"THE UNION," established in 1814---Whole No. 2,693

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843---Whole No., 1,074

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY---
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

No Paper, next Tuesday.

We shall issue but one Star & Chronicle next week, and that will probably be on the day the news may be most important.

☞Next Thursday is the National Thanksgiving Day. Tell your neighbors of it—that is, if they do not "take the papers." It will be an appropriate time, in the enjoyment of so many blessings, to devise ways to aid the needy at home and the sufferers in hospitals, as well as the soldiers and sailors generally.

☞Last Sunday afternoon, while most of the family were absent, the dwelling of John Edleman, in West Buffaloe Tp, was consumed by fire, with all its contents. It was insured in Lycoming for only $150, so that the loss of the worthy family is serious at this time.

U. S. Crops this year.

Isaac Newton, the Commissioner of Agriculture, has issued his statement as to the amount of food crops, for man and beast, raised in the Loyal States the past year and this. Considering the number of farmers in the army and the drought last summer, the exhibit is gratifying.

All Hail, Illinois!

The people of Illinois know ABRAHAM LINCOLN through and through, and they first called him Honest Old Abe! They urged him for President, and gave him a small majority. After four years' trial, she sustains him by a triumphant maj. of 34,000—only four small counties to hear from. Gen. Richard J. Oglesby (Rep.) is chosen Governor, and all State officers of the same stripe. The Legislature has 18 Union maj. It will give Soldiers the right to vote if it can, and probably elect Gov. Richard Yates to the U.S. Senate in place of the notorious Richardson. The following Congressmen are elected:

At large—S.W.Moulton, Union gain
1st Dist.—John Wentworth, Union
2d—John F. Farnsworth, Union
3d—Elihu B. Washburne, Union
4th—Gen. A.C.Harding, Union gain
5th—Ebon C. Ingersoll, Union
6th—Burton C. Cook, Union
7th—H. P. H. Brownell, Union gain
8th—Shelby M. Cullom, Union gain
9th—Lewis W. Ross, Copperhead
10th—Anthony Thornton, Cop.
11th—Samuel S. Marshall, Cop.
12th—John Barker, Union gain
13th—Aod. J. Cuykendall, Union gain

Union, 11; Cop. 3; Un. gain, 6

Even "Egypt" is redeemed: Gen. Logan's old district gives Col. Kuykendall 1000 maj. Honors to the Prairie State!

☞H. Spyker Graham writes that his department in the Army gave over 2000 majority for Lincoln.

Geo. F. Guier writes that the 56th and 141st P.V., gave Lincoln 291 and M'C. 69 votes—227 maj. for Lincoln. The Division gave him over 1000 maj.

J. Calvin Leinbach, writes that 1st Brig., 1st Div., 9th A. C., gave Lincoln 1031 votes, M'Clellan 408—623 maj. for Abraham. The 51st P. V. gave Lincoln 253, M'Clellan 145—108 maj. for Abrahamus.

So far, the Army vote of Union county gives Old Abe 146 maj.

—We hardly need give Soldiers' votes in detail—they are almost uniformly for sustaining the Government. "Give us back our old Commander," does not refer to Gen. M'Clellan: the older soldiers who served under him are evidently most distrustful of him.

Remember the Navy.

Homes for Disabled Seamen and Marines, are being organized. To aid them, a National Sailors' Fair has been held in Boston with much profit. The celebrated mammoth ox, named "General Grant," had been presented by its owner to the President, but he made it over to the Fair, and also sent it the following telegraphic dispatch:

"WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—To the Managing Committee of the Sailors' Fair at Boston: Allow me to wish you great success. With the old fame of the navy, made brighter in the present war, you can not fail. I name none, lest I wrong others by omission. To all, from Rear-Admiral to honest Jack, I tender a nation's admiration and gratitude.

"A. LINCOLN."

☞The Williamsport Gazette has a lengthy defence of the Prothonotary of Lycoming county, in taking the responsibility of throwing out Soldiers' votes which he adjudged illegal. It fails, however, to quote any law which makes him a judge of that point. The law is clearly against him. Besides, if he can assume such prerogatives to himself, he may throw out a ward, borough, or township return if it do not conform to his views of regularity, and thus the power of declaring who are elected be wrested into hands not contemplated by law. The case should be carried to Court, and a Judicial decision had.

What says the Constitution?

