I Know a Beautiful Woman. BY MRS. FRANCES D. GAGE

I know a beautiful woman, As stately as any queen,
Full sixty winters have come and gone
Since she our light hath been, Yet every year hath added A something so fair and true, That to me she's the sweetest woman, I think, that I ever knew.

Her eye may be dimmer growing-It hath lost the glance of youth-But up from the inner fountains It is flashing love and truth: Her cheeks have not all the freshness Of the rosebud's glowing red;

But the purity of the lily, Full blown, has come in its stead. And her voice is low and soothing As the hum of summer bees, Or twilight rustling 'mong the corn,

She moves with a grace so gentle Among the garden bowers, A brighter radiance than their own Seems falling on her flowers.

Or the song of autumn trees;

All over her face of beauty There are lines of days gone by-Of holy loves and carnest hopes That bave wrought there patiently; They are levelier far than dimples, For I know that each was given

To mark the years of dutiful life That have fitted her for heaven. I never think of that woman But my heart throbs high with love, And I ask, "Can she be more beauteous In the blissful realms above?"

I can searcely in my dreaming See her face more fair and bright; She seems to me now, with her radiant brow A spirit of love and light.

The poet may sing his praises Of the glow of "sweet sixteen;" But there's a holier beauty Of sixty-two, I ween: For the girlish face that's moulded By a true and loving heart, Will brighten as the heart throbs on, Rechiselling every part.

Losses of our Army Are greatly exaggerated by sensationists, ekulkers, wholesalers, and careless and reckless men of all sorts. The New York Evening Post asserts, on authority, that Gen.Grant's immense army lost, between the Rapidan and James rivers, only four thousand killed, and two thousand fatally wounded-six thousand are dead. The wounded, prisoners and mi-sing number say forty thousand—over half of whom ballots, or tickets, as there are amendments are back in the army, and others going approved by them, containing, on the inside daily. The permanent loss to the army thereof, the words For the Amendment'. And can berdly be twenty thousand - which is or any of them, may express their opposition less than M'Clellan lost while floundering by voting, each, as many separate, written about the Chickshominy—and that has printed, or partly written and partly printed, ballots, or tickets, as there are amendments not been made up by reinforcements.

Is the vital principle of the the Tree-obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the Tar by which a highest medicinal properties are retained. It is the medicine that cures when all other fail. Have you a Cough? Have you Sore Tweet? Have you any of the premonitory symptoms of that most fatal disease—Commention?

Those who should be warned by these respicase generally think lightly of them until it is too lake. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the ead prevalence and fatality of disease which swayps to the grave at least one such of death's victims.

What are its spenjions?

It usually begins with a shart, dry cough, which soon becomes habitual, but for some time nothing is raised except a freely mates. The breathing is somewhat difficult, and upon slight exercise much surried. A sense of tophiness and oppression at the cheek is often feel. As the disease advances, the patient becomes thin in feeth, is afflicted with loss of appetite, great langur, indocates, and dejection of spirits; may continue in this state for a considerable length of time; and is very readily after a considerable length of time; and is very readily after the state of the stat

You now ask, Libers a care?

Consumption has been und can be cared by the use of my TAR CORBIAL, even in apparently hopeless cases. This assertion I make with the ability to present the most complete explence of the truth. Space will not alm it of my giving the contents of the many thousands of testimoniats to its varies, which I have been and surreceiving from men and women of unquestionable worth and reputation. I have had a number of these certificates printed in circular form which I will could you free on application. Whether you now determine to try the medicine or not, send for the circular. After years of study and experiment, I offer this medicine, believing it to be the best remedy for all pulsamonry and bronchist disease. If you can not be benefited by the use of the TAR CORDIA L. I believe you are beyond all curthly aid. Yet if there are better curate agents, I carnestly advise their use. The best remedies, the best care, are bested by those afflicted with this disease. Because I believe this to be the best, I ask you to try it.

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, What is the principle or cause of your success in the treatment of Pulmonary Commispions? My answer is this: The interpretation of the digestive creame—the grangities and exceeding the industry principle in also acting upon the irrelated surfaces of the longs and throat, penetrating each disease to health? It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in golf. on the 3d day of March 1864, was $768,965, 000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $15,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending Jone 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per agnum.
