FOR PRESIDENT,

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

AMENDMENTS.

For the First Amendment.
For the Second Amendment.
For the Third Amendment.

BE it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof.

There shall be an additional section to the the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

FIRST AMENDMENT.

"SECTION 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are or shall be prescribed by law, as fully and effectually as if they were present at their usual places of election."

There shall be two additional sections the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as sections eight and nine, as follows:

SECOND AMENDMENT.

"SECTION 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills."

THIRD AMENDMENT.

"SECTION 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers or privileges in any case where the authority to grant such powers or privileges has been or may hereafter be conferred upon the Courts of this Commonwealth."

☞ Above are the Amendments to the Constitution, to be accepted or rejected on Tuesday the 2d of August next. The law was approved by the Governor Saturday last. Believing each of them to be just and expedient, we nail the flag to our mast-head, and shall advocate and urge their ratification by the people at the polls.

☞ The Blaisdell Swiss Bell Ringers will perform in Independent Hall, next Friday evening. They promise, in their advertisement, a rich entertainment.

☞ Several days of warm sunshine followed by showers, are bringing vegetation out handsomely. Peach and plum blossoms are just opening.

☞ The Northern Central Railroad Company we see is laying new ties and rails, and preparing for long stretches of double tracks, employing a large number of men.

CUTE.—J. C. Ayer, the patent medicine man, of Lowell, Mass., has adopted a novel and effective method of keeping his name before the public. Instead of paying thousands of dollars a year for advertising, as he formerly did, he inserted a line in his almanac, as follows: "Traitor Buchanan born April 21st, 1791." The teeth of the Copperhead press are set on edge at this bit of chronology, and they pitch into the venerable doctor with a will, call him a quack, and his medicines humbugs, notwithstanding many of them have hitherto puffed the same medicines as the best in the country. The barrels of cherry pectoral and bushels of pills which have been swallowed by the copperheads, appear to be souring in their stomachs, since they discovered that the doctor tells plain truths in his almanacs.

Harrisburg Correspondence.

THURSDAY, April 21.

Both Houses to-day agreed to the "Act prescribing the time and manner of submitting to the people, for their approval and ratification, or rejection, the proposed Amendments to the Constitution." The time finally agreed upon is the FIRST TUESDAY (2D) OF AUGUST NEXT. The Legislature to meet on the FOURTH TUESDAY (23D) OF AUGUST, afternoon, to count and declare the result.

The bill taking from the Farm School the exclusive right to the great Land grant, passed Senate, finally—29 to 9.

A bill for the State to be taxed to pay war losses in the Cumberland valley, virtually defeated in the House, was taken up in Senate, and had the vote of every Democrat present, and one Republican, which carried it to a second reading, when the Senate adjourned.

SATURDAY MORNING.

Yesterday, the Senate took up the Appropriation, and the Democrats in solid body, with the aid of two or three Republicans, raised the salaries of the Judges generally.

Mr. Clymer proposed $50,000 to extend a wing each side of the Capitol to accommodate committees, &c. In so doing, he confessed that the proposed removal of the Capitol to Philadelphia was a failure—it would cost too much to build there—so he thought these buildings should be extended as originally contemplated. To meet the expense he proposed a tax on all bills introduced for the incorporation of Companies. The amendment passed committee of the whole.

Leading Republican Senators this morning took ground that they would not proceed with the Appropriation Bill until a Revenue Bill was passed. The expenditures proposed by the united Copperhead votes and those of a few "liberal" Republicans, would leave the State Treasury half a million or a million dollars overdrawn—in short, bankrupt the State—unless new revenue was also provided. Upon the understanding that the Revenue Bill should be reported Monday, the Appropriations were postponed. W.

[Correspondence of the Star & Chronicle.]

ANNAPOLIS, April 19, 1864.

We left Harrisburg on the 20th ult., arrived here on the 21st and are encamped nearly two miles west of Annapolis. We have had a great deal of rain since we encamped here. The climate is exceedingly warm but the east wind sometimes brings in a cold breeze from the Chesapeake.

I do not think the expedition will leave here before the first of May. We are all anxious to leave this place, and I think by the signs of the times we will soon have our wishes gratified, and I can safely say before a long while you may hear of a great victory, for defeat is entirely out of the question. Our motto is "victory or death." You may think this strong language, but we came here to plant the Stars and Stripes on every place now occupied by the Rebels, and we feel ready and able to do it, too, as soon as the brave Burnside gives the command.

The boys are all anxious to vote next Fall, and I can safely say, if you can not carry Old Abe's election at home the blue-coats, if they vote in the field, will fix it all right, for Copperheads in the army are as scarce as elephants in Penn'a.

