Mass Meeting.

At Lewisburg, Friday, Oct. 7, 1864.

This meeting is called at the request of many, and we hope every reader will give notice, and make the gathering as large and interesting as possible. Should the weather prove favorable, the stand will be prepared in a grove at Linville, between the Borough and the Fair Ground. The following Speakers we learn are secured: Hon. Henry Johnson, of Muncy. Hon. John C. Kunkle, of Harrisburg. Hon. P. Frazer Smith, West Chester. R. B. Carpenter, Kentucky. Col. G. F. Smith.

Further particulars in handbills.

THE PROSPECT. We dislike as much to excite false hopes, as to allow a fatal, unreasonable security, among our friends. But we do say, that all signs point to an overwhelming triumph of the Union party in Pennsylvania--PROVIDED they are reasonably diligent, and POLL THE FULL VOTE. The adhesion to Lincoln of Fremont, Cochrane, Chase, B. F. Wade, H. Winter Davis, and all other "soreheads," was the result of the Chicago Platform. Edward Everett, among the Bell men--L. Cass, Tod, and Cassina among the Douglas men--and Dickinson and Butler of the Breckinridge men--are of the 250,000 voters who opposed Lincoln in 1860, but who support him in '64. We know of no prominent advocate of the President's election, who now opposes him. The victories of Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and Farragut are potential in stiffening up the Union, and depressing the Armistice-Peace-Disunion spirit. We therefore, with proper labor and vigilance, will gain several Congressmen, Senators, Assemblymen and County Officers in Oct.

FALSE TICKETS. We thus early warn our friends to beware of SPURIOUS TICKETS. In time past, men in our county have voted for candidates they did not desire to elect, because they took tickets from traitors in our ranks, who had the names of opposition candidates mixed in with ours, and palmed them off as our regular ticket. Now if a man wants to divide his choice, he has a right to do so, but let him do it openly, and let none be deceived in the case. Therefore we say to all--in Kelly, Buffalo, and every other election district--read your Ticket before you put it in the box! There are SEVEN officers to be filled, and NINE men to be voted for. See that your tickets correspond with the following:

For Congress
George F. Miller
For Senator
Charles H. Shriner
For Assembly
Samuel H. Orwig
Samuel Alleman
G. B. Manley
For Sheriff
Thomas Church
For Commissioner
Michael Kleckner
For Auditor
James Aiken
For Coroner
Benjamin Haus

Vote the above--all--and no Other!
Monday night's news confirm the intelligence of Grant's progress and place him still nearer Richmond. Gold 191.

SEE HERE! Which Cheats?

The following we find in the Lycoming Gazette, of Williamsport, Penn'a, issued 25th Sept., A. D. 1864:

"With Gen. McClellan as President, and a Congress composed of such men as Theodore Wright, the War will be conducted with more vigor, better judgment, at vastly less cost, and to a speedy restoration of the Union. Every man who has the welfare of the nation at heart should vote for McClellan for President and Wright for Congress."

Really, "we can't see it thus."

In 1812, the Blue Light Federalists and Tory Peace Men used just such arguments as the above to delude the people into voting for Gen. DeWitt Clinton for President. The hypocrites were utterly opposed to the War, but they pretended to favor its "vigorous prosecution" in order to gain the offices! DeWitt Clinton was indeed a giant, compared with the pigmy McClellan. But the people knew that JAMES MADISON--abused as much as Mr. LINCOLN is to-day--was firm and true, and so (in the darkest days of "Jim Madison's War") they triumphantly re-elected him, for they desired to run no risks by a "change of base" at such a time.

But take up other McClellan papers, and you will see they ask you to vote for McClellan to STOP THE WAR--to close it up--give it no more men, have no more taxes for it, &c.

Now, who of these try most to cheat the people? They urge directly opposing motives for the same end! It is a new edition of the "Polk and Tariff of '42" fraud.

