Epitaph on King George, Gen. Woodward, Gen M'Clellan, and Gen. Pendleton.

"George the First was reckoned vile,
Viler George the Second,
And what mortal ever heard
Any good of George the Third?
When from earth the Fourth ascended,
God be praised the Georges ended."

LINCOLN AND JOHNSON.

Their Struggles and their Triumphs.

Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson are both natives of slave States. They were born in the class of poor whites which slavery creates and preserves for its own convenience. Lincoln obtained most of his scanty schooling not only after his removal into a free State, but after he had reached the full stature of manhood, and was enabled to earn and plan for himself; while Johnson never had any schooling at all, and learned to read from his wife after his removal from his native State, North Carolina, into almost free East Tennessee. Neither of the men could ever have been chosen even to the Legislature in an essentially slaveholding community, no matter how thorough their subserviency to "the institution." They surmounted the influence of slavery by taking position outside of its more palpable domain.

To maintain that such men lack ability or force of character, is to hold that republics are ruled by idiots. Lincoln entered Illinois a portionless, illiterate boy, earning livelihood by the rudest and hardest manual labor, and, within twenty years thereafter, had become one of her foremost lawyers and the acknowledged leader of the more intellectual of her two great political parties—conspicuous in her Legislature, her only Whig member of Congress, candidate for Senatorial Elector, U. S. Senator, Vice President, and ultimately for President. All these positions were accorded to him without contest or hesitation.....Johnson entered Tennessee an illiterate tailor youth, poor in all but hope and ambition, without a relative or friend who could help him to a corporalship in the smallest company of "flood wood" militia. A few years later, he was a member of Assembly; next we hear from him in Congress; then Governor of his closely balanced State after a spirited canvass; for Tennessee was then preponderantly a Whig State, and her Whigs always ran for Governor one of their ablest and cleverest debaters. Johnson had always been a very ardent and active Democrat, and had made himself widely obnoxious to his political adversaries. His birth and breeding were matters of common notoriety, and the cultivated aristocracy of Nashville and the surrounding region were not at all inclined to be ruled by the ex-journeyman tailor of Jonesborough. They could not help themselves, however; and Johnson, after serving his term as Governor, was chosen to the United States Senate, where he made good his position against the ablest and proudest in the land. He had his full share of the rugged discipline of poverty and privation, and was thoroughly trained in the keen encounters of an active, arduous public career. Doubtless, he feels and regrets the deficiencies of his early culture; but who will say that he has not nobly supplied them?

Mr. Johnson, as a leading Democrat, and a supporter of Breckenridge for the Presidency, saw the slaveholders' rebellion take form and body. He knows it, "egg and bird"—its impulses, ideas and aspirations. Nearly every other prominent Democrat of his State and section was drawn or driven into its toils; he never countenanced it for a moment, nor regarded it with the least allowance. He knew it to be as hostile to the class from which he sprung in the South, as to the "mudsills" at the North, and he "stood by his order" like any British Peer. He exposed the hollowness of its pretexts, the wickedness of its aims, in the presence of its contrivers, before they had imbrued their hands in blood. He warned the simple against their machinations, and warned them of their inevitable failure and ruin. Had other Southern Unionists been as faithful and fearless as he, the madness of secession would have been stayed at the northern limit of the cotton region, and our country would not now be reeking with human blood.

It is a common pro-slavery cavil that "you Abolitionists talk of what you do not understand." This can not be said of Lincoln and Johnson, who were born in slave States, and have been familiar with slavery since they first opened their eyes. Mr. Lincoln was never an Abolitionist till slavery declared war on the Union; yet he says he never regarded slavery in itself otherwise than as he now does. "If slavery is not wrong, then nothing is wrong," says he in his letter to Hodges. Mr. Johnson was a tacit supporter of slavery, until slavery struck at the life of his country; but he now holds, with Lincoln, that union and peace are only possible through the final, complete overthrow of their assailant.

Are these men, fanatics? If there were an easier or shorter way to peace, would they not choose it? What possible motive can they have for preferring the wrong way to the right one? Consider, and judge!

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.—"Another Democratic meeting broken up!"

"Where at?"

"A large crowd of Democrats scattered by Union soldiers!"

"Where, where!"

"Union officers participated in this Old Abe's unconstitutional outrage."

"Good! good—we can make votes out of that! Where did it all happen?"

"In the Shenandoah Valley."

"Git out!"

READ WHO SAY SO.

From the Pastor of the Baptist church, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North church, Philad'a.

. . . I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those, afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted and is not a rum drink.
Yours truly, LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. Dr. Brown, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt in six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
J. NEWTON BROWN, Philadelphia.

From the Pastor of the Germantown Baptist church.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of a severe cold and general debility, I have been greatly benefited by the use of the bitters, and doubt not that they will produce similar effects on others.
Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH.

From the Pastor of Hedding M. E. church, Philada.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system, it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge. Yours respectfully, J. H. TURNER.

From the former Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Milestown (Pa.) Baptist churches.

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since, being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to its great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it is a tonic that can not be surpassed. JOHN M. LYONS.

From Rev. Dr. Winter, Pastor of Roxborough Baptist church.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised, by a friend, to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief. my health has been materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects. Respectfully yours,
THOMAS WINTER.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed church, Kutztown, Berks county.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.
Respectfully yours, J. S. HERMAN.

Solidified

DENTAL CREAM,

for Cleansing, Whitening and Preserving the TEETH!

THIS article is prepared with the greatest care upon scientific principles and warranted not to contain anything in the slightest degree deleterious to the teeth or gums. Some of our most eminent Dental Surgeons have given their sanction to and cheerfully recommended it as a preparation of superior qualities for cleansing, whitening and preserving the TEETH. It cleans readily, rendering them beautifully white and pearly without the slightest injury to the ENAMEL. It is healing to the gums where they are ulcerated and sore, and is an excellent disinfector for old or decayed teeth, which are often exceedingly offensive. It gives a rich and creamy taste to the mouth, cleansing it thoroughly, and imparting a delightful fragrance to the breath.

Prepared only by
A. HAWLEY,
N. W. corner 10th and Lombard Sts, Philadelphia, and sold by all Druggists.

PRICE 38 CENTS.

Testimonials.—The following opinion of Dr. White as to the high esteem in which he holds the Dental Cream, must be sufficient evidence of its value. To quote others in detail is needless, contenting ourselves by simply giving the names and addresses of persons who speak of its excellence for the teeth.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15, 1863.

Having carefully examined A. HAWLEY'S SOLIDIFIED DENTAL CREAM, I cheerfully recommend it to the public generally. It is an excellent preparation for cleansing and preserving the teeth, and can be used by all persons with the utmost confidence, as its properties are perfectly harmless. Besides preserving the teeth, it promotes a healthy action to the gums, and imparts a pleasantness to the breath.
