, Daniel Diehler, Wm. Wert, Peter Eby, Jonathan Bonawitz, Philip Lehr, Jonathan Riegle, David Weaver, E. & J. Buffington, H. Lenkert, William Metz, Jacob S. Shade, of Dauphin county.

John Moser, David Lies, John Myer, Adam Snyder, Valentine Wagner, Franklin Fyling, Christopher Kline, Wm. K. Seaman, Jacob Hayest, of Lebanon county.

READ WHO SAY SO.

From the Pastor of the Baptist church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North church, Philad'a.

* * * I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted and is not a rum drink.

Yours truly, LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. Dr. Brown, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through mistrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt in six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN, Philadelphia.

From the Pastor of the Germantown Baptist church.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of a severe cold and general debility, I have been greatly benefited by the use of the bitters, and doubt not that they will produce similar effects in others.

Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH.

From the Pastor of Holding M. E. church, Philada.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system, it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge. Yours respectfully, J. H. TURNER.

From the Pastor of the Columbian (N. J.) and Bladentown (Pa.) Baptist churches.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.Y.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it a pleasure thus of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since, being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons subjected to that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to its great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it is a tonic that can not be surpassed. JOHN M. LYONS.

From Rev. Dr. Winter, Pastor of Roxborough Baptist church.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised, by a friend, to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully yours, THOMAS WINTER.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed church, Kutztown, Berks county.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

Respectfully yours, J. S. HERMAN.

TESTIMONIALS.

HABLETON, Union Co., Nov. 24, 1863.

Dear Sir: My liver and stomach was so badly diseased that all who seen me gave me up, doctors and all; but I continued to take your medicine and it cured me, and I now am well. I know a number in my neighborhood that had lung and liver complaints, that were cured by your medicine. As life is sweet, I would advise all who are afflicted with disease to give you a call, and save life and money. Yours truly, JOHN GOODLANDER.

HABLETON, Union Co., Nov. 26, 1863.

Dear Sir: I was afflicted with Rheumatism for a number of years, and was cured by your medicine. I was not able to leave my bed when I commenced taking your valuable medicine, and I had been afflicted by two other physicians. Yours truly, JOSEPH MILLER.

LAURELTON, Union Co., Nov. 17, 1863.

Dr. S. H. Knight: Dear Sir—I was afflicted with Rheumatism: I could not walk one step, and two bottles of your valuable medicine cured me in a short time. I advise all who are afflicted with this disease to apply to you and get cured. Yours truly, J. BROUSE.

HARTLEY, Union Co., Nov. 18, 1863.

Dr. S. H. Knight: Dear Sir—I send you this statement in order to benefit suffering humanity. My wife lay a long time with consumption, and her life or recovery was given up by all. I was advised to try other medicine, or doctors. I continue with your treatment; your medicine cured her; she is now well. I would advise all who are afflicted with lung and liver disease to go to you, or send for you, get your medicine, and save life and money. [1024] Yours resp'y, JOHN GALER.