Much was said during the late canvass about President Lincoln's gross violations of the Constitution, by men who had not a word to say against the Rebels. Some of those who prated most loudly never read the Constitution, some couldn't read it if they should try, some wouldn't know the Constitution from a Mormon Bible, while those more capable either never quoted or perverted its language. For the benefit of all such, we once more copy four brief extracts from the U. S. Constitution—the first two of which completely explode the Secession heresy of "State Rights," while the last two vindicate the few summary war powers at times exercised:

Art. I. Sec. x. 1. "No State shall enter into any treaty, alliance or confederation."

Art. VI. Sec. ii. "This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, SHALL BE THE SUPREME LAW OF THE LAND, anything in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

"Treason against the U.S. shall consist only in levying war against them OR in adhering to their enemies, giving them AID AND COMFORT."

"—Habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless when in cases of REBELLION or invasion the public safety may require it."

Keep these for future reference.

New York and Philadelphia.

These two cities were formerly rivals in toadying to the South, but the Rebellion has cured Philadelphia. The following is the vote of the two for President:

	Lincoln	M'Clellan	Maj
New York	36,783	73,674	36,941
Philadelphia	51,555	42,047	9,508

The soldiers will add about 2,000 to the maj for Lincoln in Philad. One half of M'Clellan's vote was cast by foreign born and misinformed men, and a large portion of it by foreign importers and holders of Rebel bonds. Much of the large business of New York is essentially alien—uninterested, pecuniarly, in the preservation of the Union. Philadelphia is much more American—hence the proud record of her vote compared with that of New York!

THE "CRADLE OF LIBERTY," the Old Bay State, gives 70,000 majority for Abraham and Andrew.

Daniel Webster's home (Marshfield) gave a unanimous vote of 227 for the Union ticket. Pembroke (same State) gave 204 votes, the same side, and none on the other.

Dea. John Phillips, (aged 104 years) of Sturbridge, and Dea. Joseph Merriam, (aged 98 years) of Grafton, Mass., voted for Lincoln, as they had for Washington.

And an old gentleman on Long Island, who twice voted for Washington, has lived to vote for Lincoln a second time.

Well done, Abraham!—Slow Geo. B.'s resignation accepted, on sight—no regret or vain compliment wasted—but Philip H. at once FILLS the vacancy. That "horse swapping" suits the honest, the earnest people and soldiers to a T.

☞Lincoln's maj. on the Home vote in Pennsylvania, is about 11,000, which the Soldiers will probably double.

Next Congress.

The Thirty-Ninth Congress comes in, Dec. 1865, unless sooner convened. States have mostly chosen Members of H.R., and it will probably stand as follows:

	ADMIN.	OPPOS
California	3	0
Connecticut	3	1
Delaware	1	0
Illinois	11	3
Indiana	9	3
Iowa	6	0
Kansas	1	0
Kentucky	3	6
Maine	6	0
Maryland	3	2
Massachusetts	10	0
Michigan	5	1
Minnesota	2	0
Missouri	7	2
Nevada	1	0
New Hampshire	3	0
New Jersey	2	3
New York	21	10
Ohio	17	2
Oregon	1	0
Pennsylvania	16	8
Rhode Island	2	0
Vermont	3	0
West Virginia	3	0
Wisconsin	5	1
	143	42

Tennessee, Arkansas, and Louisiana, may also send Members.

Each branch will be more than two to one in favor of the Administration.

The People having thus determined so overwhelmingly in favor of the President, it remains to be seen whether the Copperheads in the present body will longer try to delay the subjugation of Rebellion and its cause. The people will inquire—will watch—and punish!

New Federation.—Upper and Lower Canada, New Brunswick, Prince Edwards and Newfoundland are to be united as the "British North American Confederation." The Governor General and Upper chamber of legislation are appointed by the Crown; the Lower chamber is elected for a term of five years; Ottawa the capital. The Provinces have local powers much like our States. The population is about three millions, over one third of them Roman Catholics.

A bachelor in Erie, aged eighty-seven, was recently married to a blushing widow of between forty and fifty summers. Better late than never, we suppose.

SHERIDAN'S RIDE.

BY THOMAS BUCHANAN READ.

Up from the South, at break of day,
Bringing to Winchester fresh dismay,
The affrighted air with a shudder bore,
Like a herald in haste to the chieftain's door,
The terrible grumble, and rumble, and roar,
Telling that Sheridan twenty miles away.

And wilder still those billows of war
Thundered along the horizon's bar,
And louder yet into Winchester rolled
The roar of that red sea uncontrolled,
Making the blood of the listener cold
As he thought of the stake in that fiery fray,
And Sheridan twenty miles away.