A few negro regiments arrived here yesterday; I do not know whether they belong to the 9th A. C. or not, but I rather think they do. They appear to be anxious to fight, and I have no doubt they may fight as well as the whites. They have some few advantages over the whites; they are in no danger of getting tanned, and their color does not show the dirt. There are a great many paroled prisoners here in the hospitals; some of them looked, when they first arrived here, as if they had had nothing to eat for some time; but since they are getting Uncle Sam's rations regularly, they are improving very much. They showed me the rations they got on Belle Isle; it was a small piece of corn bread, which looked more like a brick than anything else, only a great deal smaller.

ISAIAH SMITH,
Co. E, 51st Regt., P. V.

A New York correspondent of the Springfield Union relates the following: "The following story I have directly from a gentlemen to whom Commodore Vanderbilt himself, last night, told it. The finance committee of the fair called upon the Commodore, and solicited at his hands a donation. He answerd that he would give to the fair as much as "any other man" in New York. Thereupon, the committee visited Mr. A. T. Stewart, and reported to him the offer of the Commodore. Stewart at once drew his check for $100,000, and handed it to the committee, and they, armed with the check, again waited upon the Commodore, and showed him the contribution of Stewart. Vanderbilt had been cornering other people for quite a while in Harlem stock, but this time he found himself cornered. However, he was as good as his word. He covered Stewart's check with a check of his own for a like amount.

A "STREIGHT" ANSWER.—The Springfield News announced the arrival in that town of Maj. J. C. Vanada, of the 3d Ohio, from Libby Prison. He was captured with Col. Streight, and did not see the outside of the prison till he was liberated. He relates that Col. Streight was frequently consulted by the rebel authorities, who finally got from him a straight reply. They asked him if the North ever expected to subjugate. "We have been fighting you now a little less than three years and have subjugated three-fourths of your territory, and put one-half of your fighting population on crutches or in their graves; and I think that in three years more we can finish you up." That ended the interview.

SENSIBLE.—A soldier recently returned to a neighboring village, after an absence of two years, and found his wife living with another man, to whom she had been married some months, representing to him that she had never been married before, and to those who knew, that her husband was dead. The first and second husbands calmly talked the matter over, and then left the false one to inveigle another husband if she could. That was decidedly more sensible than shooting at each other with pistols.

AN OLD CURIOSITY GONE.—Travelers up the West Branch have all observed the leaning house on the brow of Mason's Hill, opposite Northumberland. It was a decided curiosity, leaning over the edge of the precipice several hundred feet high, at an angle of nearly forty-five degrees, and was built many years ago by John Mason, the eccentric owner of the hill.

We are informed by a correspondent from Northumberland, that on last Sunday afternoon, a set of scamps, supposed to have been some employees of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg railroad company, went over to the hill, and putting handspikes under the old leaning house, pried it off its foundation, and threw it down the hill, breaking it to pieces. No doubt it was rare sport for the rascals; but the owner of the property, Wm. Elliot, is endeavoring to discover who they were, and if he succeeds in detecting them he will make it dear sport for them.—Sunbury Gazette.

Old Description of a Copperhead.

In one of the speeches made during the last war with Great Britain, by Felix Grundy, of Tennessee, occurs the following description of a thorough-going Copperhead, as seen at the present day:

"An individual goes over, joins the ranks of the enemy, and raises his arms against his country, he is clearly guilty of treason under the Constitution, the act being consummated. Suppose the same individual not to go over to the enemy, but to remain in his own neighborhood, and, by means of his influence, to dissuade ten men from enlisting; I ask in which case has he benefited the enemy and injured the country most?

Again, he says, in answering the question, Whom, then, do I accuse?

"I accuse him, sir, who professes to be the friend of his country, and enjoys its protection, yet proves himself by his actions to be the friend of its enemy; I accuse him who sets himself to work systematically to weaken the arm of the Government by destroying its credit and dampering the ardor of its citizens; I accuse him who has used his exertions to defeat the loan and prevent the young men of the country from going forth to fight their country's battles; I accuse him who announces with joy the disasters of our arms, and sinks into melancholy when he hears of our success. Such men I can not consider friends to this nation."

Mr. Grundy was a model Democrat, in his day, we believe. Copperheadism does not seem to have been "Democracy" then. But "the fathers" were in darkness. The gospel of the New Church had not opened its light upon them. Olds and Vallandigham were not.

The Lion's Roar.

The following is from Jules Gerard—but six to nine miles is a good way to hear a roar:

"The very roar of a lion in its wild state—which is music which the most fastidious would deem worthy of listening to, is truly magnificent. His first note, when he commences to roar, is a low sound emitting from his chest and nostrils, but is audible from a great distance. This is a species of prelude, and immediately afterward it is repeated; but this time more loud and protracted, the jaws of the animal being still closed, or the mouth but slightly opened. The third and fourth outbursts are given to the air through the fully extended jaws, and with the full force of the lungs. To listen to this roar is terrible for those who happen to be crossing the monarch's path or to be marching through the lonely forest. At length, after two or three more utterances of the kind, the animal ends as he commenced, with less vigorous notes. The distance to which I have been able to trace the progress of the lion by his roar, when there have been no contrary winds and no mountains or other objects to interrupt the sound, is two or three leagues; but when he roars about a league off, one who is not accustomed to the sound would believe him to be close at hand."

