A year again has passed away!
Time swiftly speeds along!
We come again to praise and pray,
And sing our greeting song.

-We come, we come, we come with song to gree We come, we come, we come with song again.

We come the Savier's name to praise,

To sing the wentrous love
Of Him who guards us all our days,
And guides to Heaven above. We'll sing of mercies daily given, Through every passing year, We'll sing the promises of Heaven With voices loud and clear.

We'll sing of many a happy hour We've passed in Sunday School. Where truth, like summer's genial shower, Extends its gracious rule.

Our youthful hearts will gladly raise, A general song of grateful praise To Heaven's eternal King.

Sing to the Savior.

Come, come, sing to the Savier, Love, love beams from his eye; Haste, then, share in his faver, Wership the Savier on high. Worship the Savier, wending the Savier, Worship the Savier and high.

Praise, praise, yield Him with gladness, Rarth, earth, hands thy giscon; Where, death, where is it; sadness? Jesus returns from the tomb. Jesus returns from the tomb. Rise, rise, free from the mourning, light, light spreads from the sky, See, see, bright the day dawning, Jesus is risen on high;

Jesus is risen, Jesus is risen on high. Hall, hall, children adore him, Hall, that, charten asor man, filtre, here, athens should ring.
There, there, dwelling before him,
Loudest horannas we'll sing;
Loudest horannas we'll sing.

Pilgrim Band. Come, little soldiers, join in our band, March for the king) on, our promise I land; Fearloss of danger, onward we ream, Jesus our leader is, soon we'll be home. Counce—by Infant Class; We're a little pilgrim band, guided by a Savier's hand Soon we'll reach our fatherized, no more to roam.

Hark to the voices, bidding us come! Angels, rejoicing, welcome us home: No more shall sadness or some oppress. Come, fittle pilgrim band, there we shall cest. Soon we shall never amou sorrow more, flut, blest for ever, flut's love shall adore; Poon we shall see him in his blest home, Ever saill praising him, ages to come.

The Echo Chorus. Shall humns of grateful love.
Thre' heaven's high arches ring.
An I all the heats arove
Their rouge of treament sing.
CHORUS.—And shall not me take by the strain,
And sens the other back again?

Shall every taux-med tribe To thrist all postered race,
To thrist all posters ascribe,
Who saved them by his grace,
And shall not we, 4c.

Shall they addre the least,
Who bought them with his blood,
And all the love reases,
That hel them bouns to God,
And shall not we, An

Then spread the joyful cound, The savier's love proclaim, And publish all accound dalexation through his name, Till all the world take up, &c. The School Battle Song.

Marching on ! marching on! glad as birds on the wing, Come the bright ranks of chistren from near and from far;
Heppy hearts, full of song, 'heath our banners we bring.

and for Hartley towaship.

We will end the battle singing hall-lulahs to the Lord. Pressing on! pressing on! to the din of the fray,
With the first fread of faith in the statle we go;
Mid the cheering of angels on ranks march away
With our flags pointing ever right on towird the fos.

Fighting on! fighting on! in the midst of the strife, At the call of our Captain we draw every eword; We are battling for find, we are struckling for life! Let us strike every rebel that lights 'gainst the Lord. Singing on I singing on I from the hattle we come, Every flag bears a we-will wavey soldier removal. Heavenir angels are weiting to welcome us home, and the Savier will give us a role and a crown.

You now ask, lethers a cure!

Communition has been and can be cured by the use of my TAK CORDIAL, even in apparently hopeless cases. This sasertion I make with the ability to present the most complete evidence of the truth. Space will not atmit of my giving the contents of the many tholeaning it testimonials to its value, which I have been and an revelving from men and women of dequesifonable worth and reputation. I have last a number of these rettificates printed in circular form which I will cond you for one application. Whether you now determine to try the medicine or not, send for the circular. After years of study and experiment, I often this medicine, believing it to be the best remedy for all polanous your developing of the TAK CORDIAL, I had be a sentiated by the use of the TAK CORDIAL, I had be a worth and all carthly aid. Yet if there are better cursts seemts. I carnestly advise their use. The best remedies, the best area, are needed by those afflicted with this disease. Because I believe this to be the best, I ask you to try it.

Many, not only of the poorle, but by sidence what is the

this to be the best, I seek you to try it.

Many, not only of the people, but the sleakers of every school and practice, are daily asking ase. What is the principle or can of your encess in the treatment of Patermery Commentum. Ny answer is thus:

The answeries of the directive organs—the strength-ones of the deal, twice system—the precidence and on the second the organization which consults breeds. While this tender the corruption which consults breeds. While this tender the corruption which creates breeds. While this tender to be about the organization of the large and according to the investigation of the second strength of the large and tenovating principles is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the large and threat, peacetrating each diseased part, retirving pain, subthing inflamation, and restorms a healthful fundency. Let this two-fil power, the healing and the strengthening, continue to set in conjunction with Nature's constant recupractive tendency, and the patient is saved, if he has not too long delayed a rescort to the means of cure.

The PINE THEE TAR CORDIAL will care Coughs.

The PINE THEE TAR CORDIAL will enre Coughs, Sore Threat and Breast, Bronchitis, Asthua, Croup, Hooping Cough, Butheria, and is also an excellent remedy for disease of the kinney, and female complaints.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS.

THESE Bonds are isshed under the Ast of Congress of March 8th, 1861, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATICA by or under eny state or municipal author. ity. Subscriptions to these Bonds are receir. we will call attention to a few of its points forty years from their date, and until the of excellence and the farmer to give it a redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of to over one hundred dollars annually and and The TWO BRIVING WHEELS-the other Bonds semi-annually. The interest,

Subscribers will receive either Registerel are payable to bearer, and are more core ment for commercial uses. Subscribers to this loan will have throping coin-(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent for premium.) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are Exempt from Municipal or State Tatation. their value is increased from one to three per levies in various parts of the country. At the present rate of premium on gold they pay forms of indettedness, the faith or ability of rate communities only is pledged for an ment, while for the debts of the United ene the whole property of the country is house. to secure the payment of both principal and interest in cein These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted no more at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest. It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 31 day of March 1864, was $768,965. 000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,907,120, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending Jone 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum. Is will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in erress of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless rates the annual receipts fema customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per as loan agents were not assurd from the United States Tresaury until March 26, but in the first three works of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A Subscriptions will be received by the