But there is a road from Winchester town,
A good, broad high way, leading down:
And there, through the flush of the morning light,
A steed, as black as the steeds of night,
Was seen to pass with wild delight,
As if he knew the terrible need,
He stretched away with his utmost speed;
Hill rose and fell, but his heart was gay,
With Sheridan fifteen miles away.

Still sprang from those swift hoofs, thundering South,
The dust, like the smoke from the cannon's mouth,
Or the trail of a comet, sweeping faster and faster,
Foreboding to traitors the doom of disaster.
The heart of the steed and the heart of the master
Were beating like prisoners assaulting their walls,
Impatient to be where the battle-field calls;
Every nerve of the charger was strained to full play,
With Sheridan only ten miles away.

Under his spurning feet, the road
Like an arrow Alpine river flowed,
And the landscape sped away behind
Like an ocean flying before the wind;
And the steed, like a barque fed with furnace ire,
Swept on, with his wild eye full of fire.
But, lo! he is nearing his heart's desire—
He is snuffing the smoke of the roaring fray,
With Sheridan only five miles away.

The first that the General saw were the groups
Of stragglers, and then the retreating troops;
What was done—what to do—a glance told him both,
Then striking his spurs with a terrible oath,
He dashed down the line 'mid a storm of hurrahs,
And the wave of retreat checked its course there because
The sight of the master compelled it to pause.
With foam and with dust, the black charger was gray;
By the flash of his eye, and his red nostril's play,
He seemed to the whole great army to say:
"I have brought you Sheridan, all the way
From Winchester, down to save the day!"

Hurrah, hurrah, for Sheridan!
Hurrah, hurrah, for horse and man!
And when their statues are placed on high
Under the dome of the Union sky,
The American soldiers' temple of fame,
There with the glorious general's name
Be it said in letters both bold and bright:
"Here is the steed that saved the day,
By carrying Sheridan into the fight,
From Winchester—twenty miles away!"

The National Thanksgiving.

In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, AND'W G. CURTIN, Governor of the said Commonwealth—A Proclamation.

Whereas, it is the honored custom of Pennsylvania to set apart, on the recommendation of the Executive, a day for returning thanks to the Giver of all good, the Shepherd and Bishop of our souls: Now, therefore, I, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor as aforesaid, do recommend that the people throughout the Commonwealth observe THURSDAY, the twenty-fourth day of November, instant, as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty God,

For the gathered fruits of the earth;
For the continuance of health;
For the prosperity of industry;
For the preservation of good order and tranquility throughout our borders;

For the victories He has vouchsafed to us over armed traitors,

And for the manifold blessings which He has heaped upon us, unworthy;

And that they do, moreover, humbly beseech Him to renew and increase His merciful favor toward us during the year to come, so that, Rebellion being overthrown, peace may be restored to our distracted country, and, in every State, with grateful and loving accord, the incense of praise and thanksgiving may be offered by all the people unto His holy name.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State at Harrisburg, this 2d day of November, in the year of our Lord 1864, and of the Commonwealth the 89th.

By the Governor: ELI SLIFER,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Yes—so let it be!

From the result of this glorious civil victory, achieved as it was in the face of a powerful armed foe in the field, and in the midst of multitudinous conspirators, we may assuredly infer that GOD is with us, to uphold and bless, and that the great resolve, on the part of the National government, the State governments, and the people, to "break every yoke and let the oppressed go free," meets His approbation. We may now safely assure ourselves the work will go on to its consummation, and that, as the curse which tore our nation in twain shall be removed, it will flow together again. We see it already; for, by the vote of Tuesday, Maryland and Massachusetts, West Virginia and Vermont, Missouri and Pennsylvania, renewed their covenant of genuine and enduring fraternity. There is nothing now to breed discord between them, nothing to excite sectional jealousy or mutual antagonisms. Alike in social and domestic institutions, and one in interest, they will alike share in the blessings and benefits of one grand nationality, of which they are constituent parts.—Pittsburg Gazette.

Tremendous Hurricane in Asia.

A terrific hurricane occurred at Calcutta on the 5th of October. Of two hundred ships in the Hoogly, nineteen were totally lost, and of the remainder only twenty are reported seaworthy. One hundred and fifty ships were driven from their moorings, stranded and damaged. There was no severe loss of European lives, and most of the cargos will be saved. There was much excitement at Lloyd's in view of the heavy losses.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The following telegram received from Calcutta, details the destruction caused by the hurricane. One hundred and ten ships were wrecked, and twelve thousand persons drowned. The total loss is estimated at $250,000,000. The greater portion of the city was inundated, and the villages bordering on the river were washed away.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—A large number of packages intended for the army arrive at the Washington post office with their wrappers destroyed, or the address so mutilated that they can not be forwarded, and are therefore necessarily sent to the dead letter office. Persons sending such packages should write on a card the full address and fasten it securely to the contents of the package, inside the wrapper, and this will secure prompt delivery.