And who is this pious "Theodore Wright," who, with McClellan, when elected, is to whip the Rebels and restore the Union so quickly? Who is he that will "drive on the work of blood, carnage, slaughter, taxation," &c. (see the Copperhead papers and hear their orators) so swiftly? When he runs the Gazette, it was as drowsy and wheezy as now--but he got tired of that, went to the Venango country and "struck it." He turns up rich, and was as much astonished as anybody else was, to learn (as he did while in Kentucky) that he was a Copperhead War candidate for Congress on the "awful slow" McClellan Peace platform! Nobody fears his election--but a rich man for a candidate comes mighty handy for poor printers, who Theodore we hope will lubricate liberally for their wonderful puff.

The Argus' boast of 2,000 majority for the Copperheads' nominees for Senate, is about as silly as its anonymous and irresponsible brag about the brave Army aiding Vandalism's choice for President! The following shows how Soldiers have voted:

	Barre Town.	Democratic
Pennsylvania--Oct. 1861	11,201	3,173
Tennessee--June, 1862	10,000	2,500
West--Oct. 1862	14,474	4,118
Wisconsin--Nov. 1862	6,219	2,090
Total	42,944	11,781
Rep. Union majority	31,156
About a Rep. Union to 1 Dem.
Ag--They would have voted in the same proportion in every other State, and would thus have elected the Government for whom their lives are at stake.
Missouri	2,108	12
Colorado Terr.	807	12
California (3 camps)	299	14
Total	3,214	38
(about 3 Union men to 1 Dem.)
OHIO--Oct. 1863--Brough, Union man	42,215
Valdingham	2,504
Major, against the Copperhead	29,724

They'll vote just that way again--especially in Penn'a, where McClellan's friend Woodward disfranchised the Soldiers, and where over 100,000 "Democrats" voted to continue the Soldier on the level of the Negro, denying him the right to vote!

Good Reason Why!

When the Rebels at Petersburg heard of McClellan's nomination, they gave three loud cheers which were heard along the Union line. Inquiry was made for the cause. The reply was a staggering blow to the McClellanites, thousands of whom have renounced him and his Platform, for the reason that they favor the Rebels. So says an officer from Union county. Another says the mass of the men are more hearty than ever for quelling their foe, and think it would be an overbearing disgrace and shame to give up all just when victory seems sure. They therefore are for Lincoln, almost unanimously.

NEGROES IN RICHMOND. The Richmond Examiner complains that the negroes are the most luxurious class in that city, dressing better than the whites and monopolizing the delicacies in the market. Strangers are struck with the leanness of white men, and the fatness of the black men in Richmond, and the Examiner says the negroes get their money by stealing and burglary, and are rich enough to bribe the police and judges.

So it seems the Rebels have become so weak that the negroes are not only free, but lawless. Union Republican rule puts ALL human beings under both restraint and protection, of just and equal laws.

Watches, fine Jewelry, solid Silver Ware, &c., of superior quality, are again advertised in our paper by Henry Harper, of 520, Arch St., Philad. Reader, give him a call.

Also up at public sale--Pardoe's good dwelling and wagon making establishment in Lewisburg--a fine chance for business.

MASS MEETING in Williamsport and in Bellefonte, Thursday, Oct. 6.

Two big Stories, Ventilated.

We are informed a report is circulated that Mr. Orwig voted himself $300 compensation for ten days' service at the extra session of the Legislature, or $30 per day. This is wholly a falsehood.

1. Mr. Orwig did not vote a dollar of compensation, either to himself or to any one else. Although, generally, most punctual as a Member, yet, the day the bill passed, it was generally supposed there would be no quorum in the House, and, having pressing business at home, he was not in Harrisburg to vote at all. He had previously expressed himself strongly against the sum. When it was accorded to him, he put it into the military bounty fund. On every vote recorded last winter, as far as we know, his is for economy and against raising salaries. Every Copperhead in each House, joined by a few Philadelphians (who generally believe in high living and large compensations) of our party, voted uniformly to favor measures to increase State expenses, while the Republican country members as invariably voted solid against them. The record shows this.