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The following information was received here to-day concerning the recent disaster at Plymouth, N. C.: A rebel ram came down the river about three o'clock on Monday morning. She floated down with the current, and was not discovered until close under the bows of the Miami. Lieut. Commander Flusser went forward, sighted and fired the bow gun, loaded with shell, which struck the ram, rebounded, and instantly killed him, a piece of the shell penetrating his breast. The ram then attacked the Southfield, and she sank in five minutes. The Miami was somewhat injured.

Lieut. D. A. Irwin, of Co. F, 12th Penn's Cavalry, has been promoted to be Captain of Co. E. in the same regiment.

☞ In consequence of physical disability, Lieut. J. F. Beale tendered his resignation, which has been accepted.

LOUISVILLE, April 22.—Eighty mounted rebels came into Kentucky on Tuesday through Pound Gap, but were immediately driven out by a detachment of the 45th Kentucky mounted infantry, Gen. Hahn. Gen. Hodson reports that eastern Kentucky is now freed from the rebels. Col. Weatherford, of the 13th Kentucky cavalry, started one company from Burksville in pursuit of a guerrilla band of about 120 and drove them into Macon county, Tennessee killing 8 and capturing 10 prisoners and 50 horses.

Feb 4, 1864 WM. FRICK & CO

Great Central Fair
FOR THE SANITARY COMMISSION.

Office of the Committee on Labor, Income and Revenue, No. 118 South Seventh Street, PHILADELPHIA, April 4, 1864.

The Committee on "Labor, Income and Revenue," invite cooperation with them in the particular work for which they have been appointed. As no portion of the people are more patriotic than the working men and women of the country, it is but just and proper that they should alike have an opportunity to contribute to the objects of the Fair. The most equable plan for accomplishing this, and, at the same time the easiest one, is to ask for the contribution of a single day's labor from all classes in the community. Many will contribute a day of their labor willingly, who would not subscribe their money. To reach every department of industry and art will be a work of great labor, but, if attained, will be productive of immense results.

The success of the plan will depend upon the hearty cooperation of every element of influence within our limits, and we invite all the guardians of the industrial interests, and all others, to take hold with us in furthering this great work of patriotism and humanity.

The Committee is charged with the following duty, viz: First.—To obtain the contributions of "one day's labor," of earnings, from every artisan and laborer, foreman, operative and employee; president, cashier, teller and clerk of every incorporated and unincorporated company, railroad and express company, employing firm, bank, manufactory, iron works, oil works, mill, mine and public office; from every private banker and broker, importer, auctioneer and merchant; clerk, agent and salesman; designer, finisher and artist; publisher, printer and mechanic; from every government officer, contractor and employee; grocer, butcher, baker and dealer; farmer, horticulturist and gardener; from every seamstress, milliner and female operative; every individual engaged in earning the soil, turning the loom, or in any way earning a livelihood, or building a fortune within the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

Second.—To obtain the contribution of one day's "revenue," from all the great employing establishments, firms, corporations, companies, railroads and works.

Third.—To obtain the contribution of one day's income from every retired person of fortune—male and female—living upon their means, and from all clergymen, lawyers, physicians, editors, dentists, authors and professors; all other persons engaged in the learned or other professions.

Much of this work must be performed by the personal influence and efforts of ladies and gentlemen associated, or to be associated with the Committee in carrying out this plan.

The Committee feel the responsibility of the work they have undertaken, which, to be successful, will require a very perfect ramification of their plan, and they therefore call upon all earnest people to assemble themselves together in every town, township and county, and form organizations of ladies and gentlemen to cooperate with them in this great work and labor of love. In the manufacturing counties, the coal and oil regions, and in the agricultural districts; especially let there be organizations in the large towns, so that the young people may have an opportunity thus to render assistance to their relatives and friends fighting the battles of their country in the armies of the nation.

The work of this Committee may be prosecuted where no other effort can be made for the Fair, as in the mines of the coal regions. A day's earnings of the miners, and a day's product of the mines, can be obtained, where no portable article could be procured for transportation. Indeed there is no part or section of these States where the day's labor may not be obtained, if organizations can be formed to reach them.

The Committee can not close without urging upon all PROPRIETORS OF ESTABLISHMENTS the duty of taking prompt and energetic action to secure the benefit of THE DAY OF LABOR from all within their control.

