The Judge is also to certify for the choice of a Conference, and appoint Standing Committee. The members of the Committee in their respective districts are to attend to having elections opened and closed according to this call. By order of the Committee:

C. C. SHORLEY, Chairman,
COMMITTEE MEN.
Joseph Moore, Adam Getz,
Peter Miller, Martin Driesbach,
Samuel Dinkler, Benj. Chambers,
Daniel Snaker, Enoch Palmer,
Thomas Church, Michl. Klockner,
Levi Wilson, Levi Roke,
David Grove, E. Osborn.

Candidates' Column.

Congress.—GEORGE F. MILLER, Esq., of Union county, recommended for Congress in the Millburg and Middleburg papers, and in the Selingsgrove Post.

Candidate for Congress.
THE undersigned respectively offer themselves to the Republican party of the Fourteenth Congressional District of Pennsylvania, composed of the counties of Dauphin, Juniata, Northumberland, Union, and Snyder, for nomination by the several county conventions of the said District.

State Senate.
Messrs. Editors—Permit me to suggest Capt. CHARLES C. SHORLEY, of Lewisburg, as a candidate for Senator. He is well and favorably known to the people of the new Senatorial District, and by his fidelity, patriotism and ability eminently fits him for the position named.
JEREMIAH.

Assembly.
Messrs. Editors—Knowing that the interests of Union county have been properly attended to and cared for in the Legislature, by SAMUEL H. ORWIG, Esq., our present Member in the House, during the session recently closed, and being, from past experience that he is worthy of the confidence and support of our people, we recommend him for re-election.
MANY CITIZENS.

Sheriff.
At the last trial, THOMAS CHURCH was the second highest candidate for Sheriff, and nearly two years ago, while commanding his Company of Volunteers in action near Fair Oaks, received a wound from which he has barely recovered. His good character, his industry, and the claims of his locality, are undisputed, undisputed. May we not ask for him the unanimous support and vote of our nomination and for election as Sheriff?
UNION AND HARMONY.

Commissioner.
Messrs. Editors—In looking over the column for candidates in your paper, we notice SAMUEL DINKLER recommended for Commissioner. Mr. Dinkler is a good man for that office, and will receive our hearty support.
WALTER DEER.

Probably no man in our county was so great a loser, pecuniarily, by the removal of the seat of Justice, as MICHAEL KLOCKNER, of New Berlin. Now while I was (and am) a decided advocate of that measure, I always felt a duty and policy to seek suitable compensations incidentally to compensate those whom that public interest damaged personally. In that spirit, Mr. Roush was elected as Prothonotary, and Mr. Merrill, Register & Recorder. For the same reason, I ask a liberal vote for Mr. Klockner for Commissioner, satisfied that he is fit and deserving.
BREVATOR.

Messrs. Editors—Please announce the name of SAMUEL DINKLER, in connection with the office of County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the Primary election. Mr. Dinkler is a practical man of good business qualities, and of sterling worth—his superior is seldom met with. East Buffalo especially urge his nomination, inasmuch as they have not been represented in that Board for many years.
E. S. BREVATOR.

To Editors Star & Chronicle—New Berlin claims, and we think are justly entitled to a share of the County Office, subject to the claim I would recommend MICHAEL KLOCKNER as a suitable person for the office of County Commissioner for the ensuing term. His extensive experience and his sound judgment render him in every respect justly fit for said office.
LEWISBURG.

A collection for the Christian Commission will be made by the Lewisburg Presbyterian church, Sunday next.

Union National Convention.

This body convened in the Front Street Theatre, Baltimore, at noon of Tuesday, June 7. The large building was well fitted up for the purpose of a convention, and was filled to overflowing.

Ex. Gov. Morgan, of New York, called the Convention to order, and nominated for temporary chairman, Rev. Dr. ROBERT J. BRACKENRIDGE, of Kentucky. Unanimously elected, the venerable preacher made a most powerful and eloquent speech, amid enthusiastic applause.

Rev. Dr. McKendree Keilly, of the M. E. Church, was called upon to offer a prayer.

