for the Union candidates for Congress in Pennsylvania--including Soldiers' votes.

Shriener gains 267 on Soldiers' votes-- Orwig gains a few more. Result uncertain Trying to Cheat the Soldiers.

The party which sought to degrade the soldier to the level of the colored man by depriving him of a vote, are now trying, in Satanic impudence, to cheat him in return. Many of our brave men and boys do not know, or have forgotten, the names of the Union or Lincoln candidates for Electors--and already Copperheads have sent them Mc Clellan tickets head "Union Electoral Tickets." By voting these, they hope to defraud the honest, unsuspecting soldier out of his choice for President!
Are not such men, worse than the Rebels?

Now we ask every reader (in and out of the army) to remember that there are TWENTY-SIX ELECTORS to be voted for-- and to compare every Ticket voted with the following:

ELECTORS.

Morton McMichael,
Thomas Cunningham,
Robert P. King,
G. Morrison Coates,
Henry Bamm,
William H. Kern,
Barton H. Jenks,
Charles M. Rank,
Robert Parke,
William Taylor,
John A. Hiestand,
Richard H. Coryell,
Edward Haliday,
Charles F. Read,
Elias W. Hale,
Charles H. Shriner,
John Wister,
David M'Conaughey,
David W. Woods,
Isaac Benson,
John Patton,
Samuel B. Dick,
Everard Bierer,
John P. Penney,
Ebenezer M. Blunkin,
John W. Blanchard.

Don't let any brave fellow who is fighting to save his country from Jeff. Davis & Co. be fooled into voting for Davis' preference for President and Vice!

FREE MARYLAND!

"My Maryland" has, by the legal vote of her people, adopted the New Constitution, which abolishes Slavery, and puts that large and naturally fertile and advantageously located State on the high road to prosperity. Several thousands of Rebels voted (contrary to the rules of the State), but the New Constitution is happily carried, above their vote, by the aid of the Soldiers. Hon. Thomas Swann, an uncompromising Unionist from the start, is nominated for Governor.

God bless our Gallant Soldiers!

By their bayonets in front, they are saving the Union from bands of perfidious Rebels--and by their ballots in the rear, they are winning peaceful victories as noble as those of War!

Fai ure in Soldiers' Votes

Thus far, of the 1800 assessed soldiers in this Senatorial district, only a quarter has been heard from. There has been great fault, or misfortune, somewhere.
Some are prisoners or in hospitals, or on detached service, and could not vote.
But surely many more could and should vote. Some had no tickets, and had to write them, or did not vote. One from Brady voted only for Congress, and then voted for Barker (of Cambria) instead of G. F. Miller. Some voted for Simpson.
Some had part only of our ticket. A large number of proxies came after the election!

There being but one uniform Union ticket for Presidential Electors in every State, we may hope for larger and more correct returns in Nov. Proxies can not be sent too soon--for they must be in the ballot box, election day. Let every one knowing a Union man in the army, be sure he is assessed, and has the ticket.
And we ask our men in arms to poll every legal vote possible, for all may be needed, and at all events, the more the better the effect. See that your proxies authorize the person to whom you send to vote for him, or he can not do it. Past yourselves up in the manner, and gain the double honor of saving your country by your arms and by your votes.

See that the Assessments are made before Saturday, 29th Oct.

Desperation of the Rebels.

A Richmond paper says, their whites being nearly exhausted, they will next arm their slaves.

The Confederate Congress, in December last, passed an act, the first section of which is in these words: "The Congress of the Confederate States do enact that all white residents of the Confederate States between the ages of seventeen and fifty are in the service of the Confederate States." The act then provides how farmers, mechanics and others may be detailed by military authority to raise the provisions and do the work for the army in the field.

Jeff Davis in his Georgia speech, says:
"We must do our duty, and that duty is this: Every man able to bear arms must go to the front, and all others must devote themselves to the cause at home. There must be no pleading for exemption. We are fighting for existence."

In the same speech, Davis said two-thirds of their army were absent--that is, they are Union men at heart, and contrive to keep out of service, or they are actively disheartened.

Truly did Gen. Grant say of the Rebels, "They have robbed alike the cradle and the grave," to keep up the hope of success by means of a divided North.

Sherman, Sheridan, and Grant are each too strong to be driven out of the three strongholds of Rebellion, and Williamson and Charleston are the only ports where their ships can steal in and out!

