THE CHRISTIAN GENTLEMAN.—He is above a mean thing. He can not stoop to a fraud. He invades no secrets in the keeping of another. He betrays no secrets confided to his own keeping. He takes selfish advantage of no man's mistakes. He uses no ignoble weapons in controversy. He never stabs in the dark. He is ashamed of innendoes. He is not one thing to a man's face and another at his back. If by accident he comes into possession of his neighbor's counsels, he passes upon them an instant oblivion. He bears sealed packages without tampering with the wax. Papers not meant for his eye, whether they flutter in at the window, or lie open before him in unguarded exposure, are sacred to him. He profanes no privacy of others however the sentry sleeps. Bolts and bars, locks and keys, hedges and pickets, bonds and securities, notices to trespassers, are none of them for him. He may be trusted himself out of sight—nearest the thinnest partition—anywhere. He buys no office, he sells none, he intrigues for none. He would rather fail to gain his rights than win them through dishonor. He will eat honest bread. He tramples on no sensitive feeling. He insults no man. If he have rebuke for another he is straight forward, open and manly. He cannot descend to scurrility. Billingsgate does n't lie in his track. Of woman and to her he speaks with decency and respect. In short, whatever he judges honorable he practices towards every man.

When to Plant Corn.

Field corn planted early in May has usually to be replanted once or twice. This makes much unnecessary labor, for that planted some weeks later, usually ripens at nearly the same time. If the seed does not rot in the ground, the poor little yellow blades are frost bitten, and their shriveled ends pine for the hot sun. Those plants that survive the chills and rains of May, are not so healthy, or well prepared when to take advantage of the warm weather when it comes as that planted in the proper season, which in the latitude of most of New-England, New York and westward is after the middle of May in almost all seasons; and often it is not best to plant before the first of June. No fault is more surely repented of than too early planting of corn. If well soaked, and placed in a warm soil, corn is very soon above ground, and a few warm days place it beyond fear of harm from cutworms, white grub, wire worms or crows—whereas that planted early in the month must do battle with all these for several weeks, if it survive the dampness and the frosts.—American Agriculturist.

CASE OF INFANTICIDE.—On Thursday of last week the body of an infant was found in a trunk placed in a stable in the upper part of this borough. A coroner's inquest was called when it was discovered that the child had been smothered or strangled immediately after birth. The trunk was found to belong to a Mrs. Linn residing in this borough and whose husband has been absent for the past two years. Mrs. L., at the time of the discovery was lying at the point of death at the house of Mr. Drom, and on first being accused of the crime denied all knowledge of it—but we understand finally confessed that the child was her's but claimed that it had died a natural death. She said her husband had been home three times within the past two years. She also exonerated Mr. Drom and his family from any knowledge or complicity in the affair. Mrs. L died at noon on Sunday last. Whether innocent or guilty, her case has gone before a higher tribunal than any on earth, to be decided with more impartial justice than she might have met with had she lived.—Miltonian 29th ult.

A bill has passed the House of Representatives guaranteeing to the States whose Governments have been overthrown by the rebellion a public form of government. This bill requires a majority of the people to take part in the election of delegates preliminary to the re-establishment of a State Government, and those who have held office, either muncipal or military, in the rebel service, below the grade of colonel, are not debarred from voting. The delegates are to be elected by loyal white male citizens, who are required to take the oath of allegiance. Among the provisos are—1st. No person who has held or exercised any office under the usurping power, beyond the grade of colonel, shall exercise the right of suffrage. 2d. Involuntary servitude is for ever prohibited. 3d. No debts created by the usurping power to be recognized. Every officer from colonel upward serving in the rebel ranks, hereafter, to be declared not a citizen of the United States.

Hundreds of thousands of horses are used up and killed in the operations of war. The high and rising prices are a temptation to sell, but we counsel all farmers who can do so, not to sell their young mares, but breed from them, if they are fit for it. The demand for mules is equal to that for horses, and their consumption is quite as large. The mule, it is well known, is marketable after it is two years old, broken or unbroken, and no guarantee of soundness is required, while the horse is not saleable until 4 to 5 years old, and must be sound and well broken, and will bring no more as a general thing than the mule.

A clergyman of the kirk having given out, to be sung, a portion of the fifty-first Psalm, beginning at the seventeenth verse, he read, as was customary, the commencing line: "With hyssop purge me, Lord." Not being able to adapt the tune, after considerable piping, the chief chorister rose and said: "Reverend sir, will ye please to try anither arb, for we can do naething ava wi' hyssop."

A Richmond paper of Thursday last states that owing to the languor in the commercial market that the people of that city will have to live on half rations until the country people hear of the defeat of Grant's army. If they don't hear of this improbable event, what then? No provision has been made for such an emergency, and it may be some time before Grant's army is defeated.

Agricultural Implements.

AGRICULTURAL Implements, since the commencement of this War, have been in great demand, and good machines are valuable as to their merits and worth only.

Messrs. J. S. Marsh & Co. are manufacturing a large number of their machines, with improvements, this season, for the coming Haying and Harvest; and as to the merits of their Combined

READ WHO SAY SO,

From the Pastor of the Baptist church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North church, Phila'a.

* * * I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those, afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted and is not a rum drink.
Yours truly, LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. Dr. Brown, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt in six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
J. NEWTON BROWN, Philadelphia.

From the Pastor of the Germantown Baptist church.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of a severe cold and general debility, I have been greatly benefited by the use of the bitters, and doubt not that they will produce similar effects on others.
Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH.

From the Pastor of Hedding M. E. church, Phila'a.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system, it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge. Yours respectfully, J. H. TUKNER.

From the former Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Mickstown (Pa.) Baptist churches.

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since, being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to its great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it is a tonic that can not be surpassed. JOHN M. LYONS.

From Rev. Dr. Winter, Pastor of Roxborough Baptist church.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised, by a friend, to try a bottle of your German bitters, I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully yours,
THOMAS WINTER.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed church, Kutztown, Berks county.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.
Respectfully yours, J. S. HERMAN.
