Soldiers after the War.

Macaulay, in the portion of his history relating to the state of English society at the close of the great revolution, touches on a subject curiously paralleled in our own times. Speaking of the fears that were then entertained as to the result of disbanding Cromwell's army and throwing its unruly elements back into society, he says:

"The troops were now to be disbanded. Fifty thousand men, accustomed to the profession of arms, were at once thrown on the world, and experience seemed to warrant the belief that this change would produce much misery and crime—that the discharged veterans would be seen begging in every street, or would be driven by hunger to pillage. But no such a result followed. In a few months, there remained not a trace indicating that the most formidable army in the world had just been absorbed into the mass of the community. The royalists themselves confessed that, in every department of honest industry, the discarded warriors prospered beyond other men: that none was charged with any theft or robbery; that none was heard to ask alms; and that, if a baker, a mason, or wagoner attracted notice by his diligence and sobriety, he was in all probability, one of Oliver's old soldiers."

Those who have fought for the triumph of the supreme law of the land, should be its best subjects, and not rebel against it.

EXQUISITE THOUGHT.

A solemn murmur in the soul
Tells of the world to be,
As travelers hear the billows roll
Before they reach the sea.

The Old School Presbyterians on Slavery and Rebellion.

In the General Assembly at Newark, New Jersey, Judge Matthews, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, presented an able report on the subject of slavery, which produced a profound sensation, and was, by a large majority, ordered to be printed, made the special order for Friday, and adopted almost unanimously. We give the conclusion of the report:

"In view, therefore, of its former testimonies upon the subject, the General Assembly does hereby devoutedly express its gratitude to Almighty God for the great deliverance He has prepared for our country from the evil and guilt of slavery; its cordial approbation of the measures taken by the National and State authorities for its extirpation, as the root of bitterness from which has sprung rebellion, war, bloodshed, and the long list of horrors that follow in their train; its earnest belief that the thorough removal of this prolific source of evil and harm will be speedily followed by the blessings of our Heavenly Father, the return of peace, union, and fraternity, and abounding prosperity to the whole land; and recommend to all in our communion to labor honestly, earnestly, and unweariedly in their respective spheres for this glorious consummation, to which human justice, Christian love, national peace and prosperity, every earthly and every religious interest, combine to pledge them."

A PRUDENT AMENDMENT.—Gen Washington seldom indulged in a joke or sarcasm, but when he did he always made a hit. It is related that he was present in Congress during the debate on the establishment of the Federal army, when a member present offered a resolution limiting the army to three thousand men, upon which Washington suggested to a member an amendment, providing that no enemy should ever invade the country with more than three thousand soldiers. The laughter which ensued, smothered it.

The "member" who made the above wise proposition, was a sage compared with the ninnies of this day who want the war conducted on peace principles, or who suppose that in such times everything must work as things did in far different times. War is a different state from that of peace. When the Rebels fire bullets and shells, it will not do for us to send back only paper wads and cowardly propositions of compromise. Force can only be driven back by force. If the Rebels had not begon war, there would have been none, but they have, and they must stop it, and then comes peace.

A LAZY BOY makes a lazy man, just as a crooked sapling makes a crooked tree. Whoever yet saw a boy grow up in idleness that did not make a shiftless vagabond when he became a man, unless he had a fortune left him to keep up appearances? The great mass of thieves, paupers, and criminals have come to what they are by being brought up in idleness. Those who constitute the business part of the community—those who make our great and useful men—were taught to be industrious.

The Pennsylvania Central Railroad last week sent $5,000 to the Christian Commission. This is in addition to passing all their delegates free. The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York sent $5,000, in addition to $3 000 previously sent, with a note from the President saying, "You save life. It is our interest to have life saved." It can not be said of the above that "corporations have no souls."

Some of the Copperheads are urging the running by their party of an electoral ticket in each State, without naming any candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency. In this way, they hope to unite all the opposition to President Lincoln, and if they should succeed they could take Jeff. Davis or some other favorite of theirs for the White House.

The Secretary of State, in a letter to a committee of New York Union men, says that "the election of Lincoln and Johnson, at the close of the successful campaign, will speak the people's decision, that slavery has perished, and that the American Union is invincible." Let us make this one of the watchwords of our campaign, for no truer words have been spoken.

A wealthy but ignorant farmer, at a town meeting not far from Bridgeport, Ct., moved with great dignity that "this meeting do now adjourn, ipse dixit." The motion was amended by adding "E Pluribus Unum," and unanimously carried!

Agricultural Implements.

AGRICULTURAL Impiements, since the commencement of this War, have been in great demand, and good machines are valuable as to their merits and worth only.

In the year 1862, Messrs. J. S. MARSH & CO. sold one of their Improved Reapers to Henry Stuck for $130. On the 18th of February, the same Reaper was sold at a Public Sale, on the farm of Henry Stuck, near Carlisle for $139, after being used two seasons.

Messrs. J. S. Marsh & Co. are manufacturing a large number of their machines, with Improvements, this season, for the coming Haying and Harvest; and as to the merits of their Combined

READ WHO SAY SO,

From the Pastor of the Baptist church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North church, Philad'a.

* * * I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a brilliant and faithful manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted and is not a rum drink.

Yours truly, LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. Dr. Brown, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper facts, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt in six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN, Philadelphia.

From the Pastor of the Germantown Baptist church.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of a severe cold and general debility, I have been greatly benefited by the use of the Bitters, and doubt not that they will produce similar effects in others.

Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH.

From the Pastor of Hedding M. E. church, Philada.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system, it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge. Yours respectfully, J. H. TURNER.

From the former Pastor of the Otterbein, (N. J.) and Molatown (Va.) Baptist churches.

NEW HOLLAND, N.Y.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it a pleasure, also, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since, being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to its great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it is a tonic that can not be surpassed. JOHN M. LYONS.

From Rev. Dr. Winter, Pastor of Roxborough Baptist church.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised, by a friend, to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully yours,

THOMAS WINTER.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed church, Kutztown, Berks county.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

Respectfully yours, J. S. HERMAN.

TESTIMONIALS.

HARTLETON, Union Co., Nov. 25, 1863.

Dear Sir: My liver and stomach was so badly diseased that all who seen me gave me up. Doctors and all; but I continued to take your medicine and it cured me, and I now am well. I know a number in my neighborhood that had lung and liver complaints, that were cured by your medicine. As life is sweet, I would advise all who are afflicted with disease to give you a call, and save life and money. Yours truly, JOHN GOODLANDER.

HARTLETON, Union Co., Nov. 29, 1863.

Dear Sir: I was afflicted with rheumatism for a number of years, and was cured by your medicine. I was not able to leave my bed when I commenced taking your valuable medicine, and I had been attended by two other physicians. Yours truly, JOSEPH MILLER.

LAURELTON, Union Co., Nov. 17, 1863.

Dr. S. H. Knight: Dear Sir—I was afflicted with Rheumatism; I could not walk one step, and two bottles of your valuable medicine cured me in a short time. I advise all who are afflicted with this disease to apply to you and get cured. Yours truly, J. BROUSE.

HARTLETON, Union Co., Nov. 18, 1863.

Dr. S. H. Knight: Dear Sir—I send you this statement in order to benefit suffering humanity. My wife lay a long time with consumption, and her life or recovery was given up by all. I was advised to try other medicine or doctors. I continue with your treatment; your medicine cured her; she is now well. I would advise all who are afflicted with lung and liver diseases to go to you, or send for you, get your medicine, and save life and money. [1024] Yours resp'y, JOHN GALER.
