Some of the marks which are fastened on the blaukets, shirts, &o, sent to the Senitary Commission for the soldiers, show washed as clean as snow, was pinned a bit of paper which said :

This blanket was carried by Milly Aldrich ( the, is ninety-three years old) down bill and up hill, one and a baif miles, to be given to some soldier."

On a bed quilt was pinned a cord saying : "My son is in the army. Whoever Har. is made warm by this quilt, which I have worked on for six days and most all of six nights, let him remember his own mother's love."

On another blanket was this : "This blanket was used by a soldier in the war of 1812-may it keep some soldier warm in this war against Traitors."

On a pillow was written : "This pillow May. belonged to my little boy, who died resting on it; it is a precious treasure to me, but I give it for the soldiers."

On a pair of woolen socks was written : June "These stockings were kuit by a little girl five years old, and she is going to knit some more, for her mother says it will help some poor soldier." On a box of beautiful lint was this mark : "Made in a sick room; where the sonlight has not entered for nine years, but where God has entered, and where two sons bave bid their mother good bye as they have gone out to the war.'

On a bundle containing bandages was written : "This is a poor gift, but it is all I had; I have given my busband and my boy, and I only wish I had more to give, but I haven't."

Ou some eye-shades were marked : long to see the dear old flog that you are all fighting under."

HAND TO BEAR -The words and deeds of enemies of human freedom in our country are not easily borne, and are capecially provoking to the soldier. A veteran, who has resigned all the pleasures of home and the profits of business, and has stood in front of the battle, while his comrades fell all about him, comes home on a brief furlough, and hears himself denounced as a "Lincoln hireling," a "tool of a despot," "fighting for niggers," or engaged in a "wicked and hopeless war." He meets men who rejoice in every sign of rebelstrength, who blazon every rebel victory, and gleat over it-men who have persuaded their soldiers to desert, and have, so far as possible, moved heaven, earth and hell, against enlisting-men who have said they "hoped every Northern soldier would came home in a box ?" This is so bard to bear, yet it is generally borne patiently. Our soldier boys come home, receive a hearty welcome from their dear ones, and their loyal fellow citizens, and it unnecessary. return to the field in great good humor. God bless them. They deserve well of Ing First of the Season! their country : and the day is near when the miserable wretches who heap upon them and their glorious work odious and exasperating epithets, and whe sympathize with their encasies, will bide their diminished beads for very shame, or be compelled to hiss their spite and venom in dens and caves of the earth. Again we NH say, God bluss our veteran brothers, and ge with them on their return to the front. -Evangelical Messen yer.

From the Pastor of the Bayd at church, Pemberton, N. J.,

From the Parties of the Baylet church, Pomberton, N.J., formerity of the North church, Pomberton, N.J., I have known Houffand's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in up own family, and have been so plenased with their effects that I was induced to recemmend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in time publicly preclaming this fast, and calling the attention of these, afficted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these littlers, knowing from experiment that my recommended by will be assisted to bused the afficted and is not a runn drink. From Ker. Dr. Drown, Eiliter of the Encyclopedia of Relations Knowledge. Atthough not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredi-ents and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the learneff the britere himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may the contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to "Honfland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, brease 1 was prejudiced scalart them for years, under the impression that they were chiefy an alcoholic mixture. Tam indebid to my triend Robert Shoemaker, Req. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when safering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bot-tles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by erident relief and restoration to a degree of bedity and mental vigor which I had not firt in sig months before, and had almost despaired of frequ-ning. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

of the finers of the blacks for soldiers in Jno. H.Goodman, Market St., Lewisburg other respects than loyal devotion was exhibited in the expedition against Richmond. The black regiment- bore the fasigues of the forced marches far better than the white regimen's that accompan- SALT, in barrels and sacks for sale i.d them, and without straggling.

And it can not be denied that here are manifested two indispensible qualifications for effective soldiers. As the campaign proceeds surely toward the cotton States this espacity to endure fatigue will be more severely tested, and in the miasmatic region it will probably be found that no troops, save black, can be used with any sort of safety from disease. Willing and able to serve as effectively as white men, it is not easy to discover any sound reason for declining to encourage their enlistments by giving them the same rewards and the same pay that white men receive. Each black soldier emisted spares a white man who is now so greatly needed in productive employment.