The Committee deem it unnecessary to do more, than thus to present the subject to the people of the three States named. In the coming campaign of our armies, the labors of the "SANITARY COMMISSION" will be greatly augmented. By the first of June 700,000 men—one of the largest armies of modern times—will be operating in the field. So large a force, scattered over regions to which the men are unacclimated, must necessarily carry along with it a large amount of sickness, suffering and death, to say nothing of the gathered horrors of the battle-field.

These sufferings, it is our bounden duty, as men and Christians, to relieve. A great and enlightened people, enjoying the blessings of a government of their own making, CAN NOT REFUSE assistance to men suffering to maintain its authority, and we will not believe that the "GREAT CENTRAL FAIR," drawing its products from the three States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, so affluent in all mineral, agricultural, and industrial wealth, shall fall behind any similar effort which has yet been made for the relief of the Nation's children.

As it is desirable not to multiply circulars; no further authority than this circular will be necessary for any employing firm or company, or any respectable committee of ladies and gentlemen, to proceed at once, in the work of this committee; and it is hoped that under it, organizations will spring up in all the towns and busy regions of the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

Subscriptions will be thankfully acknowledged in the newspapers of Philadelphia; and it is very desirable that they commence on, as each fresh acknowledgment will stimulate effort in other localities.

All subscriptions should be addressed to JOHN W. CLAGHORN, Treasurer, office of the "Committee on LABOR, INCOME AND REVENUE," No. 118 South Seventh Street, Philadelphia.

☞ All needful helps in Circulars and Posters will be forwarded to parties applying for them. Direct to the Chairman of the Committee as above.

Advantages of the
KNUCKLER WASHING MACHINE.

FOR the purpose of convincing the community that the Knuckler Washing Machine can not be surpassed for ease and rapidity in washing clothes, I take pleasure in referring to Miss Sarah Gibbony, (daughter of John Gibbony of this place,) who is eleven years old, weighs 55 pounds, and does the week's washing for the family in three hours, and considers it a very light job, with the assistance of the "Knuckler."

Machines and Browning's celebrated Wringers always on hand.

THE GREAT
American Tea Company,
51 VESEY STREET, NEW YORK,

Since its organization, has created a new era in the history of Selling TEAS in this Country.

ALL our Teas are selected by a Professional Tea-taster, expressly and exclusively for us, and we never charge over Two Cents (02 Cents) per pound above cost for original packages.

We have but One Price to every one for each quality, and that price is always marked on each sample package at our store in plain figures.

We issue a Monthly Price List of our Teas, which will be sent Free to all who order it—we advise every Tea Seller to see it. It comprises a full assortment selected for every locality in the States, Provinces, South America and the West Indies. In this list each kind is divided into Four Classes or qualities, namely: Cargo, High Cargo, Fine, Finest, that every one may understand from description and the prices annexed that the Company are determined to undersell the whole tea trade.

We guarantee to sell all our teas in original packages at not over Two Cents per pound above cost, believing this to be attractive to the many who have heretofore been paying Enormous Profits.

Our business is largely done on orders, which we always execute as well and promptly as though the buyer came himself giving true weights and tares, and always guaranteeing everything; our responsibility enabling us to do all we promise. Every dealer can order his teas direct from the Company, and parties doing business within Five Hundred (500) miles of New York can Return Tea bought of us if they are not cheaper than they can buy elsewhere, and the purchaser is dissatisfied with his bargain, within fourteen days (14) and have the money refunded to them. Those who are over Five Hundred miles can have thirty days (30) and the same privileges extended to them.

Besides these advantages the Company will pay All Expenses, both ways, if the Teas are returned.

The Eye and the Ear.

DR. S. H. KNIGHT, of Lewisburg, having had twenty-five years' practice, offers his services to those who are afflicted with diseased Eyes or Ears. The following is one of a number of Testimonials:

My son had cataract of both eyes; was blind of one and nearly so of the other. I had physicians attending him to no effect. Dr. Knight undertook his case, cured him without an operation. I would advise all who are afflicted to give him a call. SAMUEL WOLF.

John Faireira,
718 ARCH STREET, below 8th, South side,
PHILADELPHIA
Importer, Manufacturer of, and Dealer in All kinds of
FANCY FURS
for Ladies' and Children's wear.

I wish to return my thanks to my friends of Union and the surrounding counties, for their very liberal patronage extended to me during the last few years, and would say to them that I now have in store, of my own importation and manufacture, a very extensive assortment of all the different kinds and qualities of FANCY FURS, for Ladies and Children, that will be worn during the Fall and Winter seasons.

Being the direct Importer of all my Furs from Europe, and having them Manufactured under my own supervision enables me to offer my customers and the public a much handsomer set of Furs for the same money.

Ladies! please give me a call before purchasing. Please remember the name, number and street.
