No, not so "easy," Little Mae! For I was there to see-You doubtless had an easy time, But it was hard on me. I shall remember, Little Mac, E'en to my dying day, How in Virginia's deadly swamps Week after week we lay. Your stars shone brightly, Little Mac, Your gloves were white as snow!

But we, poor soldiers, in the mire Were floundering to and fro. The Robs laughed at us, Little Mac,

(Who could their mirth condemn?) We toiled with muskrats in the mud, The negroes toiled for them ! Twas clever in you, Little Mac,

To set no negro free;
²Twas kindness to your Southern friends, But rather hard on me.

Twas manly in you, Little Man, To leave our focs their slaves, They doubtless needed them to dig Their trenches and their graves.

But 'twas not easy, Little Mac, For us, worn out with toil, To meet such foemen as we met Upon the sacred soil.

They fought us fiercely, little Mac-Had naught to do but fight; Our guns were rusty with neglect-Our spades alone were bright.

And you remember, Little Mac, That famous "change of base;" . To us that fought that seven-days' fight It was no pleasant race.

You say 'twas "easy," Little Mac; But I remember well, Twas hard to see friends fall so fast

And leave them where they fell. And all who fought there, Little Mac, Will tell, and tell you true, That it's no easy thing to save Freedom and Slavery too. No, not so "easy," Little Mac, For I was there to see; And when you try that work again, Pray do not call on me.

If I must meet our fees again, Give me a leader true -Lincoln or Sherman, Grant or Banks, Or any man but you.

Fate of M'Clellan, if Elected. [A correspondent of the New York Evening Post eays:]

I was at Niagara Falls this week, and talked with many Secessionists on the Canada side, among whom were several of John Morgan's men, and some of Mosby's guerrillas. They talked very ficroely about our approaching Presidential election, and all concurred in the belief, that, if M'Clellan is elected, he will be governed if M'Clellan is elected, he will be governed strictly and literally by the Chicago platform. "If he is not," said one, (and all the rest assented,) "he will be a dead man within thirty days after his inauguration; the same state of the same sold at a Puble, Sale, on the farmof Henry Stuck, near Carlistorm, and same state of the farmof Henry Stuck, near Carlistorm, the farmof Henry Stuck for $130. I asked who would kill M'Clellan? "Three bundred thousand men would quarrel for the privilege of doing it, if only his life stood between us and success," was the prompt reply. I believe these men were perfectly sincere in their declaration, and, if M'Clellan d-d Abolitionists shall be shot if they in their declaration, and, if M'Clellan should be elected, and attempt to put down the Rebels, I would not give ten pence for his life.

A Nashville correspondent of the Miltenian relates the following instance of the verdancy of some misled men:

"As election approaches, political discu sions run high. The soldiers feel that it unnecessary. they have as deep an interest in the country as the politicians. I have known Hootland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beachelsi manner. I take great pirasure in tinus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of these, affected with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these littlers, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hootland's Bitters is intended to based the afflicted and is not a rum driot. nation and good machines are valuable as to their merits and worth only.

I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testly to the benefit be belief of time of to have received from any simple preparation, in the hepethat be may thus contribute to the benefit of theirs.

I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoodhand's German littlers," prepared by Br. C. M. Jackson of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted tomy friend Robert Shoemaker, Beq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for ensouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident-relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt in six months before, and had almost despaired of regalning. I therefore thank Ged and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

Some years since, being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very henderal results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeelbed by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to its great value. Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hooland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, keen troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised, by a friend, to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been materially benedicel. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.
