DIED OF CROUP.—WHAT A PRETTY and interesting child I saw last week? But now, alas! it is no more. Such was the conversation of two gentlemen riding down town in the cars. Died of croap? how strange? when Dr. Tobias' Venitian Liniment is a certain cure, if taken in time Now, Mothers, we appeal to you. It is not for the pality gain and profit we make, but for the sake of your miant child that now her play. sake of your ratant shild that now her play-ing at your feet. Croup is a dangerous dis-ease; but use Dr Tobias' Ventian Liniment in time, and it is robbed of its terrors. Always keep it in the house; you may not want it to-night, or to-morrow, no telling when-but incorporators named in the Act for the incorporation of the above named Company, are requested to meet at the Storehouse of L. & B.
