New Cumberland appears to be too stragglingly built to be made attractive by sidewalks and similar improvements of a costly character; but it has a beautiful location for summer, in a rich country, and possesses some excellent buildings. The family of the distinguished Gen. John W. Geary now reside here, and they feel-in common with thousands of other officers' and tens of thousands of private soldiers' wives and children-a daily, deep, and absorbing interest in the great struggle for national life and freedom wherein their bonored heads are risking not only ease, health, fortune, and fame, but life itself. I stopped with a family in the happy prime of life, seemingly enjoying all its comforts, but who seem enamored of Landis' new settlement, "Vineland," in New Jersey. Was pleased to learn of the sure but steady increase of the place, and the general contentment of the eastward "emigrants," but sorry to hear that our much esteemed correspondent, there, was still suffering (with some of her family) from great prostration of strength. Heaven bless them all ! and may they never know by experience any of the bitter disappointments that attach such mouraful interest to the history of "Beulah," in Commbine county, or "Brittania" in Susquebanna county.