2. For years past, the compensation of Legislators has been $700 for one hundred days' services. The Cops, by hindering business in the Senate, increased this year's first session twenty-one days--but, at that session, only the usual $700 was voted to the special session, which lasted seventeen days. For those thirty-eight (not ten) days, the sum of $300 was appropriated--being $8.03 per day. Those who voted for this, claimed that "the universally advanced rates of food, clothing, and boarding, justified this advance of $1 per day. That farmers who sell butter for 40 to 50 cents, merchants who sell sugar at 35, and masons at 50 cents, have raised their rates far higher than the Legislators have. Any one who has not doubted or trebled his charges for produce, goods, or labor, may complain of an increase from $7.00 to $8.03, but none others."

These are the facts, we believe, and the reasons alleged. When the war is over, and our debts ascertained, the universal tendency to extravagance and high rates must and will receive deserved attention. Until then, we despair of reform.

Wilmington to be Shut Up.

The harbor of Wilmington, in North Carolina, is so wide and open that it requires a very large fleet to guard it. During the Rebellion, it has afforded greater chances for smuggling in valuable supplies, than all the other ports on the long line of coast to be closed. Mobile being now shut up, Charleston and Wilmington are the only considerable ports where blockading is a reasonable risk.

We see it announced the harbor of Wilmington is now to be closed effectually. Leaving Mobile in other hands, the energetic FARRAGUT takes command of an immense fleet to catch every boat or ship coming in or out of Wilmington, and ultimately to restore it to the Union arms. By threatening Mobile, they cut off all blockaders, and also keep there a garrison which might otherwise reinforce Hood or Lee.

We hope this may prove true and a successful programme.

How to Help the Soldiers.

An officer in Sheridan's army writes home to his friends: "Fight against the Copperheads--crush them--and by so doing you will greatly encourage the army and make us perfectly sure of success, and that a speedy one." He is not the only one who has that feeling. Said Gen. Hooker, in his speech before a Union meeting in Brooklyn, last week, "Your victories are as dear to us in the front, as the victories at the front are dear to you. The victories of last fall were hailed with as much joy and as much enthusiasm in the army as though they had been achieved by other armies."

Beware of "Last Cards."--Some Election, in the feverish state of the public mind, Stockjobbers and Copperheads will start all sorts of stories to raise or to depress the patriotic, honest people. One will report too great success, and the other will represent too great loss. The tide does not always set one way, and our people may expect some reverses mixed with general success, for such is all warfare.--We shall try to give only that we suppose to be reliable.

Last authentic news show that, having used up Early's force, GRANT is making another point on Richmond. He advances slow but sure, as he did at Fort Donaldson, and at Vicksburg. He does not brag, as McClellan did, but drives--gets--and keeps.

Jeff. Davis is in Georgia, and may never get back to Richmond again.

A preacher addressed the Lewisburg Copperhead Club, last Saturday evening. The Apostolical ratio still holds good--about one out of twelve on that side--but the Argus will not denounce and traduce him as a "political preacher!"

Mr. Randolph will offer the unsold portion of his household goods, at Donahoe's auction room, Saturday the 8th inst., at 3 P. M.

A true Soldier Opposed to McClellan.

Maj. Gen. McCall, a steady Democrat of many years' standing, (Democratic candidate for Congress in the Chester district, in 1862,) is now opposed to the election of George B. McClellan to the Presidency. It will be remembered that Gen. McCall organized the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, a body of men whose reputation gave honor and credit to the Keystone State on both shores of the Atlantic. This veteran now takes ground against the nominee of the Chicago Convention, for reasons of McClellan's personal antipathies, and his utter perfidy in accepting a nomination at the hands of men, who ignore the justice of the struggle to crush treason, and treat the valor of our brave defenders as a mere exhibition of the brute force of ruthless invaders. These are arguments sufficient to turn every soldier in disgust from McClellan.

Strong Language.

