

Union National Convention. THE PLATFORM.

Resolved, 1. That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain, against all their enemies, the integrity of the Union and the permanent authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that, laying aside all differences and political opinions, we pledge ourselves, as Union men, animated by a common sentiment, and aiming at a common object, to do everything in our power to aid the Government in quelling, by force of arms, the Rebellion now raging against its authority, and in bringing to the punishment due to their crimes, the rebels and traitors arrayed against it.

2. That we approve the determination of the Government of the United States not to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace, except such as may be based upon an unconditional surrender of their hostility, and a return to their just allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the States; and that we call upon the Government to maintain this position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost possible vigor to the complete suppression of the rebellion, in full reliance upon the self-sacrifices, patriotism, heroic valor and undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions.

3. That as slavery was the cause and now constitutes the strength of this rebellion, and as it must be always and everywhere hostile to the principles of a republican government, justice and the national safety demand its utter and complete extermination from the soil of the Republic; and that, while we uphold and maintain the acts and proclamation by which the Government, in its own defense, has aimed a death blow at the gigantic evil, we are in favor, furthermore, of such an amendment to the Constitution, to be made by the people in conformity with its provisions, as shall terminate and forever prohibit the existence of slavery within the limits or jurisdiction of the United States.

4. That the thanks of the American people are due to the soldiers and sailors of the army and navy, who have periled their lives in defence of their country, and in vindication of the honor of the flag; that the nation owes to them some permanent recognition of their patriotism and their valor, and ample and permanent provision for those of their survivors who have received disabling and honorable wounds in the service of their country; and that the memory of those who have fallen in its defence shall be held in grateful and everlasting memory.

5. That we approve and applaud the practical wisdom, the unselfish patriotism, and the unwavering fidelity to the Constitution and the principles of American liberty, with which Abraham Lincoln has discharged under circumstances of unparalleled difficulty, the great duties and responsibilities of the Presidential office. That we approve and endorse, as demanded by the emergency, and essential to the preservation of the nation, and as within the provisions of the Constitution, the measures and acts which he has adopted to defend the nation against its open and secret foes; that we approve, especially, the Proclamation of Emancipation and the employment as Union soldiers of men heretofore held in slavery; and that we have full confidence in his determination to carry these, and all other constitutional measures essential to the salvation of the country, into full and complete effect.

6. That we deem it essential to our general welfare, that harmony should prevail in our nation councils; and we regard as worthy of public confidence and of special trust those only who faithfully observe the principles proclaimed in these resolutions, and which should characterize the Administration of our Government.

7. That the Government owes to all men employed in its armies, without regard to the distinction of color, the full protection of the laws of war; and that any violation of these laws, or the usage of civilized nations, in time of war, by the rebels now in arms, should be made the subject of prompt and full redress.

8. That foreign immigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development of the resources and increase of power to this nation, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

9. That we are in favor of the speedy construction of the Pacific Railroad.

10. That the national flag, pledged for the redemption of the public debt, must be kept inviolate; and that, for this purpose, we recommend economy and rigid responsibility in the public expenditures, and a vigorous and just system of taxation. That it is the duty of every loyal State to sustain the credit, and promote the use of the National currency.

11. That we approve the position taken by the Government, that the people of the United States can never regard with indifference the attempt of any European power to overthrow by force, or to supplant by fraud, the institutions of any republican government on the Western continent; and that they view with extreme jealousy, as menacing to the peace and independence of their own country, the efforts of any such power to obtain new footholds for monarchial governments, sustained by foreign military force, in near proximity to the United States.

DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL

IS the vital principle of the Pine Tree—obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the Tar by which its highest medicinal properties are retained. It is the medicine that cures when all others fail.

Have you a Cough? Have you sore Throat? Have you the Acute symptoms of that most fatal disease—Consumption?

Those who should be warned by these symptoms generally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sad prevalence and fatality of disease which sweep to the grave at least one in every five.

What are its symptoms?

It usually begins with a cough, which soon becomes habitual, but for some time nothing is noticed except a hoarse voice. The breathing is somewhat difficult, and upon exertion the chest is oppressed. As the disease advances, the patient becomes thin, the face is emaciated, the spirits are depressed, and a considerable length of time may elapse before a cough, which is not accompanied by any other symptoms, may be observed. It is now accompanied by expectoration, which is most copious, and is often a mixture of blood. At this stage, the patient usually emits a profuse sweat, and a profuse sweat, and a profuse sweat, and a profuse sweat. The pulse becomes full, hard, and frequent, the bowels are constipated, and the face is marked by hectic flushes.

Buckeye Mower & Reaper, For the Harvest of 1864!

Thirty-Four distinct Patents!

THE unparalleled success of the Buckeye is the strongest proof of its superior merits. Its reputation is so well established that since its introduction the manufacturers have been entirely unable to supply the demand.

We will call attention to a few of its points of excellence and the farmer to give it a personal examination.

The Two Driving-Wheels, &c.

The TWO DRIVING WHEELS—the Socs and Springs, by which the machine may be thrown out of gear, or be backed without vibrating the knives—the Steel Gear Bar—the Wrought Iron Gears—with Handled Steel Face or Cutting Edge—the Double-Sized Joint, by which the Gutter Bar may be pulled—the long Crank Shaft—the Spring and Wheel, by which the Cutter Bar may be raised and lowered so as to cut as low to the ground as may be desired—the Steel Pitman and Brass Box—its Light Draft—its (no Side Draft)—no weight on the horses' necks—backs as easily as a cart—all of which form a combination of advantages which no other machine possesses.

No Gearing on the Driving Wheels.

A team of horses weighing 500 lbs. each, will cut an acre of grass an hour with ease. The machine is furnished with Two Cutter Bars—one for cutting grass, and the other for cutting grain (each expressly adapted to the use intended).

No effort will be wanting to maintain the Buckeye in the enviable position it now occupies, that of being the Best Machine in the World!

During last harvest hundreds of Farmers, in consequence of our inability to supply the demand were unable to obtain the Buckeye, and were forced to purchase an inferior machine. The continued scarcity of laborers and the new calls from the government for troops, will take many more laborers from the country, and the farmer will have to rely entirely upon machinery in gathering his hay and grain crops.

Farmers who would avoid disappointment in procuring a Buckeye can send in their orders now.

We are now prepared to fill orders for the coming Harvest, at reduced prices.