Before the Election,

In an address to citizens of Maryland who were rejoicing over the success of Emancipation in that State, President LINCOLN made the following noble remarks. After referring to the rumor that he would by force continue in office if defeated and also to a fear that the Chicago Convention (if M'Clellan was defeated) might re-assemble and declare a revolution, he said:

"I hope the good people will permit themselves to suffer no uneasiness on either point. I am struggling to maintain the government—not to overthrow it. I therefore say that, if I shall live, I shall remain President until the 4th of March next, and that, whoever shall be constitutionally elected in November, shall be duly installed as President on the 4th of March. During that interval, I shall do my utmost, that, whoever has to hold the helm for the next voyage, shall start with the best possible chance to save the ship. This is due to the people, both on principle, and under the Constitution; their constitutionally expressed will is the ultimate law for all. If they should deliberately resolve to have an immediate peace, even in loss of their country and liberties, I know no power or right to resist them. It is their own business, and they must do as they please with their own affairs.

I believe, however, they are still resolved to preserve their country and their liberty, and, in this office or out of it, I am resolved to stand by them. I may add, that, in this purpose to save the country and its liberties, no classes of people seem so nearly unanimous as the soldiers in the field and the sailors afloat. Do they not have the hardest of it? Who should quail when they do not? God bless the soldiers, and seamen, and all their brave commanders!"

GENERAL GRANT congratulates THE PRESIDENT on his Double Victory.

CITY POINT, Nov. 10, 1864.

Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

Enough now seems to be known to say who is to hold the reins of government for the next four years.

Congratulate the President for me for the double victory.

The election having passed off quietly, no bloodshed or riot throughout the land, is a victory worth more to the country than a battle won.

Rebeldom and Europe will construe it so.

U. S. GRANT,
Lieutenant General.

Latest News

The U. S. steamer Tulip exploded her boiler, on the Potomac, last Friday, by which fifty lives were lost.

Friday and Saturday last, Gen. Sheridan invited the Rebels to attack a part of our forces, about four miles south of Winchester, when our cavalry stopped them and drove them beyond Front Royal, the Rebels losing two guns and 150 prisoners.

Ten thousand prisoners are to be exchanged, this week, at Savannah. This is a sign that Rebel barbarities may not long continue, but that they will give "man for man" as long as there are any to exchange.

Reports of M'Clellan's election caused much rejoicing in Richmond, but the final news of Lincoln's success caused great depression among all classes, although the Rebel leaders try to pretend (for effect) to be gratified.

NORFOLK, Nov. 11.—Eight hundred deserters from the Rebels have come over since election. They say the Rebels in Congress and out of it, earnestly believed M'Clellan would be elected, and there is a great gloom over Richmond since his defeat is known.

The question of enlisting Slaves into the Rebel army, is creating great, bitter excitement. Some say it is necessary to make them fight, and give them their liberty, while others denounce it as more inconsistent than the course of the Abolition Yankees. State sovreignty also assumes a new shape—Georgia and North Carolina threaten to confer with the United States for terms of peace, and claim that as sovreign States they have that right.

Sherman's army now excites much interest. One report is that he has left Atlanta, and struck for Mobile, Charleston, or Savannah. It is 171 miles from Atlanta to Augusta—137 from Augusta to Charleston—308 miles in all. His course excites great speculation.

The Rebels under Hood are upon the Tennessee, and those from beyond the Mississippi are trying to join him. Gen. Thomas is the Union commander in charge of the Chattanooga region.

Gen. Canby, while standing on a gunboat, was shot by a guerrilla, and it is feared is mortally wounded.

Gen. Butler spent a few days in New York, about Election time, visiting the Rebels there, but has now returned to the works before Petersburg.

It is reported that Gen. Early has retreated to Lynchburg, and it is thought Sheridan may now reinforce Grant with part of his army.

P.S. Sheridan inflicted another small whipping upon Early in his retreat.

Gold in New York fell to 2.14 and Flour to 11.75, on receipt of report that Sherman had reached Augusta in Georgia!

Three years ago, Gen. M'Clellan banished the Hutchisons from his camp, for singing noble and inspiring songs (which the men loved) because they were hostile to slavery. "John Brown's soul is marching on," is now common in the Army of the Potomac. And "who will care for Georgey now," since both the Home vote and the Army have condemned him?
