[New Orleans Cor. Bosten Journal.] No sympathy is felt here for cotton spaculators, and when one of them is flocoed, it seems to be a matter of rejoicing by both parties-Federals as well as Rebs. A good story is going the rounds in regard to a citizen of this city-one of those neutral individuals who are on the fence, ready to jump on either side policy dictates to be for their interest. He left Now Orleans about two months since, bound for the Confederate lines, with the intention of investing what money he had in cotton. The friend who related the incident to me said that just before starting he met him in the street, and after exchanging the usual commonplace remarks, inquired :

"What are you up to now, Brown?" "Oh, I've just made a good thing; been into the Confederacy and brought out thirty bales of cotton. Bound up again to morrow, and if nothing happens I'll bring back four times that quanti-

"Be careful, Brown, or you'll get gobbled up, They'll have you in the Rebel army."

"Oh, no fear of that. They all know mo to be a good Confederate. Besides, I've got British papers."

A m ath later the two friends met, Brown looking decidedly downcast and scedy. Wallace accosted him with :

every thing." " How's that ?"

" Well, you see, I'got up to Bayou Sara the same night the rebels made their raid into the place, I had plenty of time to escape, same as a good many others did, but I thought I was all right, and so with a friend sat down to a game of poker, just to show that we did'nt feel at all FURNITURE alarmed. Presently in came some rebs and began to search us. On my partner they found a lot of Confederate money, and they wanted to kn w what right he had in the Federal lines with Confederate money? So they just took it. Of course I was convinced now that I was all right -my money was all greenbacks. 'What are you doing in the Confederacy with Federal money?" they asked. So they took mine too.'

"That was rough. Is that all they done to you?"

everything, and one big fellow gave me such a kick as to take me off my feet with the remark that if they ever caught money, they'd hang me."

A Real Copperhead.

1. Loves slavery better than the Union and is willing that the Union should be broken into pieces to save slavery. 2. Opposes volunteering, drafting and every other method of raising troops to put down the rebellion. 3. Grumbles at the taxes, and opposes appropriations for the payment of our brave soldiers. 4. Declares on all occasions that we can never suppress the rebellion, and must let the Union slide. 5. Writes discouraging letters to the niggers, and had better desert. 5. Looks pleased when he hears of a defeat of the Union arms, and says, ' Did

I not tell you they would whip you?" and thinks there must be some mistake about it.

8. Don't like the Eagle, the Stars and Stripes, Red, White and Blue, and thinks our neighboring towns for competition. We the 'Star Spangled Banner,' 'Hail Colum bis,' and Yankee Doodle' played out. 9. Is a recent convert to most radical

10. Gets angry and leaves the church when the minister prays for the Government of the United States, and invokes the curse of heaven upon the rebellion.

There are other evidences, but these are unmistakable. Now to one who exhibits these signs of disloyalty to his country, and rebellion, it is proper that the name copperhead, traitor, or secessionist, should be given. Put it on thick. There is no langer of bating treason too strongly. The Northern people and the Southern people who love the Union-the United States of America-should te melted into a solid mass of patriotism, and then they cap, with freedom on their banner, and Cod on their side, defy all enemies. Out on mere partyism. We hate it, we spit on it. But our country-God save it! -Religious Telescope.
