FOR THE STAR & CHRONICLE.

Three Days in Cumberland Valley, and East of it.

HISTORICALLY AND LOCALLY.

Cumberland Valley has considerable importance. Some of its early settlers were there in 1720, and military defences were thrown up as early as 1753, in which year Benjamin Franklin and others formed a treaty of peace with the Indians, and in 1757 a "post" or mail was got up between Carlisle and Philad. The Hessians, captured at Trenton, erected the first barracks, and Maj. Andre was among the prisoners confined at that safe distance from the British. The army raised in 1794 to quell the Whiskey Rebellion, rendezvoused in Carlisle, Gen. Washington with them. The Tories were not numerous in the Valley, nor did they receive very gentle treatment. Assassinations of Indians—the surprise and murder or abduction of men, women and children, by Indians—and the causeless as well as the just alarms of the scattered and peeled population of those dark days: these make up the sad and startling details of the private history of this now smiling land as it was one hundred years ago.

"The terror of the citizens subsided but little, until Col. Bouquet conquered the Indians, in the year 1764, and compelled them to sue for peace. One of the conditions upon which peace was granted, was that the Indians should deliver up all the women and children whom they had taken into captivity. Among them were many who had been seized when very young, and had grown up to womanhood in the wigwam of the savage. They had contracted the wild habits of their captors, learned their language and forgotten their own, and were bound to them by ties of the strongest affection. Many a mother found a lost child; many were unable to designate their children. The separation between the Indians and their prisoners was heart-rending. Some afterwards made their escape, and returned to the Indians. Many had intermarried with the natives, but all were left to freedom of choice, and those who remained unmarried had been treated with delicacy. One female who had been captured at the age of fourteen, had become the wife of an Indian, and the mother of several children. When informed that she was about to be delivered to her parents, her grief could not be alleviated. 'Can I,' said she, 'enter my parents' dwelling? Will they be kind to my children? Will my old companions associate with the wife of an Indian chief? And my husband, who has been so kind—I will not desert him!' That night she fled from the camp to her husband and children.

A great number of the restored prisoners were brought to Carlisle, and Col. Bouquet advertised for those who had lost children to come here and look for them. Among those that came was an old woman, whose child, a little girl, had been taken from her several years before; but she was unable to designate her daughter or converse with the released captives. With breaking heart, the old woman lamented to Col. Bouquet her hapless lot, telling him how she used many years ago to sing to her little daughter a hymn of which the child was so fond. She was requested by the Colonel to sing it then, which she did in these words:

"Alone, yet not alone am I,
Though in this solitude so drear;
I feel my Saviour always nigh,
He comes my every hour to cheer," and the long-lost daughter rushed into the arms of her mother."

UNPATENTED LANDS.—The Legislature that has just adjourned, revived and continued in force until the first of November, and only until then, the law known as the "Graduating Law," by which patents can be taken out at the rate of twenty cents per acre, without interest. This law was a very favorable one to our citizens, but there still remain many to be taken out, and from the opposition made to extending the time, in the late Legislature, there is every reason to believe it can never again be extended. We hope, therefore, the people of this county will see to having all their lands patented before the first day of November comiug It will save them paying interest from the time the lands were first improved, which, if it had to be paid, would amount to more than three times the principal in most cases.—Lewistown Gazette.

☞The names of two of Grant's Corps Generals possess a historical record—Hancock and Warren—the former the first signer of the Declaration of Independence, and the latter the first martyr of the Revolution. The two heroes of to-day are lineal descendants, in spirit at least, of patriots who led in the first struggle for American liberty. Long may their names, as were their fathers', be held in hallowed remembrance by the American people.

WASHINGTON HOSPITALS.—Medical Inspector Hamlin says that the statistics of the hospitals of the Washington Department for the last year show remarkable results. The ratio of mortality is less than four per cent., while the splendid hospitals of London exhibit a mortality of more than nine per cent., and those of Paris more than ten per cent. In the hospitals of Bosphorus, during the Crimean war, the death rate was twenty per cent., and in those on the Crimea the rate was over fourteen per cent.

The Connecticut papers give accounts of an unprecedented hail storm in Tolland county, on Wednesday afternoon last. Some members of the Legislature brought to the State House quantities of the stones over an inch in diameter, and they were taken up by baskets full. In some places they were blown in huge drifts, reaching to the hubs of the carriage wheels. A great amount of injury was done to the trees, and an immense amount of glass was broken in Rockville and Vernon Center.

The crop of peaches in New Jersey promises to be very large.

The city debt of Philadelphia is thirty-six millions of dollars.

From the Pastor of the Baptist church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North church, Philad'a.

* * * I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus gratuitously proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted and is not a rum drink.
Yours truly, LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. Dr. Brown, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their respectable and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he derives himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt in six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
J. NEWTON BROWN, Philadelphia.

From the Pastor of the Germantown Baptist church.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of a severe cold and general debility, I have been greatly benefited by the use of the bitters, and doubt not that they will produce similar effects on others.
Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH.

From the Pastor of Holding M. E. church, Philada.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system, it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge. Yours respectfully, J. H. TURNER.

From the former Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Masstown (Pa.) Baptist churches.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.Y.

Dr C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since, being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to its great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it is a tonic that can not be surpassed. JOHN M. LYONS.

From Rev. Dr. Winter, Pastor of Roxborough Baptist church.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder to my head and nervous system. I was advised, by a friend, to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully yours,
THOMAS WINTER.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed church, Kutztown, Berks county.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.
Respectfully yours, J. S. HERMAN.
