

NEARER HOME.

Pilgrim 'mid your earthly toiling Over dross and smelt plain, Are thy footsteps ever weary Seeking for that promised gain?

If the way at times be hidden From our erring mortal eyes, 'Tis but workings of His wisdom Through earth's pains and penalties;

Every daylight brings us nearer, Every midnight speeds us on Nearer to the blissful morn, Nearer to life's blessings won;

A copperhead sorehead in Augusta, Me., Was dilating, a few days since,
On the strength of the rebels, declaring that they Could never be subdued, and that he hoped They would annihilate the Union armies,

We have an interesting letter from our Special Washington correspondent, dated the 15th, giving an account of the rebel assault upon Washington, he having participated in its defense; but it was received too late for insertion.

The Siamese twins have each a house a mile from the other. They live in each two three days alternately, and each twin is boss in his own mansion, the other being for the time merely a silent partner.

While the Rebel freethinkers were in Hagerstown, during the raid, they made no distinction between Rebel sympathizers and Union men. Mr. Bell, druggist, who has a brother in the Rebel army and who is said to lean that way himself, had his stock "confiscated" in the most approved freethinker style; and when a sympathizer expostulated with them for robbing their friend—they politely answered that if Mr. Bell was their friend, he should be with his brother in their army.

Under existing laws, Copperheads can vote against the Government, and against the cause of our soldiers, while the heroes of our Nation are disfranchised. On Tuesday week, the people will remedy this evil, and allow soldiers' ballots to sustain the cause for which the soldier's bullet is shed. Let the majority be overwhelming, and it will be the first sound of the death knell of copperheadism.

An old bachelor in New York offered a young lady a pony for a kiss. She gave him the kiss. He refused her the pony.
She said him. He pleaded "no consideration." The court decided that a kiss was a legal consideration. Certainly it has often been a matter of earnest consideration with us, and we have no doubt, with a good many other young fellows.

"I am delighted," said Secretary Chase, when Johnson had so manfully taken his stand in the Senate against Secession, "I am delighted to learn that Andrew Johnson is only the modern way to spell Andrew Jackson."

A wife's tears, shed too often, harden the husband instead of softening him.
The eye-water becomes a petrifying water.

Smearing limbs and nests of exterminators with coal oil is given as a sure way to kill the vermin.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS,
THESE Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 10th, 1861, which provides that all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE EDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than one year from the date of their issue, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of an over one hundred dollars annually and on other Bonds semi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U. S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding five per cent. for premium) or receiving their drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit.
As these Bonds are

Exempt from Municipal or State Taxation, their value is increased from one to three per cent per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.
At the present rate of premium on gold they pay Over Eight Per Cent Interest in currency, and are of equal investive value to a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all our forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is held, to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

I may be useful to state in this connection that the total Federal Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 31st day of March, 1864, was $768,948, 000. The interest on this debt for the current fiscal year will be $15,337,128, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been no far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs to the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 26, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A WEEK.

Subscriptions will be received by the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF DANVILLE, PENNA., and by all
NATIONAL BANKS which are depositaries of Public money, and all RESPECTABLE BANES and BANKERS throughout the country, (acting as agents of the National Deposit Bank) will furnish further information on application and AFFORD EVERY FACILITY TO SUBSCRIBE.