It is while they are thus on their last legs as a nation, that Mc Clellan comes in to give them an "armistice," and "exhaust the resources of diplomacy" to give them a chance to recover! An armistice would be claimed as an acknowledgment of their independence--they would be naturally recognized by foreign powers-- and, Disunion accomplished, further separations would follow, until our States would become ruined like unhappy Mexico--far worse than we were under the old Articles of Confederation, from which we escaped "to form a more perfect Union."

Stand by the Government! It is our only hope for safety.

Hear the Great Soldier!

Gen. ROSECRANS, who probably understands the present condition of affairs as well as any man in the army, says:

"Whenever the Rebels have the power, they drive before them into their ranks the Southern people, as they would also drive us. Trust them not. Were they able, they would invade and destroy us without mercy. Absolutely assured of these things, I am amazed that any one could think of Peace on any terms. He who entertains the sentiment is fit only to be a slave: he who settles it at this time is, moreover, a traitor to his country, who deserves the scorn and contempt of all honorable men."

Those who gabble about a compromise, will do well to peruse these lines with care and attention. They contain the assertions of a hero who has been at the front since the war began, and has perilled everything in behalf of his country.

Among all people it is a proverb "never strike a man when he is down." The Administration have elected a majority of their candidates in Union and Symdor, but we see the organs of the Opposition--hoping they have carried a few, not on the merits of their party, but by the absence of soldiers, and the personal popularity of one man--are indulging in unmanly and insulting abuse of those they suppose may be in the minority. This is not fair play, nor doing "as they would be done by."

DEBT--DEBT! Taxes--TAXES!

See the article on last page, and learn what kind of Debt and Taxes would be ours under Mc Clellan! Pause and think A Poise Convention is in session in Cincinnati, with closed doors.

Tested by the Facts.

An army correspondent of Lewisburg Argus recently asserted that Co. "H" of 51st P. V. stood for

"Mc Clellan, 18--Lincoln, 8."

Again it was stated in that paper that the Comp had "only 2 for Lincoln," and "the Company and Regiment will give a majority of 3 to 1 for Mac." Such was the opinion expressed before the election.

Since that trial of strength, the figures speak for themselves. Co's E. G. "H." and K, gave, from Union and Lyeomg voters, for Shriner, 30--Walls, 14. Walls received more than the average of his party --but, as he has only 11 votes in the four companies, it is improbable that Mc Clellan has 18 in only one company! And Dr.
Christ, with the returns before him, says the whole 51st Reg. give 24 votes to Lincoln candidates, to 1 for the Mc Clellanites --and that on a direct vote, unentangled with personal and local divisions, Old Abe will run still better!

The truth is, not one Regiment, giving a majority for Mc Clellan, has yet been heard from--perhaps, not a company-- and the individuals in the army thus inclined are but about 1 out of 8. True soldiers will mostly vote the same way as they fight--the late Elections show that, and the Nov. returns will confirm it.

RETREAT OF HOOD FROM DALTON.

SHERIDAN ACHIEVES ANOTHER SUCCESS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.

Advices from Gen. Sherman to the effect of October 16th indicate that Hood, after having struck the railroad in the neighborhood of Dalton and Resaca, has fallen back before Sherman without fighting, abandoning his great movement upon our line of communications. He has torn up some fifteen miles of the road from Resaca north, but the injury will be repaired without difficulty. The interruption will cause no inconvenience to Sherman's army, as his stores of supplies south of the break, as well as north of it, are ample. Hood has retreated towards the south west. His rear left Dalton in haste at 6 o'clock on Sunday morning.

Gen. Sheridan reports that the Rebel army, lately under Early, but now apparently under Longstreet, having appeared in the vicinity of Strasburg, his force moved to attack them on Saturday. Gen.
Crook, who had the advance, found the Rebels drawn up in four lines of battle, but, upon charging them with his accentuated impetuosity, they broke, and withdrawing in considerable disorder, without giving the opportunity for any serious conflict. Sheridan reports them as continuing their retreat far up the valley.

Col. Gansevoort, 13th New York Cavalry, has succeeded in surprising a camp of the outlaw and freebooter, Mosby, in the Blue Ridge Mountains, capturing his artillery, consisting of four pieces, with munitions complete.

