Наввізвуве, July 22, 1864. The event of the week was the meeting of the Democratic State Committee in this place, on Toesday evening last. It was largely attended and political movements of the gravest moment were discussed.

The question of adopting the proposed Amendment to the Constitution, allowing our brave soldiers to vote, was considered, and a unanimous sentiment was manifested against it; but how to defeat it was a problem most difficult of solution. All agreed that it must be done if it can be done, lest our heroes in the field should make the Union victories in the States too decisive; but they frankly admitted that they dare not openly avow their opposition to the soldiers voting.

Reports were made of the progress of secret organizations in a number of counties with the view of quietly throwing a strong Copperhead vote against the right of suffrage to soldiers; and some of the more sanguine expressed the hope that by making no open opposition to the Amendment, and thus disarming the friends of the soldiers, they might defeat soldier suffrage at the polls on Tuesday, the 2d of August.

Another important question considered was the new call for troops.

They did not besitate to declare their firm conviction that the only hope of the Democratic party in the next election is the failure of the Union armies-the defeat and fruitless slaughter of our brave sons and brothers fighting for the preservation of our Constitution! And yet this party claims to be faithful to the Union, to the Constitution and the supremacy of the

He had him There!

Certain Copperheads are electioneering against the Constitutional Amendment for the Soldiers to vote, on the ground that there are negro soldiers, and it would let them vote. This, of course, is ridiculous, as the amendment only gives the right of such soldiers to vote who are voters at home -and, as is well known, the Constitution restricts the right of suffrage to white citi-

TAR CORDIAL

Here you a Cought Here you Sore Throat! Have you any of the premonitory symptoms of that most fatal disease—forementers?

Those who should be warned by these symptoms gen-erally think lightly of them until it is too late. From this fact, perhaps more than any other, arises the sail prevalence and fatality of disease which average to the grave at least one sixth of death's victims.

grave at least one crita of death's victims.

What are its rysoptom?
It usually begins with a short, dry cough, which soon becomes habitual, but for some time nothing is raised except a frieldy means. The breathing is somewhat difficult, and upon slight exercise much harried. A sense of toglithear and oppreasion at the chest is often feit. As the disease advances, the patient becomes thin in flesh, is afflicted with loss of appetitis, great langer, inholecter, and dejection of spirit; may continue in this state for a considerable length of time: and is very readily affected by slight exposure or fatigue. If these occur, the cough becomes more troublesome, and is attended with expectication, which is most copions and free early in the morning. It is sometimes streaked with blood. At this stage, night-sweats usually set in and in some cases a profuse bleeding of the lange may also occur. Pain in some part of the chest is felt, and often a difficulty of lying upon one or the other side without severefits of coughing or a sense of fullness or suffocation. The puise becomes full, hard, and frequent, the heetic flush tinges the cheecks, and the dire maindy is fast hastening to its close.

The pure recomes full, hard, and frequent, the factor flush tings the cheecks, and the dire maindy is fact hestering to its close.

You now ask, Isthere a cure?

Consumption has been and can be cured by the use of my TAR CORDIAL, even in apparently hopeless cases. This assertion I make with the ability to present the most complete evidence of the truth. Space will not admit of my giving the contents of the many thousands of testimonials to its value, which I have been and air receiving from men and women of unquestionable worth and reputation. I have hed a number of these certificates printed in circular form which I will send you free on application. Whether you now determine to try the medicine or not, send for the circular. After wars of study and experiment, I offer this medicine, believing it to be the best remedy for all polessory and boundful discense. If you can not be benefited by the use of the TAR CORDIAL, I believe you are beyond all enrithly aid. Yet if there are better curate agents, I carneally advise their use. The best remedies, the best care, are needed by those afflicted with this disease. Bocause I believe this to be the best, I ask you to try it.

Many, not only of the people, but physicians of every school and practice, are daily asking me, What is the principle or cause of your success in the treatment of Inhonoury Couramyshout? My answer is this:

The integration of the disestive organs—the strength-cause of the challing system—the portfortion and surickment of the chool, must expel from these section of health) properties of the Tar Cordial, its healing and renovating principle is also acting upon the irritated surfaces of the lungs and throat, penetrating cach diseased part, reflexing pain, subtuing inflamation, and restoring a healthful tendency. Having served a regular apprenticeship in at any moment, and the builder will have the benefit of the interest. It may be aseful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold. on the 34 day of March 1864, was $168,964. 000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,937,126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum. It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of the wants of the Treasury for the payment of gold interest, while the recent increase of the tariff will doubless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per as loan events were not issued from the United States Tresaury until March 26, bot tions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS A. Subscriptions will be received by the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF DANVILLE, PERS'A.