A correspondent of one of the leading religious papers in the land (the Advocate and Journal) "speaks out in meeting" as follows:

"The Chicago Platform is of the Devil; it is a spawn of hell itself. It would, if sustained at the polls, be the ruin of all moral and noble aims of our national struggle. It is saturated with iniquity, from the first to the last sentence. What, then, ought we to do with it in our denominational press? I believe the Methodist press, can, alone, defeat it, if vigorously plied against it. In God's name, then, lead the way, and summon all our papers to follow. Some Methodist politicians will denounce you, but regard them not; a thousand will approve where one dissects. Treason is a crime which the Church must oppose; do you hold that the Chicago Platform is treason, and, therefore, from the stand-point of the Church, fire incessant blasts against it down to the November election. Depend upon it, the pivotal fact of the destiny of all this new world is the November election. You are providentially in a mighty relative position to it. I look with inexpressible interest to see how you will conduct yourself there. Acquit yourself like a man--a man of courage and of God."

STATE GUARD. Gov. Curtin has issued an order for the organization of the Pennsylvania State Guard. Five regiments of infantry, two squadrons of cavalry and four batteries of field artillery will be recruited and organized without delay, to be composed of veteran soldiers and able bodied persons between 18 and 50, giving preference to those who are not subject to draft under the laws of the United States. They will be officered by men elected by the recruits who have been in service and honorably discharged. The term of service will be used only for the defense of the State. If the number is not raised by volunteering in thirty days, a draft will be made to supply the deficiency.

The above is the law as voted for by Mr. Orwig. The attempt of an anonymous assailant to misrepresent him in the Tory Organ, is harmless--not worth the room it would take to expose it.

We hear that Buffalo, Chillisquaque, and other townships and boroughs are making up their quotas independent of the draft. Grant and Sherman say now is the time to secure their advantages.

Over four hundred Union county soldiers are assessed. As many as can get home from the hospitals, will have a 40 days' furlough, so as to vote at home in Oct. and in Nov. Right!

Two Sides.

The West Branch Democrat says that Charles H. Shriner, the Union candidate for the State Senate in this district, "is holding office under Abraham Lincoln at the present time." This is false. Mr. Shriner resigned his office as soon as he received the nomination for Senator. But how is it with John Walls, the copperhead candidate? Has he resigned the petty office of Associate Judge of Union county? We are informed that he has not, and will not unless he is elected Senator.

Besides this, if it is so disreputable to hold one office, under Abraham Lincoln, while running for another, why is it that your own "Little Mac" holds on to his commission of Major General under Abraham Lincoln? Particularly as he talks about an economical administration of the Government, had't he better practice what he preaches, by resigning a position which he has not filled for two years, but for which he has received $5000 per annum?

Mr. Democrat, we would suggest to you in this connection that it may be of advantage to you in the future to remember the old adage, that "those who live in glass houses should not throw stones."

Mary Luminary. A letter from a soldier in 8th Maine, addressed from Bermuda Hundred, says: "Although but a handful of us are left, we are determined to stand or fall with the Government. I never saw the soldiers in better spirits than now. Mr. Lincoln grows in popularity with the army daily. He would get two votes in this command now, to one thirty days ago."

An army correspondent of the Tribune writes: "It is in proof, documentary and oral, in Washington city, that Sidiell in France, and Mason in England, are now selling to French and English adventurers, who will join the Confederate cause, the widows and plantations of deceased Southern soldiers."

Hon. Sam'l Calvin, Hollidaysburg, speaks in Lewisburg, Monday eve., Oct. 3.

Thad. Stevens' Views.

The oldest man in Congress, the Representative from Lancaster, who is unanimously nominated for a third term. He is among others falsely reported as "opposed to Lincoln." Here is what he said when he consented to become again a candidate:

"Elect McClellan, and the Republic has ceased to exist. On its ruins, will spring up numerous petty empires, whose future condition will be one of perpetual wars, and of grinding slavery. Re-elect the calm statesman who now presides over the nation, and he will lead you to an honorable peace and to permanent liberty."