C. A. DANA, Act'g Sec'y of War.

THE REBELS ACTIVELY AT WORK FOR M'CLELLAN.

We have on several occasions shown that the candidate of the Copperhead party for the Presidency has the sympathy of the most active spirits of the rebellion, and that they are making great calculations on his election. It is known that after the meeting of the Chicago Convention, when the news of the little hero's nomination reached the Rebel army at Richmond, it was received with vociferous cheering; and we have to add, to-day, an evidence of the fact that Rebel officers are actively active at work for him. A returned soldier at Norristown makes the following statement, under oath:

Montgomery County, ss.

Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for said county, Franklin Schwenk, of Upper Providence township, Montgomery county, and State of Pennsylvania, a private of Company H, 12th Regiment Pennsylvania Cavalry, who, on his solemn oath, deposes and says, that, on the night of 4th of March, 1864, he was taken prisoner near Bristol Station, Virginia, and conveyed to Belle Isle Prison, and from thence to General Hospital No. 21, in Richmond; that on the 1st day of August, 1864, the Director of said hospital visited on him and proposed to parole him and to permit him to return home if he would promise to vote for George B. M' Clellan at the approaching election; that he, the said Franklin Schwenk, in order to escape from starvation and Rebel atrocity, did make said promise, and therefore was paroled. The said Franklin Schwenk further says, under his solemn oath, that all prisoners of said hospital who frankly and positively said they would vote for Abraham Lincoln were not paroled, but retained in Lincoln's prison.

There is almost every description of property advertised in the two columns of Real Estate in to-day's STAR & CHRON-ICLE. Town and country, woodland and meadow, valley and mountain, hotels and private property, and even medicinal springs (perhaps where oil may yet be found!) make up the assortment. There seems to be much changing of this sort of property.

From the Ninth A. C.

Headquarters 24 Div. 9th A. C. near Southside R.R., Va., Oct. 12.

Thanks to the Union loving and law abiding people of Penna! yesterday we held an impartial and honest election. In the 9th A. C. the Penna vote stood-- 45th Reg. 106 Rep. 11 Dem.

48th 281 14 35
50th 13 10 1
100th 14 10 1
51st 24 10 1

We will do better for Old Abe in Nov.

A few days since, we advanced our line to the crest of a hill, where we are erecting forts and breastworks. I doubt not but we will make another flank movement and enlarge our lines towards and beyond the Southside Railroad. Four deserters came in to-day: they tell most doleful stories, and their appearance shows what they say is true. Certainly the rebellion is fast dying out, and if you Northerners do your duty for the President at the next election, the fighting will soon be over-- then we will have a permanent and honorable peace.

The Buckeye Blacksmith and Wm.
B. Hawes, Esq., of Wisconsin, have addressed our Union League at Lewisburg, this week, and Messrs. C. Merrill and VanGuzer spoke at Winfield. Geo. F. berland county. Other meetings, it will be seen, are appointed. Turn out!

Sheridan's Last and Best!

LONGSTREET DEFEATED, WITH GREAT LOSS.

The Rebels have been boasting that Longstreet had been sent from Richmond, with fresh troops, to "smash up" Sheridan in the Shenandoah Valley. And, sure enough--on Wednesday last, 19th Oct., (while Sheridan was on his return from Washington)--an impetuous dash was made upon the Union forces at Cedar Creek, near Strasburg. At first, the Union line gave way, with some loss--but Gen. Sheridan listened to the front from Winchester, reformed our lines, attacked and drove the Rebels beyond Strasburg, and they were only saved from complete capture by darkness. We lost Gen. Bidwell, killed. The Rebel Gen. Ramseur is in our hands, with 43 guns, 2,000 prisoners, 100 wagons, and other trophies of a hard-won but splendid triumph.

The Valley having been deprived of means of sustaining an army, by Sheridan's forces, this is probably the last day in that quarter, and Sheridan will take a nearer point to Richmond.

P. S.--Sheridan gained another great victory yesterday, taking 1600 prisoners.

Gen. David B. Birney, commander of the 10th A. C., died recently in Philad., from disease contracted while in the service. He was born in Alabama, (being a son of Hon. James G. Birney,) and after an honorable career died when only 39 years of age.

The Rebels from Canada surprised and robbed the banks on the North line of the State of Vermont, killing one man, and wounding others. Nine of the robbers have been taken in Canada.