Committees—on credentials, on permanent organization, and on platform and resolutions—were appointed. A. H. Reeder, A. K. McPherson, M. B. Lowry, from Pennsylvania, were on those committees. Twenty-three States were found to be represented by unopposed delegates.

EVERING SESSION.

Ex. Gov. WM. DENISON, of Ohio, was chosen President of the Convention, with a Vice President and Secretary from each State—W. W. Kechem and John Stuart, for Pennsylvania.

Person Brownlow, of Tennessee, being invited to speak, and he was better fitted for a sick room, than for a public gathering, yet he would say a few words in favor of the admission of the Tennessee delegation. They were good and true men; they believed in Abraham Lincoln, and in winning the negroes, and hated Copperheads and traitors as they did the devil. The speech was well received, and the convention adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, June 8.

The Convention met at 10 A. M., and after prayer by Rev. Mr. Harris of Ohio, the committee on Credentials reported through Preston King, of New York. The Radical or Unconditional Union delegates from Missouri, were admitted, in preference to the Claybanks or Bisir men. The delegates from the States of Tennessee, Louisiana, and Arkansas, were also admitted, and those from the Territories of Nebraska, Colorado, and Nevada. Those from the District of Columbia, and from the Seceded States of Virginia and South Carolina, were not admitted.

Mr. Raymond, of New York, reported the Platform, which was unanimously adopted with great applause.

Gen. Cameron moved the re-nomination of Abraham Lincoln and Hannibal Hamlin, but modified his motion to a vote for President first.

Each State and Territory was called, and responded through its chairman of delegation. Every vote was cast for ABRAHAM LINCOLN, (except those from Missouri, which at first were given for Gen. GRANT, but subsequently were changed to Lincoln,) giving him the unanimous vote of 519 delegates. "When the result was announced, all the delegates and the entire audience rose to their feet, and waved hats and handkerchiefs for many minutes—the Band, meanwhile, playing the national air."

For Vice President, Hamlin of Maine, Daniel S. Dickinson of New York, Andrew Johnson of Tennessee, and Gen. Rousseau of Kentucky, were named. Hamlin and Dickinson each had a handsome vote, but Johnson being in advance many votes were changed for him, and the result was announced to be—Johnson, 497; Dickinson, 13; Hamlin, 9. On motion of Mr. Trossman, of New York, the nomination of ANDREW JOHNSON was declared to be unanimous.

ANDY JOHNSON for Vice President.

From the first of this canvass, ANDREW JOHNSON has been our first choice for Vice President. Although born where he had no chance for schooling, he has become a well informed, practical man, of superior judgment, and good character. Like Mr. LINCOLN, he is of and from the common people, and will be true to the best good of the masses. No man knows better the spirit of the Slaveholding Aristocracy—no man has fought or can fight them better—than Andrew Johnson. While none have sought to urge against Hannibal Hamlin, it was deemed just policy to select for Vice President a tried and trustworthy Unionist from East Tennessee.

While the Rebels were bounding from their Southern home, Andrew Johnson and his family, it will be remembered, the Copperhead friends of "free speech" in the Penna. Legislature voted against giving either Hall of the Capitol for Andrew Johnson to make a Union speech in it.

Most of the discharged Reserves were formally welcomed at Harrisburg, last Monday, by the Mayor and Governor, and afterward by Gen. McClellan. On Wednesday, 600 of them were dined at private residences. They are being paid off, and those from Union county it is expected, will probably reach here next Monday evening, and will be received with public honors.

MORE FAIRS.—St. Louis has just raised half a Million dollars, and Pittsburgh say Two Hundred Thousand, for the benefit of sick and wounded soldiers.

Further Contributions.

HARRISBURG, June 6, 1864.

The entertainment, gotten up by some of the young ladies and gentlemen of this place and vicinity, for the benefit of the Fair in Philadelphia, met with as much success the first evening, that it was announced for the next, when it was very well received. Those participating in it have done themselves great credit. The net proceeds will amount to over $50, in addition to which $20 have been collected by different committees, besides dried and canned fruits, pickles, &c. Were every place in the State to do as well relatively, the Great Central Fair would far surpass all others that have been held for the benefit of the Soldiers. C. D.