"If this goal is to be reached through suffering and blood, remember that before the Lord permitted his chosen people to enter the promised land, he compelled them, for their sins, to pass through the Red sea, and wander forty years in the wilderness. When we shall have expelled our great National sin, and purified the public heart, we also shall enter into the land, which, politically and materially, flows with milk and honey."

"When that day will arrive, it is not for me to predict. It is in the keeping of an All-wise Power."

"At the last session of Congress, a proposition to amend the Constitution so as to abolish Slavery, was acted on. It failed because the majority required by the Constitution could not be had. Every Republican voted in favor of that measure; every vote against it came from the Peace McClellan Copperheads. They are responsible for the continued misery and bloodshed which this nation shall endure. Every dollar of debt which must be laid upon the people, every life which shall be lost in battle, must rest heavy on the souls of that cruel minority that prevented the breaking of the chains of Slavery. I regret that Mr. Pendleton was one of that number. They are guilty of the crime, but all must share in the punishment."

"They who advise negotiations for peace on the basis of the re-enslavement of a people, offend all good beings among men and angels."

GREAT TRUTHS!

Before Georgia seceded, Hon. A. H. STEPHENS said, in her Convention, "What right has the North to secede? What justice has been done? And what claim, founded in justice and right, has been withheld? Can either of you to-day name one single act of wrong, deliberately and purposely done by the Government at Washington, of which the South has a right to complain?" I challenge the answer.

From Hon. S. A. DOUGLAS' last speech at Chicago, April 11, 1861:

"The conspiracy is now known. Armies have been raised, War is being to accomplish it. There are only two sides to the question. Every man must be for the United States, or against it. There can be no neutrals in this war--only patriots or traitors."

JEFF. DAVIS' last words to the Union Peace men, Jacques and Gilmore, '64: "We are not fighting for Slavery. We are fighting for Independence, and that, or extermination, we will have."

"We are to read ourselves of the rule of the majority."

"Say to Mr. Lincoln from me, that I shall at any time be pleased to receive proposals for peace on the basis of our Independence. It will be useless to approach me with any other."

Show the above to all Peace men.

Latest News

Thursday, Sept. 29--Gen. Sheridan was at Harrisburg, near Staunton. He had inflicted great injury on the Rebel railways and supplies, as far as Waynesboro' on the R. E. Part of Early's force had escaped towards Charlottesville, but many fled to the mountains, broken as an army and utterly discouraged.

The Rebel forces in Missouri and Tennessee are harassing the people, but without any particular military effect.

Sept. 29--Gen. Sherman from Atlanta announces an exchange of 2,000 prisoners with Hood. More than half the people of Atlanta prefer to go North.

Another Move of Grant.

He is within 4 or 5 miles of Richmond.

Early Thursday morning last, parts of the 10th and 18th Corps, having crossed James river during the night previous, advanced towards Richmond. At Chapin's Bluff or Farm, they came upon heavy works, extending for miles, which they assaulted and carried. They captured 16 guns and 500 prisoners. We 18th Gen. Burnham killed, and several other officers wounded--the enemy's loss unknown, but must be great. The colored troops engaged behaved admirably; they fought as well, and suffered as much, as the whites.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 30.

The latest reports from the front, of that part of our army on the north side of the James river, represents everything as highly encouraging. Our forces were within four or five miles of Richmond this morning, having driven the enemy before them in confusion.

The works taken were the strongest which have so far been seen around Richmond, and the same which McClellan tried in vain to take.

Some deserters came in to-day, who say the defeat of Early in the Valley has caused a great depression throughout their ranks, and thousands were ready to desert on the first opportunity, having lost all faith in final success.

Uncle Sam's Camp Meeting up Fishing creek, has been quite successful. All the Rebels have been captured or skiddled to parts unknown, and a larger number of volunteers than ever before in that region has entered the army. It was a timely show of law that prevented many ignorant, misguided men from taking fatal steps.

UNION COUNTY FAIR, Thursday to Saturday of this week.
