Mr. Train on Little Mac. ROCHAWAY-ON-THE SEA, Sep. 11,'64.

To Maj. Gen. G.B. M Clellan, Orange, N.J. DEAR SIR: It is a mean thing to listen at the keyhole. It is meaner to open Jan ... a private letter. It is the meanest of all to accept hospitality and abuse the host. But these mean things are Christian virtoes compared to the act of accepting the nomination of a party in order to destroy it. A platform is the party's soul. A candidate is the party's body. Separate Mar. the body from the soul, and death ensues. It is as difficult to si. between two stools as to sleep with one eye open. You can not worship God and Mammon. Honesty is not only the best policy, but the only one for an honest man. To cheat in polities is as wicked as to cheat in money.

You know the peace men controlled the Convention. They gave you a platform that was peither fish, flesh, fowl, nor mackerel. Yet you insist upon the mack- June erel. Hence, the Daily News, the Metropolitan Record, Freeman's Journal, and Ohio Crisis fly off from you like hoops from an effervescing barrel. Singleton will follow Wood; Vallandigham will fall in, and in two weeks Pendleton will decline to be shipwrecked with the rest. have to fight such Democratic names as Foot, Parragut, Porter, and Dupont, on the sea, or Grant, Meade, Burnside, Sickles, Hancock, Thomas, and Sherman, on the land, all of whom are against you. The late letters of Sherman and Grant rattle through the Democratic ranks like lightning through a gooseberry bush. It only costs two thousand dollars to get up a M'Clellan meeting. Young Ketchum said so. If the explosion of a limited quantity of gas in Union square killed two women and wounded several the other night, what will be the disaster when your whole party bursts up in November ? Vallandigham was a member of the TOBACCO AND CIGARS, committee which framed the Chicago platform. He was to have been chairman, Which but was persuaded to yield to Guthrie from motives of "policy." But he wrote the platform. The Chicago Journal makes this announcement on the best authority, and says that its outlines were known and opproved by Jeff Davis.

I have known Hooland's German litters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in those publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of these, shifted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these litters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hooland's Enters is intended to benefit the afflicted and is not a rum dreak.