Messrs. Editors—I have rec'd in Cash from East Buffalo $75 15
Donations in fruit, eggs, &c. $67 10
$142 25

Ja's S. Marsh & Co. gave a Lewisburg Rasper & Mower, also a hand Feed Cutter—siding value, $165.

Sister, Wm. Shriver & Co. donated a No 1 Buckeye Rasper and Mower—$145.

The Unionists of Snyder County.

| Cornucop—Peter Hackenbush       | 186 |

Messrs. Miller, Simpson, and Allemen, to select their own Conferences.

Resolutions were adopted approving the nominations that day made, and also as follows:

1. That we heartily endorse the policy pursued by the National Administration in its patriotic efforts to suppress this wicked and senseless rebellion.
2. That we regard the co-operation of Gov. Curtin with the National authorities as eminently wise and patriotic, and that by his efforts for our soldiers he has endeared himself to all Union loving citizens.
3. That the American people confide in the disinterested patriotism and skilful generalship of U. S. Grant, and return their warmest thanks to him and to his noble army.
4. That we are heartily in favor of the proposed amendments to the Constitution granting the right of suffrage to our patriotic soldiers, and hope the same will be ratified by an overwhelming majority at the ballot box the first Tuesday of August next.
5. That we present Geo. F. Miller, Esq. as the undivided choice of Snyder county for Congress, and feel confident that in his election the people will have a representative of sterling patriotism, undoubted honesty, and signal ability. We ardently hope he may be unanimously nominated in the District, in which event we predict his triumphant election.

6. That A. C. Simpson, Esq. our nominee for Senator, by his devotion to the cause of his country, his energy and ability is well worthy the support of the other counties of the district, and we desire his success in conference and at the polls.

7. That in Samuel Allemen, Esq. for Assembly, we present a gentleman every way qualified, whose ability and experience ensure us in him an excellent legislator, and we feel confident of his success.

The following was the contested vote for Congress in same county two years ago:

|           |     |
|-----------|-----|
| Miller    | 423 |
| Patterson | 355 |

Miller's vote is increased 300, polled at a more busy season, and when there was no open opposition to call out the vote.

KEEP COOL.—About this time every year, we have to caution the "hot" politicians to remain frigid. Warm weather is coming on, and we want you all to remain within your inner garments so that you can vote. It don't look well to see men—full grown, and with beads—get excited and shake their fists at each other, especially in public and on the thoroughfares. So, we urge all hands—both sides, and all sides, the right and the wrong, "our fellows" and "other fellows," "hoor ye! hoor ye!"—don't quarrel with anybody about anything; don't get excited; don't brawl or banter on the streets or places of general resort: if any man wants to kick up a row about anything, don't help him, but let him do it all alone. And, finally, every time, keep cool.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL MESSENGER is the title of a monthly paper for children just issued by the Evangelical Association, at Cleveland, O. It is offered at 25 cts. for 1 copy, 25 copies for 15 cts. each, and 100 copies for 10 cts. each.

On the 6th July, the Pennsylvania Union Committee are to meet, in Harrisburg, for complete and effective organization.

Hunter takes Staunton, Va!
After Siegel's misfortune, Gen. Hunter succeeded him, and marched with his Corps up the Shenandoah Valley, subsisting on the country. The main force of the Rebels seems to have been called to Lee's aid, although Hunter met and defeated an army under Gen. Jones, (who was killed)—and on Sunday last, Hunter reached the important city of Staunton on the R. R., 100 N. W. of Richmond. Whether he intends to cut off supplies, or to be reinforced by Gen. Clinch from S. W. Virginia, and then push on to Richmond, is to be seen. (S. Harley Sifer is the only one from Union county we know under Hunter.)

"On to Richmond,"
Is still Grant's policy, and every day—though doggedly contested—he makes some advance. Of course, these sharp encounters cost much of life and treasure, but our forces seem to be steadily gaining, and reinforcements coming, while the Rebel power is ebbing away.
