"When the Boys come Home."

There's a happy time coming When the boys come home, There's a glothus day coming When the boys come home. We will end the dreadful story, Of this treason dark and gory, In a sun-burst of glory When the boys come home.

The day will seem brighter When the boys come home, Ver our hearts will be lighter When the boys come home. Wives and sweet-hearts will press them In their arms, and caress them, And pray God to bless them, When the boys come home.

The thinned ranks will be the proudest When the boys come home, And their cheer will ring the londest When the boys come home. The full ranks will be shattered. And the bright arms will be battered, And the battle standard tattered, When the boys come home.

Their bayonets may be rusty When the boys come home, And their uniforms dusty When the boys come home ; But all shall see the traces Of Battle's royal graces In the brown and bearded faces When the boys come home.

Car love shall go to greet them When the boys come home, To bless them and to greet them When the boys come home. And the fame of their endeavor Time and change shall not dissever From the nation's heart for ever When the boys come home.

"NO TIME TO SEND FOR A WHITE MAN."-A Nashville correspondent of the Cincinnati papers relates the following good thing :

"During the skirmish in the reconnoissance made by Gen. Stedman on our left, a couple of soldiers of the colored brigade esme upon three tebs whose guns were unloaded, and demanded their surrender. One of the Johnnies indignantly refused COAL, to surrender to a 'nigger.' 'Betry sorry, massa,' said Sambo, bringing his piece to a 'ready ;' 'but we's in a great burry, and bain't got no time to eend for a white man.' The ominous click that accompanied this temark, brought the seion of chivalty to time, and he was brought in, crying, and swearing all the way that bis father would kill him if be ever beard that he had surrendered to a nigger."

IGNORANCE .- A Union Chaplain in Arkansas asked the woman of the shanty if there were any Presbyterians in those guessed not-her busband hadn't killed them some sort of game]

Eld. David Jones, near one hundred years ago, inquired of an old New Yorker where he could find some Baptists ? The aged citizen shook his head-"he'd lived there all his born days, but never heard of anybody following that occupation."

When the Cholera was raging along the Mississippi, a colporteur inquired of a poor white family if they ever had the Gupel there? The head of the house said "he 'lowed not-but they had it awfully down at New Orleans !"

Yes, ready to die for it, all the readier, perhaps, because dying for anything of the sort's gone out of fashion.

The Marriage Rite, righteous.

A right-down cynic, named Writener, from Wrightstown, Wright county (out West,) a millwright by trade, is perhaps upright enough by nature, but is most sorighteously wry-necked about women. Writing about woman's rights and the rite of matrimony, he writeth thus : "It is so seldom ladies do write what is right about that rite, that it may be written as never rightly done." If this writing be not right, then Writener is all wrong.
